On Wynkoop List

Although she received seven proposals of marriage and a diamond ring from Earle Wynkoop, husband of the Chicago operating table murder victim, Margaret McHale (above) now knows that she was merely No. 52 on his list of telephone numbers. Miss McHale did not know Wynkoop was a married man.

SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT

Claude C. Smith, former councilman from the second ward, who has been quite ill for several days is now some better. Mr. Smith has been bedfast for several days but is now somewhat better but still in serious condition and his illness has given the family a great deal of apprehension. The many friends of Mr. Smith will regret to learn of his illness and trust that he may soon be able to rally from the effects of his illness and be restored to his former good health. Mr. Smith was taken ill at Seward where he is engaged with the state highway department. Mrs. Smith and Wave were out to Seward to look after his care.

HERE FROM TEXAS

Charles A. Richey, prominent contractor of Dallas, Texas, arrived in the city Saturday evening to enjoy a visit here with his brother, E. J. Richey and family and the many old time friends. Mr. Richey grew to manhood in this city and later moved to Louisville where he made his home for a great many years, organizing the Lyman-Richey sand and gravel company and which he operated for a long period of years. Disposing of his Nebraska interests Mr. Richey moved to the south and where he has been very successful in the contracting business. Mr. Richey enjoyed meeting many of the old time friends and acquaintances of his boyhood days and the old friends at Louisville.

VISIT AT BLAIR

Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Troy were at Blair Monday where they visited at the Crowell Memorial Home, taking with them the donations of fruit and vegetables that had been received at the fall festival held at the church by the Epworth League and the Sunday school.

While at the home Rev. and Mrs. Troy had a very pleasant visit with Mrs. Elizabeth Schwab, former Plattsmouth resident, who is feeling very well despite her age and enjoying very much the comforts of the fine home. Mrs. Schwab desires to be remembered to the old time friends in this community where she was a resident for so many years.

TO PLAY DECEMBER 15TH

The lovers of basketball will be pleased to learn that the first game of the 1933-34 season of the Plattmers will open in this city on Friday, December 15th. Coach Fred Rotherth has dated the North high team of Omaha for the opening game.

It had not been expected to start the season until December the 20th, but this opportunity was the only one offered to secure the North game and the Vikings accordingly will visit this city to battle the Plattmers.

Practice is now being held each day by Coach Rotherth and the large squad being worked out to determine the members of the playing squad for the coming season.

AVOCA RECOVERS FUNDS

The village of Avoca has received $1,333 from the Bank of Avoca, which closed its doors several months ago. This was a part of the municipal funds that were kept on deposit at this bank and was awarded to the village by a recent court decision. The town board had commenced an action against the bank and the receivers of the institution and with the result that the court found for the plaintiff city. The money will be expended in paying outstanding obligations of the village that have accumulated while the funds were tied up in the bank.

VISIT RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Studer and Mrs. Lucy Slyeener, of Mason City, Iowa, were here Monday and Tuesday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ferris, south of this city. Mr. Studer and Mrs. Slyeener are brother and sister of Mrs. Ferris and the occasion of their visit was a most pleasant one for all of the family. After the visit here the party continued Tuesday to Sioux City, Iowa, where they are to visit with another brother.

TO VISIT AT CHAPMAN

From Wednesday's Daily
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kraeger and family departed today for Chapman, Nebraska, where they expect to visit over the Thanksgiving day. They will enjoy a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Stewart, parents of Mr. Kraeger and to have a real old fashioned family dinner party on the farm. They stopped in Omaha for a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Arion Lewis.

PLATTSMOUTH FIRM MUSIC PROGRAM

The combined glee clubs of the high school will present a miscellaneous program at the high school on the evening of December 19th. A special feature of this program will be the presentation of the Xmas cantata by 100 high school voices. Miss Williams is making special preparation for this program and it will be of general interest to the music lovers of Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda, Jr., and little daughter, of Omaha, were here Sunday to enjoy a visit with Mr. Janda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda and the other relatives and friends.

PASSES BAR EXAMINATION

Charles R. Shopp of Imperial, Nebraska was sworn into the Nebraska bar Nov. 22, having successfully passed the state bar examinations which were held at Lincoln.

Mr. Shopp grew to young manhood south of Plattsmouth and has many friends here who will be happy to hear of his new success. He expects to begin practicing law in the west soon. He and his wife, formerly Miss Adale Fitzpatrick of Murray, spent a few days visiting Mrs. Shopp's mother, Mrs. George E. Fitzpatrick who is very critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed J. Boedeker near Weeping Water. Mrs. Fitzpatrick's home is at Imperial but spent the past summer visiting her daughter and family.

Pencil tablets, history paper and typewriter paper that will bear the quality test, at the Bates Book Store.
