AID FOR TENANT FARMERS

Searl S. Davis, one of the inspectors for the corn and hog loan administration in Cass county, states that special rulings have been made that will aid the tenant farmers who have heretofore been unable to participate in the benefits of the act. The tenant farmer can now by signing the hog curtailment program for 1934 be able to secure loans on his corn regardless of whether the land owner signs the corn curtailment program or not. This will be a real benefit to many and relieve the situation greatly for the tenant farmers.

John P. Shipley Long Time Resident of State

Deceased Pioneer Came Here at the Age of Nine Years in 1854—Dies at Rock Bluffs.

The passing of John E. Shipley, which occurred on Monday night at the home of the family in Rock Bluffs, removed one of the early residents of the eastern portion of Nebraska and whose residence had been since childhood in Washington, Sarpy, Douglas and Cass counties.

The deceased was born in the state of Ohio in 1845 and when a child of nine years he was brought west by his parents, members of the Mormon colony that was moving to the promised land of Utah, but the Shipley family located at Florence, Nebraska, where they made their home for a number of years.

Mr. Shipley spent his time in farming and had been located in a number of places in this part of the state. He was twice married, the first wife, formerly Miss Mary Whitse, passing away many years ago and leaving two sons and one daughter, Mrs. W. P. Murphy of Tecklow, Wyoming; Harry Shipley of Rock Bluffs; Robert Shipley of La Platte.

In later years Mr. Shipley was married to Miss Nellie Coates, who survives his passing, being now in her 63rd year. The children of the second marriage surviving are Mrs. Lula Holliday, Pine Creek, Wyoming; Mrs. Walter Purlong, Rock Bluffs; William Shipley, Bellevue and Ernest Shipley, La Platte.

The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Bellevue.

Friends wishing to take a farewell may call at the Streight funeral home on Oak street up to 12 noon Thursday.

FIND DISAPPEARANCE CLUE

Chicago.—A pencilled note gave a clue to the missing Albert R. Hammel, driver for the Brinks Express company, who disappeared along with $29,000 from one of the company's armored trucks in the loop. The note identified by Hammel's friends as written in his hand merely said he had stepped out for a few moments. The note was located in the truck.

Investigators were unable to determine if Hammel had been kidnapped by men who took the money. His employers said he had been with the company since March and was under bond. Hammel's wife became hysterical when informed of her husband's disappearance, expressed belief he had been abducted and said her husband was a sober, hard-working man. He was subject to dizzy spells, she added, and might have collapsed somewhere when attacked by one of them. A guard was left at her home.

MAY DEPORT JAP 'PRINCE'

Vermillion, S. D.—Despite reports that steps were planned to initiate deportation proceedings against Yukichi Yoshida, self-styled "Japanese prince," State's Attorney Norman Jaquith said a preliminary hearing on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon would be held Wednesday as planned. Yukichi, held as a result of the shooting of Vernon McCann in a University of South Dakota classroom last week, will be surrendered to federal authorities if they desire to deport him, Jaquith state. The attorney for Yukichi, said insanity would be the defense urged.

CHECKS SENT TO WOOL MEN

Kansas City.—Announcement was made that checks totaling $232,034 had been sent to members of the Midwest Wool Marketing association, a wool marketing co-operative organized under government supervision in 1930. W. Marshall Ross, Gibson, Neb., ranchman and president of the association, said the organization had marketed an average of 2 1/2 million pounds of wool yearly since its organization. The co-operative operates on a nonprofit basis.

The checks mailed members is in addition to an advance of $431,325 which they received at sharing time last spring. The wool is graded and stored in warehouses here and at St. Louis until sold to woolen mills.

STEGE TO HEAD A MAN HUNT

Chicago.—Capt. John Stege, grizzled veteran of the Chicago police department, was placed in charge of a detail of fifty men and ordered to bring in the members of the united Dillinger and Touhy gangs. The gunmen are sought principally for the slaying of Sergeant William Shanley, who was shot to death in their garage rendezvous last week, but are also wanted for the murder of an Ohio sheriff and a series of bank robberies. One of their number, John Hamilton, has been named by witnesses as Shanley's slayer. The forces of Roger Touhy and John Dillinger, most of the latter escaped convicts from the India penitentiary, recently combined, police said.

ASKS A CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Detroit.—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower, said in a speech that the new deal was born at Bethlehem 1933 years ago and that its principles, based on the doctrine of charity, run counter to "the diabolical philosophy of selfishness," which he said has dominated mankind. Father Coughlin said this Christmas season, because of the new deal which he called also "The Christian deal," is "truly a season of peace" after four years of depression. He warned that without a permanent prevalence of the Christmas spirit, without "Christ's teachings made practice, our new deal is a rainbow, a mirage."

Thirty CWA Projects in the County Now

Payroll for the Past Week Shows $3,588.16 Paid Out Over Cass County to 248 Men.

Figures compiled from the payrolls at the office of County Clerk George R. Sayles, shows that in the week from December 8th to 14th, that there were 248 men employed in Cass county on CWA work with the amount of $3,588.16 paid out to the men for their services.

The men are engaged in some thirty projects located in all sections of the county and have for the past several weeks furnished the means of employment to a large number, although the force now is slightly less than that of the first weeks of the CWA work.

In Plattsmouth and immediate territory, there are eight projects that are still active and which furnished in the last week employment to some 134 men in the various lines of activity and who drew the sum of $1,884.86 for their services during that time.

The closing down of the greater part of the activities on the river improvement work have released a large number of the men who were engaged there and the local residents are now a part of the problem of the employment agencies to try and place in some line of activity for the winter season that they may be self-sustaining.

HERE FROM DAKOTA

From Monday's Daily This morning Leland Briggs, of Winner, South Dakota, arrived in the city to pay a short visit to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Briggs. Mr. Briggs, who is engaged in the automobile business at Winner, is on his way home from Detroit where he was called to secure a car and truck which he is taking home. He found snow quite heavy between Detroit and Chicago and also fog and some rain west from Chicago into Iowa. After a visit here at the Briggs and Hartwick homes Mr. Briggs will continue on to his home.

Mrs. E. T. Younker, Former Resident, Passes On

Well Known Resident of This Community for Many Years Dies at Omaha Hospital.

Funeral services for Mrs. E. T. Younker were held in the Christian church at Glenwood with the Rev. Martin H. Keast, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge.

Music for the service was furnished by Mrs. Roy Lewis, Mrs. Orley Altekarse, Guy Mayberry and Tom White, with Ruth Miller at the piano.

The large number who assembled to pay tribute to the memory of Mrs. Younker bespoke the esteem in which she was held in the community. The members of the Rebekah lodge, in which she had long been an active member, attended the services in a body.

The body was laid to rest in the Glenwood cemetery, where the beautiful ritualistic service of the Rebekah lodge was given by the officers at the open grave.

OUR CHRISTMAS WISH FOR YOU

1933 --Happy Associations --Delightful Surprises --Making Others Happy

The joy of giving is not so much in receiving as in giving, not necessarily the giving of gifts, but the acts which make others happy, the satisfaction of unselfish service to some one in need, the happy little surprises you did not expect and the opportunity to associate with loved ones and friends. Such an experience will add to one's life, not only for the holidays, but for days to come. So we wish you all of these and more.

You have been good to us and we want you to know that we appreciate it.

The past year might have been much better, certainly it could have been worse. All in all we find a lot to be thankful for, chief of which is the loyalty of those patrons who have remained with us year in and year out and the new friends we have been privileged to make. You have all been good to us and we want you to know that we appreciate it. We'll do our best to give tangible expressions of this appreciation from day to day as the calendar leaves of the New Year are turned.
