Sophomore Minstrels at High School

Features Convocation Period of High School Thursday Afternoon—Fine Program.

From Friday's Daily
Another success in Plattsmouth high school convocation programs was scored yesterday when the Sophomore Minstrels were presented under the auspices of the class of 1936. The idea of presenting a minstrel with the traditional chorus, end-men, inter-locutor, specialty numbers and band, was a novelty which was most enthusiastically received by the student body. Arthur Wurga and Floyd McCarty were the black-face end-men and produced a list of amusing jokes on high school students, with the assistance of the inter-locutor, Stephen Davis. When the curtain went up on the opening chorus, the following appeared in the line in addition to those already mentioned: Mr. George Jaeger, violinist, Mrs. Robert Walling, pianist, Wilda Johnson, Marjorie Fitch, Betty Bulin, and Aimee Jane Thomas of the class, Mrs. Margaret Hirz, soloist and Edward Hadraba, class president. In the background furnishing the music was Herbert Minor's orchestra, composed of Stuart Porter, Kenneth Armstrong, Wm. Henriksen, Don Cotner, Arthur Kopp, Herbert Minor, and Aulton Rolland.

The clever program, interspersed with music and chorus numbers and a list of anecdotes was widely commented upon as one of the best convocation programs this year. Mr. George Jaeger presented two beautiful violin solos, with Mrs. Robert Walling as accompanist. The student body has wanted to hear him all year and were delighted that the sophomores were able to persuade him to come from his busy field of activity.

"An Easter Parade" was a pleasing chorus and orchestra number. Mrs. Margaret Hirz, ever popular singer of present day song hits, was called upon by the student body for three numbers. Her accompaniment was played by Glen Woodbury. As a closing selection, the orchestra played a special arrangement of "Mood Indigo," with the four sophomore harmonizers singing the chorus. This quartet was composed of Wilda Johnson, Marjorie Fitch, Betty Bulin, and Aimee Jane Thomas.

The committee in charge of arrangements for this program was composed of Stephen Davis, chairman; Edward Hadraba, president; Betty Bulin, Joe Hendrix, Donald Wurga, Floyd McCarty, and Mr. Russell Reeder, class sponsor. This committee had been hard at work on this program for the past three weeks and the response which they received from the student body was ample evidence of the success of their work.

Gering Has the Highest Tax Rate in Entire State

Harrisburg Ranks as the Lowest in State—Plattsmouth Fifth in Total in State.

From Thursday's Daily
Gering today was announced by State Tax Commissioner Smith as having supplanted Rushville as the Nebraska county seat with the highest total tax per dollar valuation in the state.

Harrisburg, in Banner county, just south of Gering, retained honors as the county seat with the lowest tax on the basis of 1933 figures just compiled, but Hayes Center displaced Theford as the county seat with the lowest tax of those making a town levy.

Gering's total tax on each one thousand dollars valuation was $62.50, an increase from $50.60 in 1932. Fullerton, which had the second highest tax in 1932 with $51.81, increased its figure to $59.76 to remain second high. Clay Center was third with a tax of $56.89 per one thousand dollars valuation, and North Platte, whose $50.75 in 1932 was third high, dropped to fourth last year with a tax of $56.44.

Plattsmouth has a total tax rate per thousand on valuation of $51.80 according to the figures from the office of the tax commissioner.

Scotts Bluff High.
Harrisburg and Arthur, neither of which makes town levies, were the low county seat towns on totals both years, Harrisburg reporting a total of $17, and Arthur $19.92 for 1933.

Scotts Bluff county had the highest strictly county government tax per one thousand dollars valuation both years and Gering's school tax of $30 per one thousand dollars valuation last year gave it the high school tax. Valentine had been high on schools the preceding year. Fullerton's city tax of $30.13 per one thousand dollar valuation topped the municipal figures last year with Clay Center second at $28.10.

Burt County First Rank.
Burt county, which had the third lowest strictly county levy in 1932, moved into first rank last year but cutting its levy for county purposes to $1.71 on one thousand dollar valuation. Seward county kept second low county levy honors at $1.75 and Cuming moved from fourth to third by cutting its figure from $1.98 to $1.90.

Center had the lowest school tax last year, cutting from $5.80 to $2.40 per one thousand dollar valuation.

Hayes Center cut its municipal tax from $5 to $2 to show the lowest city tax and Burwell, keeping its figure at $4.50 moved from third to second, changing places with Falls City, whose total raised from $3.50 to $4.60.

Mynard Club Plans to Give a Minstrel Show

Raymond Cook as Director of Forthcoming Entertainment at the Community Building.

Lovers of clean minstrels that is chock full of snappy harmony and side-splitting jokes are to be given an opportunity to enjoy a treat of this kind as rehearsals are now in progress for the Mynard Minstrels of 1934, to be given by the Mynard Community club at their hall in Mynard on the evenings of February 15 and 16.

The committee having the arrangements in charge is composed of Raymond Cook, Vivian Hild, Ogla Wiles and Lawrence Leonard, whose ability to present the finest entertainment has so well been demonstrated on numerous previous occasions. That Raymond Cook is directing the minstrel is positive assurance of its success as an entertaining and laugh provoking show for his ability as a past master of minstrels is well established in this part of the state.

There will be a mixed chorus of ten voices composed of Peggy Hirz and Grace Livingston, sopranos; Lawrence Leonard, Arthur Hild and Townner Livingston, tenors; Lillian Neilson and Vivian Hild, contraltos and Glen Kraeger, Richard Spangler and Henry Hild, basses.

This chorus will be heard in one of the finest collection of minstrel songs offered from a local stage. There will be solos by Peg Hirz, whose beautiful voice has so often pleased audiences in this community, as well as solos by Dick Livingston, Lawrence Leonard, Richard Spangler and Ray Bourne. As a minstrel show is not complete without an old fashioned trombone "smear," Sherman Cole, one of the blackface comedians, will operate the slip-horn in that capacity.

Two of the highlights of the minstrel are the ladies quartette and the male quartette. Lovers of close harmony have a treat in store for them in the numbers the ladies quartette will render while those who prefer the "Hot-cha" songs will be more than pleased with the male quartette numbers.

The committee was fortunate in securing Eddie Wehrbein, talented young man of this community, as inter-locutor. The fun-makers of the show were chosen from those who have so ably demonstrated their ability along this line on numerous other occasions and the program will list Ray Bourne, Dick Livingston, Sherman Cole and Homer Spangler.

The Oleo, or second part of the show, will feature the now famous blackface team of Bennett & Cook, those two black clouds of hilarity, who will feature a specialty which they call "Two Big Pigs," absolutely guaranteed to be a riot. Several other specialties will be featured including fifteen minutes of "Devoe's Astounding Magic," which always captivates the attention of the audience.

One of the interesting features of the show is that the admission is so very reasonable, it being held down to 25c for adults and 10c for children 12 years of age or under, for reserved seats. Because of the widespread interest in the Mynard Minstrel Show the management suggests the public secure reserved seats in advance. These may be secured from the ticket committee or at Mauzy's drug store.

The public is always welcome at Mynard and as their club has made extensive improvements, necessitating considerable outlay of money, they are taking this means of raising funds with which to meet their obligations and it is hoped the public will respond by taking advantage of an evening of entertainment, guaranteed to please.

THE TREE

The tree that never had to fight For sun and sky and air and light, And always got its share of rain, That stood out in the open plain, Never became a Forest King, But lived and died a scrubby thing, The man who never had to toil, Who never had to win his share Of sun and sky and light and air, Never became a manly man, But lived and died as he began, The stronger wind, the rougher trees, The further sky, the greater length; The more the storm the more the strength;

By sun and cold, by rain and snows, In tree or man good timber grows, Where thickest stands the forest growth We find the patriarchs of both, And they hold converse with the stars Whose broken branches show the scars Of many winds and much strife— This is the common law of life. —Selected.
