

AVOCA NEWS

The storm of last Saturday blew the roof from the barn of Gust Ruge a short distance southeast of town.

George Trook and Earl Morley were over to Nebraska City last Tuesday where they were looking after some business matters.

O. D. Straub and wife and Max Straub and wife were enjoying a visit with friends and relatives in Nebraska City on last Sunday.

Arthur Everett of Weeping Water, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Everett, was visiting for a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Everett of Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. White of Syracuse were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smallfoot, all enjoying their visit very much.

A team of kiltball players of Weeping Water were here and enjoyed a game with the Avoca team and sure they had a lot of fun and both made some very high scores.

Charles Findley, the grocer, was compelled to go to Weeping Water to get the necessary materials for the repairing of his auto top following the hail storm which literally riddled the top last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luck, of Beatrice, where Mr. Luck is a clerk in the postoffice, were visiting over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Straub.

Albert and Henry Dankliff were over to Omaha on last Monday night where they enjoyed the den show which is being staged by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben and the boys say it sure was a good show.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt were over to Beaver Crossing where lives a sister, taking with them Mrs. L. J. Marquardt where they all visited for the day Sunday and where Mrs. L. J. Marquardt is remaining for a visit for the week.

The hail which accompanied the very nice rain on last Saturday evening did a good deal of damage, as a number of windows and some auto tops were badly broken and damaged by the storm and the hail was heavy and very large pieces of ice did much damage.

Just as we drew up to the elevator at Avoca on our last trip, a cherry voice cried out, "Do you want some news." Of course we said yes. Then came the merry reply, "Your tire is flat." However after giving us a good budget of news, Fred and Earl pumped the tire up again. Thanks boys.

Dr. J. W. Brendel and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marquardt were over to Omaha last Sunday where they were visiting at the home of Albert Cockel and wife where a very pleasant visit was had and on their return they were accompanied by Master John Cockel who is spending the week with his aunt and uncle, Dr. Brendel and wife.

Had a Pleasant Day.
On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman entertained at their home and had as their guests for the occasion the parents of Mrs. Freeman, Edward Midkiff and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dye, the latter from east of Union, Oscar Midkiff and family and in the afternoon Ed Freeman and wife, parents of Earl came bringing a freezer of home made ice cream which sure was gladly received.

Suffers Severe Accident.
While John Wolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wolph was about where they were making hay he in some way received a wound in one of his foot when the time of a fork ran through the foot, causing an ugly wound and much pain. Dr. J. W. Brendel treated the young lad and had to give the patient a shot of serum to prevent lockjaw as the wound was very severe. He is however getting along fairly well at this time.

Has Excellent Garden.
B. C. Marquardt who was ever active in business during his career in the merchandising game, following his retirement from business has had to have something to occupy his time, mind and energy and so has one of the very finest gardens in this vicinity not withstanding the excessively dry weather he has a very fine garden not only of vegetables but as well of beautiful and rare flowers.

Entertained For Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kunz entertained last Sunday for the day and dinner and had a merry crowd present who enjoyed the day and the dinner very much. There were there for the occasion, Misses Lydia and Sylvia Kilbourne of Weeping Water.

Mail Changed Time.
On July 1st there will be a change in the time of the arrival of the mails at Avoca, in the morning the mail will arrive at 8:15 which will allow the rural carrier to start on his trip earlier and thus serve the patrons at an earlier date as well, while the afternoon mail will arrive at five-thirty.

Band Concert for Saturday.
It has been arranged that there will be held during the summer, band concerts on each Saturday night, beginning with this week, June 30th, and which should, as it has elsewhere, attract many to town who as well as having business to do are desiring of hearing good music.

Be Here for Picnic.
In line with the practice of the people of Avoca this year there will be no exception, they will hold the Fourth of July celebration the evening of the second on the streets of Avoca, and will have a good time. This will be a mecca for the candidates for the various offices and no doubt but they will take advantage to come and see all the people for they will be here.

Attend Scrubby Club Play.
Accompanied by the pastor, the Rev. Fred W. Hall, the young people's Society of the Congregational church were over to Weeping Water on last Sunday where they enjoyed the presentation of the play which has been written by the Rev. Lewis Wilson, pastor of the Weeping Water Congregational church and which was presented under his direction by the members of the "Scrubby Club" the young peoples society of the Weeping Water church.

Family Reunion.
Last Sunday a most enjoyable family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. True Harmon, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harmon and family, who had driven in from Shelton, Neb. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harmon, Elton, Helen, Olive, Harmon Stock and little daughter, Vannda, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harmon and Duane, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Garnett, Madge, Greth and Mr. Hall of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Johnson, Norton, Neal, Laurence, Mildred, Arline, Val and Ramona, Mrs. Oliver Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smoots of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ruge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Franzen, Mr. and Mrs. True Harmon and Don.

Had Excellent Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mickle and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mickle, entertained at their home Sunday for dinner. Later in the afternoon ice cream and cake was served, and a very enjoyable time was had by all. Guests were: Mrs. Carey, Mrs. Nutzman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carsten and Calvin, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stih, Mrs. Martha Ruge and Ruth, Mrs. Ed Morley, Mary and Julia, Jean Ruge, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ruge and Robert, Corinne Hallstrom, Victoria Vincent and Frances Drury.

Much Wheat Received.
During the recent week there has been received at the Avoca elevator a good quantity of new wheat and it is yielding all the way from nine bushels to twenty-five bushels per acre, and the average is not over 12 bushels in this neighborhood.

Celebrated Thirty-fifth Anniversary.
At the home of E. R. Straub was held a gathering in honor of the passing of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary at which were gathered some sixty of their friends and relatives who had gathered to do them honor and to show the kindly respect in which they were held by their friends. A basket dinner was held and which was greatly enjoyed by all in attendance. There were friends and relatives there from Beatrice, Nebraska City and Lincoln.

Close Study Year.
The Golden Rod Study club of Myard closed a very pleasant and successful year's work at the home of Mrs. Henry Hill, June 21st, with Mrs. C. L. Wiles associate hostess and Mrs. Ida Cole leader of a very enjoyable program.

Club Opened its Course of Study.
The Club opened its course of study and social meetings last September at the home of Mrs. Howard Wiles with Miss Grace Livingston as president and Mrs. Myron Wiles as secretary.

We had a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Roy Cole when we played childrens games and donated fruits and vegetables to the needy. We had a Valentine party at Community Hall at Myard for our families, and one all day meeting when we elected officers as follows for the coming year: Mrs. Sherman Cole, president and Mrs. Everett Spangler as secretary.

We worked in conjunction with Community club and gave flowers to our sick members.

We were delighted to enroll several new members during the year.

FILES FOR REPRESENTATIVE
From Wednesday's Daily
Joe Rudolph, one of the well known and popular residents of Eagle, was in the city today and while here was a caller at the office of the county clerk filing his name as a candidate for the republican nomination for representative from the sixth district.

The new candidate is well known to the voters and expects in a short time to have his platform ready to announce to the voters. Mr. Rudolph is a native son of the community where he lives and has largely been identified with the business interests of Eagle and vicinity. Mr. Rudolph expects to make a vigorous campaign for the office he seeks.

VISITING IN THE CITY
Mrs. Elizabeth Streight, one of the pioneer residents of Plattsmouth, who is now in her nineties, is here to enjoy a visit with her son, William J. Streight and the old time friends. Mrs. Streight has been spending the winter at Lincoln with her granddaughter, Mrs. Evi Spier and who motored with her grandmother to this city for a visit with her father.

Mrs. Streight has made her home in Plattsmouth since the fifties and is without doubt the oldest continuous resident of the city.

Golf Tournament Closes with Picnic

J. W. Holmes and E. H. Schulhof
Winners of Boggy Honors—
Other Contests Featured.

From Tuesday's Daily
The golf boggy tournament which has been in progress since Friday, closed last evening at the Elks country club in one of the finest social features of the summer season.

The winners of the boggy was announced and the honors were shared by J. W. Holmes and E. H. Schulhof, two of the veteran members of the club.

The tournament was participated in by a large number of the golfers, many of these shooting themselves out of the contest in the opening.

Last evening there were several contests staged at the course and which attracted many contestants. In the closest ball of No. 2 green, E. A. Wurl was the winner and in that on No. 6, Dr. R. P. Westover proved the most successful.

The longest drive was won by Dr. R. P. Westover. In the ladies putting contest there was a very spirited showing and ties were scored repeatedly, the event being finally won by Mrs. Milford B. Bates, while in the men's contest R. W. Knorr was an easy winner.

The members of the group gathered around the large tables to enjoy their picnic suppers and the committee in charge had provided a barrel of ice cold lemonade and plenty of fine ice cream to add to the pleasures of the day.
