Corn-Hog Contracts.

The first bunch of corn-hog contracts were shipped to Washington from Cass county one day last week. The Early Payment contracts are being sent first in bunches of 200. About 400 contracts have already been sent and the remaining contracts are being sent as fast as possible. The county allotment committee has completed the work of adjusting the contracts to meet the county quota and the work remaining in the office consists of stamping the code and serial numbers, typing acres. Inall cases the landlord and ern problems to play the most importhe adjusted figures, etc.
