

Wabash News

Joseph Knecht of South Bend was a visitor in Wabash last Monday, bringing a load of gasoline for the Farmers Elevator company. Mrs. Ernest Umhard of Eagle was visiting with friends in Wabash on last Sunday, driving over from the home town in their auto for the occasion. Mrs. Ralph Richards was a visitor in Murdock for a short time on last Thursday where she was visiting with friends and as well doing some shopping. The next meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Wabash church has been arranged to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ruetter, the date being for July 11th. Warren Wickham was over to Omaha on last Monday where he was securing some truck repairs, as he is putting his truck in perfect condition for the next road building job which may come this way. While in Lincoln a few days ago Eugene Colbert and family went to see Grover Otto who has been very poorly, receiving treatment and stopping at an hotel while taking treatment. It is hoped that he will soon be in better health. Eugene Colbert and wife with their daughter, Agatha, were over to Lincoln on Tuesday of this week where they went to look after some shopping and at the same time were visiting with relatives and friends while there. Mr. Colbert has just completed the harvesting of his wheat crop and was well pleased with the returns, being much in excess of what he was expecting. Joseph V. Brandt of Union, a farmer for many years, formerly a teacher in the schools of Otoe county, but being engaged in farming more recently and a candidate on the republican ticket for nomination for the position of register of deeds was in Wabash and was meeting with the people, furthering his candidacy for nomination to the position of candidate for recorder. Henry H. Gerbeling has an exceptionally fine piece of corn, having planted it very early and gave it good care, it has now grown outside the ability of the cultivators to give it any more work. Were we in that other age when we could take a single shovel plow or a bull tongue with a short single tree and go through it the last time it could be benefited, but those times are gone. The Exodus of Israel. At Kearney the minister of one of the church of that place had written a play of the deliverance of the Israelites from the bondage of Egypt, and there being a natural amphitheater near Kearney this has been used as an outdoor stage for the rendition of the passage of the Israelites from Egypt, and where passage of the Red Sea was refused the hosts of Pharaoh. The rendition of this play has required some fifteen hundred people and was given three times last week.

Thursday, Friday and Sunday nights, and requiring some three hours of continuous playing to give the exhibition. The announcement over the radio brought people from all parts of the state and in some instances from other states. John and Miss Myrtle Woods of Wabash were out and witnessed the play and consider it the greatest play extant in America, equaling, if not excelling the Passion Play, given in Ober Ammegrau in the old country. Making the Machine Hum. The Farmers Threshing company are making the old machine do her stuff in the threshing of the wheat of this territory which is not being combined. The separator is being looked after by J. E. Golden, while the power is supplied by F. N. Wilson the engineer. On Wednesday they were at the home of Carl Hansen where they report a yield averaging about twenty bushels to the acre. Home from East. With the adjournment of congress which occurred a short time ago, Louis F. Langhorst and wife returned to their home at Elmwood. The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Langhorst fell on last Sunday and was duly celebrated at their home in Elmwood. Among those present were Wm. Langhorst of Wabash, Harry A. Williams and wife and S. Sedman and wife, they all enjoying the celebrating of the passing of the event. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Langhorst will remain in Elmwood until the reconvening of the next session of congress at Washington. Getting Much Wheat. John C. Browne, the manager of the Wabash Elevator company has been busy receiving wheat during the past week and reports that the grain is of excellent quality, weighing from 57 to 61 pounds the struck bushel and averaging from eighteen to twenty bushels per acre. Some fields run as low as six bushels to the acre while others are making over thirty. Visited Friends Here. Harry A. Williams, well known former citizen of Elmwood, where he resided for many years, but at present residing on a farm east of Weeping Water, was in Wabash on last Tuesday, and was accompanied by his son-in-law, J. R. Reeder of Plattsmouth, where he has been for the past five years instructor in the high school of that place, and who recently filed for county superintendent of schools. See the goods you buy. Catalog descriptions are flowery enough, but how about the goods when you get them? Thomas Walling Company Abstracts of Title Phone 324 - Plattsmouth

Veterinarians of Cass County Attend Clinic

Interesting Sessions Held and Many Problems of the Profession Given Attention. From Friday's Daily. Cass county veterinarians attended the clinic at the Nebraska State Clinic held at David City yesterday. Cass county was represented 100 per cent. Dr. W. H. Tuck of Weeping Water drove over from that city, picking up Dr. M. J. Williams of Elmwood enroute. While from this city Dr. G. L. Taylor accompanied Dr. O. Sandin. These men left here about 5 a. m. and returned about 10:30 p. m., spending a full day in studying, diagnosing, operating and treating some fifty different cases on all animals. There were some 175 veterinarians in attendance, coming from all over the state and from Iowa and Kansas. The clinic was held at the large, spacious hospital of Dr. S. W. Phillips, president of the Nebraska Veterinary Medical Association. The ladies of the M. E. church served the noonday meal to the entire group in their large dining hall, serving such a meal as only ladies can serve. MAKE PRESENTATION The Woman's Relief Corps of this city has presented to the Boy Scout camp, Camp Wheeler, south of this city, a set of bracket lamps that will be used to light the cabin in the future and make a fine gift. The lamps arrived today and will be installed as soon as possible for the use of the troops on their overnight trips to the camp and make a splendid addition to the equipment that will be much appreciated by the boys and the scout committee of the American Legion that has charge of the Scouting activities. The community in general has been fine in their response to the needs of the camp and have made it one of the finest Scout headquarters in this part of the state and one in which the community can well feel proud. TO VISIT NEW ENGLAND Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Schneider are to depart on Sunday for a very delightful motor trip to New England. They are expecting to visit the many points of interest en route to the east coast including New York City and Boston and will then spend sometime in the coohles of the Maine seaports and pleasure resorts. They are to be guests at Biddeford, Maine, of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Burnie, former residents here, where Mr. Burnie was formerly the superintendent of the water plant. WIN A BALL GAME Harry Newman and Fay Spidell were at Dunbar Friday, playing there as members of the Johnson team leaders in the Nemaha valley league. The Johnson team hung a 14 to 8 defeat on the Dunbar team which had the services of Hal McKala of Omaha as pitcher and the "Great Charlie" as members of the team. Both Newman and Spidell maintained their hitting average and were strong factors in the win of their team. TO UNDERGO OPERATION Mrs. Alex Schiliske was taken to Omaha Thursday afternoon as the result of a severe attack of appendicitis and was placed in a hospital at that place. Mrs. Schiliske was taken very suddenly with the malady and her condition rapidly developed such as to require immediate action. It is hoped that the patient may soon be able to return home and resume her usual activities. NEW DAUGHTER ARRIVES The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunt was made very happy on Wednesday when a fine little daughter came to share the home with them in the future. The little daughter and the mother are doing nicely and the occasion has been one that has brought the greatest of happiness to the members of the family circle. NEBRASKA CITY WINS From Thursday's Daily. The Bartling Seed Co., kitchonball team of Nebraska City, opposed the local V-8 team last evening at Athletic park. The visitors have an excellent team and were the winners by the score of 17 to 11. The visitors did not arrive in time for a twilight game and the contest was played under the floodlights at 8:30.

(Political Advertising) PARDON KRUEGER BROTHERS Madison, Wis.—Leslie and Frank Krueger, brothers involved in the famous Krueger draft evasion case during the war, were granted complete pardons by Governor Schmedeman. Both men have been held at the central state hospital for the criminal insane at Waupun since December, 1922 when they were conditionally pardoned by former Governor LaFollette. Frank, who has been adjudged insane will be transferred from Waupun to the Milwaukee county insane hospital for treatment of his mental disorders. Leslie, who has been declared sane by a committee of Milwaukee county alienists, will be placed in the custody of Dr. Samuel Plahner, a member of the committee, for one year. The brothers were convicted April 4, 1919 on charges of first degree murder growing out of the slaying of Harry Jansen, a member of a posse which surrounded their farm home in Clark county to arrest them for draft evasion. DYING WOMAN IS PAROLED Trenton, N. J.—Mrs. Margaret Lillendahl, of South Vineland, convicted in 1927 for participation in the slaying of her husband, Dr. William C. Lillendahl, was granted a parole. Mrs. Lillendahl and William Beach, a poultry raiser, of Vineland, were convicted of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced to ten years imprisonment. Beach died after serving one-third of his term. She is suffering from cancer. NEW FIRM LAUNCHED A new business firm has been launched in this city and composed of Robert H. Bestor and Virgil Hutton. The two young men have secured the Slayman market located in the Bookmeyer building and will at once stock up with a full line of fruits and vegetables. The new firm expects to keep a full and complete line of all kinds of the best lines that can be procured on the market and to serve the customers with courtesy and promptness. FINDS A HORNEO TOAD While William Ferguson was working in his potato patch this morning he made the discovery of a rather unusual member of the reptile family, that of a horned toad. These are quite common in the hot and dry countries and apparently is typical of the spring and summer that has visited this part of the west this year. Bill was rather startled when he first noticed the toad as it was the first that he had seen in this section. RETURNS FROM CALIFORNIA From Friday's Daily. Miss Edna Warren, who has been spending her vacation on the west coast, returned home last evening after a most delightful outing. She spent the time largely with her brothers, James A. Warren and Fred Warren, and their families at San Francisco. The trip was most enjoyable and Miss Warren returns greatly refreshed to her work as clerk at the Plattsmouth State bank. DIES AT LINCOLN The death of Roland Lancaster, occurred Friday night at Lincoln where the young man has been for some time taking treatment. The young man has been in failing health for the past several months and his condition had become such that his recovery was abandoned. The body was brought here to the Sattler funeral home and where services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. VISITS AT NORTH PLATTE Mr. and Mrs. Steve McWilliams, of North Platte, who have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bryant, returned Wednesday to their home in the west part of the state. They were accompanied by Melba Bryant, who will visit at North Platte with relatives and attend the rodeo to be held there the coming week. ASSESSMENTS DECLINE Beatrice—County Clerk ulivvan Friday reported Beatrice's personal property assessment showed a decline this year of $20,845. The total valuation of personal property this year is $1,149,940. This does not include intangibles which showed $511,000 of money and paper payable on demand and $565,000 on stocks and other securities. Letterheads, envelopes, statements and all kinds of commercial printing done promptly at the Journal office. Call No. 6.

(Political Advertising) J. E. LANCASTER CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR Cass County Sheriff Owing to my duties in the State Sheriff's Office which will continue until December 1, 1934, it will not be possible for me to meet all the voters of the County. If you feel that my services as Deputy Sheriff has merited your support, then I will gratefully appreciate your vote at the Primary Election on August 14th for the nomination for Sheriff. Resident Cass County 25 Years THANK YOU

(Political Advertising) Manley News Items Wm. Kelley found a hail stone last Saturday evening in their yard which measured some nine inches in circumference. Lawrence Earhardt was threshing on last Tuesday and was pleased with his wheat which made about nineteen bushels to the acre. Miss Margaret and Mr. Paul Murphy were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Persinger of Omaha for the week end last Sunday. Vitus Hawes who has been working at Clay Center, Kansas, was a visitor for the week end at the home of the parents in Manley and returned to his work on Monday. Miss Margaret Hayes, housekeeper at the Parish house of the St. Patrick's Catholic church, was a visitor in Omaha for the day last Monday, where she was visiting with friends. Miss Anna Rauth, who is employed in Omaha was a visitor for over the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth of Manley and returned to her work on Monday morning. County Commissioner E. B. Chapman of Union was looking after some business for the county on last Monday and was also meeting the voters as he is a candidate to succeed himself at the coming election. Father Patrick Harte and John Crane were over to Palmyra on last Tuesday where they were visiting with friends for a short time in the evening and returning during the later evening when it had cooled off. Herman Mann of Louisville was a visitor in Manley last Tuesday where he was present at the threshing which was being done at the home of Paul Mann and was pleased with the returns from the wheat field. Mrs. John F. Carper entertained the ladies society of the St. Patrick's church where they looked after the work of the society and also enjoyed a social session. At the close of the meeting a lunch was served by the genial hostess. Louis Krecklow and son of Milwaukee, arrived in Manley late last week and visited until Thursday at the home of relatives. In their trip out their running time for the 669 miles was an even twelve hours, Louis driving a new 1934 Buick. Pretty good time. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cook, Raymond Cook and wife, were over to Elmwood from their home in Plattsmouth on last Sunday where they were in attendance at the Dreamer reunion, Mrs. C. E. Cook being a Dreamer. On their way they stopped for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rauth. Miss Helen Korb of Omaha, a daughter of Mrs. Anton Auserwald was a visitor in Manley for over the week end at the home of her mother, where all enjoyed a very fine time. Edward Murphy and wife of Lincoln were visitors for over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawes where all enjoyed a very fine visit. John Bergman has been having some trouble with a number of his chickens dying. One he took to Weeping Water and had Dr. Tuck kill it and make an examination, he finding nothing out of normal with the exception that the liver had wasted away and there seemed to be very little left of it. On Tuesday morning John took a few of the chickens and as well the droppings, going to the state agricultural college where he had them examined and still got no definite solution of the disease. Returned to East. Louis Krecklow and son departed Thursday of last week for their home at Milwaukee and went via highway No. 24 and stopping at Elgin, Ill., where they enjoyed the races which were on there and then going on to their home, making the trip leisurely. Cuts Hand Very Badly. Miss Teresa Rauth who had just been picking cherries and canning them had left a jar to cool and desiring to take them to the cellar for storage picked one up and as she was lifting it the bottom came out and in trying to keep it from falling, struck the sharp edge of the glass, cutting her hand across the back of the thumb so severely that it required five stitches to close the gaping wound. The wound is doing well, but is still very sore. Another Big Crowd. At the movie show which was given on the streets of Manley on last Monday evening, there was an even larger crowd than was at the two other shows, showing an increase in interest with every week. Among the merry crowd which had gathered to witness the show were a number of candidates for county offices. Henry H. Ragoss, candidate for county commissioner of the second district on the democratic ticket, Martin Neilsen, democratic candidate for sheriff, and Joseph V. Brandt of Union, a candidate for county recorder on the republican ticket. Played Good Ball. There was an excellent ball game in Manley on last Sunday when the team from Eagle came over for a tryout with the sturdy lads of Manley. The game was a very good one and continued until the seventh inning when the game stood 1 to 0 in favor of the Manley team and in that fatal inning the ball went wild and excitement became intense and some five scores were made by the visitors and then the playing tightened down again and at the end of the game the score was 5 to 1 in favor of Eagle. Standing of County Association. Here is the standing of the teams of Cass county, showing the number of games played which is eight for each team: Manley, won 6, lost 2; Elmwood, won 6, lost 2; Alvo, won 4, lost 4; Louisville, won 4, lost 4; Eagle, won 4, lost 4; Oloe, won 2, lost 6. MOVING FROM THE CITY Mr. and Mrs. Glen Woodbury were moving Thursday and today in their new home at Nebraska City, shipping their household goods on Thursday to the new home, located south of Nebraska City. Mr. Woodbury has found the change necessary in his work as court reporter as it is much more convenient to him as well as Judge Livingston. The friends here will regret to lose this estimable family but will have the opportunity of meeting Mr. Woodbury on his visits to this city in his official capacity. DRAW DOWN THIRTY DAYS Thursday afternoon three young men, members of the camp north of this city were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles L. Graves, they being charged with stealing government property. The boys were charged with taking articles of issued clothing from other boys in the camp and which was found in their possession. The boys were given a sentence of thirty days in the county jail by the court for their offense and turned over to Sheriff Homer Sylvester.

(Political Advertising) CLOSING OUT SALE On in Full Blast Bargains in Everything Specials Every Day Philip Thieroll

Celebrate the 4th of July A Complete Line of Picnic Goods TOY PISTOLS 5c-10c 15c and 25c FIRE CRACKERS . . 5c, 2 for 15c; and 10c pkg. Torpedoes, Devil on Walk, Snake in Grass, 1c each PAPER BALLOONS . . . 40c 4 1/2 feet tall SPARKLERS 5c, 10c and 15c package SKY ROCKETS . . . 5c to 25c Roman Candles . . . 5c to 20c FLOWER POTS 5c and 10c RED LIGHTS 5c PIN WHEELS 10c and 15c AERIAL BOMBS . . 10c - 15c Bates Book & Stationery Store Corner 5th and Main Streets

Undergoes Treatment Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton LaHoda, is in the Clarkson hospital in Omaha where she underwent a minor operation of the nose of which she has been troubled of late. She went thru the operation fine and will be able to return home in a few days.

The automobile laws vary in most every state. Be sure to ask us for particulars before you travel outside of Nebraska. Searl S. Davis OFFICES: 2ND FLOOR PLATTS. STATE BANK BLDG. PLATTSMOUTH

Undergoes Treatment Mrs. Alex Schiliske was taken to Omaha Thursday afternoon as the result of a severe attack of appendicitis and was placed in a hospital at that place. Mrs. Schiliske was taken very suddenly with the malady and her condition rapidly developed such as to require immediate action. It is hoped that the patient may soon be able to return home and resume her usual activities.

NEW DAUGHTER ARRIVES The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunt was made very happy on Wednesday when a fine little daughter came to share the home with them in the future. The little daughter and the mother are doing nicely and the occasion has been one that has brought the greatest of happiness to the members of the family circle.

NEBRASKA CITY WINS From Thursday's Daily. The Bartling Seed Co., kitchonball team of Nebraska City, opposed the local V-8 team last evening at Athletic park. The visitors have an excellent team and were the winners by the score of 17 to 11. The visitors did not arrive in time for a twilight game and the contest was played under the floodlights at 8:30.