

RECEIVES STATE APPOINTMENT OF $7,144.89

County Superintendent Miss Alpha C. Peterson has received notification of the allotment of the semi-annual apportionment of the school fund. The apportionment for Cass county will amount to $7,144.89. This will be allotted among the various schools of the county.

This fund is derived from interest on bonds, warehouse license, school land interest and school land lease interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Blythe U. Rosencrans are here to enjoy a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans and the other relatives and friends for his summer vacation. They are living at Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Feller and four children, of Omaha, came down Sunday morning to spend the day at the Elmer Webb home.

VISIT FRIENDS HERE

Three interesting young men, Leonard and Dick Jensen and Raymond Garnar of El Reno, Okla., visited at the Tom Will home this week. They are motoring through to the Century of Progress where they expect to spend a very pleasant month.

The Jensens are extensive wheat and alfalfa land growers near El Reno. They raise hundreds of bushels of alfalfa seed and thousands of tons of hay yearly.

They said that both Oklahoma and Kansas looked much drier than this part of Nebraska.

VISITING AT COOK

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walling drove to Cook, Nebraska, Sunday, at which place they spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Record, the latter a sister of Mrs. Walling. They left their daughter, Shirley, at the Record home, where she will spend ten days or two weeks. The Record farm has a fine creek flowing through it and Shirley, who is like her uncle, Robert M. Walling, a fishing enthusiast, was able to land several fine fish before the day was over.

CONVALESCING AT HOME

Dangard Reichstadt, the north Sixth street shoe rebuilder, has returned home from the hospital where he has been recovering from the effects of his recent operation for appendicitis. The young man is feeling fine altho still a little weak and it will be several days before he is able to resume his usual activities. While he has been at the hospital the work at the shop has been looked after by Ralph Olson and who is on the job as yet.

GOES TO CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brubaker of Murray were in the city for a short time Saturday evening, departing on the Ak-Sar-Ben over the Burlington for Chicago where they will attend the Century of Progress Exposition. While here they enjoyed a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brubaker, parents of Mr. Brubaker.

Mrs. Opal Parsons and children, of Inland, Nebraska, are here to visit several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Covert and with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Dew, the latter a sister of Mrs. Parsons.

CARDS FROM PARIS

Local Boy Scouts of the American Legion troop of which Raymond J. Larson is scoutmaster, received cards from him today, mailed in Paris on July 3rd. The cards tell of Mr. and Mrs. Larson having a splendid time on their trip and indicate they have been taking in the sights of Paris, which was the soldier's mecca in the war days of 1918 when Raymond failed to see enough of the French capital city to satisfy his desires due to the all-too-short pass periods and the vigilance of the M. Ps.

DIES IN MISSOURI

From Wednesday's Daily
The news was received here this afternoon of the death at Watson, Missouri, of Mrs. William Scarborough, former resident here. Mrs. Scarborough lived here some fifteen years ago, residing in the south part of the city and has many old friends who will regret to learn of her death.

The funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at Watson, Missouri, with the burial at that place.

ENJOY FAMILY GATHERING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. Gerbeling and family in this city, has been the scene of a delightful family party and one that all attending will long very happily remember.

Those in the group comprised Mr. Charles H. Gerbeling, father of Floyd, of Elmwood and daughter, Miss Emma, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Conger of Grand Island, the latter a sister of Mr. Gerbeling, and Mr. and Mrs. William P. Shuman, parents of Mrs. Gerbeling, of Weeping Water.

From Wednesday's Daily
Frank Janda departed this morning for Havelock where he will visit with his relatives for a few days.

WILL LOCATE IN EAST

Dr. and Mrs. Carl L. Koch, who have been making their home in Madison, Wisconsin, where Dr. Koch has been connected with the University of Wisconsin, are here for a visit at the John L. Tidball home. Mrs. Koch was formerly Miss Mary Tidball of this city and teacher in the local high school.

Dr. and Mrs. Koch after their vacation here are elating for Maine where they will be located at Presque Isle. Dr. Koch being associated there with the Eastern States Farmers Co-Operative Company.

HERE FROM WAHOO

From Wednesday's Daily
Mr. and Mrs. Leland Briggs of Wahoo, were here last evening for a visit at the M. S. Briggs and William Hartwick homes, motoring over to take their son, Rodney Briggs home after a three weeks visit in this city. Patty Briggs accompanied her parents and will remain here for a visit with relatives. They report that Mr. and Mrs. Glen Neal have returned from their recent trip to Portland, Oregon, having had a very fine outing.

LEAVES FOR GERMANY

Chris Metzger, well known stock feeder and extensive land owner of Cass county, departed Sunday on a trip to Europe that will cover several months. Mr. Metzger expects to visit Germany, Switzerland and France and enjoy the many fine cities and places of interest in the old world. His principal stay will be at Ulm, Germany, where his sister, Mrs. Meyer, makes her home and where he will have the pleasure of the first visit with the sister in years.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Gerald Cady, who was operated on a week ago at the Immanuel hospital at Omaha for appendicitis and also the tonsils removed, has so far recovered that she has been able to return home, arriving Monday afternoon and is now resting very nicely at the home here and it is hoped in a short time will be able to resume her usual activities. Mrs. Cady desires to thank all of the friends for their many kindnesses to her while in the hospital.
