Cass County Has Good Schools! Why Change?

RETURN FROM OUTING

From Friday's Daily
Last evening Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Stiball returned home from their outing in North Dakota, which had taken them to many places of interest and also for a visit at the home of the parents of Dr. Stiball. They left Minneapolis Thursday morning at 5 o'clock and arrived here at 5 p. m., making excellent time.

St. Paul's city council has refused to confirm the appointment of the former head of Chicago's Secret Six as chief of police for the lesser twin city. St. Paul wishes to be cleaned up, but apparently feels that a too sudden cleanup might be bad for the skin, or something.

HERE FROM MURDOCK

From Thursday's Daily
Frank A. Melvin, president of the board of education of Murdock, was in the city today to spend a short time, being accompanied here by P. T. Johnson, the superintendent of schools at that place and a candidate for the nomination for county superintendent. The gentlemen visited their friends here during the morning hours and while here Mr. Johnson paid the Journal a very pleasant social call.

If you are ever going to have the need for a mustard plaster now is the time to need it. It would sort of cool one off and aid in getting a good night's sleep.

Passing of One of Cass County's Best Known Men

Amsdel Sheldon of Avoca, One of Group of Early New England Settlers Here.

In the passing of Amsdel Sheldon, 94, at his home Friday afternoon, there was removed from the earthly scene one of the early settlers who came here from New England to help make Cass county and to have more than usual a part in the community life.

Mr. Sheldon was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Sheldon, who represented the rugged citizenship that had made our nation free and independent in the revolutionary war. He was born in Windsor county, Vermont, September 27, 1839 and spent his boyhood in that state and where in the surroundings of the strong character building community he acquired that stability that later was to carry him to a successful life.

In 1869 Mr. Sheldon came to Nebraska where his brother, Hon. Lawson Sheldon had settled near Nehawka and Mrs. Sheldon secured a fine farm in Berlin precinct in Otoe county and where he resided for a great many years, coming to the present homestead near Avoca in 1884. He had since resided there and was a loved and honored figure in the community.

Mr. Sheldon represented to the fullest the highest ideal of citizenship and with the wisdom and foresight that had marked the early residents of the community. Personally Mr. Sheldon made friends of all with whom he came in contact and in his going will be missed by the residents of his home community.

Mr. Sheldon was married on September 7, 1874 in Otoe county to Miss Celia Ellis, who is surviving him as well as the three children, Mrs. C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water, Miss Esther Sheldon at home, and Lucian Sheldon, residing in New York.

PRAISES GOVERNOR'S WORK

Murdock, Neb., July 24.

The Journal, Plattsmouth, Nebr. Gentlemen:

Having had opportunity in traveling over our state to test public sentiment I find wherever I go that a majority of the voters regardless of party affiliation are in favor of and are going to vote for Honorable Charles W. Bryan for United States Senator, and why should they not do so? In his many years of faithful service to the people of this state including six years as governor, he has always worked to help the farmer and working classes. He has stood for the majority of the people all the time.

Since has been governor legislation has been enacted making possible the great power and irrigation plants now being financed by the federal government; a mortgage moratorium has been provided; a state board of conciliation has been created; the interest rate has been reduced; the state government has been brought to a high state of efficiency; the deficiency judgment law has been repealed; automobile licenses have been reduced more than one-half; taxes have been reduced approximately 16 million dollars a year; there is no deficit and the capitol building and our wonderful road system are paid for; Nebraska has no bonded debt and an old age pension law has been enacted.

All of the above measures were advocated by Governor Bryan to protect the people. Surely this record justifies our sending him to the United States senate. Yours truly,
HENRY MEIERJURGEN.

DIES IN IOWA

Mrs. F. R. Gobelman received the message Thursday that her sister Miss Martha Hiatt, had died at Decorah, Iowa, where she had been on a visit at the home of her twin sister, Mrs. Ann Fritchen. Miss Hiatt had been operated on for removal of her tonsils and was doing nicely until pneumonia developed, the news of the death coming as a great shock to Mr. and Mrs. Gobelman, who left Thursday for Sidney, Iowa, to which place the body will be taken, this being the home of the deceased lady. She had made her home there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hiatt. She had been engaged as a teacher at Tulare, Colo., for the past several years. The funeral services will be held at Sidney Sunday afternoon.

Livingston, and a member of one of the old families of this part of Cass county.

HAS AUTO WRECK

This noon a serious auto accident occurred on highway No. 75, north of this city when a car driven by Vernon Curtis of Stella, Nebraska, ran into one of the "Mrasek" trucks which was driven by John Gallo-way.

Mr. Curtis, who works in Omaha, was on his way home south to Stella and evidently had gone to sleep as the first that he realized of the accident was when he recovered consciousness and was lying on the paving, having been hurled through the windshield of his car. He suffered severe gashes on the right arm as well as on the face and scalp and also complained of bruises on the side, indicating a fractured rib.

In the truck at the time of the accident was Ermin Galloway, who suffered a very bad laceration of the scalp and a deep wound on the head as well as minor cuts and bruises.

The injured men were brought back to this city in the truck and cared for at the offices of Dr. R. P. Westover and Dr. T. P. Livingston.

HELPING ORGANIZE CLUB

Mrs. J. P. Jensen, Blair, one of the active women democratic leaders of the state was in Plattsmouth Wednesday afternoon for a meeting at the court house where she took up the matter of the organization of a Burke-for-Senator club.

There were some fifteen ladies present at the district court room and a short talk was given by Mrs. Jensen urging the organization of the club and the support of the Omaha congressman for the position of United States senator.

The club was also addressed by Mrs. E. R. Buke, wife of the candidate who discussed life in Washington and the situation there as she had viewed it.

The officers selected for the club were: Mrs. Elmer Johnson, president; Mrs. G. L. Taylor, vice-president; Mrs. Paul Vandervoort, secretary-treasurer.

HOME FROM PLEASANT VISIT AT CREIGHTON

Jim and Bob Webb arrived home last evening from a visit of more than three weeks at Creighton, Nebraska, at the home of Mrs. Albert Tinschert, aunt of Mrs. Webb. They had a fine time and enjoyed trips to numerous farms in that vicinity for a visit of a day. The trip to Omaha was made via train, they being met there last evening by their parents.

FRENCH CABINET WILL LIVE

Paris.—"Papa" Gaston Doumergue saved the "truce cabinet," of which he is premier, by compelling quarrelling ministers to put aside their political hatreds for at least three months. The veteran premier waved the big stick freely, bringing to terms former Premier Andre Tardieu, whose accusations against radical socialists, the party of his fellow cabinet member, Edouard Herriot, started the row last week.

The radical socialists, Herriot said after Tuesday's meeting, will accept Doumergue's peace plan, calling for both men to remain in the cabinet, and refer the controversy to the party for settlement in October. The cabinet thus is assured of at least three more months of life, altho some quarters expressed the view that "the real truce is ended."

J. R. Reeder Candidate for County Superintendent

Mr. Reeder was raised on the farm; received his B. S. Degree from Baker University; attended one term of post-graduate work; spent two summers with the Carnegie Institution of Washington, Division of Ecological Research; has taught five years in the Plattsmouth High School and has been in Boy Scout work the same length of time.

Wabash News

Warren Richards was called to the county seat last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time.

Guy Hinds of Avoca brought a load of cobs over for Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hinds and Mrs. Hinds also came along for a short visit while the cobs were being unloaded.

Walter Munford, wife and son, who make their home in Lincoln, where Walter is employed with Gold and Company, were visiting with friends in Wabash for the day last Sunday, they driving over to the home town for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ohm, who reside west of Wabash, were in town last Wednesday, Clarence looking after some business matters for a time and Mrs. Ohm visiting with her mother, Mrs. Bothwell, where, notwithstanding the very hot day, they enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coppel and the kiddies were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother H. P. Hinds, of Wabash, where they enjoyed a very fine time, Mrs. Coppel being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hinds. Grandmother Hinds has not been feeling the best on account of suffering from rheumatism.

Teddy Rager of Omaha and Ralph Rager, of Gretna, were in Wabash on last Wednesday, where they were selecting a lot in the Wabash cemetery and arranging for the digging of a grave for their mother, Mrs. Evelyn Rager, who recently died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Buskirk, near Ashland, and whose funeral was held there, with interment in the Wabash cemetery on Thursday afternoon of last week.

Visiting in Aurora
Mrs. Henrietta Lawton departed last week for Aurora, where she will visit for some weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. H. Greene and expects to enjoy the visit greatly.

Now Has Water Again
After manufacturing a sand bucket, John Woods went to work and bailed out the accumulated sand in his well and thus made the well some six feet deeper, thus providing more room for the water which came up to the level of the former bottom of the well.

Seeing the Great Northwest
Roland Richards and Ivan McBride departed last week for Cherry county, where they expected to visit with friends on a large ranch and work there if they can find anything to do, but if they fail, they will then head their car towards the Black Hills of South Dakota, hoping that they may find some employment there. The boys were taken to Omaha by their friends and from there they rode with Mr. Clites to Grand Island on his truck.

Entertained Ladies Aid
On Wednesday of last week, the Ladies Aid of the Wabash church were meeting with Mrs. Howard McBride and sure the weather man gave them a very warm day, but the ladies know how to work even if it is warm, and after having looked after the business which called them together, they enjoyed a social session and some refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and cooling drinks.

The way the last couple of summers have turned out, the scientists were none too early in learning how to make dry ice.
