YOUNG PEOPLE WEDDED

Saturday evening at 8 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Lucille McClain of Omaha to Mr. Guy Hughson of this city. The wedding took place at the First Baptist church of Omaha. The marriage lines were read by Dr. Charles Durden, pastor. During the ceremony the organist played "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning."

The bridal couple were attended by Miss Cora Bernson of Omaha and Donald Bushnell of this city.

The bride was attired in white embroidered organdy and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid was attired in powder blue silk crepe and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The groom and best man wore dark blue. The bride is a niece of Mrs. A. H. Bushnell and is quite well known in this city.

The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Alice Hughson of this city and was born and grew to manhood on the farm near Union.

RIVER-VIEW CLUB MEETS

The River-View club held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Sack, with Mrs. Louis Sack assisting. After the business meeting and songs, the afternoon was spent in games and stunts planned by our hostess.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Our club picnic was held during July at the Robert Patterson home where a splendid time was had by all present.

Next meeting will be held Sept. 18 at the home of Mrs. Greeley Beil.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Panzer and family of Ashland were in the city Sunday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr.

RETURN FROM OUTING

Mrs. Rose Kendall, and daughter, Rachel, of Union, have returned home from an outing in the west that covered the past seven weeks and proved a most delightful occasion to them. They visited at Seattle, Washington, with old time friends and acquaintances and also at San Francisco where they viewed the many places of interest in that section of California. They also stopped at Denver for a visit with friends and in taking in the many points of beauty in the mountain country. To complete their outing they spent several days at the Century of Progress exposition at Chicago where they viewed the many wonders of this great show.

DRAWS HEAVY FINE

Jack Morr, who was formerly a resident of this city, but now located at Union, was present in Judge Charles L. Graves' court Tuesday afternoon to answer to the charge of being intoxicated and also to possessing intoxicating liquor. The man was arrested on Monday night by Officers Pickrell and Stewart near the corner of Seventh and Pearl streets. The man was given a fine of $100 and costs for the offense, amounting to $118. The man was unable to pay the fine and costs and on the agreement to leave the city and never to return he was sent on his way.

VISIT RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. George Birch and Mrs. Frank Rebal of Marshalltown, Iowa, are here for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal and family as well as the relatives in Omaha. Mrs. Frank Rebal is a sister-in-law and Mrs. Birch a niece of Mr. James Rebal. Mr. Birch is employed as a linotype operator of one of the Marshalltown papers and while here was a caller at the Journal to look over the plant.

HERE FROM MURDOCK

From Monday's Daily

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bauer of Murdock, accompanied by George L. Berger, pioneer resident of Cass county, were in the city today as guests of Mrs. E. C. Ripple, a cousin of Mr. Berger. Mr. Berger, despite his age, is now enjoying good health and has been making his home at Elmwood. He has large and interests near that city.

IGA FROM POLE TO POLE!

Byrd, MacMillan Take I.G.A. Products To Polar Regions

Portland, Maine—(Special)—I.G.A. brand food products were selected and included among the other supplies taken by Commander Donald B. MacMillan on his latest expedition to the arctic north.

I.G.A. quality foods already are represented at the South Pole where they help to make mealtimes pleasant for Admiral Byrd's men under extreme Antarctic conditions.

Every housewife will be interested in one important item selected by both the Byrd and MacMillan expeditions. That is the fine quality mayonnaise made for I.G.A. and distributed under the I.G.A. brand label.

I.G.A. food merchants in 43 states are proud of the selection of this mayonnaise by Byrd and MacMillan expeditions.
