

Puritanical Days to be Depicted in Typical Manner

Mynard Community to Sponsor Opening Theme Parade as Prelude to the Kern Carnival.

Wednesday night will witness the first pre-Kern Carnival parade, when a group from Mynard and vicinity will portray one of the earliest periods of our national history—the days of the Puritans and their tribulations with Indians, witchcraft, sorcery, etc. The Mynard folks have been doing a lot of reading up on their history, and will put on a parade replete with such well known episodes as Priscilla and her bashful lover, Captain John Smith and Pocahontas, the first Thanksgiving day, smoking of the pipe of peace between the early settlers and the Indians, with plenty of background, such as gaily bedecked squaws, papooses, white children, etc. This parade will be followed by three other similar theme parades on Saturday, Wednesday and Saturday of next week and the four repeated as the opening night parade of the festival on September 19th.

The parade will start at 8:15 sharp and pass in review up and down Main street, forming on North Sixth. The usual broadcast of highlights will be made from the platform at Fifth and Main, additional loud speakers having been provided this year, and it is expected to have floodlights along the line of march, although it may not be possible to get these in for the opening night parade Wednesday.

Saturday's parade will be put on by BREX employees and will depict the days of '49, including the miners, prospectors and high lights of that period. A number of applicants to play the part of Brigham Young are being put through a regular "screen test" to prove their ability. Another of the highlights of this parade will be a scene in Calamity Jane's dance hall.

"Indians and Trees" will be the theme song of the Mynard parades, and "Heading for the Last Roundup" that of the BREX shopmen.

Next week's parades will be equally as colorful and will be described in a later article.

Old Time Resident of Alvo is Called by Death

Henry A. Bailey Dies—Was Active in Railroad Construction Work for Many Years.

Henry A. Bailey was born on June 11, 1865 at Richmond, Va. where he spent his childhood, and there attended the public schools, remaining until he was 13 years of age, when he was attracted by the railroad and engaged in that avocation which he continued during his life. Coming west he worked for the main line roads and while located in Iowa was united in marriage to Miss Lydia Ellen Walton who was living not far from Corning, Iowa.

They came to Nebraska where they resided for about two years, south-west of Omaha, and then with the wife whom he had married on June 24th, 1887, returned to Richmond, Va., where they made their home for two years, returned to the west and to Nebraska, locating in Alvo in 1892, and have resided there since. He was one who helped to build the Rock Island into Lincoln.

Early in life Mr. Bailey united with the Methodist church, although his folks were all Presbyterians, and has ever maintained his membership in this organization.

There were born to this union three daughters and one son, the daughters being Mrs. Henry Clapp, Mrs. Charles Jordan and Mrs. Ruth Appleman. There is only one grandchild, Bobby Clapp.

Mr. Bailey was retired from his work and given a pension a few years ago. He had been in his usual good health until Tuesday, August 21st when he was taken ill, and continued worse until Monday, August 27 he was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln where he passed away at an early hour on Tuesday, August 28.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church of Alvo on August 30th with a service at the home at 2 o'clock and at the church at 2:30. The services were conducted by the Rev. McKenize, pastor of the church. Vernon Bennett sang at the services while Vera Lancaster presided at the piano. The pall bearers were selected from his life time friends, S. C. Boyles, S. C. Hardnock, Carl Johnson, Jess Hardnock, C. F. Rose now and L. D. Mullen. Interment was at the cemetery north of Alvo.

CAMP TO BE CONTINUED

Clayton W. Watkins, extension forester at the college of agriculture, who is in charge of CCC camps in Nebraska under the forest service, announced that work in the Nebraska City camp, where a number of Platts-mouth young men are located, will continue.

M. W. Thompson, assistant regional forester at Denver, informed Watkins that it will be satisfactory to continue the work for the fourth period. The length of time was not announced, but it was assumed it will be for six months.

Thru the efforts of Camp Superintendent Dunn of Nebraska City and Agricultural Agent Delong of Syracuse, the amount of work available in the Nebraska City area has increased rapidly during the past few days. Watkins said. The work is being arranged effectively.

RETURNS HOME

Miss Elva Olson returned home Tuesday evening from a very enjoyable trip to Rochester, New York, where she was visiting her father and step-mother for the past two months.

Many points of interest which Miss Olson visited are the Thousand Islands; Canada; Adirondacks mountains; Niagara Falls, New York; and Chicago's Century of Progress. The trip was made by bus, and was a very enjoyable one.

Miss Olson says that the east is much colder than the west, and rain is very frequent. Both Misses Elva and Marion Olson are planning on making the trip next year.

HERE FROM CRAWFORD

Fred G. Ahrens, of Crawford, Nebraska, arrived Friday for a visit with his father, Ernest Ahrens, prominent resident of Nehawka, as well as other relatives in the county. Mr. Ahrens has been located at Crawford, Nebraska, for the past several years and has been very successful in his work in the west portion of the state.

Mred was in the city Saturday afternoon to visit with friends here and while here was a caller at the Journal to renew his subscription to the semi-weekly edition of the paper.

REACHING 100 YEAR MARK

One of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, Thomas Stout has passed another birthday on August 25, 1934. He is reaching the 100 mark and at his age is enjoying life to its fullest extent. Mr. Stout was born in Heithshead, Cumberland county, England, August 25th, 1844, and spent his earlier days there, and came to America when a young man. He stopped in western Kansas where he farmed in 1874-75-76, but in those years he had the grasshoppers and hot winds to contend with and in 1877 he went back to Illinois where he spent a short time and then came to Cass county, where he has lived since. Mr. Stout has been a successful farmer and has been a veterinarian for many years, going long distances to care for the needs of farmers. At his age he is optimistic in spite of the dry hot weather and what-not, that has to be contended with this year and says that the future will be all right and we will come out in good shape. It is certainly a fine way to feel and Mr. Stout has that faculty of making all feel good with whom he comes in contact by his optimistic outlook—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BLACK

Thursday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home was held the last rites for Mrs. J. W. Black, a long time resident of the community and a lady held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends.

The chapel was filled by the old friends to pay their last tributes to the memory of this splendid lady now gone to rest.

Dr. H. G. McClusky had charge of the religious service and paid tribute to the long and useful life of the departed who had been given the final crown of life.

Mrs. Hal Garnett and Mr. Frank A. Cloldt gave two vocal solos during the service. "The Eastern Gate" and "Going Down the Valley One by One." Mrs. O. C. Hudson was the accompanist.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery west of this city.

HERE FROM CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Becker arrived from Chicago Thursday afternoon, to enjoy a visit here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Becker, as well as the other relatives and old friends. They made the trip by auto and found much evidence of good rains through eastern and central Iowa.

VISITING IN CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Duda, Delmond Smith, of McDonald, Kansas, a cousin of Mrs. Duda, with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Toman, departed Friday evening for Chicago where they will spend a few days, at the Century of Progress and while there will be the guests of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Bushnell, a Former Resident, Buried at Lincoln

Services Held There This Afternoon—Teacher in Plattsmouth Schools in '80s.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at Lincoln for Mrs. H. M. Bushnell, a resident of Plattsmouth for a number of years and later a leader in club work and the social life at Lincoln. The interment was at Wyuka cemetery at Lincoln.

Mrs. Bushnell died Friday in Los Angeles where she and a son, John H., had lived for the past eight years. She was Elsie N. Campbell, a teacher in the Plattsmouth schools before her marriage in 1884, during the period when Mr. Bushnell was publishing the Enterprise and Herald at Plattsmouth. Two years later they moved to Lincoln, Mr. Bushnell being representative of an Omaha newspaper, and was connected with the Daily and Weekly Call at Lincoln until 1894, when he became traveling correspondent for The Journal, a position he held for three years. Eventually Mr. Bushnell established The Trade Review, which his son John operated after the father's death in 1920. He was an organizer of Union Commercial club, a member of the city council, library board, board of education, Rotary and Sons of the American Revolution, and was for four years president of the state association of commercial clubs. He was postmaster from 1898 to 1902.

Mrs. Bushnell was a charter member of Lincoln Woman's club and its first president, serving from 1902 to 1904. The club was her chief interest of its kind, and a number of its departments were organized during her administration. In 1904 and 1905 she was president of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs.

Surviving are twin daughters, Ora E., now Mrs. W. D. McKeown of Saskatchewan, Canada, and Charlotte who is Mrs. Perry Cunningham of Casper; three sons, John D., who was president of Lincoln chamber of commerce in 1925; Herbert M., an attorney in Omaha, and George D. investment counselor in Chicago. John Bushnell brought his mother's body from Los Angeles, arriving Tuesday night, and the other children were all there Wednesday except Mrs. McKeown.

FUNERAL OF OLD RESIDENT

The funeral service for the late J. W. Martis were held Thursday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets. The services were attended by a number of the old time friends of the family who gathered to pay their last tributes to one with whom they had been associated in the past.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church had charge of the service and his remarks brought words of comfort to the members of the family circle bereft of the aged father.

During the service Frank A. Cloldt gave two vocal solos, the accompaniment being played by E. H. Wescott. The numbers were "The Home of the Soul," and "Face to Face."

The pall bearers were selected from the old friends of the family and the body laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

RESIDENCE SUFFERS DAMAGE

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kehne on Granite street, was greatly damaged as the result of a small fire late Thursday afternoon. The fire was caused while burning off paint preparatory to repainting the house, a part of the blaze penetrating a crack in the weather boarding and starting a fire between the weather boarding and the interior walls.

There were several holes cut in the weather boarding as well as the roof in getting the blaze checked and considerable water damage done to the interior of the structure before the fire was extinguished.

RETURN FROM OUTING

From Friday's Daily Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chriswiser returned early this morning from a 2,000 mile auto trip through the west, spending a great deal of their time at Yellowstone national park in Wyoming. They had a very pleasant trip in every way and one that has greatly refreshed them after the heat of the summer season. During the absence of Mr. Chriswiser, Ralph Timm has been in charge of the Wimpy Inn in his usual efficient manner.
