

LEAVE FOR CONVENTION

From Friday's Daily

This morning shortly before 4 o'clock a party of Plattsmouth city officials departed for Hastings where they will attend the convention of the League of Nebraska Municipalities which is meeting there this week. In the party were City Treasurer M. D. Brown, City Clerk Albert Olson, Councilmen E. A. Webb and Frank A. Rebal.

The convention will have representatives from all of the cities of the state and able speakers and legislators who will discuss the different classes of cities as well as the matter of pending legislation that may be desired from the coming legislature when it convenes next January.

TO SCHOOL IN DAKOTA

Mayone Sylvester, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Homer Sylvester, is to take up her school work for the rest of the school term at Rapid City, South Dakota. Miss Sylvester will make her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker in the Dakota city and remain there until the conclusion of the school years.

TO VISIT IN THE SOUTH

Miss Gerda Peterson and Miss Helen Johnson departed Friday afternoon for a visit of several weeks in the southland. They will spend the larger part of their outing at Miami, Florida, also making short stops along the route to the Florida city.

Wabash News

Warren Richards was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday morning, driving over in his auto.

John Wood, with his trucks, has been hauling gravel for the hard surfacing of the roads northwest of Murdock, having a portion of the contract. They are having a fine time for the getting of the work done.

Carl Hansen and wife were over to Elmwood on last Tuesday, where they were doing some trading and incidentally were listening to the closing game of the world series. They had shelled and delivered their last year's corn to the Wabash elevator, which was shipped out the following day.

Home from the Games

Messrs. J. C. Browne, I. C. McCrorey and Herman L. Bornemeier, who were over to St. Louis for the three world series ball games played there between the Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers, returned home last Monday, well pleased with the games they had witnessed, but were not expecting the result to turn out as it did in the last two games at Detroit, especially the final one on Tuesday in which the Tigers were shut out.

John C. Browne says no one can tell how a world series is going until the final out of the final game has definitely settled the matter and it sure looks like John is right.

Making Good Roads into Town

The road which runs north from Wabash and which has been in a state of being graded for some time, is at this time completed and sure presents a fine appearance, being one of the best of dirt roads. With a good gravelled road both west and south, Wabash is in a very good position so far as highways into and out of town are concerned.

To Have School Carnival

Both the scholars and the teachers of the Wabash school are busily engaged at this time in preparing for the school carnival, which is to be held at the school building this week.

Dies at Omaha Hospital

Richard Buskirk, who has made his home at South Bend for many years, was taken ill and had to be taken to an Omaha hospital, where he was treated and after some days of continued failing, passed away on last Monday. The funeral was held on Wednesday and interment was in the Wabash cemetery.

Enjoyed Very Fine Meeting

The Bible school rally, which was the feature of the three Bible schools—the Wabash, Callahan and Evangelical at Elmwood—was a great success. There were representatives from Elmwood at the meet who made addresses, but the Wabash school, comprising some twenty-one members and accompanied by Sherman Hardaway, was the one which created the greatest interest, although there was also plenty of interest at the Callahan church, where they have a large school and where everybody takes a good deal of interest in the work of the Bible school. Sherman Hardaway, of the Wabash school, in a splendid address, told of their work and of the success which is coming to this band of Bible school workers.

The rally day was well worth while and was enjoyed by all.

Entertained the Ladies Aid

Mrs. L. R. Standley was hostess to the Ladies Aid society of the Wabash church and entertained the workers, who are always doing all they can to assist in the paying of the expenses of the church and promoting its interests. After looking after the business matters claiming their attention, they enjoyed a fine social session that was climaxed with the serving of a delectable luncheon by the genial hostess.

Married at the Farm

On last Saturday Rev. W. A. Taylor was called to the farm of Eugene Colbert, where Howard Eugene Colbert and Miss Nye Crozier had prepared the home, for they were to be united in marriage and Eugene Colbert had gone to Union for Rev. Taylor to perform the marriage ceremony which was to be a private one, attended by only the families of the contracting parties, Eugene Colbert and family and Henry Crozier and family, parents of the bride and groom.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. W. A. Taylor and the newly weds were at home and began house-keeping immediately.

They received the congratulations of all, after which a very fine wedding supper was enjoyed. It had been the intention to have Mrs. W. A. Taylor present, but on short notice she

Columbus Day Program Given at High School

Searl S. Davis Speaker at Convocation Friday Morning—Howard Hinz Presides.

Mr. S. S. Davis was the speaker on the Columbus Day program held at the high school Friday morning under the auspices of the student council. Always an interesting speaker, Mr. Davis proved to be a popular and entertaining orator for the occasion and succeeded effectively in mixing a fund of wit and humor with the fine thoughts which he brought to the student body.

Building his thoughts around the theme of Columbus in keeping with the spirit of the day, Mr. Davis called the students attention to the needs of vision, the spirit of adventure, co-operation and the creation of good habits as they continued on the voyage of life, closing with the appeal that no matter where they may find themselves, "to be the best of whatever you are."

The morning group of the Girls' Glee club under the direction of Mr. Griffin was heard in two numbers, "My Rosary" and "Mighty Lak a Rose." The students were glad to hear Margaret Hinz again in a series of popular songs with Miss Garrett as accompanist.

Howard Hinz, student chairman presided, and the committee on the program was composed of Geraldine Griffin, Richard Velick and Rachel Robertson.

Corn Crop and Fair Fodder Outlook for State

Western Potatoes Are Affected by Freeze That Also Checked Sugar Beet Crop.

Parts of northern Nebraska have a little corn and a fair corn fodder crop. Western Nebraska potatoes were injured badly by the freeze which also checked the growth of sugar beets. Stocks of grain are a little higher than expected. Hay crops are slightly better than earlier estimates indicated, says the state and federal division of agricultural statistics.

The estimate of corn for all purposes is 25,659,000 bu., as compared with 23,498,000 bu., last year and the 5-year average of 23,002,000 bu. Outside of a few irrigated spots, corn is almost a failure in the southern half of the state. A small portion of the corn in northern Nebraska may have enough grain to husk. September weather was more favorable in that the rainfall was normal or slightly above. A killing frost during the last week in September injured corn for forage. Corn forage yields are extremely light except in parts of northern Nebraska where the yields are fair.

The production of all wheat is 15,097,000 bushels as compared with 29,206,000 bu. last year. The average yield of winter wheat is 7 bushels and the production 14,021,000 bu. The average yield of spring wheat is 4 bushels and the production 1,076,000 bu.

Oats are extremely poor, being almost a failure. Yield is estimated at 5 bu. per acre and the production 7,235,000 bu. as compared with 23,373,000 bu. last year and 74,190,000 bu. in 1932. Barley is averaging 5.5 bu. per acre with a production of 2,200,000 bu. as compared with 3,390,000 bu. in 1933 and 18,360,000 bu. in 1932. The best barley was produced in the southern Panhandle counties and a little in northeastern and east central Nebraska. Elsewhere, the crop was nearly a failure. A very large portion of both oats and barley were not harvested. Flax and buckwheat are nearly a failure with flax averaging 1 bu. and buckwheat 2 bu. per acre. The yield of grain sorghum on the small percentage of the crop harvested for grain will approximate 5 bu. per acre.

The average yield of potatoes is estimated at 30 bu. per acre and the production 4,320,000 bu. as compared with 8,625,000 bu. in 1933. The farm crop in southern and most of eastern Nebraska is practically a failure. Potatoes in the Kearney district averaged about 200 bu. per acre. There were some light yields in northeastern Nebraska and in the sandhills. The late commercial crop in western Nebraska which had a fair chance a month ago was severely injured by a heavy freeze during the last week of September. The condition was spotted prior to the freezing due to varying rainfall. In general, the dry land crop will be extremely short except in parts of Sheridan and Kimball counties. The irrigated potatoes in the North Platte Valley generally range from 50 to 100 bu. A few fields having plenty of water are averaging up to 300 and even 400 bu. per acre.

AN INTERESTING EXHIBIT

The F. G. Fricke & Co., drug store has a very interesting window arranged for National Drug week. There is a collection that has been in the Fricke family for many years and represents old time equipment of the early day drug business.

One of the features is a prescription that was written in 1780 and long has been a treasured keepsake of Mr. F. G. Fricke. There is also a surgical instrument that was carried by an uncle of Mr. Fricke who served with the English army under the Duke of Wellington at the battle of Waterloo, the uncle assisting in the care of the wounded.

Smallpox vaccine made by hand in 1857 is also part of the window display as is also the glass globes that filled with colored water served at one time as the universal sign of the druggist over the nation.

Study Center
May be Located
Here for Winter

If Interest Is Sufficient and Registrations Secured It May Be Possible to Operate.

One of the 200 Study Centers of the state was operated here last winter under the auspices of the local schools and board of education. Announcement has been made that this work will be carried on again this winter. If there is sufficient demand for a class, Plattsmouth will again make application.

The Study Centers are operated primarily for high school graduates who are unable to attend college. Enrollees must be unemployed persons who are either high school graduates or over 21 years of age who will be willing to accept relief study enrollment in lieu of other government or state employment for the period the study center will be operated. The enrollment of married women cannot be accepted unless they are certified eligible to relief employment.

Those registering will also have to bear the expense of textbooks and supplies. Those who may be interested are asked to call Mr. Patterson.

President Knorr presided over the meeting and many interesting plans for trade campaigns in the fall and winter were brought up.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB ORGANIZES

From Friday's Daily
Yesterday the Girls' Glee club of the high school met for the first business meeting of the year. The object of this meeting was to elect officers for the ensuing year. Those chosen were:

President—Lola Meade.
Vice-President—Alice Wiles.
Sec.-Treas.—Lola Giles.
Publicity Mgr.—Virginia Trively.
Planist—Jane Boedeker.
Librarians—Rosemary Cloldt and Marjorie Fitch.

Although the chief purpose of the club is to learn more about music, it is realized that a uniform appearance adds to the attractiveness of any group, so uniforms for the group were discussed.

The club plans to have its fun, too. Like most organizations, the glee club will have its social meetings, which will afford a closer relationship between the members. With sixty girls full of pep, vim and vigor and with Mr. Hoyt Griffin as sponsor and director, who wouldn't want to give three cheers for the Girls' Glee club?

OBSERVE DRUG WEEK

The west display window of the Weyrich & Hadraba drug store has been very attractively arranged in honor of National Drug Week which will be observed next week.

The window has a wonderful display of the various apparatus and appliances that enter into the modern drug store.

The window has a microscope that is the property of Mr. Weyrich and is one of the finest in this section of the state and while not an everyday part of the druggist work is used in research work. With this is a large arc light that is used in connection with making tests.

There is a fine array of beakers, flasks, retorts, Liebig condenser vacuum pump.

The showing is one that is unusual in its thoroughness and a fine exhibition for the forthcoming drug week.

ELECT OFFICERS

The high school Epworth League of the Methodist church last Sunday elected the following officers to compose the cabinet for the ensuing year:
