Old Resident of Murray Dies at Nebr. City

Mrs. Emiline Brown, Pioneer of Cass and Otoe Counties, Is Laid to Rest at Murray Today.

From Tuesday's Daily

The funeral services of Mrs. Emiline Brown, 86, were held this afternoon at the United Presbyterian church at Murray. The Rev. J. C. Stewart, pastor of the church, had charge of the services and the musical numbers were given by the choir of the church. Interment was at the Horning cemetery south of this city, the pall bearers being six grandsons of the deceased lady.

The death of Mrs. Brown occurred Saturday evening at Nebraska City where she has been making her home with a daughter, Mrs. Lula Vantine. Mrs. Brown was born at Jamestown, Penn., August 18, 1849, the daughter of Quinten and Eliza Brooks. In 1865 the family moved to La Crosse, Wis., January 1, 1869, she was married at West Salem, Wis., to William A. Brown. They continued to make their home in Wisconsin until 1878.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and three children then moved to Cass county, Nebraska, and settled on a farm near Fairview, which is now known as Murray. They lived on this farm until January, 1903, when they retired and moved to Murray. Mr. Brown died at the Murray home April 22, 1918. Mrs. Brown lived alone in Wyoming until April, 1932, when she gave up housekeeping and since then has lived with her two daughters, Mrs. Alice Todd of Murray and Mrs. Lula Vantine of Nebraska City.

Mrs. Brown was a faithful member of the United Presbyterian church, and a charter member of the church at Murray. On account of failing health and not being able to attend services regularly she transferred her membership to the First Presbyterian church of Nebraska City a few months ago.

She is survived by the following children, Mrs. Alice Todd, Murray; James H. Brown, Omaha; Mrs. Lula Vantine, Nebraska City; William C. Brown, Minneapolis, Minn., and twelve grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren.

WINS FAME IN SCULPTURE

Justin Sturm of New York City who back in his younger years was an all-American right end in 1920-21 on the Yale football team, now has turned to the higher arts and has won considerable fame as a sculpturer.

The New York Times of recent dated carried a picture of Mr. Sturm in their rotogravure section, showing the former Nehawka man engaged in making a bust of Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion who was shown posing for the artist. Mr. Sturm on completing his college work spent some years in writing and was the author of several successful books and articles.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturm have a fine country home at Westport, near New York City, and are neighbors of the Matthew Gering Herold family.

Mr. Sturm is a son of one of the old families of Cass county, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm of Nehawka, where he was born and reared to manhood.

INTERESTING GROUP MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily

Group No. II of the Omaha district of the Methodist church met at the First Methodist church of this city yesterday for an all day session. Pastors of the churches of Nebraska City, Union, Weeping Water, Louisville, Gretna, Springfield Ashland and Papillion, were present. As a part of the program the pastors gave their experiences of conversion and call to the ministry. This proved to be a very interesting and profitable time and in the course of the stories many crises in the lives of the men were revealed. Church problems were also discussed and plans for the year adopted. Several heads of church institutions were present to present the cause of the work they represented.

VISITED FATHER AT HOSPITAL

From Monday's Daily

The Elmer Webb family drove to Sioux City yesterday to visit with Mr. Webb's father, T. R. Webb, of Correctionville, Iowa, who had undergone a surgical operation at the St. Joseph hospital there Thursday. They found the patient getting along as well as could be expected, considering his advanced age of 79 years.

HAVE A PLEASANT MEETING

The St. Mary's Guild of the St. Luke's Episcopal church, held a very pleasant meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Bates on North Seventh street, who was assisted in the entertaining by Mrs. M. B. Bates and Mrs. Martha J. Petersen.

The ladies spent the afternoon in a business session and discussion of the plans of the guild, as well as having a very inspirational talk by Canon Potter, rector of the church.

At an appropriate hour a much appreciated luncheon was served by the hostesses to complete the afternoon.

OLD RESIDENT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Leach and daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Hodgkins, of McCook, were in the city over Sunday as guests at the Hotel Plattsmouth. Mr. Leach is a former resident of this city, living here some forty-five years ago, later moving to the west where he has since resided. The party has been on a tour of the south and stopped en route at the old home town to permit Mr. Leach to renew the acquaintance of the friends of former years.

SELECTED ON JURY

A number of the residents of Cass county have been selected as members of the petit jury panel for the United States district court in the southern Nebraska district. Among the jurors will be Raymond C. Cook, Plattsmouth; F. W. Lorenz, Elmwood; Robert E. Matthews, Greenwood; Merle E. McKay, Weeping Water; Henry F. Nolting, Plattsmouth; Henry Sander, Plattsmouth. The jurors will report for duty at Lincoln, Wednesday, November 7th at 10 a. m.

HONOR FRIENDS

Sunday at noon at the Knights of Columbus hall was held a very delightful luncheon honoring Mr. and Mrs. William T. Distell of Hobart, Indiana, who are here for a short visit.

The event was arranged by the members of the Catholic Daughters and the Knights of Columbus in order that many of the old friends might have the opportunity of visiting with this popular family.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and having a general social time and one that all will long appreciate.

NO EXTRA CHARGE
for
MORE LIVE POWER
per gallon

IT'S yours for the price of "regular" gasoline—this richer, thrifter Standard Red Crown Superfuel. Actually, more live power per gallon means more live power per dollar. It means that for every penny you pay for Standard Red Crown Superfuel you get a greater supply of usable energy—power that you can turn into longer mileage, smoother climbing power, higher top speed, or any other super-performance you want. That's not just a claim. Tests of many gasolines have established the fact. But prove it to your own satisfaction. Fill up your tank at any Standard Red Crown pump!—And remember Standard Red Crown Superfuel contains tetraethyl lead, the finest anti-knock fluid known.

STANDARD RED CROWN SUPERFUEL
—more Live Power per gallon

Another fine gasoline: RELIANCE—a carefully refined fuel, long on mileage and low in price.

STANDARD OIL WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD ON VALUE

Here's where to fill up your tank:
