

SCHOOLS TO OBSERVE EDUCATION WEEK

The Plattsmouth schools are observing Education Week which is November 5-11. For Monday of this week a teachers' meeting is planned in the form of a panel discussion.

SELLS SKIFF

John Richardson, veteran river man, has gained a great reputation as a boat builder and this year has constructed some nineteen skiffs which he has disposed of to workers on the river projects near this city as well as the contracting companies.

In Turkey a law prohibits beauty prize winners from teaching school. There they go again—always discriminating against pretty girls.

Death of Joseph Hallas, Long Time Resident Here

Passes Away This Morning After Long Period of Ill Health—Here Forty-one Years.

From Saturday's Daily This morning at 10:30 at the family home in this city occurred the death of Joseph Hallas, 74, a resident of Plattsmouth for the past forty-one years and an honored and highly respected resident of the community in the long years of his residence.

Mr. Hallas was born in Austria, in March, 1860, spending his youth in that country and later coming west across the seas to establish a home in the new world. He located first in Iowa and was married at Cedar Rapids, in the year 1893, to Miss Theresa Selsak. The family came to Plattsmouth later and Mr. Hallas entered the employ of the Burlington in the local shop. He was engaged in railroad work up until some ten years ago when he retired from service.

Mr. Hallas in his childhood was joined with the Roman Catholic church and in which faith he passed on, a member of the Holy Rosary parish of this city.

The deceased is survived by the widow and four children, Mrs. Harry Beal, Miss Mary Hallas and Adolph Hallas of Omaha and Ludwig Hallas of Shelton, Nebraska.

The body is at the Sattler funeral home pending the completion of the funeral arrangements.

NEBRASKA HAS SLIGHT EDGE

Nebraska for the third time in seven years had a slight edge over Iowa in honors won as judges Wednesday night completed judging of the 4-H baby beeves in the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock exposition. Nebraska took first, fourth and sixth places and Iowa second, third and fifth places. When the judges lined up the three champions and three reserve champions, each state had three calves.

Don Laurel, a 1,040 pound Hereford steer, shown by Mervin Aegerter of Seward, Neb., was chosen grand champion. The reserve championship was taken by Robert Stanley, 19, of Earlham, Iowa.

Donald Halverson of Stanton, Neb., had the champion shorthorn and Robert Schomberg of Delgrade, the reserve.

The reserve Hereford champion, the class from which the grand champion was chosen, was shown by Robert Sausen, 12, of Stanton, Ia. Iowa youths carried off the Angus baby beef division, Robert Stanley, of Dallas county, Ia., winning the 950 pound and up class, and George Peter Hopley, Ia., the 940 pound and under class.

In the short-fed baby beef class, Luther Hutchison of Denison, Ia. with an Angus heifer, won grand championship. At weighed 849 pounds and was a year old in July. Reserve was a Hereford, shown by Glenn Weeks, 18, Seward county, Neb.

The grand champion pen of five beeves was shown by Crawford county, Iowa, Angus raisers, and the reserve to a pen of Herefords shown by the Seward county delegation.

BURON FITTS IS INDICTED

Los Angeles.—Perjury indictments, coming as a sequel to the Hollywood "girl market" case, were returned against District Attorney Buron Fitts and his sister-secretary here by the county grand jury. The indictments were based upon statements by Fitts and his sister before a grand jury which investigated the unusual case in 1931. Fitts, who a few years ago sent his predecessor, the late Asa Keyes, to prison on a bribery charge, had been under investigation for three months by the grand jury and a special prosecutor appointed by the state attorney general at the inquisitorial body's request.

Calling the inquiry a political move, Fitts announced he had received offers from more than 100 attorneys to defend him "if court action became necessary." Fitts' financial affairs as well as his connection with dismissal of charges in the "girl" market case reputedly were looked into by the grand jury.

The present case is the second grand jury inquiry into the affairs of Fitts. In 1931 he was exonerated by a grand jury of any irregularities in the girl case, after a long investigation. His sister, Mrs. Berthel Gregory, indicted in the current case, also figured in the 1931 grand jury probe.

A GRASSHOPPER

A grasshopper sat on a pumpkin vine, Singing his song like "Old Lang Sine." Then hopped upon, a tassel of corn, Eating his fill and looking with scorn, Upon the planter whose brow was wet, From planting it in rows, he had carefully set, Now will his crop ripen, thought he before frost, For to the planter it had been a very great cost.

The grasshopper took another view, And thought to wait 'till the evening dew, Moistened the blades of the stocks that were green, So he could hide himself securely and not be seen, While contemplating this action, he thought to take, The planter chased him out, with a garden rake, Driving him from his late corn field, Hoping he might perchance, have a good yield.

The grasshopper then tuned in on another song, Singing very lustily while he thought of his wrong, To destroy the crop of the planter while at tea, Which would be a delight to one such as a grasshopper could be, So he hopped to the ground and consulted an ant, Which he thought surely looked very quaint, The ant was generous and became his host, And before supper was over he gave up the ghost.

He dropped, he thought secure in some fallow ground, Hoping in the spring he might be found, But the planter removed his body outside the gate, And buried him in the rubbish, it is strange to relate, The lesson we get from a bandit life, A grasshopper or mortal who subsists by carrying on strife, Is sure to end in sorrow and plenty of grief.

For the law is written and surcharged with a perfect brief. —J. R. Tremble.

WATCH YOUR KIDNEYS!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering impurities from the blood stream. But kidneys get functionally disturbed—lag in their work—fail to remove the poisonous body wastes. Then you may suffer nagging backache, attacks of dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains; feel "all worn out." Don't delay! For the quicker you get rid of these poisons, the better your chances of good health. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They tend to promote normal functioning of the kidneys; should help them pass off the irritating poisons. Doan's are recommended by users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

Hear Discussion of One House Legislature

Chamber of Commerce Has Interesting Feature at Regular Meeting Held This Week.

From Saturday's Daily The Chamber of Commerce at their meeting this week had the opportunity of a very interesting and enlightening discussion of the proposed amendment to the state constitution, that creating the one-house legislature.

The debate on the question was given by R. Foster Patterson in favor of the amendment and Searl S. Davis opposing the adoption of this plan which has been urged so strongly by Senator George W. Norris.

Both the speakers were well informed on their respective sides and ably presented the views for and against it and giving the members of the civic body the opportunity of gaining much knowledge on the proposition.

The Chamber of Commerce has progressed nicely in the past year under the guidance of President Fred I. Rea and is kept constantly busy in handling matters of civic interest.

The committees have functioned nicely and some excellent results have been secured in the various activities of the body.

AAA ATTACKED IN COURT

Baltimore.—The constitutionality of the agricultural adjustment act inasmuch as it allows the federal government to set the price of milk bought and sold in intrastate commerce, was attacked in the United States district court.

The attack was made by attorneys for the Royal Farms dairy at the opening of the hearing on its petition for an injunction to restrain Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, the AAA and agents of the federal government from interfering with its business.

Frederick S. Saumenig, proprietor of the dairy, was the first witness called. He stated that it did not pay farmers in accord with the rates prescribed by the federal government for the Baltimore milk license; that if it did, it would have to increase prices to consumers. Later George S. Jackson, president of the Fairmont-Western Maryland dairy, told the court that as far as he knew no dairy was paying the rates prescribed by the license, that they were ordered effective a month ago.

JEALOUSY BRINGS SLAYINGS

Okemah, Okl.—Jealousy over a wealthy Indian heiress' hand was blamed for the slaying of two men and the wounding of a third allegedly by Roy Bradburn, 45, Weleetka, who surrendered to officers and was being held for investigation. The shooting occurred Thursday night at the home near Weleetka, of Nancy Severs, heiress to the Yahola estate, when a party of eight men drove up to the home and found Bradburn there.

The dead are Harold Sandin, 17, of Henryetta, and Dale Barrick, 45, of Okmulgee. The wounded man is Cleo Chaney, 25, of Henryetta. Dick Jones, attorney for Bradburn, said his client and Mrs. Severs, whose husband died recently, were married some time after Severs' death under Indian rites and were remarried here again Friday before Bradburn surrendered to a deputy sheriff.

OPPOSES THIRTY HOUR WEEK

Baltimore.—A buyers' strike slowing down industry and wiping out NRA gains was pictured by George A. Sloan of New York as certain to result if a flat thirty hour week is imposed upon industry. Addressing the Baltimore Association of Commerce, the president of the cotton textile institute said a work schedule would hoist production costs by a third and so increase selling prices that potential consumers would balk at buying.

Sloan pointed out that the government had done much to raise agricultural prices to make the farmer a larger buyer of manufactured products and asserted: "To make now a blanket increase in the cost of manufactured products would directly defeat the objective of the government, and put the farmer back where he was before."

WANT ROBINSON, SR., TRIED LETTERS HALT TVA WORKER

Louisville, Ky.—Members of the Stoll family, William A. Stoll said, feel that Thomas H. Robinson, sr., of Nashville should be brought to Louisville for trial in the Alice Speed Stoll kidnaping case.

William A. Stoll is a brother of Berry V. Stoll, whose wife was abducted and ransomed for $50,000 this month. His view of the case was expressed after Thomas J. Sparks, United States district attorney, announced that a new hearing for the elder Robinson would be set for Nov. 9 in the federal district court at Nashville.

Thomas H. Robinson, jr., fugitive named by federal agents as the actual abductor, with his father and his wife, Mrs. Frances Robinson, are under federal grand jury indictment here as jointly liable for the crime. Monday U. S. Commissioner Campbell, after hearing evidence in Nashville, decreed defense evidence refuted the indictment so far as Robinson, sr., was concerned, and released him.

William Stoll said his view of the case was that the government certainly had "reasonable evidence" of guilt involving both Robinson, sr. and Mrs. Robinson. If not, he said, the grand jury would not have returned the indictment.

"See it before you buy it."

Norris, Tenn.—Gun 'totin' Tennessee mountaineers are skeptical even about automobile licenses. A young TVA engineer driving in a remote section near here was halted at pistol point by a man on horseback.

"What's them letters stand for?" asked the mountaineer, pointing to the government license tag lettered USDA.

"United States department of agriculture," said the flustered engineer. The pistol disappeared and the man on horseback apologized: "I'm sure sorry I bothered you. I thought them letters stood for U. S. dry agent."

WEAK AND SKINNY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Saved by new Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil in tasteless tablets. Friends of firm healthy flesh instead of bare scraggy bones! New vigor, vim and energy instead of tired listlessness! Steady quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientists' latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little sugar coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell. McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, they're called "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 3, seriously sick, got well and gained 19 1/2 lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 5 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 18 lbs. in less than a month. You simply must try McCoy's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoy's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets—approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Because all substitutes—made on the original McCoy's—there are some better.

Look To Value

IT IS fundamental principle of economics that cost has no meaning except with reference to value. It is not the price that counts, but what is purchased for the price

There is always a tendency, in times like these, to lose sight of this elementary truth. The "bargain appeal" is very powerful, and may blind purchasers to obvious faults in material and workmanship.

In our dealings with our patrons, we offer merchandise and service at a wide range of prices. But at every level, we give superlative value and a service that is unexcelled in thoroughness and reverence.
