Prominent Cass County Families Join in Wedlock

Marriage of Miss Verna Meisinger to Mr. Verner Kaffenberger Occurs on Saturday.

Two of the best known families in this section of Cass county were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon when Miss Verna Meisinger was married to Mr. Verner Kaffenberger. The wedding took place at the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church of which the two young people are members. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. A. Lentz, pastor of the church and long time friend of the young people.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Lentz, the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" being used for the processional.

The bride's gown was of royal blue crepe with accessories to match, she carrying an arm bouquet of the bride roses and presented a most attractive picture of charm.

The bridesmaid was Miss Martha Kaffenberger, sister of the groom who was charming in a gown of apple green crepe, her accessories being in the shades of green.

The groom was attended by Mr. Arnold Meisinger, brother of the bride, the two gentlemen wearing dark business suits.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meisinger, long time resident of the community and she has grown to womanhood at the farm home west of this city and received her education in the local schools.

The groom, like the bride, was born and reared to manhood in this county. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Kaffenberger, and since the completion of his educational work has been engaged in farming and is numbered among the best known young farmers of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaffenberger will make their home in the future on a farm eight and a half miles west of this city where the groom has a home awaiting the coming of the bride.

The many friends of this estimable young couple will join in their wishes for a long and happy life through the future years and filled with all of the success that they so well deserve.

MANY ENJOY TEA

The republican tea held Saturday afternoon at the parlors of the First Methodist church was one of the most pleasant political affairs held in the city, a large number being in attendance.

The tea was held immediately after the speech of Dwight Griswold, candidate for governor on the republican ticket, who also visited the tea to meet the ladies for a few moments.

The address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes, member of the national speakers bureau of the party, who gave a very interesting discussion of the issues of the campaign, given in her very pleasing manner and which was followed with the greatest interest by all those in attendance.

Troy L. Davis, candidate for state representative, discussed the proposed one house legislature, and his view on the matter of the change in the manner of the state government. Mr. Davis has had a long experience in the state legislature and related the various ways in which legislation is handled and the benefits of the present dual form of legislature.

Several of the local candidates were in attendance, John E. Turner, treasurer; W. G. Kieck, county attorney; C. E. Ledgway, clerk of the district court; Rex Young, sheriff; Mrs. Edna D. Shannon, register of deeds and Miss Alpha Peterson county superintendent.

RETURNS FROM ILLINOIS

The Hild family before coming to Cass county resided near Pekin and several of the family still make their home in that section.

Former Resident is Trapped in Omaha Fire

Mrs. Lorene Windham Hessing and Children Have Close Call as Home Burns.

Three persons were burned, two severely, in an explosion and fire that destroyed a four-room bungalow at 1501 Hiatt Ave., Carter Lake, Monday morning, and trapped a mother and her two children in a flaming bedroom.

The mother, Mrs. George Hessing, former Plattsmouth resident, and her two children, Jacqueline, 3, and Jean, 4, were rescued by her husband, who, though badly burned, pulled them out through the window.

The house was burned to the ground and almost all of the Hessing's possessions with it.

The blast occurred when Hessing was lighting a gasoline stove in the kitchen.

Explodes in Face.

"It exploded right in my face," he said, "and the explosion knocked over a gallon of gasoline."

The gasoline was ignited and the fire spread rapidly from the kitchen, which was a sheet of flames. Hessing attempted to break through to his wife and daughters in the bedroom, but flames drove him back. He then ran outside to a bedroom window, snatched off the screen while Mrs. Hessing shattered the window with her fist.

She handed the children out and her husband then pulled her through the window, just before the flames enveloped the room.

Hessing ran inside and dragged out a radio and a chest. Everything else was destroyed.

Hessing, a foreman at night for the Schulze Baking Co., said the furniture destroyed was about two-thirds paid for. It was not insured. He and the family set out at once in search of an apartment after being treated at Lord Lister hospital.

Dr. Guy Goodrich said Hessing had first and second degree burns on the right hand and the face. His eyebrows, hair and mustache were singed.

Mrs. Hessing was burned on the right shoulder, the right elbow, the face, left wrist and left leg. Jean was less severely burned.

Mrs. Hessing was formerly Miss Lorene Windham of this city, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Windham, Jr.

HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting and largely attended meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Wiles, the members hearing a very fine discussion of the issues of the day from the standpoint of their organization.

Mrs. E. C. Giles had charge of the devotions of the day and which opened the session of the union.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott, president of the Union, gave a short talk on the issues that were to be passed on election day, particularly on that of the repeal of the state prohibition amendment, urging the support of the dry law by the members.

Mrs. Ralph Anderson also gave a talk on "Keep Nebraska Dry" that was filled with many pertinent facts as to the claims of the advocates of repeal.

Miss Olive Gass gave the talk recently made by Dr. Hutton, president of the Nebraska Anti-Saloon league, in which he urged the defeat of the repeal plan at the coming election.

Mrs. B. C. Kerr, long time member of the Union, gave a review of the law enforcement in the years past before and after the adoption of prohibition in the state which was very interesting and covered many phases of the struggles in the past.

The afternoon was closed by the serving of refreshments by Mrs. Wiles that brought to the close a most interesting and pleasant gathering.

The star spangled banner has led many into battle, but Lohengrin's wedding march still has a very substantial hold on first place.

VISIT FRIENDS HERE

Mrs. James T. Begley and son, James F. Begley, who have been visiting at Chicago for a short time, were in the city Saturday and Sunday while en route to their home at Lincoln. Mrs. Begley is engaged in a clerkship at the state capitol while James is a student at the University of Nebraska.

Cass County Young People at Ak-Sar-Ben Show

Vincent Rehmeier Proud Possessor of One of Prize Calves Given Away at Show.

A Shorthorn calf, weighing about 350 pounds, out of a herd from Greeley, Colo., that won first prize in the carlot division, is the prized possession of Vincent Rehmeier, as the result of a "calf scramble" held one night last week at Ak-Sar-Ben. Forty-eight 4-H club boys were turned loose in the ring with twelve untrained future baby beavers. Twelve of the boys went out of the ring after the "scramble" leading the calf they had managed to get their rope on, and which they will bring back to Ak-Sar-Ben a year from now to exhibit as "baby beef." Vincent was fortunate enough to capture one of the best in the ring.

Frances and Vincent Rehmeier, John Joachim, Dwain and Dale Reed, Milford Smith, Eugene and Harold Domingo and Merritt Pollard, Jr. represented Cass county at Ak-Sar-Ben with entries of baby beef, swine and sheep. Frances Rehmeier exhibited the champion and reserve champion Chester White barrows in the show. She also exhibited the first prize light weight Chester White barrow, while Vincent Rehmeier showed the second prize barrow in that class. In the heavy weight class, Frances won first again, and also fourth, and Vincent again took second place. Showing their swine together to make an entry from one club, these pigs won the silver loving cup and blue ribbon, for the Super Swine Producers club. Showing a county group of five, as entries from two clubs, Vincent and Frances, and Merritt Pollard, Jr. won the silver loving cup and blue ribbon again.

The pigs exhibited brought 13 and 15c per pound in the sale ring. The champion fat barrow in the show brought 80c per pound and the reserve champion 60c per pound. Cass county club calves averaged $8.50 in the sale. The champion lamb brought 80c per pound while the Cass county club boys realized 25c per pound for their lambs.

DEMOCRATIC TEA

The beautiful Gering home on North Sixth street was the scene of a very much enjoyed democratic tea on Saturday afternoon when 100 ladies of the city gathered to enjoy the social features and to hear the excellent talks that were given.

The ladies had the pleasure of having with them Mrs. Roy L. Cochran, wife of the nominee for governor, who gave a very interesting resume of her life, she having like Mr. Cochran been a resident of Lincoln county before moving to the state capitol. Mrs. Cochran also served as the county superintendent of Lincoln county for several terms.

Miss Beckman and Miss Hall, of Omaha, were also present and gave a most interesting discussion of the issues of the day and urged the support of the democratic party.

There was a fine musical program arranged by Mrs. J. R. Reeder and Mrs. Herman L. Thomas and which embraced a piano solo by Billie Reddie, a violin solo by Mildred Knoflick with Miss Beatrice Knoflick as the accompanist and a delightful reading by Miss Betty Kalina, one of the talented young students of the high school.

The serving was in the hands of the members of the local committee and was a much enjoyed feature of the afternoon.

Several of the candidates were present, George E. Nickles, representative; W. H. Puls, assessor, of the democratic ticket and Miss Alpha Peterson, county superintendent.

In the election on Tuesday, Cass county emphatically remained in the ranks of the new deal with substantial majorities for the democratic state ticket, Edward R. Burke for United States senator, defeating Bob Simmons by 918 while Roy Cochran led Dwight Griswold by the margin of 242.

The county also endorsed the one house legislature, prohibition repeal and part-mutual betting on horse races. The legislature and repeal carried by a margin of some 700 while the race track amendment was much smaller.

The vote in Plattsmouth was the largest in years, 1,974 of the voters being out to register their expression, the third ward with 574 votes leading the city poll.

The large vote in the third ward was such that the counting board were still engaged in their work at noon today after an all night session to try and reach the final count.

It is expected that the large vote will assist in swelling the margin of the democratic state ticket as well as the democratic leaders in the county race.

The race of Sheriff Homer Sylvester for re-election was one of the features of the contest as he won by the margin of 1,619 with the third ward yet to register.

County Treasurer John E. Turner also showed strong gains over two years ago in the democratic sections of Cass county but Stamp held good gains in the heavy republican precinct of Stove Creek where he tied Turner. In the democratic city Turner and Kieck, republicans, both rolled up a large vote. The majority for Turner in the county without the third ward was 697 and that of Kieck 684. In the race for attorney Harry K. Dwyer made a nice run in the county.

Miss Lillian White, register of deeds, was one of the candidates to win by a wide margin, her majority being 1,490 without the third ward. R. D. Fitch was re-elected for the full term by the margin of 667 over Fulton Harris.

In the non-partisan race Miss Alpha Peterson was re-elected by a margin of 1,687 and showed strong in all sections of the county over her opponent, J. R. Reeder of this city.

The closest race of the election was that for state representative George E. Nickles, democrat, leading his republican opponent by the margin of forty-seven in the twenty-three precincts and the third ward will be necessary to fully determine the result.

In the race for state senator Fred Carsten, of Avoca, democrat, showed a great race and received 2,704 majority in Cass county over his opponent, William Bishoff, Jr., of Nebraska City.

FINALS ON COUNTY

From Wednesday's Daily
The returns from the third ward which were received this afternoon definitely placed George Nickles out in the clear for state representative by a vote of 3,933 to 3,890 for Troy L. Davis.

In the race for county clerk, the third ward gave Bernard Wurl a large vote, 402 to 162 for George R. Sayles, cutting the majority of Mr. Sayles to 356 as the result of the great demonstration of the neighbors of Mr. Wurl.

The third ward gave County Attorney Kieck a lift as he carried the ward 301 to 204 for Harry K. Dwyer and 54 for A. L. Tidd. This brought the total of Mr. Kieck to 3,896 to 3,025 for Mr. Dwyer and 1,112 for Mr. Tidd.

John E. Turner was also the beneficiary of the third ward vote, receiving 291 to 267 for J. L. Stamp and which still further increased the lead of Mr. Turner.

J. A. Capwell Attorney for the Home Loan Here

Will Have Charge of Local Offices of This Branch of Government Aid; Appraiser to Be Appointed.

Joseph A. Capwell has just been notified of his appointment as the local attorney for the home loan administration for Cass county, succeeding D. O. Dwyer, who was appointed some time ago as the head of the legal department of the home loan for the state.

Mr. Capwell was formerly the appraiser for the home loan administration and will now have charge of the handling and approving of the loans made in this county.

Mr. Capwell will make a very efficient representative in this office and will at once start in on the duties of the position which is one of much importance to the people of the county.

Since the creation of the home loan administration as one of the moves of the Roosevelt relief program, many of the home owners have availed themselves of its aid and made possible the improvement of the homes as well as the handling of burdens of taxes and other incumbrances. It has proven one of the greatest measures of aid to the property owners of the wide spread program of the national administration.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily
Last evening the Woman's club had a covered dish luncheon at the Methodist church. The teachers of the local schools were the guests. After the delicious luncheon was served a fine program was presented.

This being educational week, Supt. L. S. Devoe introduced the speaker, Dr. Irwin Hammer, head of the education department, Municipal University of Omaha. He brought up many of the present day educational problems, and showed the advancement that has been made in the last few years. His talk was well given and enjoyed by all present.

The musical part of the program consisted of two numbers given by the morning division of the Girls Glee club. They sang, "Mighty Lak a Rose" and "Amaryllis." Mr. Hoyt Griffin is their director and Miss Jane Boedeker the accompanist. This group and their director received many fine compliments for their performance.

Rev. G. A. Pahl favored the club with two vocal numbers, "Sylvia," and "Where You Walk," by Handel. Mrs. L. S. Devoe was his accompanist. Rev. Pahl is very talented and the club was pleased that he would give of his time and talent for their enjoyment.

Miss Jane Boedeker, a member of the senior class of the high school, gave two very fine piano numbers. These were well given and served as the climax of the musical program for the evening.

A short business meeting was held. Another Tag Day for the benefit of the public library was discussed for the observance of Book Week.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. L. W. Egenberger and will be a book and magazine shower for the library. The need for finances for the Woman's club was also discussed. They will probably sponsor a picture show a little later on. The support of the public will be much appreciated. The meeting was adjourned.

The committee in charge was Mrs. John Hatt, Mrs. C. C. Cotner, Mrs. Cyril Kalina, Mrs. Glen Vallery, Mrs. James Farnham.
