

The Amazing Nu-Type Aladdin Kerosene (Coal) Mantle Lamp Is The Ideal Gift

For the Entire Family Now Only $4.95

Look! You City Folks, Too! If looking for a gift for the color back home, will it they desire it to belong appreciated, send them an Aladdin.

SEE THIS ALADDIN and other glass and metal chandeliers, hanging brackets, floor and vase lamps, all at reduced prices.

Soennichsen's Preparing for Christmas Treat for the Public

Business Men's Ad Club to Stage Distribution of Turkeys, Geese and Other Fowl Here.

In preparation for the glad holiday season the members of the Business Men's Ad club will stage a distribution of turkeys, geese and other fowl on next Wednesday evening.

This will make a pleasant feature of the holiday season and permit residents to secure a much appreciated addition to the family larder for Christmas dinner.

Any of the stores affiliated with the Ad club will explain the methods of securing the turkeys and geese, so prepare to take part in this great event and add to the pleasures of the holiday season for yourself and family.

LEWISTON NOTES

Mrs. Georgia Creamer has been having a very bad cold for several days, but is feeling better just now. Come to Lewiston Community Center Dec. 19 at 8 o'clock. A play, "Everybody Getting Married."

See Burdett Hites at Lewiston. He sure knows how to tie the knot. If you want to tie up he will help you out. Try him!

Georgia Creamer and Nellie Wehrlein were visiting Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Read.

Don't forget the date and place, Lewiston Center, Dec. 19. A laugh for young and old. Don't miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Read, Mrs. Will Wehrlein and Mrs. Georgia Creamer attended the funeral of Mrs. Susan Young at Lincoln last Wednesday afternoon at 1:30, then drove to Ashland where interment was made.

PLEASANT RIDGE COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

Everyone welcome to attend Pleasant Ridge community meeting Friday evening, Dec. 21st. Mrs. Earl and Mrs. Floyd Becker in charge of program.

Phone the news to No. 6.

Dance Wed. Nite

Region Hall, Bekins Bldg. Plattsmouth

Peak and His Peaksters EXPONENTS OF RHYTHM

J. A. Pitz Named on Commissioners Legislative Com.

One of Important Committee To Urge Legislation at Session of the State Legislature.

In the meetings of the County Commissioners and Supervisors association at Omaha on Thursday officers were elected and committees appointed for the ensuing year. J. D. Forsyth, Niobrara, was selected as president of the association.

The legislative committee of the association was named, Julius A. Pitz of Plattsmouth; Herman Holm and Fred Tavis, Crete, who will have charge of the program as favored by the commissioners in reforming laws.

Among resolutions passed by the commissioners were: "We believe that the relief situation in our state could be handled more efficiently and economically through local relief agencies."

"We suggest that our incoming legislature take cognizance of the danger of the public of railroad streamline trains in reference to grade crossings."

"We respectfully ask our congress that appropriations made for relief purposes be utilized in doing essential highway work."

"We request the legislature to repeal the present law governing bonds to be furnished by supervisors and commissioners and restore the former law."

"The present old age pension law, being inadequate, we feel that measures should be taken to bring greater relief to those whom the law was intended to benefit."

SCIENCE GIVEN DEFENSE

New York.—Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, told the annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents scientific advancements do not foster unemployment, but create more jobs than they abolish.

Replying to contentions that science should take a holiday until economic adjustments have been made, the educator explained: "I believe, on the contrary, that there has never been a time when it was more important or more advantageous to press forward for scientific knowledge and its useful applications than now."

UNDERGOING TREATMENT

The many friends of Andy Schmader, popular and well known young man of this city and Omaha, will be interested in learning that he is now at the U. S. Veterans' hospital at Haines, Illinois. Mr. Schmader has been under treatment for the past several years and is now showing a very pleasing improvement. Mr. Schmader is expecting to be home in the next few weeks for a visit with the old friends.

RETURNS FROM LINCOLN

Mrs. Kate Morgan returned home Friday from Lincoln where she has been visiting with relatives and old time friends for the past few days. Mrs. Morgan while at Lincoln had the pleasure of a visit with her new grand niece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hallam, born a few days ago. The little lady has been christened Margaret Ellen, in honor of her two grandmothers.

KANSAS PLANE KILLS TRIO

Ablene, Kas.—Three men, Everett L. Peterson, Abilene, Victor Reed and Ed Lane, both of Solomon, were killed when their airplane crashed to earth and burst into flames eleven miles northwest of here. The three men flying a monoplane, owned and piloted by Peterson were believed killed by the force of the impact.

VISIT IN THE CITY

K. V. Carey, district commercial manager and J. A. McKenzie, district plant manager of the Lincoln Telephone & Telegraph Co., were in the city Thursday to look after some matters at the local exchange.

BOX-PLATE SUPPER

Program, Dec. 21, 8 o'clock, Rock Creek school, Dist. 6. Everyone welcome. VELMA FULTON, d15-1td2tw Teacher.

DEAD ANIMALS

Dead animals removed free of charge. Telephone South Omaha Rendering Works, Market 4626. Reverse charges. n5-tfw

Christmas SHOPPERS' GUIDE

Let's make this a Practical Christmas

Every section of this Store is a Gift Shop in itself—turn which way you will, and you'll find displayed the kind and quality of merchandise you'll be proud to give your feminine friends on Christmas eve. Never has our stock been more complete or the prices more in line with ability to pay. Come in early and make your selections. We'll gladly lay away the goods you select.

- Ladies' Scarfs, all styles, colors 59c to $1.95
Munsingwear Hosiery, Service or Chiffon. 69c to $1.25
Smartside Out Hosiery, per pair $1.00
Satin and Crepe Dance Sets $1.00 and $1.95
Satin and Crepe Negligees, lace trim . . $2.49 to $3.98
Lounging Pajamas, Corduroy and Crepe. $3.95 to $5.00
Kid and Cape Gloves $1.95 and $2.98

- Linen Handkerchiefs, plain and fancy . . . 15c and 25c
Scarf Sets 79c and $1.79
Crepe and Satin Costume Slips $1.00 and $1.95
Tailored Flannel Robes, each $5.00
Bright colored Sunday Night and Tunic Dresses . $5.95
New Metallic and Crepe Turbans $1.95 and $2.49
Balbreggan Pajamas. One, 2-piece $1.79

Reduced prices on Winter Coats and Dresses

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

LADIES TOGGERY

The Shop Of Personal Service Plattsmouth Nebraska

MURDOCK ITEMS

George Moomey, from east of Elmwood, was in Murdock last Thursday, delivering a number of dressed hogs to his customers.

Preparations are in progress at the Evangelical church for the Christmas entertainment, which promises to be a very joyous affair.

Oscar E. McDonald has been having a tussle with the flu for a week, and like all good sports won out in the end and is feeling much better.

Charles Letts and wife, of Council Bluffs, were here last Thursday, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Jannen, mother of Mrs. Henry Amgwert, which was held at the Callahan church.

Henry Carson, the elevator man, was a visitor with his mother at Havenlock over the week end. Henry rarely ever fails to go to see his mother on Sunday—a very good practice for any one to follow.

John Eppings and the family were visiting in Plattsmouth last Sunday, being guests for the day at the home of Deputy State Sheriff Jarvis E. Lancaster, as well as calling on the family of Virgil Arnold.

Henry Heineman, with his car, was in Lincoln last Wednesday, where he was called to look after some business matters for a short time. He was accompanied by Rev. H. R. Knospe, pastor of the Murdock and Louisville churches.

Rock Island Station Agent I. G. Hornbeck was feeling rather poorly during a portion of last week, having a siege of the grippe which kept him down only a short time, however, as he has been able to overcome the malady and is getting better.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kupke and a number of other members of the Order of Eastern Star were in Elmwood on Wednesday of last week, where the ladies were attending a meeting of the Star Kensington, which was held at the home of Mrs. Emily Gonzales, a splendid time being had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Friend, the latter parents of Mrs. Craig, who reside near Alvo, were in Lincoln Thursday of last week, driving over to the big town to look after the purchase of some Christmas goods and now have the matter out of the way. During their absence, Emil Kuehn was looking after business at the barber shop of Mr. Craig.

B. I. Clements Funeral Parlors Elmwood, Nebraska Expert service. Your patronage solicited. Phones: Office, 91; Home, 65.

Enjoyable Wedding Trip

A couple of weeks ago Otto Reichman and Miss Anna Reicke were united in marriage and with a party of friends departed for Chicago, remaining there some ten days to visit with numerous relatives in the city and at Napierville, a nearby suburb. They were accompanied by Mrs. Herman Schweppe, a sister of Mr. Reichman, Miss Meta Reichman and Miss Louise Reichman, a daughter of the groom. The party arrived home last Wednesday evening, having had an excellent time, but say, Mister, home looked good to them after they had been hustling around the big city for more than a week.

Ladies Enjoyed Meeting

The Ladies Aid of the Murdock church were enjoying a gathering on Friday of last week at the home of their fellow member, Mrs. John Thom. The meeting was to have been held on Thursday afternoon, but was deferred until the following day on account of the funeral of the mother of Mrs. Henry Amgwert, which was held on Thursday afternoon at the Callahan church.

Basketball Season Open

The first and second basketball teams of the Alvo high school came to Murdock last Tuesday evening, and met the like teams of the schools here, with the result that Murdock won both games. The score of the game between the second teams was 30 to 9, while that of the game between the first teams was 39 to 10. A decisive victory for the home town boys in both instances.

Secured the Wheel Chair

Diligent effort by the Cass County Red Cross chapter has resulted in locating a wheel chair for an aged invalid, Mrs. Stachetski, who has been bedridden for more than a year. Word has just been received that B. I. Clements of Elmwood has one, which he has graciously granted the Red Cross the privilege of using for Mrs. Stachetski. This will bring much comfort to this aged woman and it is with sincere appreciation the Red Cross desires to thank Mr. Clements for his splendid contribution. Again Red Cross leaves nothing undone in the service to humanity, having been

Death of Infant Son

The nine-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Timm had the misfortune to fall from his go-cart some time ago, severely bruising the side of his face, which ended in death on Wednesday. The little one had been taken to an Omaha hospital for an operation and treatment, but was unable to withstand the ordeal. The funeral was held on Friday, with burial in the Lutheran cemetery north of town. Mr. and Mrs. Timm have the sympathy of their many friends in their hour of sorrow.

Sunday School Elects Officers

At the Sunday school election held last Sunday, John Schlaphoff was elected superintendent for 1935, and Elmer Miller vice superintendent. They will take charge of the Sunday school the first Sunday in January. Teachers will be appointed the last Sunday in December.

Buried Here Thursday

Mrs. C. Jannen, wife of the District Superintendent of the Evangelical church of the Hastings district, died last Monday and was buried Thursday from the Callahan church, with interment in the cemetery near the church. Rev. W. O. Matzke, her pastor, conducted the service.

Delivers Consignment of Baskets

L. D. Hiatt, of Plattsmouth, proprietor of the Nebraska Basket Factory at that place, was a visitor in Murdock last Thursday, with a consignment of baskets from the factory, which he had sold to L. Neitzel. The consignment consisted of clothes hampers and a number of other kinds of baskets designed to sell during the holiday season.

Engaged for some time in seeking the owner of such equipment who would be willing to loan it.

The games between Murdock and Avoca of which two were played on last Friday, Murdock first team lost to Avoca by a score of 25 to 18. The second team however, won 17 to 12.

Linger Longer Club Notes.

On Friday, December 14, the Linger Longer Woman's extension club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Elshlee for an all day meeting. The business meeting was held in the morning before our lunch. The lunch consisted of covered dishes which the members brought. In the afternoon the men attended the meeting proper. The lesson was on "Economic Buying of Foods." The leaders brought to mind the need of careful buying and reading of labels before buying.

The meeting was adjourned and each went to his respective home.

The next meeting, which will also be an all day meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. I. C. McCrory on Jan. 25.—Club Reporter.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska.

To the Creditors of the estate of Martha T. Renwanz, deceased. No. 5083:

Take notice that the time limited for the presentation and filing of claims against said estate is April 12, 1935; that a hearing will be had at the County Court Room in Plattsmouth on April 19th, 1935 at 10 A. M. for the purpose of examining, hearing, allowing, and adjusting all claims or objections duly filed.

Dated December 14th, 1934.

A. H. D. JUDGE, County Judge.

engaged for some time in seeking the owner of such equipment who would be willing to loan it. The games between Murdock and Avoca of which two were played on last Friday, Murdock first team lost to Avoca by a score of 25 to 18. The second team however, won 17 to 12. Linger Longer Club Notes. On Friday, December 14, the Linger Longer Woman's extension club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Elshlee for an all day meeting. The business meeting was held in the morning before our lunch. The lunch consisted of covered dishes which the members brought. In the afternoon the men attended the meeting proper. The lesson was on "Economic Buying of Foods." The leaders brought to mind the need of careful buying and read-

THE Smartness OF Christiness

• Munsingwear hosiery is the first choice of women who realize that buying the best is real economy. Munsingwear hosiery is made of the finest materials . . . to the highest standards of workmanship. It wears and stays lovely longer because of this typical Munsingwear care. They're beautiful, sheer, clear . . . all the smartest shades. And prices you'll find very reasonable.

LADIES TOGGERY THE SHOP OF PERSONAL SERVICE Plattsmouth, Nebr.