Sanford Homan and family were guests for the evening last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homan, where all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The mid-winter holiday season is not proving the most pleasant for W. H. Homan, as he has had all of his lower teeth extracted and will not be able to enjoy the fine Christmas dinner his wife is expecting to prepare. His jaws are still very sore from the ordeal through which he has gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields were in Louisville last Sunday, where they went to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reese. They all went to Nebraska City, where they enjoyed a visit during the day, returning home that night in the snow storm. They had a splendid time, but got the new car all muddy.

BRIGGS—Something wrong here—

Messrs Magnus and James Johnson accompanied by Mrs. Maggie Stutt, made a trip to York, where they met Eden Johnson, her husband, and were conferring regarding some business matters. Following their consultation, Mr. Stutt returned to his home at Kearney and Messrs Johnson and Mrs. Maggie Stutt returned to Weeping Water, where Mrs. Stutt is nursing her father, Mr. Hans Johnson.

Mrs. Fred H. Gordor, wife of County Commissioner Gordor, who has been in the hospital at Lincoln for a number of weeks, was able to return home last Sunday. Mr. Gordor drove over after her and brought her home in the car. She is getting along very well at this writing and it is hoped will continue to recuperate. She reports Gust Kegley still at the hospital and that he is getting along only fair.

Dies at Kearney

G. R. Binger on last Thursday received the sad news of the death of his aunt, Mrs. Gardner Clarke, and at once left for Kearney, where the funeral was held on Friday. En route home Saturday, he stopped at Lincoln, where he picked up his daughter, Mrs. Merton Fernbaugh and their little daughter, Miss Letta Mae, who visited here over the week end and were taken back home Monday by Ralph Binger, who had some business matters to look after in the city.

Farm Income Rises as Production Takes Drop

Agriculture's Profit Tops Five Billions for Highest Mark in Four Years.

Washington.—Paradoxical totals of the smallest crop production in more than thirty years and the highest farm income in four years were reported by the department of agriculture.

The summary of production during 1934 showed a farm output 32 percent less than the average of the past ten years. Many crops returned the lowest yields since 1890 because of drouth and the production control programs of the farm administration.

The total value of all crops, at the same time, was reported as $4,782,626,000, compared with $4,114,65,000 last year and $2,882,195,000 in 1932. By adding in the 552 millions in benefit payments made by the AAA the figure was increased to $5,324,626,000.

Production was listed in the report as follows: Corn, 1,350,718,000 bushels, 41 percent smaller than last year and 45 percent less than the five year average; wheat, 596,469,500 bushels, the smallest since 1890; oats, 528,815,000 bushels, 55 percent less than the five year average; grain sorghums, 24,542,000 bushels, 61 percent below 1933; sugar beets, 7,627,000 tons, 21 percent less than last year; barley, 118,929,000 bushels, the smallest since 1900; tobacco, 1,095,662,000 pounds, 20 percent below last year; cotton lint, 9,731,000 bales, 33 percent less than the five year average; and potatoes, 385,278,000 bushels, 20 percent larger than 1933.

and the drug store have equal planting displays, which with the large tree in the center of the street make a most impressive sight.

To Hold Exercises Monday

The Christian church's Christmas program will be given on Monday evening, December 24th, and will be a most worth-while presentation. The children will be recipients of a candy treat and other presents from Santa Claus himself and a good time is assured all who attend.

Fruffers a Severe Stroke

On Friday of last week while attending to his duties at the store, Hans Johnson, the groceryman, was stricken suddenly and was unable to either aid himself or secure assistance until a customer came in and found him. He was taken to his home and the store closed. He has since been confined to his bed, being looked after by friends at first, but later his daughter, Mrs. Edwin Stutt, of Kearney, arrived to take care of the father. He is still in a very serious condition and when we last received a report he was yet unable to talk. His many friends are hoping he may show a turn for the better and be able to get out again.

Funeral of Max Southernland.

Max Southernland, one of the very finest men and a native of this vicinity, son of Mrs. Laura Southernland who some two years ago went to Otoe where he engaged in the undertaking business and where he was making a very marked success, died there Saturday of double pneumonia.

The funeral was held at the late home at noon on Tuesday and at two o'clock at the Elmwood Methodist church. This young man stood in such high esteem that there was scarcely room enough in the building for the friends who desired to pay this young man their last tribute. He was united in marriage this year, July 11, to a young woman of Syracuse. Interment was at the beautiful Elmwood cemetery.

Those left to mourn of his family his mother, Mrs. Laura Southernland, one brother, Walter, of Dix, Nebraska, his sisters, Miss Belle Southernland, teacher in the Beatrice schools, Mrs. Irene March of Wyoming, Mrs. Ruth Hall of Elmwood and Mrs. Joseph Kazmarek of Dix, Nebraska.

Old Age Pension Discussed.

The Townsend old age pension plan has received much attention by the people of Elmwood, there having been three meetings for its consideration. True there is a need for something of this nature, just as there is a childrens' home, but the Townsend plan is too much a dream.
