Jacobson and Mr. E. P. Betta. Sympathy is extended to the members of these families. Obituary of Mrs. Henry Snoko. Anna Cathrine Wetenkamp, daughter of Conrad and Sophia Wetenkamp, widely known in the Eagle community as Aunt Katie, was born on the 23rd day of September, 1869. The Wetenkamp homestead just west of Eagle in Lancaster county was her childhood home. The days of her youth were spent at home, her schooling was obtained in the little schoolhouse which once stood on a corner of her farm home, known as the Ivanhoe school. On the 15th of March, 1888 she was united in marriage to Walter Adams. They made their home in Greenwood, then in Aurora and in 1891 came to Eagle where Mr. Adams engaged in the hardware business. On the 23rd of September, 1894, this home was broken up by the death of Mr. Adams, leaving the widowed mother and her two boys, Elmer and Arthur. On March 10, 1898, the family circle was once more completed by her marriage to Henry Snoko and their home established on a farm just east of Eagle. One daughter came to bless this new home, Nelda Snoko. Just a brief two year ago the active management of the farm was turned over to the boys and Mr. and Mrs. Snoko moved into Eagle. On Christmas day, 1934, as the sun hung very low in the stormy western skies, she heard the Divine summons and answered it. Aged 65 years, 3 months, 2 days. As a shock to her loved ones and the community, she went from us. In her usual good health there was no indication that the end was so near. A Christmas day filled with joy was suddenly turned into an evening of grief and sorrow. She is survived by her husband, Henry; two sons, Elmer and Arthur Adams; one daughter, Nelda Norris; and one sister, Mrs. Dora Crabtree of Sioux City. Two brothers and two sisters have preceded her in death, Conrad and Ernest Wetenkamp and Maggie Crabtree and Emma Beach. Six grandchildren will miss a kind and loving grandmother. She was confirmed in the Lutheran church, and since the organization of Trinity church here in Eagle had been an active member throughout the years. As a member of the Ladies' Aid society she has done much for the church and will be greatly missed by her co-workers in this organization. As a neighbor and friend she always displayed those qualities of kindness and sympathy which endeared her to all. The day before Christmas she made several calls in this community in the homes of those who were sick. A brightly burning light has suddenly gone out. Services for Eagle Resident. Funeral services for Mr. William Fisher, who passed away Thursday evening at an Omaha hospital after a short illness, were held at the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon. The Methodist minister of Alvo was in charge of the services and burial was at Pickerel. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Fisher by friends in this community. New Year's Eve Party. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McMaster entertained at a New Year's eve party at their home. The evening was spent at cards. After the new year had been welcomed the hostess served a lovely lunch. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Rokenbach, Mr. and Mrs. William Trunkenboiz, and Mr. and Mrs. George Trimble. Oyster Supper. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wall and daughters entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Lanning, Orris and Viola and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomson of Palmyra and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wall of Beaver City at an oyster supper last Monday evening. CHALLENGE DEMOCRAT WINS. Santa Fe, N. M.—Election of Clyde Tingley, democrat, as governor of New Mexico, as well as two other democratic candidates in the November election, was challenged in the state supreme court on the same grounds that the majority of Senator Cutting (pr. r.) over Dennis Chavez (d) is contested. Three republicans, Jaffa Miller, candidate for governor; M. F. Miera, for congressman, and Mrs. E. A. Ferrault, for secretary of state, all demanded an order requiring the state canvassing board to disregard returns from certain precincts in fifteen counties on the ground illegal votes were counted. Elimination of these returns would wipe out majorities for Tingley, J. J. Dempsey for congress and Elizabeth Fayette Gonzales for secretary of state. Congressman Chavez asked that returns from San Miguel county be disregarded. This would eliminate the approximately 1,500 majority shown for Cutting. The Cutting-Chavez dispute is under consideration by the court. The state canvassing board has announced it will report Monday. Journal ads bring you news of timely bargains. Read them!

to Weeping Water for the day and dinner, also taking them home again in the evening. Miss Agnes Rough, the beautician and milliner, was a visitor in Lincoln on New Year's, where she visited with friends. She also called on Mrs. Stewart Rough, who is convalescing at the Bryan Memorial hospital, where she recently underwent an operation for gall stones. Peter H. Miller, the produce man, was in Plattsmouth last Monday, at which place he was looking after some business matters and visiting at the home of his son, James Miller and family. The trip in a car with no heat was too much for him and he was not feeling very well when he returned and had to go to bed until he should be feeling better. Taking Stock Now The Weeping Water Variety Store was taking inventory of its stock on Monday and on Tuesday, when other business houses of the city were closed for New Year's day and all were enjoying a family dinner at the Michelsen home. Spent New Years at Nehawka Mr. and Mrs. Ben Olive and children were at Nehawka on New Year's day, where they were guests at a fine New Year's dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon, which was attended by the many Sheldons of Nehawka. Richard Cole was also numbered among the guests. Pleased with Weeping Water Fred Allen, of the Fred Allen Grocery company, who recently opened a store here in the room where H. K. Frantz was formerly located, in speaking of the town and business, said he was well pleased with the people of the community and the volume of trade that has come to him in the comparatively short time he has been here. He is looking forward to 1935 for increasing prosperity and feels confident it will come to one and all. Selling Number of Cars John Cole of the Cole Motor company, distributors of Ford products, is finding a number of people in need of a new car, and has been taking orders for early delivery of the new 1935 models which were placed on display a few days ago. He sold Stacy Niday of Union a new standard coupe, which he was able to deliver at once. He also has orders for two more of these cars as soon as he can get them from the factory. Visited in Nehawka Richard Cole, who is an employee of the Handy Filling Station, was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday, being a guest for dinner at the home of J. J. Pollard. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Taft Pollard and Mr. and Mrs. Vilas P. Sheldon. Besides the splendid dinner which was served, all enjoyed a fine visit together. In the evening, Mr. Cole attended a party which was sponsored by Sheldon Mar-

Building New Home

Sam Baker, who is a carpenter and builder, is erecting a fine modern six room home with full basement, for the enjoyment of himself and family. The materials are being purchased of the Binger Lumber company. New Year's at Parsonage Rev. Pangborn, pastor of the M. E. church, and wife, entertained a group of some eighteen people comprising what is known as "the gang" at a splendid New Year's day dinner Tuesday. Among those who made up the happy party was Mrs. Clizbe, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Tuck, W. Weisemann and wife, Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Letton, Mrs. Linback, Mr. Ogden and a few others whose names we did not get. New Institution in Town Jacob P. All not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to these services. We welcome any one visiting in the city. E. S. PANGBORN, Pastor. W. C. T. U. HAS RESOLUTION Chicago.—The New Year's resolution of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union—"Continued championship of national prohibition of the traffic in beverage alcohol and in other narcotic drugs." Until that objective is attained, the organization announced, it will fight for prohibition of alcohol traffic in all federal areas, including the District of Columbia, and the prohibition of all liquor advertising. Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, president, complimented the government on its efforts to stamp out criminal and drug rings and added: "But the success of any national drive upon crime or the drug menace is fatally handicapped so long as it fails to include a fearless attack upon the most serious factor in the problem—the powerfully protected and highly capitalized traffic in beverage alcohol. Any successful fight against narcotics must include relentless battle for abolition of the liquor traffic."

Smith, Mrs. Louvina Comer, Herman F. Comer and wife, Mrs. David Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander of Lincoln, Louis Murray and Mrs. Jessie Scott.

Pioneer Passes Away Charles F. Morton, age 70, was stricken last Saturday about the noon hour and remained in a very serious condition until about four o'clock Monday morning, when he passed away. Mr. Morton had not been in the best of health for some time, but had been active in the work about the place on the farm where he had lived for so many years. While he did not complain, he was not able to do the amount of work which came to him. He would go out and work as long and as hard as his limited strength would allow, then would go rest awhile and return to work again, keeping pegging along as he felt the work had to be done.

Mr. Morton was united in marriage to Miss Emma Taylor during the latter part of December, 1866. They made their home in Cass county the greater part of their married life. To this union were born six girls and two boys. They are: Stella, who preceded the father to the other world some years ago and Rose, who died in childhood; Mary L. Wilks, Mrs. J. C. Lovelock, Mrs. George Lopp and Mrs. Edith Hathaway, daughters, and Edgar Morton, who resides in the west, and Harley Emmet Morton of Union.

Years ago, Mr. Morton was engaged in the mercantile business in Union, but most of his life was spent on the farm where there was plenty of hard work to be done, especially in the days before the advent of modern machinery and he never shirked doing a full day's work. Funeral services were held from the Baptist church at Union Wednesday, January 2nd at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor. M. W. A. had charge at the grave. A quartet composed of Messrs. Rihn, Frans, Cross and Whitworth, sang, with Mrs. D. Ray Frans at the piano.

SAYS MATTHEWS TO BE OUT Omaha.—A report was circulated in labor circles here that Governor-elect Cochran will appoint a new state labor commissioner from Douglas county to succeed Cecil Matthews of Omaha. The appointment, it was reported, will be made within the next few days. Omaha central labor union and the Douglas county union voters league have endorsed Emerson P. Howard, president of the Omaha Typographical union, for the post. The names of Roy M. Brewer, former president of the Nebraska state federation of labor and present NRA labor compliance officer for Nebraska; W. G. Houghton, city building inspector and secretary of the state federation, and V. B. Kinney, editor of a union paper here, were also mentioned.
