NUDISTS ANSWER AL SMITH

New York.—The international nudist conference struck back at the advisory council of the Legion of Decency and said "it is strange indeed" to find Alfred E. Smith in the role of a crusader against nudism. The former governor is chairman of the advisory council.
"It appears," said Rev. Hsley Boone, executive secretary of the nudist conference, "that the Legion of Decency of the Catholic church proposes an amendment to the present state laws against immorality, this amendment being directed specifically against the nudist movement."

"In the present instance, it is strange indeed to find Mr. Smith favoring legislation designed to prohibit in the realm of morals, if indeed it be claimed that nudism is itself immoral, for he was one of the country's staunchest advocates of prohibition repeal and on the first anniversary of repeal made the statement that we cannot make people moral by legislation. This has long been recognized. Yet there is more social danger to our young folks in a quart of gin than in three miles of state censored movie film."

GOVERNMENT CLAIMS GOLD

Baltimore.—The secret service division of the treasury department made it known that regardless of who Judge Eugene O'Dunne decides should have the gold hoard found in a cellar here, Uncle Sam wants the gold. A secret operative attended the opening of hearings in the circuit court and laid claim to the 3,553 coins now in the court clerk's custody. The treasury will redeem them by bullion measure instead of the $11,000 face value, it was intimated. Since the coins weigh approximately seventy pounds, this may boost the value above $11,000.

Two boys, Theodore Jones and Henry Grob, found the golden fortune buried in an old copper container in the cellar of the house occupied by Jones' family. The heirs of Andrew Saulsbury and of occupants of the house before the Jones family moved in are laying claim to it. Secret service men stated they believe the court clerk is responsible for seeing that the gold is delivered to the government instead of to an outside party. The two boys are claiming the treasure themselves.

INDICTMENTS FAIL TO COME

San Francisco.—Expected indictments against alleged former associates of "Baby Face" Nelson and John Paul Chase failed to materialize from the federal grand jury room as United States attorneys announced their cases against Arthur Pratt, Montana jeweler, and two others were not yet ready for presentation.

Enthusiastic Over Plans for Scout Circus

Plattsmouth Well Represented at the District Business Meeting and Election at Nebr. City.

Thirty-five Scouters representing six of the nine towns in the Arbor Lodge district that maintain active Scout troops at the present time, attended the dinner and annual business meeting and election of officers at the Grand hotel in Nebraska City last evening.

Cass county towns represented included Plattsmouth, Louisville and Nehawka. The delegation from here included E. H. Wescott, one of the vice chairmen of Arbor Lodge district, who presided over the business meeting at the request of President Bert Swalley; Raymond Larson, local Scoutmaster; and Elmer Webb, Alex Geist and Robert Reed, members of the Legion troop committee, the trip being made in Reed's car.

The Louisville delegation comprised D. W. Webb, Scoutmaster, and Ralph Larson, member of the troop committee. Walter Wunderlich was the Nehawka representative.

Encouraging reports were made by the chairmen of troop committees and scoutmasters of progress during the past year and of the method of handling various problems that arise from time to time.

The finance report by Chairman of Finance C. D. Damast, revealed that all towns in the district with the exception of Syracuse have now met their quota and the year is being wound up in splendid shape financially.

In the absence of M. R. Shrader, district court of honor chairman, Lee E. Harbottle, assistant Scout executive of the Cornhusker council, reported on the last court of honor at Nehawka and announced the forthcoming court at Louisville on January 23rd.

Election of officers was then declared in order and by the unanimous vote of the assemblage Bert Swalley, of Nebraska City was re-elected as district chairman. Four vice chairmen were elected, two of them from Cass county, E. H. Wescott, of Plattsmouth, and Supt. G. M. Corum, of Louisville.
Chairman elect Swalley announced the re-appointment of C. D. Damast, Nebraska City, as district finance officer and Supt. M. R. Shrader, of Nebraska City as district court of honor chairman. Elmer Webb, of Plattsmouth, was named as district publicity officer, a new appointive office.

At the conclusion of the election and announcement of appointments, the meeting was turned into a round table discussion of the forthcoming Scout circus to be held at Memorial building in Plattsmouth early in April. Various questions were answered by Assistant Scout Executive Harbottle, who later introduced Rev. Walter H. Jackson, of Nebraska City, as the man who has been selected to be general chairman of circus promotion. Rev. Jackson, who until his recent assignment to Nebraska City, has long been active in Scouting circles in the Covered Wagon council (north of the Platte) gave an enthusiastic explanation of the plans he has for making the circus a success and bespoke the co-operation of each troop in the district. This one and one to be held at Grand Island in June will be the only two district circuses ever undertaken, although in the larger cities of the country they are held at frequent intervals. It was admitted that it would take a lot of energy to put it over, but Rev. Jackson stated they are assured of co-operation of such concerns as the Lincoln Telephone company, which owns extensive equipment used in signaling used at Lincoln circuses and also of Lincoln Scouts who have acquired considerable of the material needed and will place use of the same at the disposal of the Arbor Lodge district. A complete organization will be set up to look after all details and put the circus on in a manner that will reflect credit upon Scouting in this district. Mimeographed sheets describing the acts desired in detail will be sent out from Lincoln in a few days and troops may select the parts they prefer to take, after which general assignment will be made and practice can be started in the individual troops by February 1st. It is admitted that the biggest difficulty will be in coordinating the acts without delay in clearing the floor and getting the next group out without the benefit of rehearsal, such as is possible when all acts are made up in one town, but to this end the services of staging directors with showmanship ability will be sought.

Following Rev. Jackson's outline of the plans, great enthusiasm was expressed for the success of the undertaking and the good it will do for Scouting in the district by giving each troop and patrol definite objectives to work for along the very lines set forth in advanced Scouting.

ARMY GAIN TO BE SLIGHT
Washington.—The army expects a 45 million dollar larger spending allowance next year, but it will not mean a large increase in numerical strength. This increase over current appropriations are reported authoritatively to have been written by President Roosevelt into the 1936 budget which goes to congress Monday. By error, it recently was reported as a 445 millions increase.

The original war department estimates were cut so sharply, however, that the increase from 116,000 to 165,000 men recommended by General MacArthur will be impossible, barring a change in plans. Also, even with more money, it was reported the army will require five or six, instead of four years, to build its air strength to 2,320 serviceable planes as recommended by Secretary Dern, MacArthur and the Baker aviation committee.

GLASS REACHES 77TH YEAR
Washington.—Senator Glass of Virginia celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary by going to work earlier than usual and putting in a full day's attendance.

He saw politicians and job-seekers, attended the joint session for the president's speech, walked twice down the "longest corridor in the world" between the senate and house wings, and chatted with colleagues with a vigor that belied his threescore and seventeen years.

Glass now is in his third senate term. He served nine terms in the house before resigning to become secretary of the treasury in the Wilson cabinet. He turned down a similar post in the Roosevelt official family and lists that fact in his life sketch in the congressional directory.

MORE CATTLE MAY BE SOLD
William J. Loeffel, state director of FERA meat processing, said the number of cattle processed in Nebraska will total more than 480,000 head.

Loeffel said 373,259 head of cattle had been bought in the state. Amount spent for cattle purchases by the government in Nebraska already is more than $5,500,000.

The quota for cattle purchases this week is 6,975 and government agents will buy cattle at Ogallala, Loomis, Franklin, Hartington and Ainsworth. Cattle from drought farms will be bought Saturday at Dunning, Barley, O'Neill, Syracuse, Bassett and Fullerton.

BETTER THAN AN OIL WELL
Flemington, N. J.—The Hauptmann trial means dollars to Flemington. A small army of 700 newspapermen, telegraph operators, visitors and others have "dug in" for the duration of the trial, which the prosecution thinks will run from four to six weeks. It is estimated that each of the 700 visitors will spend $10 a day. That will mean $7,000 a day, $49,000 a week, $196,000 if the trial lasts a month, and $294,000 if it runs six weeks. Add to that the amount of money spent for items other than living expenses, and the total becomes quite an item in the life of a community of 2,700 persons.

BINDERUP IS FLYING HOME
Washington.—Representative Binderup (d. Neb.) started an airplane fight for Nebraska as a result of the burning of business property he owns in Minden. He planned to fly to Grand Island, from where he can get to Minden quickly. He expected to return within a week, after seeing what could be done to renovate the property.

ATTACKS MAIL LOADER
Grand Island.—D. M. Chalney, Giltner farmer, was bound over to the federal court by Commissioner J. L. Cleary on a charge of obstructing and retarding the handling of the mails. Bond was fixed at $200, pending trial in federal court here the week of Jan. 14.

The NEW Firestone CENTURY PROGRESS TIRE
Ten Million People HELPED TO BUILD THE TIRE SENSATION OF '34!

Beyond Comparison in Quality, Construction, Appearance and Price With Any First Quality Tire Made

THE way to create a TIRE SENSATION is to give the people what they want, and Firestone has done this with the new Firestone Century Progress Tire.

As millions of people visited the Firestone Factory at the World's Fair last year, we asked this question—"What do you value most in a tire?" They answered—"Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear at a moderate price." This was a big order, but Firestone has a habit of giving car owners what they want when they want it.

We knew there was only one way to build Quality and Value into a tire at a moderate price, and that was by volume production. We built the greatest tire ever made to sell at these low prices. Car owners are profiting because we found out what they wanted and found the way to give it to them.

The new Firestone Century Progress Tire IS EQUAL OR SUPERIOR to any first quality tire built, regardless of name, brand, by whom manufactured, or at what price offered for sale.

GERMAN FOOD PRICES
Harvest estimates now show that Germany will have no serious shortage of food during the winter. But costs have been steadily rising, owing to the government's policy of favoring the farmer and fixing agricultural prices for his benefit. While rye last August brought only 65 marks a ton wholesale in Amsterdam, the price in Liverpool was listed at 69 marks, as compared with 199 in Germany. Perk at 12 marks per hundredweight in Chicago compared with 47 marks in the German home market. The price of Danish butter was less than one third that fixed for German consumers.

The high cost of food products and the government's rigid rules against profiteering and price-raising have put retailers in a very difficult position. Some have shut up shop because they could not afford to do business. Fear of a scarcity of food and of still higher prices led to some hoarding. To deal with the problem Hitler appointed Dr. Hans Goerdeler as special commissar.

FISHING BOAT BURNED
Santa Monica, Calif.—A small commercial fishing boat named Victor burned to the water's edge ten miles off shore here. Its two occupants, A. R. Parker and William Platt, shored off from the burning craft in a skiff and were rescued by another fishing boat from Santa Monica.

CURLEY TAKES OFFICE OATH
Boston.—James M. Curley took the oath of office as the Bay state's fifty-third governor and immediately, in his inaugural address, opened an attack on governmental establishments of long standing.

The inaugural ceremony itself was without precedent in the history of the state, for owing to a filibuster which prevented organization of the senate, the oath of office was administered by Secretary of State Cook. Ordinarily, the oath is administered by the president of the senate.

Among the most important changes recommended by Curley was the reduction to half of the present legislative membership and the holding of biennial sessions. Greater economy and efficiency would result, he asserted. He asked that the present governor's council, "a relic of the days of royalty," be abolished, and this suggestion drew repeated applause and cheers.

Every penny spent for advertising will yield a big return.

"The Voice of the People"—Back Again

Following Rev. Jackson's outline of the plans, great enthusiasm was expressed for the success of the undertaking and the good it will do for Scouting in the district by giving each troop and patrol definite objectives to work for along the very lines set forth in advanced Scouting.

"See it before you buy it."
