UNION ITEMS.

Mrs. Kate McCarroll took supper with Mrs. Eikenberry and Mrs. Carper on Sunday evening.

Martin Bloom, of Plattsmouth, was in Union last Monday, as well as looking after some business matters calling on his friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Comer, Mrs. Jessie Scott and the Homer Snodgrass family were calling at the John Hansell home Sunday afternoon.

Forest M. Barkhurst was looking after some business matters in Murray and Plattsmouth last Saturday, driving over to the two towns in his auto.

While George A. Stites was away the fore part of the week the business of the Union Co-Operative Credit association was looked after by Fulton Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Rase and family, of Auburn were dinner guests at the J. A. Chapman home Sunday, helping to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Chapman.

W. B. Banning and wife were in Lincoln last week, where Mr. Banning looked after the transaction of some business matters and they visited with friends as well.

James Huff and brother of Nebraska City, were visitors in Union last Monday, coming to look after some business matters here and in the country as well.

Miss Gussie Robb will visit in Omaha Friday, February 22nd, Washington's birthday, calling on friends there as well as looking after some business matters.

George A. Stites, mayor and banker of Union, was in Lincoln and other points outstate the fore part of the week, where he had business matters claiming his attention.

Alfred Anderson of Omaha, accompanied by the family, were guests last Sunday afternoon at the home of C. G. McCarthy and family. Messdames Anderson and McCarthy are sisters.

Charles McNamee, of Brush, Colo., who came down last week for a several days' visit with his mother and brother, Amos, as well as other relatives and friends, returned home on Friday.

George A. Stites and W. B. Banning were in Lincoln last Friday, being called to the capital city to look after some business at the office of the state treasurer and at the office of the public highways department.

Arthur Trunkenbolz, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Union last Monday, looking after the interests of the Trunkenbolz Oil company in Union and conferring with their manager here, Daniel Reynolds, regarding the business here.

Dan Porter of the Porter Funeral Home of Nebraska City, was a visitor in Union last Monday and was looking after some business matters while here. He placed an ad for the funeral home to appear in the Union department of the Journal.

On last Saturday, Ray Becker held a sale of his farming implements and machinery as well as of his stock on the farm. Mr. Becker expects to engage in the oil business as soon as it is possible to get his equipment installed and ready for operation, which will be in the early spring.

Miss Harriett Leach, who is attending the Normal school at Peru, was a visitor at home last Saturday, remaining over the week end for a very enjoyable visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach. Her mother drove her back to Peru on Monday morning in time to resume her school duties.

Frank Bauer and Elmer Withrow went to Nebraska City last Sunday to view the gigantic ice gorge which had formed south of town and which it was feared might tear out a large amount of completed river work that has been finished according to specifications and accepted by the government. On their return, they went to Murray, where they visited and looked after some business matters.

Showing Good Improvement
 Orville Hathaway, carrier of the mail on the Union rural route, who has been so seriously ill during the past few weeks, was compelled to forego carrying the mail and leave the job to his substitute carrier. He is now making good improvement and was able to be down town Saturday, meeting with many of his friends and patrons who were in town to do their trading. However, he is not able to resume his duties as yet, although he hopes soon to be able to do so.

Washington Birthday Program

to be held at the Taylor school Friday, Febr. 22nd. Refreshments, sandwiches, coffee and cake, 5 cents each.

Will Hold Farm Sale

L. G. Todd and son Melvin will hold a sale of live stock and farm machinery at their farm north of Union on Tuesday, February 26th. The advertisement of this sale will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Semi-Weekly Journal. Better look it up.

Melvin Todd Very Poorly

Melvin Todd was taken with a severe attack of influenza last week, which has kept this young man confined to his bed. His condition was so serious that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd were there Sunday and Sunday night, assisting in his care. They returned home Monday. All are hoping that Mr. Todd may rapidly recuperate from this prevailing malady that has had so many down during the past few weeks.

M. E. Ladies Aid Meeting

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a goodly number of the members of the Ladies Aid, with their husbands and other invited guests, enjoyed the covered dish dinner at the L. G. Todd home on Valentine day, where, figuratively at least, the table groaned with its weight of good things to eat.

The food, napkins and rooms were decorated with hearts, symbolic of St. Valentine, while the program under the direction of Mrs. Cross, carried out the thought of that patron saint, she telling of the origin of the day.

Several of those who were to furnish a part of the program, could not be present on account of bad roads, so it was of shorter duration than planned, although several supplementary musical numbers were given by obliging guests.

After the close of the program, the guests remained to enjoy a social hour of visiting together before repairing to their homes. Mrs. Kunkel presided in the absence of Mrs. Hansell, and it was decided to meet in two weeks for a covered dish luncheon at the church, where it is hoped all members can be present, including husbands and other guests, and where a program will again be given.

Sophomore Class Dinner

We have felt that the attractively appointed dinner given by the Sophomores on Tuesday evening of last week to the mothers, merits more than the cursory mention that could be given at that time. The dinner prepared under the direction of Miss Chittenden, the Home Economics teacher, was very palatable and tastefully arranged and served, while the table decorations carried out the motif of the three celebrated days of the month, viz the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington and St. Valentine's day.

The table seating eight was lighted by tall white candles in red holders, while the place cards of red had a silhouette of Washington in black under which the guest's names were inscribed. The favors were small baskets cleverly fashioned from red crepe paper placed on lace paper doilies and filled with tiny red candy hearts, such as St. Valentine might have been pleased to dispense, while the napkins showed the traditional hatchet and cherry tree design in one corner.

The menu, beginning with fruit cocktail and ending with home made ice cream, with a savory main course between, showed careful preparation and was a real treat.

The members of the class are June Frans, Sylvia Withrow, June Arm-

Albert Schuldice, Former Resident, Dies in Chicago

Well Known Resident Here for Many Years, Succumbs to Illness of Several Weeks.

The death of Albert H. Schuldice, 75, resident of Plattsmouth over a long period of years, occurred Sunday morning at Chicago where Mr. Schuldice had made his home for some time at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Harry Benson. Mr. Schuldice had been at Omaha several weeks ago when he was first taken sick but his case was not considered serious and he returned with his daughter to her home at Chicago and in the last few days grew gravely ill.

The deceased was a native of Allentown, Pennsylvania, where he spent his earlier years and was married, the family later moving to Plattsmouth in the eighties and where they resided for a great many years. Mr. Schuldice was engaged as a tinner at the Burlington shops for some years and later engaged in commercial work here until some seventeen years ago when the family moved to Omaha to make their home. Mrs. Schuldice passed away in this city in 1911 and following which Mr. Schuldice has resided with his daughters for the greater part of the time.

Mr. Schuldice is survived by three daughters and four sons, Mrs. Alice Fritchman, Grant, Nebraska; Mrs. Lillian Davidson, Beatrice, Mrs. Caroline Benson, Chicago; Frank H. Schuldice and Harry T. Schuldice, Omaha; Albert Schuldice, Jr., and George Schuldice of Chicago.

MAP OF WEBER CITY

Those who are contemplating locating in Weber City of Amos and Andy fame, can pick out their own location by glancing over the map that is on display in the west show window of the Wescott store. The map is one that has attracted a great deal of attention from the passersby.

strong, Agnes Eaton, Mildred Vanhorn, Mary and Edith Hoback. —A Guest.

Wedding at Union.

Mr. Henry Dickman of Nebraska City and Miss Erma Eaton of Union, were joined in wedlock at Union Wednesday, February 20th at 1:30 at the home of Rev. W. A. Taylor, Rev. Taylor officiating. They were accompanied by the parents of the bride.

Mr. Dickman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dickman of Otoe county and is one of the outstanding young men of the community. Miss Eaton is an accomplished young lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Eaton of Union.

The many friends join in wishing them many years of success and happiness.

See the goods you buy. Catalog descriptions are flowery enough, but now about the goods when you get them?

WEAK HEART CAUSED DEATH

San Francisco.—Two physicians testified Major Charles A. Ross, who died after a scuffle in a night club Feb. 5, could have been killed by being thrown down the flight of stairs leading to the club, but that it was his weak heart that was the immediate cause.

The testimony came at a preliminary hearing into manslaughter charges against Joe Vanessi and Clem Gaviati, owners of the club, and Sam Ehrlich, "bouncer." Phone the news to No. 8.
