

Death Takes No Holiday for Him

Richard Charles Smack
Richard Charles Smack, 18 months old, wishes death would take a holiday. He is in a hospital at Muskegon, Mich., fighting off a second attack of pneumonia, his fifth brush with death. During his short life he has had one attack of pneumonia, a broken neck, fractured skull, and severe burns.

Union Store-Keeper Traps Two Robbers

Gallant Rakes and Clyde Lau in Jail for Breaking and Entering Morris Store Last Night.

From Wednesday's Daily
C. E. Morris and son, Olin Morris, the former owner of a general store at Union, last night not only broke up an attempted robbery of the store but captured one of the robbers red handed and the second was arrested a few hours later by Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Walling. The sheriff has urged merchants in the smaller towns where store robberies are often pulled off, to maintain a guard on the stores at night and in this case Mr. Morris and his son had fortunately followed the advice and nabbed the robbers red handed.

The Morris' had concealed themselves back of a counter in the store and waited several hours and near the midnight hour there was a sound at the door as the robbers arrived and started to jimmy the lock to get into the store. When the two robbers had entered the store the Morris' came from their place of concealment and commanded the robbers to throw up their hands. One of the robbers complied while the other broke and ran and disappeared in the darkness in the direction of the railroad yards. The man captured was identified as Clyde Lau, a resident of this city, and who stated that his companion had been Gallant Rakes, a young man of the Union community.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Tom Walling, notified of the crime, sped to the scene of the attempted robbery and were there a short time after the alarm was given and started the roundup of Rakes. It was found that Rakes had attempted to board a Missouri Pacific freight at Union which was headed for Omaha, but had been kicked off before the train had gotten under way. The officers visited the home of relatives of Rakes and where he was found in bed and routed out and brought on to Plattsmouth to be lodged in jail.

The two young men acknowledged their connection with the case and gave as the motive the fact that they had need of groceries and unable to secure them in other ways decided on the burglary.

ATTEND BEAUTY SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lillie were at Omaha Monday afternoon where they attended the beauty show held at the Gibb's shop on Sixteenth street where a demonstration of many of the late styles of hair dressing and cutting was held. The show was one largely attended by the beauticians and hair dressers of this section of the state.

While at Omaha Mr. and Mrs. Lillie also stopped at the Methodist hospital where they visited with Mrs. Hamilton Mark, who is recovering from the effects of her illness and the operation that she underwent on last Saturday. The patient is doing just as well as possible and it is hoped that the next few days may show a more decided turn for the better.

TO REDEEM LIBERTY BONDS

The treasury department is announcing the issuance of a new series of bonds of the date of March 15th, 1935, which will bear interest at the rate of two and seven-eighths per cent. These bonds may be secured in interchange for the fourth issue Liberty bonds which have been called. The Plattsmouth State bank has received notice of the calling of the Liberty bonds and the new issue and have been handling the matter for a number of their customers.

Ralph Binger who is attending the state university was visiting in Weeping Water at the home of his parents over the week end.

Miss Ruth Faux was a visitor in Lincoln on last Tuesday where she was guest of friends for the day and looking after some shopping.

Miss Mary Birch of Omaha was a visitor for over the week end in Weeping Water and was guest while here of her friend, Miss Clara Johnson.

Wm. Humans of Horton, Kansas, moved to Weeping Water last week, where they will make their home for the present.

Miss Agnes Rough who conducts the beauty parlor and millinery store was a visitor in Lincoln last Sunday where she was visiting with friends and relatives for the day.

W. G. Van Every and family were enjoying a visit from a brother of Will last Thursday when E. B. Van Every of Omaha came down and spent the evening and night here.

Mrs. Paul Gerrard was a visitor in Lincoln last Monday where she was visiting at the home of her sister, Rosie for the day and looking after some shopping while there.

Charles Findley has built a display apparatus in his west store window for the displaying of goods such as vegetables and fruits and also other goods which this place handles.

Homer Abrams, the harness maker, was called to Lincoln last Monday where he had some matters to look after at the wholesale house and also visiting with the other harness makers.

Mrs. A. H. Jones has been very ill at her home in Weeping Water and has been confined to her bed for a number of days. She is reported as showing some improvement during the past few days.

G. R. Binger and daughter, Miss LaVerna were over to Lincoln last Tuesday where they were called to look after some business matters for the day. While they were away Mrs. G. R. Binger was looking after the business at the lumber yard.

Arthur Reese and Herman Brunkow of near Greenwood, were looking after some business in Weeping Water Tuesday morning of this week, they driving over in their auto and enjoying a visit with their many friends, Mr. Brunkow formerly residing here.

Billie Ash, who has not been in the best of health for some time, having a mastoid, was taken to an Omaha hospital where he is under observation and treatment, to determine whether an operation will be necessary. The many friends of this excellent man are hoping he will soon be able to return home.

Showing Good Improvement.
Little Margaret Dehl who is at the hospital in Omaha where she has been receiving treatment for pneumonia, is at this time making good progress toward recovery. The fever broke last Saturday and she has been making good improvement since, but is rather weak.

Spending Month Here.
Mrs. Margaret Sandley of Chicago, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meier is to spend a month here with her parents and friends in and about Weeping Water. Miss Frances Meier drove to Omaha last Tuesday to meet the sister and to bring her here for her visit. Mrs. Sandley came from Chicago to Omaha via train.

Married at Omaha.
Miss Opal Homan and Buron Baker slipped away last week and were united in marriage at Omaha, they being accompanied by Miss Ruth Homan, sister of the bride and Mrs. Crede Johnson, who also acted as witnesses to the ceremony. They then returned to Weeping Water where they will make their home. The Journal with their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for the future happiness of this estimable young couple.

Feeling Better Now.
Newton L. Grubbs, the blacksmith, who has been troubled much with rheumatism for the past several weeks is much improved at this time and well for the spring is here and business at the blacksmith shop is very good now.

Make Nominations Notwithstanding.
What is known as the Business Temperance party met last Saturday night and made the following nominations which they are to file with City Clerk George Spohn: Aldermen for first and second wards, Bert Jamison and Roy Haslam; school board, C. E. Tefft and Dr. O. A. Specht.

Tuesday night a meeting was held on what is known as the Citizens ticket, placing as nominees for the town board W. L. Hobson and Spence Marshall; school board, Henry Crozier and G. R. Binger, which were also filed with the city clerk.

George Spohn, city clerk, ruled that the law required five Wednesday to intervene following nominations before the election on Tuesday could be held, and the matter is now being thrashed out. One year ago the same question came up and was allowed. What will be done about the matter is the mooted question, but will be known soon.

Arrived in California Saturday.
Guy Zessen and family who departed a couple of weeks ago for Gruber, California, where they have friends and relatives, where they expect to make their home, arrived there last Saturday, having had a very fair journey and like the west very much.
