Obituary of Claude Everett.
Claude Everett, who had been in failing health for several years, passed away at 2 o'clock a. m., April 13, 1935, at Plattsmouth. Mr. Everett was born in Northfork, England, October 24, 1852, the son of John and Ann Everett.
His parents started for the United States when he was eight weeks old, eventually settling near Union, Nebraska, where the deceased spent the greater part of his life.
He was united in marriage with Mary Allie Houtz in 1874. To them seven children were born, two having died in infancy.
He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Ada Newton, Everett and Mrs. Della Timmas of Plattsmouth; Joseph and Burt Everett of Union; ten grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Melissa Terrell of Union and his second wife, Mrs. Sarah Everett, whom he married late in life.
The funeral was held from the Sattler funeral home in Plattsmouth Sunday afternoon, April 14, in charge of Rev. B. N. Kunkel of Union, in proxy of Rev. Taylor who, on account of previous engagements, could not be present.
Burial was made in the East Union cemetery.

Obituary of Mrs. Nancy McNamee.
Nancy Isabel, a daughter of James and Jane Bailey, was born July 1, 1851, at Sugar Creek, Hancock county, Indiana. Here she spent her childhood and youth.
She came to the old Stringtown community in Cass county, Nebraska, in 1868. Soon after arriving she was united in marriage with George F. McNamee, a Civil war veteran. On account of grasshoppers, drouth and famine they soon returned to Indiana. Two years later, 1870, they came back to Nebraska and purchased the farm one mile northwest of Union, on which, with short exceptions, she resided the rest of her life.

To them were born five boys and four girls. James O., LeRoy and Mary O., and May preceded her in death many years. Mr. McNamee passed away May 26, 1910.
Early in life, at the age of eleven years, she united with the Methodist Episcopal church. She has always been a faithful and consistent Christian, during her entire life, and one of the most helpful and useful members of her church, always upholding it by her prayers, her presence, her gifts, her service and her loyalty. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid society.
She was also a member of the Fraternal Aid Society, a insurance order. She, her husband and older children experienced all the anticipations, disappointments, joys, sorrows, efforts, hardships—and to those who wait, the blessings of the earliest settlers.
As became a Methodist Christian she was a real sister, friend, and neighbor. Many there are who rise up to call her blessed.
She had been in failing health for the last four years, and daily anticipated her call home. Wednesday, April 10, while she was about her work in the kitchen, she was very suddenly, instantly and painlessly invited to "come up higher," and so she "was not, for God took her," at the age of 83 years, 9 months and 9 days.
She is survived by her sons, Charles and family of Brush, Colo.; Winfield and family of Rosamund, Cal.; Amos of Union, Nebr.; her daughters, Mrs. Maggie Eikenbary and family of Brush, Colo.; Mrs. Ogaretta Wood and family of Whittier, Cal.; her niece, Mrs. Luella Ketch of Nehawka, Nebr., other nieces and nephews, other relatives and a host of friends. Winfield and Ogaretta and their families could not be present for the funeral.
The funeral was conducted from the Methodist church in Union by the pastor, Rev. B. N. Kunkel, assisted by Rev. W. A. Taylor Saturday afternoon, April 13, in the presence of a great congregation who loved her. Rev. Taylor read the scriptures and made the prayer, and Rev. Kunkel preached the sermon.
The music was furnished by the male quartet composed of P. F. Ribb, D. R. Frans, Charles Whitworth and J. D. Cross, assisted at the piano by Mrs. L. G. Todd.
The pall bearers were: Joe and Frank Bauer, James Niday, James Pittman, Charles Garrison and Moss McCarroll.
Burial was made in the West Union cemetery.
Nephews and nieces present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hessel and family of Grand Island; Mrs. Eva Hebnor and family of Weeping Water; Mrs. Luella Ketch of Nehawka and sister; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hauptmann, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Steele of Nebraska City.

ARRANGE RITES FOR FOLEYS
Omaha—Separate funeral services were being arranged Monday night for Louis M. Foley, 40, of Omaha, and his wife, 33, and two children, Betty Lou, 6, and Billy, 10. Foley shot and killed his family early Monday before taking his own life.
He also attempted to shoot Elsie Obr, 24, a maid, and her sister, Ellen, both of Yankton. The gun snapped and they leaped thru a window.
Services for Mrs. Foley and the children were tentatively set for Thursday. Relatives were waiting the arrival of Foley's brother, William, of Marshalltown, Ia., before completing arrangements for the funeral.
Police said Foley, a World war veteran, had twice faced insanity complaints signed by his wife, but in both instances had been adjudged sane.

How to tell one
'Gasoline from another

You don't have to be a chemist to know whether you're getting what you pay for when you buy gasoline. On every Standard Red Crown pump there's a small, square metal sign. That sign, required by law, is your guarantee that Standard Red Crown, the Live Power gasoline, contains Tetraethyl, the most valuable anti-knock fluid known—the very same fluid which (in larger quantity) goes into premium-priced gasoline.
So look for that Tetraethyl sign! It will remind you that Standard is able to give you more for your money—and DOES!
