

LAND, FARM and RANCH BARGAINS

FOR SALE

Togenbrock goat for sale with three young ones. Call Manley elevator. Joe Hochele. 1tw

FARM LOANS

Ten year loans, five per cent. No commissions.—First Trust Co., Nebraska City, Nebr. m28-4w sw

SEED CORN FOR SALE

Hand picked Yellow Dent seed corn, $1.40 per bushel.

FRANK HOGUE, Murray, Nebr. a22-2sw

DEAD ANIMALS

Dead animals removed free of charge, Telephone South Omaha Rendering Works, Market 4626. Reverse charges. n5-1fw

Solon Urges the Grouping of State Boards

Blind Woman Lawmaker Asks Consolidation of Groups Over Places of Learning.

Lincoln—Consolidation of the governing boards of all Nebraska state educational institutes was urged by Rep. Claire E. Owens (D.), Exeter, blind woman legislator, before the Nebraska house Thursday.

No opposition was expressed to her plan for submitting a constitutional amendment to a vote in 1936, but action was deferred for a corrective change in her bill.

The amendment would create a state board of education to manage the University of Nebraska, the four state teachers colleges, the blind school at Nebraska City and the deaf school at Omaha.

From Court Districts.

One member would be elected from each of six supreme court districts and the state superintendent of public instruction would be an ex-officio member.

At present, an elective board of regents controls the university, while a board appointed by the governor manages the teachers colleges. The blind and deaf schools are under supervision of the board of control.

The house advanced to third reading Governor Cochran's bill to abolish the Milford Old Soldiers home and consolidate its duties with the Grand Island home.

Advance 3 Bills.

The house also advanced three senate bills to increase fees of the insurance department, to set up a registration system for securities salesmen, and to lower from $250,000 to $100,000 the minimum capital for domestic surety companies.

NOTICE

Mynard Community Athletic club meeting Tuesday evening, April 23 at 8 o'clock at Mynard Community building. To all interested, please be present.

ART WETENKAMP, 1td-1td President.

WHEN Winds Blow and Clouds Roll

You will feel more secure if you have good insurance

Fire and Lightning Wind and Hail

The cost is small—Be safe

Insure with

INSURANCE AND BONDS DUXBURY & DAVIS PHONE 16 PLATTSMOUTH

Junior Class is Preparing for Annual Banquet

Committees Busy on Arranging for Annual Farewell to Members of Senior Class.

One of the long remembered commencement activities is the annual Junior-Senior banquet which is always a colorful affair. The guest group has been growing larger every year until this year the total number will be 165. Committees of the class, under the direction of their co-sponsor, Mr. J. R. Reeder, have completed the plans for the banquet and are now engaged in creating the color scheme and properties for the banquet hall.

The ladies of the Federation of the Presbyterian church will serve the banquet in the hall of the church on the evening of May 4th at 6:30 o'clock.

The following are the committees of the class having this task in charge:

Hall—Decorations—Joe Hendrix, chairman; Marjorie Long, Rosemary Clout, Marjorie Fitch, Betty Bulin, Floyd McCarty, Mary Margaret Kline, Glen Kohrell, Stephen Davis.

Table Decorations—Amber Bomer, chairman; Thelma Kohrell, Leona Price, Rosemarie Burcham, Sheila Todd.

Menu—Aimee Jane Thomas, chairman; Mildred Dvoracek, Kathryn Armstrong, Stephen Davis, Cleda Koukal.

Orchestra—Ed Hadraba, chairman; Wilda Johnson, Donald Wurga.

Invitation—Anna Marie Rea, chairman; LaRue Bomer, Marjorie Wohlfarth, Grant Howard, Louise Fitzmeyer, Imogene Worthan.

Program—Grace Wiles, chairman; Frances Lille, Louise Rishel, Alberta Timmas, Mary Ann Gradoville.

Acreage Increase Interests the Farmers

AAA Contract Modification Will Be of Great Benefit to Southeastern Nebraska Farmers.

Nebraska AAA wheat contract signers who have extra acreage of winter wheat or who are in areas where moisture will permit seeding of spring wheat, may increase their acreage in 1935 up to 165 percent of their base, providing they sign a supplementary contract agreeing to continue the wheat adjustment program in 1936 and to show compliance in two years as a total.

Modification of the compliance program for this year, state administrators say, will be of greatest benefit in southeastern Nebraska, where quite a large percentage of farmers have extra wheat in the ground which they have been using for pasture and to hold the soil. A few contract signers in northwestern Nebraska may be able to seed a little spring wheat if the moisture conditions are favorable.

In other areas of the state, contract signers and committeemen are already asking if the modifications can be worked backwards. They want to make their crop reduction in 1935 and seed the extra wheat acreage in 1936. This proposal is being submitted to Washington for the consideration of the wheat section which will look at the matter from a national standpoint.

Borrowing wheat acreage from next year may not be attractive to many general farmers of southeastern Nebraska, since they have a fairly definite crop rotation system and like to have some wheat each year. It may, however, permit them to harvest a little extra acreage this year at the expense of the 1936 crop.

Under provisions of the supplementary contract the man who signs it can use his wheat contracted acres in 1935 for wheat or any grain crop, provided he lays out an equal number of acres in 1936 in addition to whatever acreage may be required under the 1935 contract. Farmers in the drouth area interested in working the modification backwards, are also asking that they be permitted to lay out enough contracted acres for two years in 1935 and then use all of their land in 1936.

CALLED TO KANSAS

Roy Young, of this city, was called to Beardless, Kansas, Friday where he will remain for the next ten or two weeks. He was called there by the serious operation performed on his brother-in-law, Walter Royer, who has been in poor health for some time. He will remain in Kansas until there is some change in the condition of the relative.

Journal ads bring you news of timely bargains. Read them!

ATTENDED BUSINESS MEETING

Scoutmaster Raymond Larson and Elmer Webb of the Legion troop committee attended the bi-monthly business meeting of the Arbor Lodge district at the Grand hotel in Nebraska City Tuesday evening.

Among the business was a final report on the Scout circus held April 5, the proceeds of which totaled $152.10. After deducting expenses, approximately $35 remains, which will be prorated among the ten troops that participated, or $3.50 to each.

Most important of the business was a discussion of ways of improving the district courts of honor, the next of which is to be held in Plattsmouth on May 21st. Closer contact with the advancement directors of the different troop committees will be sought and assignment of specific duties on the district examining board provided.

If weather permits, it is planned to hold the Plattsmouth court at Camp Wheeler, six miles south of town. A council fire and other outdoor Scouting activities will thus be permitted that cannot be included on an indoor program.

Other matters discussed include the holding of a camporee some time during the summer, another Scout circus next spring and a merit badge exposition the following year; also a dinner or picnic for Scouters, Scoutmasters and their wives or families during the present summer.

The grand jamboree in Washington in August, to which the Cornhusker and Covered Wagon councils will unite in sending a special trainload of Boy Scouts and adult Scouters was also discussed at some length by Lee Harbottle, assistant executive of the Cornhusker council.

The annual Scouters' conference of the Cornhusker council will be held on June 1st and 2nd, probably at Crete.

County Judge A. H. Duxbury is accepting the advancement director place on the local troop committee, formerly held by Alex M. Geist prior to his removal from the city. Geist had been appointed to succeed Dr. G. L. Taylor, when the latter removed to Colorado last fall.

The local committee is also beginning the annual canvass among "150 Club" members for their 1935 dues of $1. It will be recalled that the "150 Club" came into existence last spring as the most effective means of spreading the cost of maintaining Scouting in Plattsmouth among the greatest number of adult friends of the Scouting movement instead of placing the burden on a limited few.

Plattsmouth's annual dues to the Cornhusker council amounts to $90, and the balance of the money is used to pay insurance, telephone and similar overhead expense of maintaining the Scout cabin at Camp Wheeler, six miles south of town.

Higher rank medal awards are also purchased out of the fund as finances permit.

HOOVER SILENT ON POLITICS

Palo Alto, Calif.—Former President Hoover returned to his home on the Stanford campus here after a two week "business trip" to New York, as uncommunicative as usual about politics or public affairs. Thru his secretary, Paul Saxon, he denied there was any political significance to his trip, made in order to attend the New York Life Insurance company board of directors' monthly meeting. Connecting the Hoover trip with regional political conferences of republicans in the near future, Saxon said quickly: "There will be no comment on that."

Saxon said the former chief executive was "not writing any books, not making any statements, not entertaining any guests, political or otherwise, not planning any trips."

ATTACKS FEARS OF PRESS

Washington.—Grove Patterson, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, advised its members to "have the courage to quit worrying about this bogey" of danger to the freedom of the press.

More than 100 representatives of the nation's leading newspapers here for the opening of their annual convention also heard Patterson urge them to "counsel steadiness, economy and common sense" in government.

Members of the society later conferred at length with President Roosevelt at the white house in an informal, off-the-record interview.

Following talks by their officers, the editors spent the afternoon in a discussion of how to make important news interesting, led by William Allen White of Emporia, Kas., Wallace Odell of Westchester Newspapers,

Cass county farmers produce a full share of the foodstuff of the nation. It is your interest and mine that their business of producing be placed on a profitable basis, for then we will all share in that prosperity.

Lewis E. Smith Grand Commander Knights Templar

Grand Commandery Pays Honor to Grand Recorder of Past Ten Years—Others Re-elected

Lewis E. Smith of Omaha, for the past ten years grand recorder of the Knights Templar of Nebraska, was elevated to the office of grand commander at the close of the sixty-third annual conclave at the Masonic temple at Omaha. Mr. Smith was first elected as grand recorder at the grand commandery conclave held at Plattsmouth in 1926.

John T. Dysart, the retiring grand commander, was named as grand recorder for the ensuing year.

Other officers were re-elected as follows: Edward E. Carr, North Platte, deputy grand commander; Clarence O. Dawson, Blair, grand generalissimo; Andrew Cosh, Grand Island, grand captain general; William T. Albrecht, Lincoln, grand senior warden; Arthur J. Denny, Fairbury, grand junior warden; Dr. Frank G. Smith, Omaha, grand prelate; Jesse D. Whitmore, Valley, grand treasurer.

Dysart Gets Jewel

The following officers were re-appointed: William A. Robertson, Plattsmouth, grand standard bearer; Clendensen W. Mitchell, Chadron, grand sword bearer; Fred B. Dale, Omaha, grand warden; Clarence O. Wilson, Hastings, grand captain of the guard; Theodore J. Kerr, North Platte, instructor-inspector general.

Dr. Herbert A. Senter of Omaha presented the past grand commander's jewel to Mr. Dysart, the retiring grand commander.

Installed by Iowan.

The new grand officers were installed by Charles C. Clark of Burlington, Ia., past grand commander of Iowa and personal representative at the conclave of the most eminent grand master of the grand encampment, Knights Templar of the U. S. A. William B. Wanner of Falls City served as marshal.

Reports were read as follows: Francis A. Mitchell of Hastings, committee on the Nebraska Masonic home; John J. Wilson, Lincoln, committee on Knight Templar educational foundation; Dr. Carroll D. Evans, Jr., Columbus, committee on jurisprudence; David J. Frederick, North Platte, committee on payroll; Rev. Luther M. Kuhns, Omaha, committee on deceased Templars; Charles W. Steinbaugh, Omaha, committee on credentials; Charles H. Marley, Omaha, committee on review of Templar proceedings; Oliver A. Fick, Omaha, committee on finance; Theodore J. Kerr of North Platte, as instructor-inspector general, also made his report.

CORN LOAN REFUNDS

H. R. 131 of the 1935 legislature provides that persons who have paid or may pay farm storage fees under the Farm Warehouse Act in any sum in excess of $3.80 for any application and farm storage certificate issued thereon, shall be entitled to be paid and shall receive the excess over the $3.80 except the sum necessarily expended or which may be expended at the request of owners of said certificate, or at the request of any holder to determine the condition and safety of grain pledged therein.

The commission is now busily engaged in preparing a list of the names of such persons, and upon completion will certify the same to the state auditor. There are several thousand persons who have not returned their original certificate for cancellation. The commission urgently requests that all these persons return their certificates to the commission at once for cancellation, so that we may complete and close our files. Unless these certificates are returned and canceled by the commission, they cannot be released by the county clerks of the several counties.

The commission anticipates that it is quite possible that a certificate may have become lost. In these cases, the producers should immediately notify the commission.

FALL FROM PLANE IS FATAL

Taylor, Tex.—Lieut. Paul Boyer Wilson, 26, of March Field, Calif., was thrown from his plane and killed here as he sought to bring it down in a plowed field. Lieut. Wilson, who was on a cross-country flight from March field to Barksdale field, La., flew over Taylor and then turned back. Taylor resident who saw the crash said the ship "spun like a top" as the pilot tried to bring it down. When the plane was about fifty feet from the ground, the pilot's straps broke and the lieutenant was hurled from his seat.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Douglass Tool, who is attending school in Lincoln, was a visitor at home for the Easter vacation and over the week end.

A. H. Ward was called to Ashland late last week to deliver a truck load of gasoline and a quantity of oil to his customers there.

E. D. Friend and wife, of near Alvo, were visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Eddie Craig and husband, last Tuesday.

Albert Bowers and wife returned home last week, after having visited nearly three weeks in Louisville, Weeping Water and Lincoln.

Henry Amgwert was looking after some business matters in Lincoln on Thursday of last week, driving over in his car to purchase some goods for the store.

Joy Miller and family, residing south of Elmwood, near the county line, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Straich on Wednesday of last week.

Lenten services were held at the Callahan church during the past week, conducted by the Rev. C. F. Weber. Large crowds of interested people have been attending.

Charles E. Cook, of Plattsmouth, was visiting with his friend, A. J. Tool, for a short time last Wednesday and was also calling on a number of other friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hendricks are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine eight pound baby which came to their home on last Tuesday. All concerned are getting along nicely.

Velma Smaha of Lincoln was visiting in Murdock a few days last week, being a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lennie Lau, and meeting a number of her friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers and their little one were visiting at the home of Grandmother Mrs. Oscar McDonald, and all went over to Manley, where they visited with Oscar and son, Robert.

Henry Gakemeier, who has kept his wheat stored until now, sold and delivered it last week, receiving 95 cents per bushel for the grain. Gust was assisting in the delivering of the grain to the elevator.

Nels Petersen was quite ill last week with an attack of flu. A. H. Ward had been having a siege with the measles and as he was getting over the illness, Nels came in and took a time at it, but now he is getting along all right.

Mrs. Arthur Ostbloom, of Ottumwa, Iowa, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lennie Lau, will make an extended visit in this community, as she has a number of very close friends residing here and also wishes to pay them a visit while here.

Charles I. Long, who was among the twenty-four men over the county drawn for jury service, has been driving to Plattsmouth and back each day, except when he gets on a long, drawn out case, when he has to remain in the county seat over night.

L. Neitzel and wife spent yesterday (Easter Sunday) at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Meta MacDiarmid, in Omaha. They drove to the metropolis, leaving just after the close of the Bible school, of which Mr. Neitzel is one of the teachers.

The catechism class of the Murdock church, which is composed of a number of very lively boys, was over to Lincoln last Saturday, where they saw the city, or as much as possible in the time they were there. They were accompanied by Rev. Knosp.

Louis Schmidt sure did a good piece of work when he leveled the streets of Murdock as nicely as a tennis court and the town is looking much better as a result of the half day work which he put in. He had Edwin McHugh driving the caterpillar, as he was wanting to get used to the machine.

Had a Splendid Exhibit

The ladies of the Royal Neighbors of America, who held a quilt and rug show last week, were well pleased with the fine attendance and the large number of exhibits they were able to display. They wish to thank all who assisted in making the show such a success.

B. I. Clements Funeral Parlor

Elmwood, Nebraska Expert service. Your patronage solicited. Phones: Office, 91; Home, 65.

Visited the Show Me State

Henry Carson, manager of the Murdock elevator, securing Otto Miller to look after the business, jumped into his car and in company with Paul Gilker started south and when the state of Kansas did not seem so hot to them, they crossed the Missouri river at Kansas City and then again east of there, continuing their way south to Springfield, then east to Cabool and from there north to

Farm Machinery Sale

We have a line of Dempster and John Deere farming machinery and are going to clean house, offering the entire stock at greatly reduced prices. Remember, this is all high grade new machinery—offered at prices that will save you plenty of money. Before buying, come, see us!

Special Price on Stock Salt

While the supply in our warehouse lasts, you can buy it at, per 100 lbs. 50c

Murdock Farmers Elevator
Henry Carsten Manager

Jefferson City, thence west again, touching at Warrensburg and on to St. Joseph, not missing the town of Lebanon, but leaving out one spot of interest, the Ozark dam. After some three days of hopping about over the state of Missouri, they arrived home safe and sound, but a bit tired from their strenuous trip.

Spending Week in West

Frank Dean, the merchant, who has been looking after the store and the home as well while Mrs. Dean has been at Big Springs, where she visited at the home of William Dehning and wife, assisting in welcoming the young son that came to this home on April 9, as well as assisting with the care of the young man and his mother, desired to go out and see the new nephew himself, and so when Grandfather H. P. Dehning, of Elmwood, came along Sunday morning, bound for Big Springs, he joined him on the trip. They will remain during the week, and on their return Mrs. Dean will come with them.

During the time Mr. Dean is away, Mrs. Dean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin, will look after business at the store.

RIVERVIEW CLUB NOTES

The Riverview club spent a very busy, but pleasant afternoon at the home of our vice president, Mrs. Harold Hull.

The leaders delivered the last lesson of the year which was quite interesting.

The club having quite a bit of business to transact the afternoon flew by on wings. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows:

President—Mrs. F. Slagle.
Vice President—Mrs. Joe Campbell
Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. Greeley Bell.

Project Leaders—Mrs. Georgia Creamer, Mrs. Wm. Hike.
Social Leader—Miss Josephine Campbell.

Reporter—Mrs. Henry Kuhns.
Plans were made to assist with the achievement day program which was held at Murray the 16th.

After lessons and business were over, meeting was closed to meet with Mrs. Kuhns and Mrs. Slagle in May. REPORTER.

TRIO MUST DIE APRIL 28

Boston.—All remaining appeals to save Murton and Irving Millen and Abraham Faber, convicted machine-gun killers, from the electric chair were swept off court records when the Massachusetts supreme court decreed the trio must die the week of April 28.

The supreme court upheld the superior court in every instance and ruled adversely on all exceptions taken by counsel for the trio. The ruling left one loophole thru which they might escape death ten days hence. There was still an opportunity for another appeal to the United States supreme court. That court has already denied all appeals made to it.

Mrs. Harley Cecil and children, Billy and Joanna Louise, of Denver, are here for a visit over Easter at the home of Mrs. Cecil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Baird and with the many old friends here.

Cass County CCC Members to California

Expectation That Local Group Will Be Used in Contingent Headed for the West Coast.

The Cass county young men who reported for examination at Fort Crook on Tuesday for admission to the Civilian Conservation Corps, may have the opportunity of seeing a great deal of the country, as it is the present expectation that these boys will be used as a part of the replacement to be sent to California. There is a draft of mid-western boys being sent to the coast and the locals have the opportunity of being taken to help fill out this group.

When the group arrived at the army post it was found that several that had been re-enlisted had failed by a few weeks or even a few days of completing a five months service in their previous enlistment and accordingly they were rejected for the present camp.

From this city Bernard Knoffleek, Edwin Kallina and Verdon Kell were named as members of the new draft and are now at the fort awaiting further orders.

It is expected that another call will be made in May for enlistments in the CCC and it is hoped that Cass county may have a much larger number to be placed in service than in the last group. Mrs. C. A. Rosenkrans, in whose office the registrations are made, is anxious that parties desiring to register for the next camp call on Fridays and Saturdays to have their names enrolled as she will be at her office on these dates.

GAVE FINE ENTERTAINMENT

The members of the Parent-Teachers association of LaPlatte arranged a very fine program at the community hall in that place, which was held Tuesday night, and was attended by some 200 of the residents and patrons of the school of that fine community.

Superintendent L. S. Devoe of the Plattsmouth schools, had been invited to be present and for over an hour the superintendent performed his baffling feats of magic that held the closest attention of the large audience from the start until the conclusion of the act. Mr. Devoe is exceptionally clever in his act and it was one that thoroughly delighted the group that was fortunate enough to be present.

In addition to the magic act, the pupils of the school presented a cleverly arranged play and several musical numbers that proved among the pleasing features of the evening.
Miss Mary Swatek and Miss Louise Rummel of this city are the teachers of the LaPlatte school and were delighted with the fine offering of their pupils in that portion of the program.

WILL MAKE SEASON

at Nehawka, Nebr.
Teddy "R" pure bred Percheon Stallion. Also 5-year-old mammoth Jack. Both foal getters.
a18-4tw JOHN RUSHMAN.

TRACTOR FUEL

We are Soliciting a Share of Your Tractor Fuel Business with a Fuel that will Please You!

It is WATER WHITE, has no disagreeable odor, will deliver maximum power and will start your motor even on a cold morning. Our truck drivers are all good Cass county citizens and will appreciate any business you can give them. They always carry a full line of high grade Gasoline, Kerosene, Tractor Fuel, Oils and Greases and are located at Egle, Elmwood, Murdock, Nehawka and Avoca, Nebraska.

For Quick Service, Give Them a Ring—Thank You

Trunkenbolz Oil Co. INCORPORATED