Dated this 6th day of April, 1935.
JOHN JIROLDO,
Applicant.

CHECKS INFLUX OF ALIENS

Denver.—Governor Johnson took the first step in stopping the first spring influx of aliens moving toward northern Colorado best fields. In a telegram to Sheriff Marty at Trinidad, Governor Johnson ordered the law officer to halt twenty-seven aliens from Texas who are headed for Greeley. He suggested a check of the expiration dates of their temporary labor passports and added: "I do not intend to allow foreigners to enter this state and later become burdens to our relief rolls."

Adjournment Awaits Action of Two Groups

Joint Liquor Committee Apparently Is Deadlocked; 1-House Plan to Get Attention.

Lincoln, May 6.—Beginning Tuesday, Nebraska will be waiting on two joint conference committees, instead of one, to bring to an end the legislative session.

The liquor joint conferees, apparently deadlocked, held another session Monday night, but there was no announcement they had progressed towards agreement on disputed points.

The second joint conference group on major legislation will go into action after appointment by Speaker W. H. O'Gara of three house members to meet with senate appointees on unicameral legislation.

Veto House Ideas.

After the senate Monday refused to accept house unicameral ideas as a substitute for senate proposals, Lieut. Governor Walter H. Jurgensen named Senators John J. McMahon, Omaha; Charles D. Green, Sidney, and Charles J. Warner, Waverly, as senate conferees.

Friends of unicameral legislation are worrying over omission in both house and senate unicameral bills of legislation setting up machinery for election of unicameral members. They are hopefully expecting the joint conference bill will contain such provisions, including a section ordering rotating of names of unicameral candidates on primary ballots.

Opposed to Plans.

Since majorities in both branches are frankly opposed to the unicameral, it is not surprising its backers are slightly suspicious about lack of attention to election machinery.

The house unicameral bill called for 50 members, two more than were provided in the senate measure, but senators promptly rejected the house substitute by a vote of 19 to 10.

Among 12 bills reported out Monday afternoon by the house sitting committee is Senate File 77, Senator John S. Callan's measure establishing a state police force.

General house sentiment favors the proposed state system, in preference to the state sheriff setup, but many supporting the plan are insisting upon assurances it will not involve additional taxation.

Explain Program.

Senator Callan and others are explaining a financing program can be worked out without added taxation other than the 50-cent increase in auto license levies provided in the bill.

The clash in the senate today between the ideas of Governor Cochran and Senator Archie O'Brien on an old age pension program became a no-decision affair when senators postponed action after further discussion Monday afternoon.

The governor's plan, for temporary relief to the aged through use of state relief funds provided through the 1-cent added gasoline tax, was attacked by O'Brien as an expedient to avoid a definite old age pension program.

Refuses Support.

"I'm trying to establish an old age pension system," O'Brien told the senate. "All the governor is trying to do is to continue the present dole to the needy aged. I won't support that plan."

Mrs. W. J. Wunderlich was a visitor in Lincoln last Saturday, where she was looking after some business matters as well as visiting with friends for a portion of the time.

The children at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton, who have been having a siege of the mumps, have now recovered and are ready to return to school with the beginning of the coming week.

Jacob Waldo, formerly employed on the farm of Harry M. Knabe, but who has been working at Jellybean, Kansas, for the past few years, was a visitor in Nehawka for a few days the fore part of the week.

Robert Troop and wife, of Syracuse, were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop and on Monday, Robert Troop was over to Omaha to look after some business matters.

John H. Steffens, local merchant, and Robert H. Chapman, the mail carrier, were looking after some business matters in Nebraska City Monday afternoon, Mr. Steffens having an appointment with the dentist.

Robert H. Chapman, the accommodating rural mail carrier, who operates one of the routes out of Nehawka has purchased a new V-8 for use in the future. He made his initial trip with the new car Saturday.

Gilbert Edmunds and family were enjoying a trip to the former Kamp Kill Kare at the mouth of the Weeping Water, where they enjoyed the day and caught a few fish, but say the fish were not biting very well.

Mrs. F. R. Cunningham was a visitor in Nebraska City last Saturday, making the trip by rail and when she returned home, remained at Union until her husband, who conducts a saw mill north of Union drove by and picked her up, bringing her on home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Troop, of Plattsmouth were visiting for the day last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop. Mrs. C. R. Troop has just recovered from an operation for the removal of cataracts from her eyes and is pleased that she is able to see much better.

The family of Mark Burton were over to Earl Lancaster's last Sunday, where they were visiting with Albert Scudder who makes his home with the Lancasters, working on the farm, while Mrs. Scudder is doing the housework there due to the prolonged illness of Mrs. Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Pollard have received a letter from their daughter, Virginia, who was married some three weeks ago and with her husband have located at North Platte where the groom is embarking in the law business. She states there is much dust flying as the result of dust storms which exist there a good deal of the time.

Best Business in Years.

R. C. Pollard, manager of the Nehawka Farmers Oil company says they have enjoyed the best April business of any of the eight years which the company has been in existence. Perhaps the increasing gasoline business is just another indication that we are turning the corner, around which we have been told for so many months, that prosperity was lurking.

Badly Injured by Fall

While E. J. Woods was engaged in painting a house at the home of Carl Wessells in the country last Friday, the ladder on which he was working slipped, precipitating Edward and his paint bucket to the cement sidewalk below on which the ladder had been resting, which caused it to slip. As a result of the fall he was bruised and cut quite badly about the head and face. Dr. Walters was called and rendered medical aid, after which Mr. Woods was removed to his home and although he is now able to be about, he is affected by dizziness which has prevented him from doing any work since the fall.

Held Mass Meeting Monday

Last Monday evening there was held a mass meeting of the citizens of Nehawka precinct at the auditorium to formulate plans and decide as to the best work that should be undertaken with the work-relief funds that will be allotted to this vicinity, as a result of the recent appropriation measure passed by congress that is designed to take unemployed persons off the dole and give them work at a living wage. A number of projects are under consideration, and decision will be reached as to which is most important and should come first. A considerable amount of government funds augmented with receipts from the gasoline tax increase being collected for this purpose and the poor relief levy within the county, will be available in every community and it behooves all interested citizens to see that the most advantageous use is made of the money.

Visited Lincoln and Omaha

The Senior class of the Nehawka schools enjoyed Sneak day on last Tuesday, going to Lincoln, where they enjoyed a visit to Robbers' Roost, also the state capitol, where they viewed the legislature in session and also made a trip to the observation tower of the magnificent building, from which they had a fine view of the surrounding country. Heading northeastward from Lincoln, they found themselves in due course of time in Omaha, where they enjoyed seeing some of the large industries of the metropolis. They considered the day was as profitable to them from a standpoint of learning as any they have spent in the class room.

During their absence, the Junior class endeavored to find the Senior class banner, which was not possible for they had securely secreted the same.

The Baccalaureate Sermon

Last Sunday evening, the baccalaureate address to the graduates of the Nehawka high school was given at the Nehawka auditorium. The assembly hall was filled to overflowing with relatives and friends of the young graduates, who occupied front row seats and listened attentively to the splendid sermon delivered by Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Plattsmouth. In his address, Rev. McClusky counseled with the class and advised them the best procedure to follow when they go out into the world with determination to put their education to the best possible use in earning a living and advancing along life's pathway.

The members of the class who are about to be graduated are Oscar E. Brandt, Emily E. Frans, Kenneth Nutzman Ost, John Conrad Johnson, William Arthur Pierce, Ellis Omar Schlichtemeier, Helen Elizabeth Schumaker, Dorothy Fern Sheldon, Betty Elizabeth Sumner, Margaret Lois Troop, John L. Young, Jr., and Daisy M. Young.
