Robert C. Cook Dies at Nebraska City Hospital

Aged Resident of This City Dies Monday as Result of a Sudden Attack of Pneumonia.

From Tuesday's Daily
Last night at 10:30 Robert C. Cook, one of the well known residents of this city, died at the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City, where he has been recovering from the effects of a broken limb.

Mr. Cook suffered the fracture of a leg on April 2nd and had been doing very nicely with this affliction and well on the highway to recovery when he was stricken with an attack of bronchial pneumonia and gradually grew worse until death came to his relief.

The deceased was born seventy-eight years ago in Craig, Holt county, Missouri, and his lifetime was largely spent there and in eastern Nebraska with the exception of fifteen years that he spent in Kansas. He was married in 1879 at Craig, Missouri, to Miss Mary Prather, who preceded him in death May 5, 1916. The father and family moved to Plattsmouth in the fall of 1916 and have since made their home in this community. He has made many friends who will share with the family the regret that his passing has occasioned. There are surviving three sons and one daughter, E. A. Cook, of this city, Walter M. Cook, Velga, South Dakota, J. A. Cook of this city and Mrs. W. H. Dicks, of Lyman, Colorado. Two children, Charles and Mrs. Mina Wright have preceded the father in death.

The body was brought here to the Sattler funeral home to await the funeral arrangements. The interment will be at Mound City, Missouri, where the wife is at rest.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

The death of Jesse Gilmore, a long time resident of Cass county, occurred on Sunday at Hastings, with funeral services this afternoon at North Loup, Nebraska and interment at Silver Creek. The deceased has made his home at North Loup for the past several years.

CARS HAVE ACCIDENT

Sunday evening Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Tom Walling were called to the vicinity of Murray where an auto accident was reported near the Rock Creek filling station. It was found that a car of David Fox of Nebraska City had been run into by a car occupied by William Bashus and Edward Ebert of Omaha. The officers brought Bashus and Ebert here and they were placed in jail to await the filing of charges in the case.

Death of Pioneer Resident of Old Rock Bluffs

Alonzo Lacy Dies Saturday at Home in Omaha—Was Schoolmate of Many Old Residents Here.

Alonzo Lacy, well known to many early residents of this part of Cass county, passed away Saturday at his home in Omaha, at the age of 79 years. Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., and interment in Forest Lawn cemetery in Omaha.

Lon, as he was familiarly known, was a son of George W. Lacy, one of the pioneer settlers in the town of Rock Bluffs, and it was there that he was a pupil of the late Joseph D. Patterson in "Nanol Institute" in 1871, and later was a pupil of the late Judge B. S. Ramsey, and a schoolmate of the younger Jones and Pattersons. He was married to Miss Ellen O. Graves of the pioneer families of Rock Bluffs, and later they located in Omaha where the wife passed away November 14, 1896.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Essie Nichols, Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. O. H. Shelly, and one son, Maurice A. Lacy, all residing in Omaha.

HERE FROM HASTINGS

From Wednesday's Daily
Mrs. Jullus Nielsen of Hastings, Nebraska, was in the city today for a few hours attending to some business matters and looking after the residence property of the family in the south portion of the city. Mrs. Nielsen while here had the pleasure of visiting with a number of the old time friends in the city. The daughter, Miss Charlotte, is now engaged in nurse training at Des Moines, Iowa, where she has been for some time.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Miss Mary Annie Rosencrans, who is attending the University of Nebraska, has not been so well for the past several days and Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rosencrans and son, Phillip, in company with Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bates, motored to Lincoln to visit with Mary. They found her much improved and ready to resume her school work.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Edward Stewart, who has been at an Omaha hospital recovering from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, has so far recovered that he was able to be brought back home Tuesday. The patient has showed rapid progress and is feeling very much improved and it is hoped in a very short time he can resume his usual activities.

soon extinguished without serious loss. The fire department was prompt in responding to the call and soon had the fire extinguished.
