Additional Relief Funds Received

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church donated and served a very bounteous dinner at the church Wednesday.

nesday. The proceeds from this enterprise amounted to $20.00, all of which money was sent to the Republican Valley flood district, through the Cass County Chapter of the Red Cross.

This is a very fine offering and much appreciated.

Additional receipts of 50 cents from J. C. Niday and $1 from Mrs. Dan Lynn have brought the total up to $25.15 from Liberty precinct.

Alumni Banquet Saturday Night.

Some forty of the former students and graduates of the Union high school were gathered together last Saturday night when they celebrated the annual banquet which has characterized this student body for many years. There are now some 400 former students who have gone out into the world, scattered over the state. About forty came to enjoy the annual get together and the fine banquet served by the ladies of the Baptist church.

Many Attend Ak-Sar-Ben Show.

As Monday, June 17th was guest night from southeastern Nebraska, there was a large number of people of Union, headed by Ambassador P. F. Rihn, who attended the show. Union also furnished some musicians who joined with the Plattsmouth band to play a concert before the show. All speak highly of the entertainment which was staged and all say they had a splendid time.

Will Visit in the West.

Miss Nola Banning, one of the teachers of the Union schools is departing for a two months stay in the west which will embrace a visit to many places, the first stop after leaving Omaha will be at Brule, Neb., where she will visit with her friend, Miss Helen Fahrlander, after which she will visit Salt Lake City and then on to San Francisco with friends whom she had known here. She will also attend the fair at San Diego and on the return will come via the northern route. Miss Nola will be away for about two months, but will get home for a rest and visit at her home before the opening of the Union schools.

Enjoyed Children's Day.

The annual event which causes much interest every year and which is one of the interesting features of the church, was held last Sunday evening, with an interesting program and one which appealed to every listener and caused a desire to do their part in the missionary work both in the foreign and home fields. A nice sum was realized for the missionary work. The Morris Brothers furnished some very interesting musical numbers which were very much appreciated.
