I held it truth, with him who sings

To one clear harp with divers tones,

That men may rise on stepping-stones

Of their dead selves to higher things.

—Alfred Lord Tennyson.

Oh what a challenge this is to us when we become discouraged by the record we have made in the past. Let the dead bury their dead, while we press ever forward to perfection!

Sunday school at 10:00 a. m. Let us stop that summer slump before it ever gets started. For the last three Sundays we have been forgetting to invite a friend. Let's keep up the pep. Remember men, we have a class for you now. Come and let's get acquainted. We have plenty of good discussion and chances for you to speak your mind.

Morning worship at 11:00. Have you heard our new choir yet? If you haven't you have missed a wonderful opportunity. This Sunday we have a new dignified order of worship made possible by our choir, come an worship the Father with us.

6:45 p. m. Young people attention: The young people of the Methodist church and all those interested in Epworth League Young People's work will meet at the church at 6:45 p. m., to go on one of our outdoor inspirational "communion with Jesus" meetings. Do you remember what a success our last one was? This one will be just as fine. Don't forget that there will be antiphonal singing from hill top to hill top just at dusk.

Things to bring: 1. A desire to know God in nature. 2. An optimistic view of life. 3. A covered dish or sandwiches. 4. Your own dishes. 5. A flashlight if you have one, for antiphonal singing.
