PAGE TWO

The Plattsmouth Journal PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH. NEBRASKA Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

MRS. R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

MANLEY NEWS day evenings to accommodate farmwho are busy in their fields and cannot conveniently get to town dur- was not included since in practically shopping in Plattsmouth last Friday.

Mrs. Rachel Cochran of Ashland was visiting for a few days during the band concert in the evening. the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleischman, enjoying a very fine time.

in Plattsmouth last Saturday, where esteemed resident of the Manley coming advantage of the special prices at the family home where he has which the merchants were offering. been very poorly for some time. For Baur over the arrival at the home has not been in the best of health of a seven pound son, who born on and has gradually grown much worse Wednesday of last week and will in the recent weeks until his death. make his home with them in the future.

there.

Another large crowd of farmers was 1889 he was united in marriage to show which was given by the citizens near Manley. of Manley and which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

A field of wheat belonging to Art large acquaintance over Cass county Wiles, residing near the banks of the and who will regret very much to Weeping Water, was combined last learn of his passing. Of an unusually week, showing a very good yield of genial personality, Mr. Steinkamp 23 bushels to the acre, while the made close friends of those with grain tested sixty-one pounds to the whom he came in contact. bushel.

Frank Dall recently purchased a Edward, Weeping Water; Roy, ManPLATTSMOUTH SEMI - WEEKLY JOURNAL

plicants for enrollments at camp are busy getting their work up to date

to a second Cass County Farm Bureau Notes Copy furnished from Cflice of County Agent Wainscott

Bread Study Shows Saving Through Home Baking.

our work to be of good quality, good Records show that counting pound workmanship and of accepted standfor pound homemakers make better ards. With these points in mind the than 50 percent in baking their own best exhibits of work done in 4-H bread. The cost of bread per pound clubs are chosen for competition at runs quite close to the cost of flour fairs. And in this connection rememper pound. It varies somewhat with the amount of fat and sugar added ber the 4-H slogan, "Win without boasting and lose without squealing." and the kind of yeast. Fuel expense Other activities in which 4-H clubs

ing, the amounts and cost of all instarted within the clubs so that in- away from Los Angeles, for the sum gredients used, the length of time the oven was in use and the number and weight of loaves and rolls when participate in county try-outs after the prospect of seeing another coun- litive utensils. one or two district judging practices. Ity. As I had taken a trip across the continent and back, I was going to market, covering a whole block. The Tourists ride over the town in try. As I had taken a trip across the

the bread baking records said they contests and style show will be an- nearer the day of departure his en- across, facing the numerous aisles, are two wheel carts, with top, and they went to do some trading, tak- munity, occurred Thursday evening found it very interesting and while nounced later and more definite in- thusiasm waned, and he was about formation will be sent to club lead- ready to give up the vacation. When I agreed to go along his fervor reers a little later. turned, for he had dreaded the lone-

4-H club leaders have received the liness of traveling alone.

Special premiums and awards, such a short stop for baggage inspection, tablespoons of lard, which was weigh- both peanuts and copra are used in as trips to the National 4-H Club we crossed over into Mexico. Our ed on a small piece of grayish paper, the manufacture. The soap is blue Congress, Club Week, etc., are listed bagged had been sealed, so there was and carried home without being cov- and light gray, variegated, something in Circular 0-10-2 for 1935, and not much delay for inspection after ered or wrapped. Tortilla dough was like a marble cake in appearance. It should be inducive to a little time and effort on the part of 4-H mem- They were old, with no upholstering. The cook does not roll these tortillas There are many small boy bootbers now in orde rto win when in The Mexican travelers carried a fold- out as we do a pie crust, but pinches blacks. They carry a small wooden competition within the county and ed blanket, or a pillow (with or off a piece of dough and pats and case with the polish and shining cloth at state fair.

hard seats.

trically lighted cabins which serve counties of tree plantings made this as sleeping quarters. A large out- spring under the Clarke-McNary Act, with heavy, home-made wooden which he kept turning so it would We were in Mazatian during the

An interesting program, which in- balance of the season. Cultivation cactus, papayas, cakes frosted with stitching was even and artistic. Oys- marched around one way and the An interesting program, which in-cludes book reviews, round table dis-to conserve the moisture and a little over a new will be weath a lot cussions, various types of recreation, extra care now will be worth a lot. etc., is planned so that the time We need the trees-let's not neglect Indian had a large pail of milk-color- catsup and salt and pepper, and the er people celebrated, in the same ed water, made of ground rice, soak- oysters were served on the shell, manner. Our arana driver told us ed, flavored with cinnamon sticks, eaten with the fingers. Shredded re- that was for the people who did not and strained. This was sold by the mains was put onto a tortilla, the wear shoes. However, many there glass. Goat and cow milk were sold salesman using his dirty hand to were wearing shoes, but more wore meet your best friend and to make Seventy applications for 4-H club in pop bottles. Slices of candied lift the green salad, and the buyer home-made sandals. All were bemany new ones, at Camp Brewster. camp have been received from Cass papayas, melons, etc., were sold to picked it off the tortilla with his having in a very circumspect man-The Home Agent can supply you county members. About 200 mem- the Mexicans. These things were sold hand to eat it, afterward rolling the ner. One little black urchin of about about thirty inches wide by forty grown sweater or old shirt. Believe

MONDAY, JULY 22, 1935

long, built on legs, about the height it or not, but their clothes are fairly of a table. After pouring a little clean, water on each garment it is soaped The oyster traps are stakes driven and rolled up. After the soiled clothes in the sand at low tide, and at high are thus made ready, the woman tide the oysters are washed in. Small Trip to Mexico takes one piece, unrolls it and turns boys wade into the water inside the a handful back over the rest of gar- trap and pick up the oysters, putting ment, using it to rub the rest of the them in home made grass baskets for cloth; then pours a stew pan of water the men to sell on the street. One turn our thoughts toward new goals. Mrs. W. E. Purviance of Los Angeles over it and squeezes it a little, then fisherman had a sort of pen about a another pan of water over it and foot high, made of rock, brick bats wrings it out and goes out to the and debris, over which he had placed clothes line and hangs it up, stuffing scraps of sheet iron, dirt and all; on a corner up through the twisted top of this crude "stove top" he laid

Mrs. A. D. Asch of near Murray, strands of the rope line, and then a slices of baracuda fish, covering the has just received from her niece, foot or so farther, puts another cor- whole with another layer of old sheet Mrs. W. E. Purviance of Los An- ner through the line, so that a iron and tin. Then he built a small geles, a very fine letter that deals clothes line of washing looks much fire of finely split wood, over which like ours when put up with clothes he sprinkled water, and smoked the with the trip of Mrs. Purviance into pins. Then the woman returns to the fish. He was going to sell this fish on old Mexico and which is printed for wash tray and washes one more piece, the street uptown. the benefit of the Journal readers: which she goes out into patio to hang. There are some shark in the wa-

Willis had never visited a foreign and continues this performance, one ters around Mazatlan; and twenty should plan to participate are team land, and as he felt he had been de- piece at a time, until quite a wash- miles away in the swamps are many demonstrations, judging contests, nied something rather important, it ing is finished. This work is done on alligators, which the natives catch. The records kept showed the song contest, health contest and style was a tender subject with him. When the porch. They seem to work all and tan the hide for purses, sandals, show. Demonstration work and the Southern Pacific railroad put on the time. The restaurants all serve belts, etc, which are made by hand a round trip excursion to Mazatlan, soup, and the meals in courses, as and sold along the water front.

judging practice should have been Mexico, over thirteen hundred miles they can not cook many dishes at a There is an island across the bay, time on the charcoal burning stoves on which is a long grove of cocoaterested members will be ready to of $37.25, Willis was overloyed with with so little heat, and such prim- nut trees. Hollywood film companies make many of the South Seas motion. One place of interest is the public pictures at this location

Details regarding the song and health remain at home. As the time drew merchants have spaces a few feet aranas(pronounced a-ran'ya). They The butcher shops, or booths, have the driver raises half of the seat for thin strips of meat, sometimes three the passenger to enter from the rear. feet long, hung on wooden pegs in a Two passengers and one driver sit board on the partition behind them. on the one seat.

None of them had more than twenty There is no health department in advance Class R premium lists for Leaving Los Angeles at eight pieces of meat, which was thickly Mazatlan. Buzzards are the only state fair and should be able to line o'clock, p. m., February 26th, we ar- covered with flies. The purchases scavengers. It is unlawful to kill up their exhibits at an early date. rived at the Mexican border, at No- made are very small, sufficient for them, as they help prevent epidemics. gales, about noon the next day. After one meal. A child would buy two We visited the soap factory, where we reached the Mexican side. There sold in a round loaf, laid on gray is a great peanut country. The copra were two day coaches on our train. paper, and covered only with flies. is brought from the Philippines.

without a cover) to place on the slaps it until it looks like a pancake; in it, and a miniature wooden stool then cooks it until some parts of it to sit on. The stool looks like a

We began observing the peculiar look almost raw, and other parts doll's table. Small boys, riding burcustoms of this foreign land. Instead slightly burned. One can was at the ros, sell milk. The home made car-Recent inspections made in several of automobiles, the burro seemed to curb outside the market with oil-can- riers are slung over the burrow's be the popular means of transpor- stove, charcoal burning, on which a back, with two rows of three bottles, tation, with an occasional ox cart rack covered with husked sweet corn, on each side, door swimming pool centered with a show splendid survival up to now wheels. When stops were made at roast evenly, but which was too four day annual carnival, or fiesta, spurting water fountain is too tempt- but many are weedy and show neg- the larger towns, the natives crowd- brown to suit fastidious tastes. One The railroad put the excursion on ing to be resisted by most of the lect. This is a critical time with the down and the side of stall in the market had panama hats. for that occasion. At one plaza the the day coaches, carrying (mostly on A native woman sat at a sewing ma- more prosperous people danced. There women, so bring your bathing suit these trees and every effort should their heads), glass covered cases, chine, putting fancy stitching around was an orchestra in the center, with if you have one, if not you can get be made to kill the weeds and give baskets, or trays, on which were na- the brim with black thread. She had wide walk all around, and shrubbery

Mr, and Mrs. Harold Krecklow were ing the daytime. Look up the spec- all cases the stove was used for other visiting with friends and doing some ials and come to Plattsmouth next purposes at the same time. Wednesday, prepared to cash in on some real savings, as well as enjoy kinds of bread baked at each bak-

Passing of Adolph Steinkamp

The death of Adolph Sieinkamp, baked Walter Mockenhaupt and wife were 69, one of the best known and highly The majority of women keeping they had supposed that home baking was a saving they had not realized it There is joy at the home of Fred the past two years Mr. Steinkamp was to quite such an extent as the actual figures showed.

> An Ideal Vacation for Mother. Mr. Steinkmap was born August 8, What a fine vacation it would be 1865, in Germany, and came to Amerfor mother to attend the Vacation The Rev. Father Harte was called ica when he was 17 years of age, Camp at Camp Brewster, July 25-28. to Omaha last Monday to look after locating in Plattsmouth. For some After the rush of cooking for harsome business affairs connected with time he was engaged in work as a vest hands and the hot days spent the administration of the church and farm hand, being employed with Wilover the cook stove canning fruits was also visiting with his friends liam Puls west of Murray as well as and vegetables we are sure she would other Cass county farms. In the year find a real thrill in resting and enjoying the leisure hours under the in Manley last Monday night to wit- Jane Goodman, and in 1893 they came cool inviting shade of the big trees ness the splendid moving picture to reside on the farm they acquired surrounding the lodge and club Save the Little Trees.

house, and the screened and elec-The deceased was engaged in trav eling for a number of years and has a one of the camp management.

Mr. Steinkamp is survived by the widow, five sons and one daughter,

Writes of Pleasing so they will be eligible to attend. Many other 4-H activities lie ahead. With state and county fairs only a few weeks away it is time to Of first importance are the exhibits club camp only a few days away, ap-

Writes to Her Aunt, Mrs. A. D. by individual members. We want Asch, of Interesting Trip.

ley; Arthur, Walter, Plattsmouth; a dealer at Murdock. He is well Herbert, Wichita, Kansas, and Mrs. pleased with the new machine and is R. C. Owens. able to get much enjoyment out of

Funeral services were held yesterriding it, as do also many of his boy day at the church south of Cedar friends.

Christian E. Mockenhaupt was feel- Creek and interment was made in wheat is known as the Walradt ing quite poorly last week and was, cemetery. The services were conductnot able to be down town as is his usual custom, even being compelled ed by Rev. W. A. Taylor, an old to remain in bed a part of the time. friend of the deceased man.

He is somewhat improved at this writing, however.

George Vogel had the misfortune to lose another horse, being the secend one this summer. The hot weather has been very severe on horses in the corn and harvest field, as well as on human beings who true to Biblical tradition have been earning their livelihood by the sweat of their re-

Enective brows Dan Bourke and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Petersen, of Omaha, and Mrs. Catherine Ash, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were stopping here for a short visit as they were passing through Manley, returning to their home after having attended the Bourke family reunion at the home of George Elmwood on last Sunday Mrs. Joseph R. Kelley of Platts- capita payment in 1934 was $18.00.

mouth, who has been spending some two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. E. McDonald and grand- insurance payments in 1934 with the county seat after having enjoyed ranked 44th among all cities of the a niece of Mr. Bergman and her hus- York, $107,000; McCook, $103,000; band, as they were returning to their Par, $75,000; Atkinson, $67,000; Dayton, Ohio, after having Scottsbluff, $65,000; Nebraska City, some two months at Los $65,000.

The visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, after remaining here over night, continued on their way ance death payment in Nebraska last the next day and planned to stop that year was $155,600 on the life of a Louisville Farmers Union Band It is with pleasure we are able to $103,000; Accountant, Omaha, $72,- and topographical maps of farms. announce that the Farmers Union 000; Name not given, Omaha, $68,-Band of Louisville, comprising many 600; Ernest H. Hoel, Omaha, $60,- 4-H Clubs Bhsy With of the well known and talented mu- 065; Robt. O. Clifford, Atkinson, $52.sicians of this portion of Cass coun- 000; Chas. W. Fleming, Lincoln. ty, has been secured to play a con- $50,000; Printer, Lincoln, $47,517; cert on the streets of Plattsmouth Name not given, Omaha, $46,553; Wednesday evening, July 24.

Attention of our readers is also Floyd W. Ryman, Lincoln, $49,000; directed to the fact that Plattsmouth Name not given, Lincoln, $40,000: merchants are joining in the giving Name not given. Omaha, $40,000: of special certified values on Wednesday of each week, the bargains for Jacob H. North, Lincoln, $30,000; this Wednesday being listed in a 3- Name not given, Omaha, $30,000. column ad appearing elsewhere in

Life Insurance Brings Large Sum to Nebraskans

> $25,100,000 Is Paid Out in State in Claims During the Past Year-30th State in Union.

Nebraska policyholders and beneficiaries were paid $25,000,000 by life insurance companies in 1934, according to a special compilation by the National Underwriter, weekly insurance newspaper.

Nebraska ranked 30th in life pay-Bickert a number of miles west of ments among all states, while it is 32nd in size of population. The per Omaha Leads Cities.

Omaha led Nebraska cities in life to explain to farmers how they may daughter, Mrs. Will Meyers, of near $3,402,000 compared to $3,471,000 in the agreements that will be arranged Ashland, returned to her home in 1933, or a 1 percent increase. Omaha between farmers and the camp. a very pleasant two weeks' visit. Mrs. country. Lincoln was second in pay- to help carry on the discussion and Kelley was very anxious to get home, ments in 1934 in Nebraska with $1,- answer questions. The building of as the stork had brought her daugh- 446,000 compared to $947,000 the the camp has been delayed somewhat ter and zon-in-law, Emil Koukal and year before. Beatrice came third with due to the lumber strikes holding up

$209,000 followed by Grand Island, shipments of lumber. Three cars of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bergman $204,000; Hastings, $156,000; North lumber have just arrived and progwere enjoying a visit last week from Platte, $146,000; Fremont, $123,000; ress will be speeded up considerably now. The mess hall and latrine are now completed leaving about seven build-Large Individual Payments.

in the camp are temporarily placed The largest individual life insurat the old camp at Nebraska City and will be moved to Weeping Water as soon as this camp is completed. Preother stop at Chicago before they fin- Omaha. Other large payments were: siring work done will start immed-Name not given, Omaha, $152,500; iately after the meeting Friday even-585; Earl H. Ridnour, McCook, tion of proposed projects, surveys

Summer Activities.

A check up on the records of 4-H clubs shows that most of the clubs are "up on their toes" this season. Name not given, Omaha, $44,506; Meetings have been held regularly, reports have been coming in nicely and indications are that most of the clubs have their work well up to date. Arthur D. Dunn, Omaha, $36,000; Many clubs, especially cooking clubs, have completed requirements and are reporting dates of their achievement passes quickly and the women have them now.

a chance to really get acquainted and to discuss timely topics. Plan to 4-H Club Camp Next Week. with all the necessary information bers from Cass, Otoe, Sarpy and ly all ages. Coffee, black as tar, and Many of the natives eat their meals outstanding figure. He had on a on arrival at the camp, however if Camp Brewster, July 21-24. A list holding more than four cups. There ust what he can carry on his head, or arrangements will be made for you. | and they have been especially in- fall at Mazatlan is sixty inches.

CCC Camp and Erosion Control. Friday evening, July 19, at 8 p. m. program. farmers of Cass county will have an opportunity to familiarize themselves with soil erosion control service. The Checks Being Taken. meeting will be held at the Farm Bureau office in Weeping Water.

D. L. Gross of the Extension Service at the College of Agriculture. Lincoln, will present the agronomist's viewpoint regarding crops and cropping systems and the possibilities in this county. Ivan Wood, also of the Extension Service will present the plan of actually putting into operation an erosion program pleased with the amount of their and the cost to the farmer.

Homer A. Wendling, project direcrefunds.

Corn Loan Refund

ated permanent pastures on which patio often serving as pig pen, goat ance.

night at Rock Island, Ill., then an- person whose name was not given of liminary work with the farmers deto American money. An American are showing results. (4) Spring or tieing a bunch of long, stiff grass was nice, but we could not relish and fifty-five cents Mexican. Their tall seeded permanent pasture mix- around an old broom handle. or a the food, as the files lighting on it dollar is called peso (pay'so) Harry M. Hepperlen, Beatrice, $120,-585; Earl H. Bidnour McCock ing. This work will include inspec> to excellent management survived big abdomens. They are undernour- ed up a ramp to the second floor, the drouth and heat of 1934.

Farmers having pastures of brome grass or a mixture where brome tillas, make coffee, and any other built as they are in the South Seas, grass predominates are asked to re- cooking, consist of a small pan, a five The sides were of small sticks, set about ten inches long and six inches port such to the agricultural agent gallon oil can with rectangular hole either horizontally or perpendicu- wide, filled with silver coin. She met so stops may be made at such areas. cut in side for a draft, a hollowed out larly; or of palm branches; and all the evening trains, going and comon what to bring, etc. The regis- Douglas counties are expected to at- unpalatable for Americans, was sold at the "portable restaurants" along shrunken, faded wool sweater, and tration fee of $4.50 may be paid up- tend the camp which will be held at from small coffee pots, often not the curb. Each salesman will have new red socks and sandals, which you intend to enroll notification of the necessary articles to bring to were oranges, lemons, limes, papayas, in two pails or baskets on the ends parel. He was having a glorious cocoanuts, and other fruits grown of a sort of wooden yoke across his time, running out among the dancers, should be sent to the Home Agent so camp has been mailed to applicants without irrigation. The annual rain- back. His whole store of edibles falling on the cement walk, and smilmay only be native turnips, which he ing through it all.

vited to bring musical instruments or About two or three hours before peels and lays in one side of his bas-On the return trip many bought other euipment for the amateur night we arrized at Mazatlan we passed ket against the unwashed tournips. Indian baskets and rugs, from the into the Tropic of Cancer. There was By the time he peels all around the peddlers along the side of the train. a sign to that effect by the side of turnip it is pretty well covered with There were wooden salad spoons, the road. earth. A hungry man will buy one with the ornamentation burned in, For many miles the broad valley turnip for five centavos (pennies) made by Toluca Indians; rectangular through which we traveled was cov- and stand there on the edge of the baskets with lids, made of ixtle fibre

About half of the corn loan re- ered with dense mesquite brush, and sidewalk and eat it. That will be his from the maguey plant, made by sahuraro cactus, thirty feet high, in- complete meal, and he looks as satis- Yaqui Indians; round baskets of fund checks had been taken the first sanuraro cactus, thirty feet high, in complete men, and he tooks us satus woven braid, in designs of many of the week. If you had a corn loan ed into the Tropic of Cancer the ner. The tortillas are rolled and colors, made by Pueblo Indians; mats a year ago on your corn you prob- trees were larger and the jungle eaten without butter, syrup, or jelly, made by Tolucas; blankets and rugs ably have a check at the Farm Bu- more dense. In the rainy season, as we would eat them. The houses of hand made yarn made by Navareau office and are requested to call which begins in June, one may pick are adobe, usually one story, many joas.

orchids, which hang from trees along plastered, some calsomined pink. Articles are usually carried on the for it at the earliest possible time. the railroad. blue, or white. The roofs are all red head in baskets, traps or pans. Even The smallest checks are for $1.20 and Mazatlan is a peninsula, jutting hand-made tile, except the very poor a small boy can step up on the curb the largest run close to $100. Most out into the Pacific ocean just east ones, which have grass thatched without holding the container with farmers have been both surprised and of the Peninsula of Lower Califor- roofs. Each apartment, or house, his hands nia. There is a beautiful harbor and built around the square block, has a Most of the land is owned by the

a quaint old city of 30,000 inhabit- high wall of adobe, sometimes with Mexican government, and the people ants; narrow streets, many miniature broken glass bottles, cemented up. in small villages along the tracks shops, no large stores, all the build- right into the top, as a barrier to inbuild their homes on such land. There ings joined and built around the truders .. are some villages with tile roofs, but

Improved pasture management outer edge of the block, with patio The best hotel, facing the harbor, most of them are grass thatched roof Improved pasture management practices, vitally important in Cass all the buildings come to the narrow the guests walk into the hotel. The All

All films must be finished before county due to the devastating dam-sidewalk on the street. The mail bags ball room is first, at the left of enbeing taken out of Mexico, and those age done by the 1934 drouth and are about the size of ours, made of trance, then dining room, with patio depicting poverty are confiscated. over-grazing in the past, will be ob- green, red and white striped canvas. at side and back of it, in which there The school rooms are similar to The inhabitants of the town are are about twenty tables for those who ours, but the pupils all study out served on August 8th when farmers very friendly. Some speak English. prefer to eat in the open. While we loud at the same time. That gives a go on a pasture tour. Plans for the All with whom I talked who had were eating an ice truck drove in teacher the impression they are all day include six or eight stops to be lived in the United States, said they using the same entrance that guests preparing their lessons, when often would rather live here than in Mex- walk in, then a man with a short pole they are just making a noise. made in various communities.

Stops will be made at various ico. Many of the women and girls across his shoulders, on each end of The Mexican beds have rope laced wear a black shawl about one yard which were hung three chickens. At across to hold up the mattress, and farms in the county where recom-square, called rebosa, made of cotton the right of entrance is the office, the rope stretches and lets mattress mended pasture management prac- voile, or thin wool; the more pros- back of which there is a room con- sink into quite a hollow in the centices have been carried on. The tour perous wear one of lace, called man- taining the bar, with nice oil paint- ter. The pillows are hunks of cotton will probably demonstrate: (1) The tilla. These are tied over the head. ing on the wall; on one side there instead of feathers, and are not con-use of brome grass. (2) Use of tem- ber of inhabitants. It is very prim- cases, and two barrels of empty li-The town looks small for the num- are a number of empty packing ducive to restful slumber. ings to erect. The boys that will be porary pasture crops such as sudan, itive. A family often lives in one quor bottles back of the bar, which changer came into the train at Nosweet clover, and rye. (3) Rejuvin- room, with a paito and porch; the gives the place a disorderly appear- gales and exchanged our American the owner has been using such meth- lot, chicken, or dog lot. The floors There are no screens on the win- trip we had to go to the Bank at ods in 1935 as delayed or reduced of the poorer classes are tamped dirt. dows in Mazatlan; and no chimneys, Nogales to get it exchanged back in-The women and girls sweep the floors which would be superfluous when to American money. An American Many make their own sandals, and not have enough to eat, where there we were very glad to get back to or mixture for cow pastures. (6) live on very simple food. Their chil- is an abundance of fruit and vege- home comforts and cleanlinesss, and have omitted the most appealing On the side of Mazatlan facing the sight, which was a pretty Mexican The stoves on which they cook tor- bay were numerous fishermen's huts, young lady selling lottery tickets. She carried a white canvas bag.

Good permanent pastures which due dren have rickets, spindly legs, and tables. The guests at the hotel walk- American cooking. ished in a land of plenty. Seven per where the bedrooms are located. cent of the babies die.

Willis laughingly remarked that I

As we went to Mexico a money

noney for Mexican.

Tentative plans for the tour call wooden block or anything that will with thatched roofs, usually of three miles. People treated her for a picule lunch at noon with a ing; a few pieces of charcoal, with an branches. Some huts had chinks courteously, and no one snatched her weed identification contest as an add- old piece of sheet metal laid over for partly filled with pieces of tile, brok- money. The railroad is built on the tor of the CCC camp will be present Pasture Tour Planned.

