Death of Tom Straub, Pioneer of Near Avoca

Member of One of Best Known Families of Southern Cass County, Dies on Wednesday.

Thomas H. Straub, 66, son of the founders of "Straub settlement" near Avoca, long a colorful figure of that community, died at his home Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Straub suffered a stroke Tuesday from which he never regained consciousness. It was his third attack within the past nine months. Two weeks ago he returned to Avoca after a long seige in an Omaha hospital.

He was born on the old Straub homestead near Avoca March 1, 1869, the fourth son of David and Elizabeth Straub, who settled in the new prairie country and founded a town. Later the town was moved when the Missouri Pacific railroad was built through this territory.

He lived all of his life in and around the Avoca community. After retiring from farming he set up an automobile agency and implement store, jokingly referring to it, at first, as "Tom Straub, Not Inc." The name stuck and his business bore that title until his death.

Tom Straub never married. He lived alone in his home until illness made it imperative that help be close at hand. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hauptmann have been caring for him since.

Of a jovial nature, he acquired during years of active life a wide circle of friends. For years he held various offices in Trinity Lutheran church, the congregation founded by his father and mother.

Although funeral services will be held from the church final arrangements have not yet been made.

He is survived by four brothers, David, Vincent, Max, prominent Avoca farmers and livestock men, and William Straub, president of the Farmers Mutual Insurance company of Lincoln.

How big are your walls of life? How wide are your walls of Faith, of Love, of Tolerance, Hope and Humility? Do you live in a mansion of love, or a two-by-four shack of selfishness? Take a good look at yourself.

10:00 a. m. Sunday school hour. Let us all come and bring a friend. Remember that we are back to our old time schedule of 10:00 a. m. again. If you did not rise early enough to come last Sunday, you have a double reason for being there this Sunday.

11:00 a. m. Morning worship. The pastor has returned fired by a week of spiritual blessings. The topic for morning worship is "Sink or Swim." This is not what you think.

7:45 p. m. Epworth League installation service.

A fine picnic dinner and fellowship was held at Epworth Lake Park last Sunday. We all enjoyed the services. Especially did we enjoy the marvelous preaching of Dr. Chappell of the Methodist Church South. We wish that you could have been there.

Note: We shall have the election of our lay delegate and alternate at the close of Sunday school hour this Sunday.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Mrs. Mary Fetzner, one of the long time residents of near Louisville and well known here, is in quite serious condition at the Methodist hospital at Omaha where she has been for a short time. Mrs. Fetzner underwent a very serious operation a few days ago and has not rallied as had been hoped and her condition is such that she is not allowed visitors. The many friends over the county are hopeful that she may soon take a turn for the better and be able to rally from the effects of her illness and operation.

HONOR MEMORY HINDENBURG

Tannenburg, Germany.—Pilgrims from all parts of the reich flocked here to pay their respects to the memory of Paul Von Hindenburg at the gigantic national memorial where the war-time marshal and former president is buried. Many delegations including war widows from near and far, filled the court of honor bearing wreaths and flowers. They were admitted to the court after Major General Oscar von Hindenburg paid filial duty at his father's tomb.

Several additional contracts are to be let soon for river development work in this vicinity.

Distinguished Educator Named Omaha Bishop

James Hugh Ryan of Catholic University at Washington Named to Head Omaha Diocese.

Most Rev. James Hugh Ryan, rector of the Catholic university at Washington, D. C., yesterday was named bishop of the diocese of Omaha of the Roman Catholic church.

He is already a bishop. In 1933 he was named by Pope Pius XI to be titular bishop of Modra, an inactive see in Asia Minor. That bishopric was honorary, in recognition of his high position in the Catholic educational world.

Bishop Ryan is expected to come to Omaha to be installed within a month or six weeks. The diocese has been without a head since May 15, when Bishop Joseph F. Rummel left to become archbishop of New Orleans.

The appointment of so outstanding a clergyman and one already a bishop to the Omaha diocese was regarded by Omaha Catholics as an indication of the high esteem in which the diocese is held by the Vatican.

49 Years Old.

Bishop Ryan's home was originally in Indianapolis. He will be 49 years old next December 15. He is described by Mrs. Arthur Mullen of Omaha, who has known him for 10 years, as genial and democratic, but always dignified. He is personally very popular in Washington and is said to be an excellent speaker, though no orator. He is dark-haired, of medium height, bulky and slightly stooped.

Bishop Ryan is one of the church's leading scholars and an authority on scholastic philosophy. He is an able executive and during his seven years of president of Catholic university he increased the enrollment and endowment greatly.

The new bishop was educated at Duquesne university, Pittsburg, and at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in the West, at Cincinnati.

RETURN LAZARO TO OMAHA.

Omaha.—Joe Lazaro of Omaha, sought for six months in connection with the fatal stabbing of Arthur Joerns, salesman, in a night club fight here, was returned to Omaha by officers who arrested the fugitive in Kansas City early Monday.

Joerns was stabbed in a fight Dec. 2 at a downtown night club. He died five days later, and, say police, named Lazaro as his assailant before he died.

Standard Oil is able to give you more for your money... and DOES

YOU GET A RUN
FOR YOUR MONEY

(a long, fast one!)

Because of the extra Live Power—real working power—now at your command in Standard Red Crown, you get long, low-cost mileage. But economy isn't the only big feature of this 1935 gasoline.

The increased power output has a twofold purpose: (1) to restore, in older motors, a major share of their former speed, keenness and vigor; (2) to give new-car owners the full performance capacity of the 1935 motors.

And Standard Red Crown, of course, also has an abundance of Tetraethyl, the finest anti-knock fluid known.

From any angle, it is the best buy in gasoline today. Stop for a tankful where you see the familiar Standard sign.
