Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guade of Unadilla were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger for the day last Sunday. Mrs. Guade is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kruger and a very pleasant visit was had.

Mrs. Earl Kirkpatrick of Texas arrived in Nehawka for an extended visit with friends and will remain for some time. Mrs. Kirkpatrick tells of the late Huey P. Long being very popular in Texas where she lives.

M. R. Dunning, state fire inspector whose home is at Fullerton was a visitor in Nehawka last Tuesday in line with his business and was inspecting the fire hazards of Nehawka. Clifford Trotter was assisting in the work.

Albert Anderson and family were over to Weeping Water for the afternoon and evening last Tuesday, the first day of the fair, and besides seeing the fair were visiting with friends and renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Ben Hanson and children who have been visiting in Nehawka and keeping house for Mr. Steuart Rough returned to their home at Iowa City recently, accompanying the father, Stuart Rough and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lake, who were going to Louisville, Kentucky.

James Miller and son have just completed the manufacture of a number of burial vaults which they have been making for the winter when the weather is cold and the work would have to be done on the inside.

but making them at this time they can be made out of doors.

Miss Lena McReynolds has received the appointment of postmistress for Nehawka and is at this time assisting in the office and becoming acquainted with the routine of the work and will take the office over about the first of October, that being the ending and beginning of the last quarter of the year.

Rev. E. S. Pangborn who has ministered to the churches of Weeping Water and Nehawka departed last Tuesday for the conference of the Methodist church of this district being held at Omaha where he will attend. The congregations of both Weeping Water and Nehawka would be well pleased if Rev. Pangborn and wife return for another year.

James Palmer has been staying at the elevator as Stuart Rough has accepted an invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lake who are going to Louisville, Kentucky where they are spending some time, to ride along to Alton, Illinois where he will visit with a daughter until Mr. and Mrs. Lake pick him up on their return.

Wins on Galloway Cattle.
At the state fair there were many who entered Galloway cattle for premiums and some ten who were winners recognizing the merit of their exhibits. Among the winners was Merritt Pollard, Jr., who came in tenth, but whose stock sold at the highest price of any even the cattle which were awarded the first prize. The following were the winners as they were awarded: Oscar Brandt, first, and his entrant was surely a magnificent looking animal, entitled to the first prize; Florence Sofolin, second; Ray Brandt, third; Robert Pollard, fourth; Malcolm Pollard fifth; Oscar Brandt, sixth; Merle Kuntz, seventh; Raymond Brandt, ninth; James Schaeffer tenth and Merritt Pollard, Jr., eleventh.

Returned Home Last Week.
Ralph Petersen who was a member of the navy, serving his time out and was regularly discharged, and so took a visit around where he might desire and while he was doing what he wanted to some of his friends and relatives were wondering where he was. When he had his visit out he returned to the home of his parents at Niobrara. During the meantime the navy officials were endeavoring to secure his address as he had won a medal which they were desirous of preating to the young man.

Return Rev. Otto Engebretson Here.
At the conference of the different United Brethren churches of the district in the allotment of ministers to the different charges Rev. Engebretson is at this time at the Mayo hospital at Rochester, Minn., where he is under observation and receiving treatment.

Enjoyed Visit in the South.
Sheldon Mitchell, the genial and efficient salesman for the Sheldon department store who has been spending some ten days in the south visiting at Amarilla, Texas, returned home last week and was accompanied by his sister, Miss Cecile Mitchell who is to attend school here. Sheldon says the country had been very dry during the year, but they are having plenty of rain at this time.

FARMS SELLS AT $200 PER ACRE
Returning to prosperity to agriculture was reflected in sale of a Dodge county farm at two hundred dollars an acre, reports from Fremont show.
The tract, an 80-acre improved farm one-half mile south of Hooper, was sold by Mrs. William E. Heller of Hooper to George Kuhman of Uehling.
In Sarpy county the increasing farm land values was shown in the fact that two farms were sold at $120 per acre and one brought the sum of $150 per acre.
These increasing values show that eastern Nebraska farms are getting back at their normal values and bringing a price more in keeping with the real value of the land.

ABANDON FOGBOUND BOMBER
Hanover Courthouse, Va.—Beset by fog, four members of the United States army air force at Langley field abandoned their big bomber over Enfield, Va., drifted in parachutes to landings miles apart in two Virginia counties and counted a scratched nose and a ducking as the worst personal results of their adventure.
The crew included Test Pilot W. S. Marvin of Riverside, Calif., who was steering the bomber on a flight from Pittsburgh to Langley field; Sgt. C. A. Johns, Corporal Connor, and Private Murdock.

NOTICE OF HEARING
In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.
In the Matter of the Estates of Martha A. Remick, Emma S. Remick and Flora I. Remick, each deceased. Estate No. 3156.

To all persons interested in said estates, creditors and heirs take notice: That Roy Stewart has filed his petition alleging that Martha A. Remick, a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, Nebraska, died intestate on or about the day of 1922, seized in fee simple of the following described real estate in the County of Cass and State of Nebraska, to-wit:

Lots 10, 11, 12 and 13 in Block 11, Thompson's Addition to the City of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska—leaving as her sole and only heirs at law, Emma S. Remick, an infant daughter three years of age, and Flora I. Remick, an infant daughter eight years old.

Said petition also alleges that Emma S. Remick, a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, Nebraska, died intestate at the age of four years, in the year 1863, seized in fee of an undivided one-half interest in and to the real estate above described, and leaving as her sole heir at law, her father, David Remick.

Said petition also alleges that Flora I. Remick, a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, Nebraska, died intestate on or about the day of 1887, seized in fee simple of an undivided one-half interest in and to the real estate above described, and leaving as her sole and only heir at law, her father, David Remick.

Said petition further alleges that the interest of the petitioner in the above described land is that of a subsequent purchaser; and prays for a determination of the time of the death of said Martha A. Remick, Emma S. Remick and Flora I. Remick, and of the heirs, the degree of kinship and the right of descent of the real property belonging to each of said deceased persons in the State of Nebraska.

It is ordered that the same stand for hearing on the 4th day of October, 1935, before the County Court of Cass county, in the court house at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a. m.

Dated at Plattsmouth, Nebr., this 7th day of September, 1935.
