Sustains Fractured Arm

While Lester Drenner was on his way home one day last week to get his wife and take her to St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City for treatment and a possible operation, his little daughter ran from the school grounds to tell him that another daughter, Mary Ellen, had fallen off the playground apparatus at school and fractured her arm. So he had to take time to see that the injured arm was attended to and thus the visit to the hospital was deferred for the time being.

On Tuesday of this week, Mr. Drenner took the wife to the hospital, where she will be under observation and if found advisable will undergo an operation a little later, thus bringing plenty of trouble to the home at this time.

Funeral of Mrs. J. H. Steffens

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Steffens was held from the Methodist church of Nehawka, of which she has been a member for many years, last Sunday afternoon and was conducted by the Rev. Carter, pastor of the church here and the church at Weeping Water.

PLATTER RESERVES WIN

Tuesday afternoon the Glenwood high second string football team came across the Big Muddy to engage the junior members of Fred Rother's staff, bringing with them a vision of a victory to equal their older schoolmates of the Rams. The Glenwood boys, however, were disappointed as the locals won by the score of 6 to 2, incidentally this being the first time that the local second stringers have hung up a victory over a five year period.

The Glenwood team started the scoring when they blocked a Platter kick for a safety and two points to their credit.

The locals blew off the top of the game in the third quarter when playing on the Platter's thirty-five yard line Joy Miller uncorked a pass that sailed down the field to find a resting place in the hands of Ronald Rebal, one of the promising freshmen players and who was off for a fifteen yard spurt to the Glenwood goal. The junior Rams tackled Rebal but he had carried the ball over for the needed score.

The Platters conducted a good defensive game for the remainder of the

ORDER 26,000 FOR WPA JOBS

Lincoln, Oct. 8.—D. F. Felton, Nebraska WPA administrator, Tuesday said he received word from Washington work relief officials that all governmental agencies in Nebraska must have 26,000 relief clients at work by Nov. 1.

He said the CCC has been assigned a quota of 6,800 and other agencies, including the army, alcohol unit, road work and reforestation, have been asked to employ 2,700 persons, leaving the remainder, or 15,000, to be taken care of by WPA projects.

The 26,000 total, he said, is the quota set by federal officials as Nebraska's part in the nationwide drive to put 3,500,000 persons to work by Nov. 1.

Meanwhile, E. F. Witte, state FERA director and WPA certification officer, said 3,224 relief clients are at work on WPA, PWA and in private industry or jobs supplied by the other governmental agencies.

Ferrin Bowland and Mrs. Rowland

Virginia and Katherine Woodin

A shocking confession of how he wired his two little step-daughters to a plowshare and then shook the struggling girls from a boat into the deep waters of a lake near Flint, Mich., was made according to St. Louis police by Ferrin Rowland, top left, Harrison, Mich., farmer. In his statement to St. Louis police, Rowland said the children, Virginia, 3, and Katherine, 6, shown above, "annoyed" his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Woodin Rowland. Mrs. Rowland, lower left, mother of the children by a previous marriage, was held at Harrison following the disappearance of Rowland and the girls. He will be returned to Michigan to face charges.
