W. C. T. U. MEETS

The W. C. T. U. held a very pleasant meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George B. Mann, a very pleasing attendance of the members being there to take part in the program. Mrs. Mann conducted the devotions of the meeting.

The ladies spent some time in the discussions of the plan for the county institute which is to be held here on the second Monday in September. The program for the institute will be under the leadership of Mrs. J. E. Wiles, and should be one of the leading features of the year for the Union.

The ladies also gave the review of the "Union Signal," official organ of the national society, taking up the leading articles of the month.

The meeting was closed with the W. C. T. U. benediction and followed by the serving of delicious refreshments by the hostess.

VISIT IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Warthen are visiting at the home of Mr. Warthen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Warthen. Mrs. Warthen's sister, Miss Eva Beach and brother, Harold Beach are also with them. There are here from Chicago, Ill., and expect to remain for two weeks.

They are also visiting at the homes of Mrs. Wili Carr and Mrs. Arthur Salerno, sisters of Mr. Warthen and at the home of Norman Warthen, a brother.

Death Claims Former Resident of This City

Mrs. Amanda Geary Passes Away at Decatur, Illinois, After Illness of Some Duration.

The announcement has been received here of the death of Mrs. Amanda Geary, 68, which occurred on Tuesday at Decatur, Illinois, after an illness of some duration.

The deceased lady was a resident of this community for a number of years, she making her home with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Geary, the former a son, and while here made many friends who will learn with regret of her passing and share with the family the sorrow that the event has brought.

She is survived by a son, C. D. Geary of near this city and one daughter, Mrs. Alta Romans, of Omaha. There are also two grandchildren surviving.

The funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 from the Fitch mortuary, 3620 Farnam street, Omaha.

HAVE A FINE ADDRESS

The Rotary club had a pleasant surprise at their weekly luncheon on Tuesday when Paul Wiltse, one of the prominent members of the Omaha club, was in the city and stopped for the meeting.

Mr. Wiltse was presented and called on for a short talk, giving a fine review of the International convention held this year at Mexico City. Mr. Wiltse covered many facts of the convention that had not been touched on in previous reports of the great meeting and which held the close attention of the members of the club.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, October 20th

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"The Message of Jeremiah" Jer. 7:1-11; 21-23.

In last Sunday's lesson, we studied Jeremiah and his call; today we will take up his message for analysis and application to our times. Jeremiah was confronted with a hard task; his audience was a stubborn, rebellious one, but, as they thought, worshipping people. Is it possible for people to go through a service and not worship? Yes, we may take part in the singing, praying and reading of the Scripture and still not worship—if our hearts are not right.

One day God calls Jeremiah—on one of the great festivals when all the people were at Jerusalem to take his stand at the main gate and deliver the message (Verses 1 and 2). The question has been asked, "Which temple was this one?" The Jews had three in all. The following information may be of value to the Bible students I Solomon's temple, erected 1000 B. C., stood 420 years (1 Kings 6. II Zerubbabel's temple, built 534 B. C. (Ezra 1:5). III Herod's temple, rebuilt and enlarged, work began 37 B. C. and finished at the birth of Christ—46 years in building and destroyed 70 A. D. This was the temple built after the exile, very unimpressive.

The message: "Hear the word of Jehovah . . ."

A keen observer notices how listless like the people sit in their seats while the man of God tries to put his message over; they do anything but listen. Jesus said: "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear." Matt. 11:15. God will hold man responsible, how they hear. "This is my beloved Son; hear him." (Luke 9:11). Sunday school teachers often lose heart when they cannot get and hold the attention of the class. If God cannot get man to listen, why should man get discouraged? "Amend your ways and your doings." Change your habits—the "doings" are the acts formed by habits. When men "hear" the voice of God, as they should, a change of life follows quickly; we call it conversion. Then his "doings" undergo a change, the things he once hated, he loves now. His whole manner of life is reversed. The Jews deceived themselves, believing that while they attended the public worship, that was all that was necessary; even as men do today, trying to make themselves believe, if they have attended "church" in the morning, they now have a license to do the rest of the day as they please. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." What wonderful blessings God has promised if man will only do his part.

But God will not accept a half-hearted service. There is not room enough in the human heart for God at Nehawka, Neb., Monday (night), October 21, 7:30 o'clock.

HAMPSHIRE BOAR AND GILT SALE

HARRY M. KNABE, Owner.

UNION ITEMS.

Ray Becker made a trip to Omaha Tuesday, where he had some business matters to look after.

Business matters called George A. Stites to Plattsmouth Monday afternoon, he making the trip in his car. Rey. N. B. Kunkel and wife were at Weeping Water Monday, guests at the home of their son, Dr. Kunkel and family.

Miss Gwen Stites was a visitor in Nebraska City last Sunday, being a guest of her friend, Miss Kathleen Propst.

Mrs. S. Jones, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in Omaha during the past week, returned home Sunday.

Frank and Jack were over to the outskirts of Lincoln last Sunday, the latter having some business matters to look after there.

Dick Davis and wife entertained for a group of friends last Sunday, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Ora A. Davis, of Murray.

Mrs. H. A. Truax, of Robertson, Kansas, who has been visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Methena, returned home Monday.

Dr. C. W. Alexander, eyes examined, glasses fitted. Clark hotel, Union. Second Friday every month. 017-24-31-n7

W. E. Sudduth has accepted a position with the Ray Becker Oil company and will also do mechanical work as well as look after the station.

Charles L. Greene and the family were at Murray last Sunday, where they visited with friends and also ate dinner at the Lewiston community center.

Lynn Trumbula and wife of Lincoln were visiting in Union last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mrs. Trumbula's parents, Rev. and Mrs. N. B. Kunkel.

C. F. Harris was called to Des Moines last week to look after some business matters. He was accompanied by his son, Vance Harris. They made the trip in their car.

Ivan Balfour and family were over to the Lewiston community center, where they enjoyed the fine program that was presented there and the excellent dinner that was served.

Thomas Turner, who resides south of town, has been receiving treatment at one of the hospitals in Omaha and is showing some improvement although far from good health yet.

John Banning and wife, of Alvo, passed through Union Sunday forenoon on their way to Nebraska City to spend the day, and stopped to call on friends here on their way home in the evening.

Miss Nola Banning, who holds a teaching position in the Nebraska City schools, visited in Union a short time Saturday. Returning to Nebraska City later in the day, she accompanied two of her girl friends to Snyder for an over Sunday visit.

The Woman's club of Union, aided by other interested citizens, sponsored a reception for the teachers of the Union schools, which proved to be a splendid gathering of townspeople and a demonstration of the esteem held by all for the teachers.

Rev. N. B. Kunkel, pastor of the Methodist church, was out to Sciota Sunday afternoon, where a community dinner and Bible school session was enjoyed by a large number. The day was ideal for such a gathering and a fine time was had by all.

The CCC boys from the camp at Weeping Water have been doing a good deal of work on the Paul Swan farm, aimed to prevent soil erosion and build up the portion where ditches have already been cut by the water. They will do a lot of this kind of work over the county.

Ralph Meredith has accepted a position as auto mechanic at the CCC camp at Fort Crook, going over there the first of the week to begin his new duties. He has been employed at the Charles Atteberry garage here for some time and has become a very proficient mechanic under the tutorage of Mr. Atteberry.

Opie Pickering and wife, of Yankton, South Dakota, were visiting in Union some two weeks ago and went down to Missouri, where they visited for a time. They were accompanied by George Edwards of Bellevue. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Pickering remained over Sunday and continued on their way home the following day.

leading to Lincoln, was crowded with cars last Saturday, as thousands were on their way to the capital city to take in the Minnesota-Nebraska football game that afternoon. Union sent a number to witness the battle and nearly everyone who didn't go was listening in on the broadcast.

George Stites, Eugene Roddy, Dr. R. R. Anderson and James Fitzpatrick made up a group of four from here that took in the game.

Death of Infant Daughter

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted McClain has been saddened by the death of their youngest daughter, who passed away at the hospital in Omaha Monday morning from infantile paralysis. Both girls were stricken with this dreaded "mated" and the other is in serious condition. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow.

Visited at Home Over Sunday

Misses Edith Foster, Velma Ackley and Martha Upton, who are all taking nurse training courses at the hospitals in Omaha, were able to be home over the week end and enjoyed visiting with their respective families. They returned to Omaha early Monday morning in time to resume their work there.

Bought Cabin Trailer

E. E. Leach has purchased a cabin trailer that was used by one of the river workers who has been transferred to St. Louis, and has it at the lumber yard, where he will make some alterations to it, preparatory to taking same for his own use or disposing of it. Mr. Leach sold the lumber that went into it at the time it was built some months ago.

To Farm Hathaway Place

Lee Faris, who has had a 40-acre farm east of Union, with the opportunity to occupy another, will move to the George Hathaway place for the coming year. This farm was recently sold to C. F. Harris and will be farmed by Mr. Faris, leaving the forty acre farm for someone else.

Have New Corn Picker

Sterling and Donald Harris recently purchased a new corn picker which they used a short time to see how it would work and found that the 400 bushels of corn which they picked was slightly damp, and so concluded they would wait a short time before picking any more. They are well pleased with the performance of the new machine and feel that it will be a great labor saver.

Funeral of J. Carl Robinson

J. Carl Robinson, 79, died Friday afternoon at his home in Nebraska City from the infirmities of old age. He had been a carpenter in Nebraska City for 45 years, and had been in failing health for a long time, being bedfast the last six months of his life. He was born June 10, 1856, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jephtha Carl Robinson, at Carl, Iowa, a town named after his father, December 18, 1889. He was married to Miss Sarah L. Van-tine at her home in Nehawka. She died November 6, 1928. The deceased man was a member of the carpenters' union and the Modern Woodmen. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ferrell Botkin, who lived with him.

Also a brother, Cyrus A. Robinson, of Rushville, New York.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at a Nebraska City funeral chapel, W. A. Taylor, of Union, a friend of many years, officiating. Interment was in Wyuka cemetery at Nebraska City.

Entertained at Supper.

Hallis Banning, who is employed at Lincoln, brought a group of friends down Tuesday evening where they were royally entertained at a supper given by his mother, Mrs. W. B. Banning. The guests were also treated to apple cider while toasting marshmallows at the grate.

Visit Friends in Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Watson of Inman with their small daughters, Ruth 10, and baby, Marilyn, aged two months, and Mrs. Watson's mother, Mrs. Anna Pierson of Lincoln, stopped for a brief visit with Mrs. Fannie Eikenbary and sister, while en route to Omaha on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Watson, formerly Ruth Chenoweth, was pleased to again visit our town where as a small girl she attended school.

Former Residents Visit Here.

Mrs. Eva Amos, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, who were pioneer residents of this community and where she was born at the home near the A. O. Pearsley farm about 64 years ago. Her parents moved to Custer county many years ago, where they died several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos and their daughter and son came to Lincoln this fall to place the daughter in the university. On their motor trip to Union they were accompanied by Cleo Cannon and wife of Lincoln, who were also former residents of Custer county. Mr. Cannon is a son of Samuel L. Cannon a pioneer of this vicinity and a member of the early day legislature at Lincoln. While here they called on several old friends and neighbors some of whom were Mrs. Mary Davis, Mrs. Mable Reynolds, Mrs. Carper and Mrs. Eikenbary.

Enjoy Steak Fry.

W. B. Banning, director of the state agricultural department at Lincoln, invited twenty-seven of his co-workers down on last Wednesday evening for a steak fry at his orchard. While Mr. Banning fried the steaks on the camp stove, some of the ladies prepared a delicious salad and other delicacies from ingredients brought with them, the gentlemen present lending assistance by toasting marshmallows for dessert. Mr. and Mrs. Banning treated their guests to peaches, apples and cider, all of which was greatly enjoyed. It was regrettable that a sudden storm came up after supper causing them to speedily seek shelter.

"See it before you buy it."
