

Weeping Water

Mr. and Mrs. John Bolz were over to Palmyra last Sunday, spending the day at the home of Mr. Bolz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolz.

A. E. Oldham was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Friday of last week, driving over to the big city to look after some business in his line.

The Cole Motor company received a car load of the 1936 V's, unloading them last Tuesday. One of them was already sold and prospects for the entire car lot are had.

Miss Agnes Rough and brother, Stuart, were over to Omaha last Sunday visiting with a brother. They found the driving very bad and especially during the late afternoon.

Bill Johnson has just completed painting a sign for the truck of John Jourgensen which he has placed on the truck and makes a very attractive sign telling of the business Jack is engaged in.

S. A. Galloway of Plattsmouth, was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week and attending the lecture on soil erosion and as well as visiting at the CCC camp.

John C. Newman of near Murdock, was a visitor in Weeping Water last Tuesday to attend the farmers meeting sponsored by the Weeping Water merchants and the noonday luncheon provided at the CCC camp.

John Cole and mother, Mrs. Walter A. Cole and Richard Cole and wife made a merry party going to Lincoln last Saturday where they attended the Kansas State-Nebraska football game, which ended in a Nebraska victory.

Mrs. Ivan Aulthouse who makes her home on the farm with the husband northwest of Alvo, is spending a week in Weeping Water, guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. (Doc.) McCartney where they ladies especially enjoy the visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields were guests at a dinner served by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall Sunday and during the afternoon all went to Nebraska City where they visited at the state park and looked over the town, returning before the sleek storm.

Mrs. Owee Runyan and little son, Ronnie, were over to Omaha last week for a few days, guests at the home of Mrs. Runyan's mother, Mrs. L. A. Gordon of that place. They were also spending the week end with Mrs. Runyan's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Utt of Murdock.

Elmer Michelsen and family were spending the day last Sunday at Omaha where they were attending a business meeting during the morning and during the afternoon visited with friends and relatives at Blair, returning home in the evening, but finding the traveling very bad.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor and Donna Lee Baker of Reserve, Kansas, Mrs. Joe Aldridge and two daughters, Maxine and Carolyn of Hiawatha were guests at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. D. Baker for the day last Sunday. The day and dinner was made most enjoyable by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and family.

Ralph Binger who is attending the state university taking some special work, was a visitor at home for over the week end, and remained for Monday and Monday night to attend the Masonic lodge when some special work was being put on, returning the following day and being accompanied by his mother, Mrs. G. R. Binger who was visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Fernbaugh in Lincoln.

William Hunt Found Dead. Workmen for the Missouri Pacific in the yards at Weeping Water last Tuesday morning found the mangled remains of Wm. Hunt, 57 years old and unmarried, who had made his home in Weeping Water all his life with the exception of the last three years, since the death of his mother. Mr. Hunt was about town during the past few days and Monday evening had eaten supper at the Mayme Hillman cafe. It was supposed that he had attempted to board a passenger going west about 6 o'clock, the body being found some time later and with the flesh still warm.

The head was cut from the body and was on the south side of the track while one foot and the shoe was some twenty feet away and on the same side of the track, the other foot and the mangled body being fifty or more feet to the west and on the other side of the track.

Mr. Hunt was a workman, taking what work it was possible to secure about town. His sister, Mrs. John Roberts, resides here and two nephews, Lyle and Pirl Reed and a niece by adoption, Leone Luhring, she being adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reed, the foster mother having died some two years ago and the husband marrying again and now making his home elsewhere. Another sister lives in the west. The funeral was held Wednesday from the Hobson funeral home and interment at Oakwood cemetery here.

Making Changes in Store. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Findley who conduct a business in Weeping Water under the name of The Quality Store, have been making some decided changes in the interior of the store in the arrangement of the stock of goods.

Hand Getting Better. Turner M. McKinnon of near Alvo while adjusting a revolver, did not watch the pesky thing closely enough and the revolver went off and maimed his left hand. Mr. McKinnon was attending the farmers meeting in Weeping Water last Tuesday, and reports the hand as getting along fine.

Celebrated Her Birthday. Mrs. C. R. Stuart of Lincoln, mother of Wm. Stuart of Weeping Water, was passing her sixty-sixth birthday anniversary last Sunday and her son, William, of Weeping Water was over to Lincoln attending the gathering celebrating the passing of the natal day. A very fine time was had and many presents, token of the high esteem in which this estimable woman is held, were given.

Had Interesting Day Tuesday. Last Tuesday was selected as the day by the business men of Weeping Water, and was made profitable for the farmers of Cass county by a lecture on soil erosion and other topics of interest to the farmer and as well entertained the visitors at the CCC camp with a very fine dinner. Farmers from all over the county were in attendance.

Masons Have Fine Meeting. The Weeping Water Masonic lodge met last Monday evening and had as guests members of many lodges, there being representatives from Plattsmouth, Nehawka, Ashland, Nebraska City, Elmwood and many from out state present. Following the regular order of the meeting, the first degree of Masonry was conferred upon Edward Stickley. Following this a banquet was served. Past Grand Master Orville Andrews was present and assisted in conferring the degree.

Order Eastern Star Active. The Order of Eastern Star, the ladies' department of the Masonic order, held a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening, at which time they had a number of visitors from the surrounding towns and lodges and at the same time conferred the Eastern Star degree on a candidate, following which they enjoyed a very fine

Weeping Water to Have Hospital. With the purchase of the property as mentioned last week by Dr. L. N. Kunkel this has given Dr. Kunkel room for the establishment of a hospital and an institution which the city, in fact this portion of country, has badly needed for some time. Dr. Kunkel has some relatives who are practical architects and they have furnished plans and specifications for the turning of the property into a hospital and work is now in progress. An office is also being constructed in connection with the institution.

Hand Getting Better. Turner M. McKinnon of near Alvo while adjusting a revolver, did not watch the pesky thing closely enough and the revolver went off and maimed his left hand. Mr. McKinnon was attending the farmers meeting in Weeping Water last Tuesday, and reports the hand as getting along fine.

MANY VOTE ON COURTHOUSE. O'Neill, Neb.—Mayor Kersensbrock said Tuesday night the biggest vote on record was indicated in the special election in Holt county on a proposal to issue $61,000 worth of bonds to assist in financing a new $110,000 courthouse.

The weather was favorable, and Holt county residents streamed to the polls in large numbers Tuesday afternoon. A light vote was feared by county officials after a survey of the ballot at noon. Complete tabulations probably will not be available until Wednesday.

ANGAS FINDS PROSPERITY. New Orleans.—Major L. L. B. Angas, British boom forecaster, predicted the coming of an American "tidal wave of recovery and prosperity." In a speech prepared for delivery before the annual convention of the American Bankers association, Major Angas declared: "Confidence already has returned to this country; fear has declined; monetary velocity will increase. The result will be an immediate boom, first, in consumer goods; second, in plant and machinery; third, in the housing industries."

Iowa Officers Here to Recover Stolen Cow

Harold Johnson of Tabor Held for Stealing Cows Later Sold at Auburn Cattle Sale.

Harold G. Johnson, Tabor, Iowa, is being held at the Mills county jail at Glenwood, for investigation in connection with the stealing of seven cows and a calf from the farm of Mrs. Albert Munsinger, of Tabor.

The cows it seems were taken to Auburn Friday and placed on sale there at the weekly community sale and were purchased by a number of people in widely scattered sections and the innocent purchasers had taken the cows away when the investigation of the Iowa officers developed that they had been stolen. The arrest of Johnson came when the payment of the check for $195.25 received for the cattle at the Auburn sale was stopped. The check was cashed at Nebraska City after it was endorsed by Harvey Maag, who complained to the office of Sheriff Carl Ryder of Otoe county that payment on the check had been stopped.

It was found that the cattle in the hands of the purchasers at the sale were in many localities and the task of tracing down the names of those making the purchases and rounding up the live stock was no small task.

Three of the cattle were located at the farm of W. H. Porter near Union, one had been sold to Charles Tessler of this city, several were in Kansas and one near St. Joseph, Missouri, and for the past few days these have been gathered in.

The cattle are being taken back to the owner in Tabor, who this morning secured the cow at the Tessler dairy.

Johnson was arrested Saturday in Nebraska City while he was engaged in a dice game at a barber shop.

PERMIT OMAHA BUS LINE

Omaha.—The city council Tuesday granted to Roy J. Furstenberg of Omaha, a permit to use the streets for a one-line bus system, over a route not traversed by tram lines. The permit is revocable. Furstenberg and his attorney, George Tunison, said they would go to Lincoln as soon as they obtained a certified copy of the council's resolution, to lay their application for a certificate of convenience and necessity before the state railway commission, which must be had before operations can start.

GENERAL CRITICALLY ILL

San Francisco.—Lieut. Gen. Hunter K. Liggett, who commanded the American first army during the World war, lay critically ill here 17 years after the "big push" in the Argonne which ended with the Armistice. Flowers and communications from friends came to the hospital, but the veteran commander was too ill to acknowledge them or to receive visitors.

RAILWAY DEATHS DECLINE

Washington.—The number of rail accidents were cut from 87 in the fiscal year 1933-34 to 73 last year while the death toll dropped from 141 to 125. Injuries, however, increased from 789 to 951. Failure on the part of railroad employes to perform their duties properly accounted for a major percentage of the accidents, it was said, with 31 attributed to this cause in 1933-34 and 27 last year.

MULLEN WINS PERMISSION

Washington.—The supreme court gave Arthur F. Mullen, attorney for the Platte Valley public power irrigation district of Nebraska, permission to ask leave for the district to intervene in Nebraska-Wyoming litigation over irrigation waters of the North Platte river. The court will decide whether to grant the district's request after studying its petition and an objection lodged with the court by the state of Wyoming.

ALBERT E. CAMPBELL DEAD

Helena, Mont.—Albert E. Campbell, 42, advertising manager for the Helena Independent and brother of Will A. Campbell, its editor, died in his sleep at his home here following a heart attack. Campbell was born near Lincoln, Neb., the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Campbell. He later was associated with his brother Glenn in the printing business in Omaha and was associated for a time with the Kearney (Nebraska) Hub.

"The Journal is equipped to handle your job printing order on short notice at reasonable prices."

OUTLINE PLANS FOR SOIL EXAMINATIONS

Hastings, Neb., Nov. 12.—Plans were made here Tuesday for soil tests as part of the preliminary work in development of the Tri-County public power and irrigation project. W. J. Turnbull of the University of Nebraska will direct the work. He will organize four parties of about four men each. Data obtained will be submitted to contractors bidding on canal construction work.

RAVENNA RESIDENT DIES

Ravenna, Neb.—John M. Hull, 66, long time employe of the electric light company, died Friday night at his home here. He was retired from actual work two years ago and had been in declining health ever since. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Mrs. Ben Buntzer of Fairfield.

FARMERS PAYING DEBTS

Washington.—A report that farmers are paying their debts was given to President Roosevelt by W. I. Myers, governor of the farm credit administration. "About 83 percent of total interest payments due were paid up Oct. 30," Myers said.

APPLY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Chicago.—President Orrin G. Wood, of the Investment Bankers Association of America, announced through its offices here that fifty-six applications for membership were approved at a recent meeting of the board of governors.

ITALIAN SPOILS OF WAR

Asmara, Eritrea.—Three hundred camels and an airplane were added to Italy's spoils of war. Scouts captured the camels at Sciatat, southwest of Makale, routing fifty Ethiopians and seizing two drivers. They will be used in advance supply trains.
