

FREE Health Examination

Nov. 25 - 26 - 27
HOTEL PLATTSMOUTH

If you have a perfect blood stream you will have perfect function of all organs in the body. If you are ailing, you have an impure blood stream. Every sick person should know the organs that are responsible for this impure blood which causes his or her ailment. Dr. Kennedy, of Lincoln, Nebraska, will give you the opportunity to be examined by an electrical instrument which will test the function or activity of each organ in the body, thereby locating the weakest organs and the types of poisons which are responsible for the following ailments: Constipation, rheumatism, female trouble, indigestion, headaches, dizzy spells, over-weight, under-weight, swelling of the feet and eyes, shortness of breath, sleeplessness, cramps, anemia and tired and fatigued bodies. You are not obligated in any way after the examination. Only one member of each family is examined free. Married people should accompany each other so both will have an understanding to their particular case.

Farmers May Have Seed Corn Problem Again

D. L. Gross Says That Much of Nebraska Corn Crop This Year Is Unfit for 1936 Planting.

D. L. Gross, extension agronomist at the agricultural college, warns farmers they will face a serious seed corn situation next spring unless immediate efforts are made to locate good seed.

"A great deal of the late corn which predominates in many sections of Nebraska this year has been injured by freezing weather and very little of it will make good seed for the 1936 crop," Gross said. With very little 1933 corn available any place and hardly any crop produced last year, most of the farmers will have to depend upon this year's crop to furnish seed."

The lack of good, sound ears in most fields will make the task of seed selection more difficult this year, Gross believes. He recommended immediate selection of the best possible seed and hanging the ears up in a dry place to dry out. Barn lofts, unless well ventilated, are not the best place for such drying out process, he said.

CITY RECORD TRANSCRIBING AND TAX PROJECT APPROVED

From Tuesday's Daily.

A letter received today from Chas. G. Young, supervisor of Projects and Planning for Lincoln district, WPA, states the district office has approved Project No. 4 submitted by the City of Plattsmouth for one senior audit clerk (male) and one typist (female) for work on city records, including tax compilations, the proposal and application having gone forward to the state office for its consideration and approval.

The wage classifications are skilled for the senior audit clerk at $44 and intermediate for the typist at $33 per month of 136 hours maximum. The duration of the work is to be seven months. It will include the filing and cataloging of blue prints, reports, etc., in the office of the city clerk and further tax compilation for the claims committee of the council.

It will probably be a week to ten days before final approval is given and requisition issued for the above listed employees.

FIRE PREVENTION ESSENTIALS

A report of the Committee on Fire Prevention and Engineering Standards of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, issued a few months ago, says: "A comparison of grading of cities inspected in 1934, with corresponding gradings of five and ten years previous, indicates that there has been a general improvement in the adequacy and reliability of city water systems. Fire departments were improving steadily until the depression but, because of lessened appropriations which cause a reduction in man power, the departments show a deficiency greater than in 1924. On the average there has been practically no improvement in fire alarm or in regard to adoption and enforcement of laws controlling building construction and hazards."

That report illustrates a situation of the utmost gravity—a situation which is undoubtedly largely responsible for the high fire loss throughout the nation. The type of "economy" which permits fire departments to become run down, either in equipment or personnel, is poor economy indeed—every dollar saved is likely to be offset a dozen times in fire loss, to say nothing of destruction of life. The same thing is true of fire alarm systems, which are the very soul of an efficient system of fire extinguishing.

Even more important, perhaps, are up-to-date, strictly enforced building codes. It is better to prevent fire than to put one out—and a building code that makes it impossible to construct houses or places of business below the fire-resistant standards, and that eliminates the fire traps that exist in almost every community, is the best friend fire prevention has. A model building code was prepared years ago by the National Board, and cities which have adopted and enforced it report that it has been exceedingly efficacious in reducing loss.

Every community should keep its fire department up to standard—should maintain an A-1 alarm system—and should adopt a building code which provides for the best possible standards of construction, residential and industrial alike. Those are essential maneuvers in the never-ending war against fire.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Fred J. Drucker returned to her home at Plattsmouth after a week's visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Wahl at Eulstis, Nebraska.

Well Known North Bend Man Laid to Rest

Ben Gerlock, 43, Well Known Here, Dies as the Result of a Sudden Heart Attack.

Mrs. Georgia Creamer of south of this city, returned home Saturday from North Bend, Nebraska, where she has been for the past week with her niece, Mrs. Isabel Gerlock, being called there by the sudden death of Mr. Ben Gerlock, 43 on last Sunday. Mr. Gerlock and wife had been out on a social call last Sunday and when they arrived home Mr. Gerlock fell to the floor and died in a few moments as the result of a severe heart attack.

Mrs. Creamer was notified of the death and at once drove to North Bend to be with the bereaved family in their sudden sorrow and remained until after the funeral services which were held Thursday from the Methodist church at North Bend and very largely attended by the old friends of the family. Mr. Gerlock was a member of the I. O. O. F. at North Bend and highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Mrs. Gerlock was formerly Miss Isabel Shrader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shrader and made her home here in her girlhood days. She will have the deepest sympathy of the many friends here in her bereavement.

There is surviving the passing of Mr. Gerlock, the widow and two children, David Shrader Gerlock, 9, and Georgiann Gerlock, 2, as well as two sisters, Anna and Mary Gerlock, who reside in the old home in Pennsylvania.

From this community to attend the funeral services were Homer Shrader and daughter, Velma, Alex Rhoden and family, Floyd Gauer, John Nottelman, Alex Campbell, Mrs. Alma Yardly and son, Elmer and Mrs. Creamer.

HAVE A FINE MEETING

The meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. C. A. Marshall, on Friday afternoon proved a very fine start of the new year of activity in the organization and a fine program of activities and objectives was announced by Mrs. Otto A. Keck, the newly elected president. Mrs. Keck is well qualified for the important post of unit president as she has long been active in the affairs of the Auxiliary and enters on the work with real enthusiasm and with the brightest outlook for the future.

The ladies discussed the forthcoming King Korn Klub banquet that they will serve on Thursday of this week at the Legion building, as well as several other projects, including that of Christmas for the children and the membership drive. It is hoped to have a large group enrolled by the start of the year in the Plattsmouth unit, all eligible ladies in the community being urged to get in and take part in the activities of the organization.

Refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Don Seivers, closed the afternoon.

RECEIVES PROMOTION

William Bond, well known representative of the Continental Baking Co. of Omaha, has received a very nice promotion in his work. "Bill," as he was popularly known, made daily visits here for some two years delivering his bread and later was sent to the Nebraska City route. He has just been made supervisor of all of the routes operated by the company out of Omaha which means a more important work and salary increase.

Will buy ear corn. Plattsmouth Feed Yards. Tele 377 or 376.

UNION ITEMS.

The Wyoming M. E. Aid society will meet with Mrs. Clara James on Thursday of this week.

George Trunkenbolz, of Eagle, was looking after some business matters in Union Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swan and daughter, Darlene, took Sunday dinner with Paul's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Swan.

Mr. Turner, who lives on the Rabb farm, was sufficiently recovered to be brought home from the hospital this week.

George A. Stites and wife made a trip to Nebraska City Monday, Mr. Stites having some business matters to look after there.

Mrs. G. L. Sherman, who is here taking care of her sister, Mrs. Clara Davis, took dinner Sunday with Mrs. Eikenbary and sister.

H. H. Becker made a trip to Lincoln Monday, with his large truck, taking over a load of wood for a patron of his father, A. L. Becker.

Mrs. C. H. Whitworth was visiting with friends in Nebraska City Saturday afternoon and was also looking after some shopping there.

James Fitzpatrick was called to Plattsmouth last Wednesday to attend a session of the district court, where he is a complaining witness in a criminal case.

Mrs. Ellen Chapman and Mrs. Lutz were assistant hostesses at the Extension club meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. John Finkle Tuesday afternoon.

W. O. Troop and wife while on their way home from a trip to Nebraska City last Saturday, stopped for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frans of California, are expected here and at Nebraska City soon for a visit with relatives, Mrs. Frans' relatives residing at Nebraska City.

Ray Crawford is still busy with the work of decorating the interior of the store of R. D. Stine, which will present a greatly changed appearance when the job is finished.

Some of the members of the M. E. Ladies Aid are preparing a play which they hope to be able to present before a great while. Watch for the date, which will be published later.

The new home of C. E. Morris, which has been under construction for a number of weeks, is now nearing completion. The interior finish work is being done by Joe Bauer.

Joseph Banning and wife had as guests last Friday John Banning and wife of Alvo. John had come over to look after some matters of business and was accompanied by his wife.

Rev. B. N. Kunkel was in Nebraska City last Monday, where he went to visit his friend, Harry McCarroll, who is convalescing at St. Mary's hospital following an auto wreck some time ago.

Commissioner and Mrs. E. B. Chapman spent Monday at the farm of their son-in-law, Bud Willis, where they were assisting in butchering a couple of hogs and preparing them for consumption.

Miss Nola Banning, who teaches in Nebraska City, and Miss Mary Roddy, a teacher in the Union schools, were at Weeping Water last Saturday, at which place they were having some dental work done.

There were about twenty-two of the ladies who braved the storm last Thursday to attend the covered dish dinner given by the M. E. Aid at the Moss McCarroll home. A delicious dinner and a fine social time was enjoyed.

The three Wickhorst boys living in the Wyoming neighborhood, who were so badly injured in a recent auto accident, were taken to the Nebraska City hospital for treatment, and are reported as improving at this writing.

Mrs. W. M. Barritt and Mrs. J. D. Cross regretted they were prevented by the inclement weather from attending an interesting meeting of the D. A. R. held at the home of Mrs. B. Wolph at Nehawka last week, to which they had been invited.

Joseph Lidgett is reported as being rather poorly of late. His health has not been the best for some time, but he was considerably improved the past few weeks until he suffered a setback just recently. His many friends are hopeful that he will soon be returned to good health.

The stork paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson last Friday, leaving them a fine baby boy. The new arrival was joyfully received and given a very warm welcome, although its coming did delay a wedding that was slated to occur a short time earlier than it was held.

E. E. Leach did not pick a very good day for the placing of a new wheel on his windmill, but found it impossible to delay the job longer, as the old one was about ready to give out and leave him to pump the water for his stock by hand had he not taken steps to make the repairs when he did.

Miss Louise Foster had a box supper and program at the Factoryville school last Friday evening, when the pupils and patrons had a most enjoyable time. Mrs. Ivan Balfour won the turkey that was given away, which no doubt will grace the Balfour table on some festive occasion right soon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd motored to Omaha Sunday, where they took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. McClure and brought their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Rathe home from the hospital, where she had been for some time. Her friends are glad to learn she is making a satisfactory recovery from her recent operation.

Ivan Balfour visited several of the patients at the St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City Sunday, who had been severely injured in auto accidents. He reports Paul Applegate was able to come home Monday and Harry McCarroll, who seemed to be the most severely hurt, had regained consciousness and was improving.

As Herman Comer's birthday falls on a week day this year and he would be busy in the field husking corn, his wife invited his mother, Mrs. Lou Comer and aunt, Mrs. Flora Taylor, to take Sunday dinner with them in celebration of that important event. The guests accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Comer home after church.

Attended Evangelistic Meeting

Rev. B. N. Kunkel dismissed his preaching service Sunday morning to allow the congregation to attend the evangelistic services being conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Baker and wife, which are resulting in much interest and from which no doubt a great deal of good will result. The attendance so far has been very good.

Dedicated Song to Mrs. Davis

Mrs. J. T. Carper recently requested the gospel singers of KFAB to dedicate a song to Mrs. Clara Davis, who has been ill all summer. A few days later, Mrs. Davis was surprised and pleased to receive a letter from a friend whom she had not heard from for a long time and who when last heard from was living in Illinois. She now resides in Genoa, Nebraska, and was reminded to write to Mrs. Davis by hearing the song over the radio, telling her in the letter that she hoped to be able to visit her in the near future.

"The Girl in the Fur Coat"

The Junior class of the Union high school have selected their play to be presented within the next few weeks, and will begin rehearsal of their respective parts soon. The name of the play is "The Girl in the Fur Coat."

Heard Over Station KFAB

Last Sunday the Morris Brothers of Union, who are exceptionally good musicians, were heard over radio station KFAB at about 4:30 p. m. They were heard by a large number of Nebraskans who were tuned to that station and have received a number of cards and letters congratulating them on their fine contribution to the program.

Son Brings Much Joy

Last Sunday there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hatcliff a fine young son and heir. Mrs. Hatcliff is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, at whose home the new arrival put in his appearance. Mother and son are getting along nicely.

Accommodating the Farmers

George Stites, owner of the Union elevator, has a crib near the elevator in which he is storing small quantities of corn corn, which is being purchased as an accommodation to farmers who desire to dispose of a small portion of their newly picked crop to obtain money for urgent needs. Mr. Stites is handling the corn in this crib, disposing of it to those desiring corn for feed, as quite a bit of it is soft and unfit to store for any great length of time. However, there is much good sound corn in the lot.

Returned Home Monday

Mrs. Paul Applegate was at Nebraska City last Monday, where she visited with Mr. Applegate who had been a patient there since his injury in an auto wreck a week before. She found him so far improved that he was able to come home, where he is continuing his rapid progress towards recovery. Harry McCarroll, who was injured at the same time, is still in the hospital. He is improving nicely and will be able to leave the institution some time soon.

Ladies Aid Society Meets

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met Friday of last week at the home of one of their fellow members, Mrs. A. M. McCarroll. After the usual business session, a fine social time was enjoyed, climaxed by

Services at Wyoming Church

This coming Sunday, November 24, there will be Bible school at the Methodist church at Wyoming at 10 a. m. and preaching services at 11 o'clock. In Union, Bible school at the usual hour in the morning and preaching services in the evening.

Will Make Home in Union

Mrs. Belle Frans, who has been residing in Nebraska City with her son, C. K. Frans, will make her home in Union this winter and will reside with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Frans, the two enjoying the winter together here, where they are so well acquainted and have so many friends.

Thirty Now Enrolled

The Union Red Cross chapter has now enrolled thirty members for the coming year, with the drive for memberships having some ten days to go at the time this report is written. The drive ends Thanksgiving day. Following is the list of those who have been enrolled to date: Mrs. R. E. Foster, Augusta Robb, Mont Robb, Opal Griffin, Orval Hathaway, Mrs. G. S. Upton, Mrs. Charles Garrison, Clifton Garrison, Baptist Missionary, R. N. Opp, H. W. Griffin, Morris Grocery, Owen Stites, Henry A. Gerlack, David Kendall, Lucian H. Banning, Mrs. Joe Banning, C. H. Whitworth, Maxine Jarvis, Merle Davis, Mrs. Vesta Clark, Mrs. Fannie Elkenbary, George A. Stites, Jim Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Charles McCarthy, H. P. Burbee, W. A. Taylor, Sciota Sunday school, Mrs. George Hastings and Mrs. Wayne Ackley.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, writing from the White House on November 11—the day the drive for memberships opened—says:

"The American Red Cross is an institution in which our people in every walk of life and in every section of the nation can unite in a common tie of brotherhood. . . . During the last year 128 disasters occurred in 37 of our states. In each catastrophe the afflicted community turned with assurance to the Red Cross for the efficient relief which was so speedily given. During the same time this great organization has developed a country-wide program for safeguarding our homes and our highways from the mounting toll of accidental deaths. . . . It is of the utmost importance that we maintain the Red Cross as our great national relief agency. I earnestly urge all who can possibly do so, to respond generously and promptly to the Red Cross appeal."

Some day disaster may strike closer to our doors than in the Republican valley flood or the flood at Louisville in 1923, for the law of averages shows us no place on earth is immune from some great devastating calamity—a fire, flood, pestilence, tornado—or any one of a dozen other things that ruthlessly take lives without warning and disrupt whole communities.

Louisville people are most loyal supporters of the Red Cross roll call and each year head the list of Cass county chapters in point of membership. That is because they have been through a trying ordeal that called for Red Cross aid, and have had opportunity to observe how efficiently this great humanitarian organization administered relief to their fellow-townsmen in distress after the Mill Creek flood that left a score homeless and took toll of half that many lives. It was a small calamity as calamities go, but not too small for the great uplifting hand of the Red Cross to stretch forth with aid and succor for those in need. That is why Louisville folks each year respond almost 100 per cent to the annual roll call, contributing nearly as much money to this work as all the other branches in the county.

We repeat, some day a disaster will strike closer to us than the Republican Valley or Louisville floods—and then we too will want this hand to be stretched forth to aid us. Let's all aid it now, so that when such time comes, it will be in position to function quickly and efficiently.

Wind Checks Niagara's Torrent

Driving headwinds created a temporary freak of nature when the gale turned back Niagara's torrent above the American falls, leaving the river bed almost dry for a time.

You Would Agree

If you personally inspected our funeral home, you would agree with those who have had this opportunity, that it is a real home in every sense of the word.

In addition, of course, it possesses all the facilities which should be a part of every funeral home, and which will make our efforts more effective, and those we serve more comfortable.
