CASE IS DISMISSED

From Monday's Daily

This morning with the opening of the district court the case of Louise Parsell vs. Delvin Landis, was called for trial but the parties in the case made settlement among themselves and the matter was dismissed. The defendant is to provide for the care of the minor child.

HERE FROM MISSOURI

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Queen of Deepwater, Missouri, are visiting with relatives and friends in this section of Cass county. They are house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wilson of Murray and will also visit the other members of the Queen family in this vicinity.

WILL UNDERGO OPERATION

Calvert W. Root, of this City, States Engineers office in this city, is at the Security Benefit association hospital at Topeka, Kansas, for a surgical operation.

VISITORS AT SCHNEIDER HOME

Miss Florence Wiles, who is teaching in the Wymore schools, with Mrs. Ethlyn Wiles Mullis of Lincoln, were in the city Sunday to spend the day at the Carl J. Schneider home. The ladies are sisters of Mrs. Schneider.

Small factories will find splendid opportunities to expand here. Among them, forthcoming river navigation with its resultant low shipping costs.

"D'j'ever see the like? Anything goes!"

Charles Ruggles and Grace Bradley, stars of Paramount's forthcoming laugh-producer, "Anything Goes", find that anything does go—immediately—if it's a car fueled with Standard's new double-quick-starting gasoline.

IT'S a new winter gasoline—by all odds, the fastest-starting gasoline in Standard Oil's history—without the drawbacks which so often go with fast-starting characteristics.

You'll really get that cold motor of yours under way in a hurry, if you give it this Double-Quick Live Power. It clicks with the first flash of the spark. And then it gives you fully 35% greater warm-up speed, even in zero temperatures—which means a bigger saving on mileage. We predict you'll find it the best insurance against cold-starting troubles you've ever had. Get some of this new Standard Red Crown now . . . and SEE WHAT HAPPENS next time you step on the starter! Sold at the price of "regular" gasoline, where you see the STANDARD sign.

Elmwood News

"SPRING CAME ON FOREVER," by Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich. Autographed, $2.00. At Green's Drug Store, Elmwood, Nebraska.

Walter G. Box was a visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday morning of this week, called to look after some business matters for the day.

Albert Flaischmann who lives north of Omaha and who was here for the funeral of his father, reports the crops as being slightly better than here.

Emmitt Cook and family were over to Greenwood last on Thanksgiving day where they were guests for the day at the home of Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott.

Roy Sterner was the lucky lad who captured one of the ducks thrown from the top of the bank building, but the others our informant forgot to mention.

Ray Lane has been caring for the feeding of cattle in the eastern part of Elmwood for Guy Clements and Doan Stark and as well has been building feed bunks and arranging for care of the cattle.

Frank Schlichtemeier from near Murray was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last Tuesday and stopped while going thru Elmwood and visited for a short time with his son, Ronald Schlichtemeier.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wood entertained at their home Thanksgiving day and had as guests for the occasion their son who resides east of Manly with the family and with the excellent dinner they enjoyed the day splendidly.

Grover Hill who has always been a tustler when it comes to getting the farm work done, has completed the picking of his corn and like others is not the best, but it is gathered and he is ready for any other work that may come his way.

Rebekahs Elect Officers.

At their last meeting which was held last Tuesday, the Daughters of Rebekah held their election after the regular business meeting and selected as their new officers, Mrs. Skyles Miller, noble grand; Mrs. S. Pennerman, vice grand; Mrs. Orville Miller, secretary and Mrs. Loren Nickles treasurer. The appointive officers will be selected at a later date as the installation will not occur until in January.

Odd Fellows Elect Officers.

At the last regular meeting of the I. O. O. F. the business of the meeting was first looked after, following which they proceeded to elect the officers for the coming term and selected for their noble grand Loren Nickles, with Frank Turner as the vice grand and Vrls Backemeyer as secretary, with Earl Elliott treasurer. They left the appointive officers for the future.

They then enjoyed an oyster supper which concluded the affairs of the lodge for that time. Harry Linder was elected as a member of the board of trustees for the three year term.

The Elmwood Carnival.

The Elmwood carnival, which is an all home institution which is conducted in the evening of the days Wednesday, Dec. 4th to Friday, December 6th, inclusive, is now on in full force and all are having a fine time and doing all possible to secure the money with which to pay for the heating plant at the Community building.

Looks Like Christmas.

The Green Drug store is at this time taking on an appearance of the Christmas season. The window is filled with a display of the latest book by Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich, widely known Nebraska authoress, "Spring Came on Forever." See the ad concerning the book elsewhere in this issue.

Turkeys and Ducks.

The matter of the liberating the turkeys and ducks which was inaugurated a week ago was continued and last Saturday a turkey was liberated which flew to near the post office door and was captured by Helen Schneider, and say it served as a foundation for a very fine dinner the next day.

Jacob Flaischmann Dies of Injuries. Jacob Flaischmann who was over eighty years of age, about a month ago sustained a fall which caused severe injuries and he was taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln where he was cared for, but he passed away there last Saturday. The remains were brought to Elmwood where the funeral and burial was had last Tuesday afternoon.

Uncle Jacob was born on September 9th, 1855 in Germany and came to this country while yet a small boy and with the parents settled in Ohio where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage with Miss Fredrika Taber on October 23, 1883 and in 1887 came on from Ohio to Nebraska, settling on a farm just west of Elmwood where he lived the remainder of his life.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church in Elmwood, conducted by his friend, Rev. Ralph Ranseler of Lincoln, who formerly ministered to the church of Eagle. He leaves the wife and seven sons which had come to bless the union of these good people. The sons are Charles, Otto, William, Albert, Herman, Fred and Henry.

Visiting Friends Here.

J. C. Hampton and wife and their daughter, Miss Frances, of Reardon, Washington where they make their home, arrived in Elmwood for a visit for a few weeks at the home of Walter G. Box and sister and also at the home of John A. Box and family. The visitors are cousins of the Box boys and their sister. They are enjoying the stay here very much.
