Obituary S. W. Copenhaver Stephen Wesley, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Copenhaver, was born May 30, 1866, near Marion, Virginia, and died November 29, 1935, at the age of 69 years and 6 months.

He was united in marriage with Bettie Porter January 1, 1890. To them were born ten children. Two died in infancy. The following survive and were present at the funeral: Arthur, of Plattsmouth; George, of Nebraska City; Mrs. Myrtle McNamee, of Brush, Colorado; Mrs. Bonnie Egle, of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. Virginia Rhuman, Mrs. Clara Swan, and Wesley and Bessie, of Union, Nebraska.

Mr. Copenhaver, with his wife and four children left Virginia and came to Nebraska in 1902. Except for two years spent near Ada, Minnesota, they have resided in this community in Nebraska ever since.

He united with the Methodist church when a boy fifteen years old, and has always been a loyal member. He was superintendent of his Sunday school in Ada, Minn., and was the instigator of the new church building there. At the time of his death, he was a member of the Methodist church in Union.

He was a noble husband and father and a splendid neighbor. He was always ready to help in time of distress or need and was ever of a cheerful nature, making everyone feel that his home was theirs to enjoy, hospitable and genial.

He is survived by his wife, the eight children named above, eight grandchildren, four brothers, two sisters, numerous other relatives and a host of friends. The brothers are Oscar and Charles, of Girard, Kansas; Tom, of Marion, Va., and Meek M., an M. D., of Knoxville, Tenn. The sisters are Mrs. Claude Rudy, of Girard, Kansas, and Mrs. Ella Gentry, of Independence, Virginia.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Union Sunday afternoon, December 1. The sermon was delivered by Rev. B. N. Kunkel, the Scriptures were read and prayer offered by Rev. W. A. Taylor. Music was furnished by a quartette composed of D. Ray Frans, Chas. Whitworth, P. H. Ribn and B. N. Kunkel, with Mrs. Todd at the piano. The songs were "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "We are Going Down the Valley." The pall bearers were William, George, Blair, John and Wade Porter and Calvin Snavely. Burial was made in the East Union cemetery.

Santa Claus Pageant Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans are feeling quite proud that their small son, Master Jimmie, was chosen by Mayor George Stites to represent our village as "Junior Mayor" in the Christmas pageant given at Lincoln last Saturday. Jimmie, being permitted to choose a lady fair to share in this signal honor, selected Miss Mary Roddy, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Roddy, who in gala attire accompanied him on the float with Santa Claus, both conducting themselves with the dignity befitting the high office they were to represent.

Reception for Bride Miss Augusta Robb gave a tea at her home on Tuesday evening, November 26, honoring Mrs. Anderson, a bride, who since her recent marriage to Dr. R. R. Anderson, has become a welcome resident of our village, where the Doctor has been practicing for some time. Although more than thirty guests were invited, due to the rainy night only twenty braved the elements to attend. Mrs. Chas. Gerlach, our druggist's wife, also a newcomer, whom Miss Robb wanted the guests to meet, was detained at home on account of illness. A short program, consisting of a piano duet by Miss Jarvis and Mrs. Davis, and an excellent review of Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich's book, "Spring Came on Forever" was given by Mrs. John R. Pierson, which was a real intellectual treat. The rest of the evening was spent pleasantly in social intercourse and the enjoyment of a dainty lunch served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Opal Griffin.

Membership Over the Top Union, with a goal of 50 members, on the annual American Red Cross roll call, went over the top with a total of 56. Of this number, 42 were town people, and eleven from the adjoining countryside. Members not previously published include Mrs. L. G. Todd, Mrs. J. C. Hansell and E. J. Mougey. Among the groups taking out membership are Union Woman's club, Baptist Missionary society and Sciota Sunday school. Three business houses enrolled 100 per cent, also all the adult members of three families of the community, and six of the high school faculty. This report up to December 2.

Nine branches of the Cass County Chapter report a total of 353 members enrolled and eight towns remain to hear from.

Member of Cathedral Choir The Cathedral choir of Westminster Presbyterian church, Lincoln, will broadcast a half hour program from KFAB Saturday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. On December 21, the choir will leave on a tour of the east, singing in Chicago, Cleveland, Washington, Pittsburgh and New York City. Christmas eve this choir will sing the carols at the community Christmas tree on the white house lawn. On Sunday in the National Cathedral in Washington.

This choir is very outstanding—composed of 55 voices, mostly students at the University of Nebraska. John Paul Heinke and Billy Roberts of Nebraska City are members, also Jane Robb, formerly of Union, now a teacher in the Lincoln schools. It is a great privilege to belong to such an organization as the Cathedral choir and the members have in store a most pleasant trip through the east.

NO BEER, NO GIRL

Omaha.—Charles Weaver, 23, Council Bluffs, decided his girl friend, Alice, was fickle. On top of this an operation he had undergone failed to heal and he was unable to find employment. So he took a quantity of rat poison and was found by police in great pain. After a stomach pump had been called into use, Weaver was taken home by relatives. He told police Alice had snubbed him because he no longer could buy her beer. His resources had been exhausted after weeks of making the rounds of beer taverns with his girl friend.

SHIRT COMPANY TRIUMPHS Nashville, Tenn.—U. S. District Judge Gore granted a temporary injunction to the Huffines shirt company of Nashville ordering three railroad companies to accept prison made products for interstate shipment. The shirt company sells to retailers work shirts manufactured at the Tennessee prison here.

Attorneys for the plaintiff told the court that the Louisville & Nashville, the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis and the Tennessee Central railroads had refused to accept the goods for out of state shipment.

NEW AGENT AT LEXINGTON Lexington, Dec. 2.—Miss Ethel Saxton, Lincoln, is newly appointed county home extension agent here, succeeding Miss Dorothy Norris, who leaves Dec. 15 to accept the position of state clothing specialist in the extension department of the University of South Dakota.

Miss Saxton, now teaching home economics at Mead, Neb., has also taught at Loup City and Rosalie. She holds two degrees from the University of Nebraska. She is beginning work here this week, and will spend two weeks on the job before Miss Norris departs.

WILL HUNT FOR ELLSWORTH Caldwell, N. J.—Mechanics tuned up a fast, long-ranged, low-winged monoplane for a dash to Antarctica where it will search for Lincoln Ellsworth, the missing explorer. The plane was flown here Sunday from Roosevelt field, by Russell W. Thaw, transport pilot in whose name the all-metal Northrup monoplane is registered. Thaw refused to discuss the projected flight, but it is understood he will fly the ship to the Northrup plant at Santa Monica, Calif., where it will be fitted with skis for use in the Antarctic. He will then fly to the southernmost tip of South America where he will deliver the machine to the Ellsworth expedition.
