Ross Shields and wife were visiting in Omaha last Sunday, guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Reese and family.

Walter Olander and wife of Omaha were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of the mother of Mr. Olander, Mrs. C. W. Olander.

Judge A. J. Patterson has been assisting in picking corn for his brother, David Patterson northeast of town and is making a good picker.

Dr. W. H. Tuck who has been feeling rather poorly for some time past, being confined to his home and bed is now much improved and is able to be down and looking after his business affairs.

Mrs. Owen Runyon and little son, Ronnie and Mrs. Joseph Abrahams were over to Lincoln last Monday where they were visiting with some friends as well as doing some Christmas shopping.

W. E. Palmeter of Hickman where he is engaged in the blacksmith business and was on his way to his home near South Bend, stopped for a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Faaborg of Omaha were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Johnson for the week end. Miss Gladys Johnson had been visiting at Omaha and on her return last Saturday they accompanied her for a visit with the folks here.

Messrs. Guy Ratcliff and Art and Bill Johnson were visiting in Nebraska City last Monday where they were attending a convention of the business men who were guests of the wholesale house, and where they all enjoyed a very fine evening and a banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Con Watkins of Union were visiting in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week, guests of their daughter, Mrs. Fulton Harris and husband for the day. They also enjoyed visiting with friends in the city as well as at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Con Nickles.

Miss Agnes Rough and brother, Stuart Rough, of Union were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of their brother, John Rough of Tekamah and there enjoyed a very fine visit, returning home during the afternoon via Weeping Water, Mr. Rough then returning to his home in Union.

Peter H. Miller and son, Pete, were enjoying a visit last Sunday at the home of James Miller and wife of Plattsmouth and were looking over the farm where James is to farm south of Plattsmouth the coming summer and Pete is to work for the brother. They also enjoyed a very fine visit and as well an excellent dinner as well.

Niley R. Wiles Passes. Niley R. Wiles who has been in rather poor health for some time past and who has been fighting his disease, finally called this young man. He leaves his wife and a number of children. The final summons came last Sunday, and the funeral was held from the Methodist church in Weeping Water Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Wiles was well and favorably known to a large number of friends who are pained to know of his death.

Enjoyed Pleasant Evening. The Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church and as well the Congregational church, both very strong organizations, with an eye for the betterment of the city and its interests, held a joint meeting at the parlors of the Methodist church last Monday evening, which was for the benefit of the football team and with it went a moving picture of a football game so that in the attending the gathering of the brotherhoods were provided with a football game as well. A speaker of much prominence from Lincoln was present which added much to the pleasure of the evening which was heightened by the very fine banquet served at the conclusion of the evening's program.

See Wrestling Contest Monday. With their car Elmer Michelsen and wife and their little son, Buddy, were in Omaha Monday evening of this week and had as their guests Knude Jensen and family. They attended a wrestling contest in the big city. They enjoyed the trip and entertainment very much. On their return home with the roads and the night not the best for driving, they were crowded off the pavement by a truck which evidently did not know the road or did not care.

Visiting Folks in South. Mrs. O. E. Oldham who has been kept to her home and bed on account of a recent illness, with her improvement decided to spend some weeks at the home of her parents, E. G. Cuffen, of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma. It had been some time since she was able to visit the parents and is greatly enjoying the visit at this time. She will remain over the Christmas season and during the time she is away the husband and son, Denny will find out the general routine of getting the meals and doing the housework.

Happened Along After Wreck. Dennis Oldham who was visiting for the day in Omaha last Friday was returning home late, chanced along at Orepolis just following the collision of the car of Charles Richards and the Missouri Pacific bus, that eventually took the life of young Richards. Dennis describes the scene as being something awful, as the car was almost demolished and the young man unconscious and finally died of his injuries.

Mrs. John Bolz Does Nicely. Mrs. John Bolz, formerly Miss Laverna Binger of Weeping Water, who has been in poor health for some time past went to Lincoln where at the Bryan Memorial hospital she took a clinic and it developed she had a large tumor which was necessary to have removed. She entered the hospital and with the mother, Dr. Thomas of Weeping Water and a number of the physicians from the hospital present, underwent an operation to have the tumor removed. Since the operation she is getting along very nicely and it is hoped she will now rapidly regain her former good health.

Pleased with Weeping Water. One year ago this week Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen came to Weeping Water from their former home at Lincoln to engage in business, taking over the location which had been occupied by Kirk Frantz in the grocery business. Coming to Weeping Water entire strangers, they had to make acquaintances both in the business and social line. They soon formed friends in both and now after a year are well pleased with the city of Weeping Water as a place for a home and a location to engage in business. They have now many very close friends as well as a satisfactory business. Weeping Water has welcomed them and they are well pleased to be here.

TO CEASE MAKING CLAIMS. Washington.—The federal trade commission announced that W. C. Kalash, Inc., of Omaha, had agreed to stop representing that salves offered as treatments for hay fever are antipollen agents or will immunize the nasal passages against hay fever. It said the concern also agreed not to say its product would cure hay fever and to cease employing exaggerated claims, improbable of accomplishment. The agreement was made in a stipulation to cease and desist from certain practices to which the commission objected.

TO ASK BRIDGE FUNDS. Des Moines.—Governor Herring said he and Governor Cochran of Nebraska will go to Washington Saturday to ask federal funds for a bridge over the Missouri river between Council Bluffs and Omaha.

City Council Has Short and Quiet Meeting

Little to Demand Attention of Solons at Meeting—Parallel Parking 6th to 7th on Main.

The city council had a short and snappy session Monday evening and the members had the pleasure of having back with them Councilman W. H. Puls of the third ward who has been in the hospital at Omaha for several weeks.

The greater part of the time was taken up in the reports of the various city officers for the month of November.

The report of City Treasurer M. D. Brown was received and showed that there was at the present time in the treasury a balance of $9,794.78 and which was deposited with the Plattsmouth State bank.

City Clerk Albert Olson reported that his office had received $1,146.18 for the month and which had been turned over to the city treasurer.

A communication was received from the residents near Spring and Marble streets in the west part of the city, asking that an overhead street light be placed there. This was referred to the lighting committee.

Residents of near 9th and Rock street also presented a petition asking that a street light be placed near that place to relieve a dark condition. This was also referred to the lighting committee for its consideration.

The L. W. Egenberger agency reported that the amount of $15.75 had been turned into the city for rentals. Chief of Police Libershal reported that for the month of November there had been three arrests and fines and costs of $53.80 turned in to the court.

Chief O. Sandin of the fire department reported on the fire at the Swartout residence as a $175 loss to the building from the roof fire. The chief also reported that there were fourteen fires from the period of November, 1934 to November, 1935.

Police Judge C. L. Graves reported that for the week of December 5th that there had been one arrest and work sentence given.

The much discussed Abbott dispute over the payment of taxes on property on west Oak street, was again brought up by Mr. Abbott, who resides at Fremont, had declined to pay the amount that the city had asked. City Attorney J. H. Davis was authorized to carry on further negotiations.

Chairman Tippens of the streets, alleys and bridges committee, reported that the chains ordered for the tractor had arrived and also that it was necessary to have some repairs made on the tractor.

Chairman E. O. Vroman of the fire and water committee reported that on his recent trip to Chicago that he had investigated the A. S. Hike Co., which had written the city some time ago relative to assisting in getting a municipal water plant or the purchase of the present plant. He found the company a bond house and whose only interest was in handling the bonds if the city voted them for a water or light plant.

Councilman Palmer of the lighting committee stated that negotiations with the man from Hamburg relative to the breaking of an electric post, had reached a stage where it was hoped to get a compromise of $70 from him.

Councilman Selver reported that the police wanted a large cable for towing in purposes and the committee was authorized to purchase the same.

Chairman Bestor of the WPA committee reported that the work on Sixth street was getting along very well despite the weather conditions. No action had been taken as yet on the requests for the rock surfaced roads awaiting to see what the commissioners were doing relative to the crushing of rock. Mayor Lushinsky asked that the petitions be gotten in shape and placed before the proper authorities that some immediate action might be secured.

Councilman Webb reported that there was still some $232.29 due on the assessments for the Sixth street paving as well as the amount from the Hotel Plattsmouth building which is in litigation.

Councilman Vroman called the attention of the council to the congested condition of Main street from Sixth to Seventh where the large parkway in the center of the street cuts down the width of the street which is now used to carry a great deal more traffic. On motion the street commissioner was authorized to place signs for parallel parking only, there while Sixth street is torn up.

Councilman Tippens also called the
