

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

The high school basketball team will play at Syracuse on Tuesday evening of this week.

Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Schuylerman are living temporarily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Tinker.

Mrs. Fred Schneider, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia for the past week, is somewhat improved at this time.

On Thursday afternoon of last week occurred the regular meeting of the O. S. C. Club at the home of Mrs. Will Hudson.

The meeting for the project leaders of the extension clubs, which was to have met Thursday, February 20, has been postponed until March 5th.

Miss Annabelle Stannard is the guest of Miss Deva Armstrong at her home in Auburn. Both Miss Stannard and Miss Armstrong are teachers in the Eagle school.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jones and Jack returned from a visit in Omaha on Tuesday, and were accompanied by Mrs. Anna Klitsch, who will spend several days in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Piersol and children, Mrs. Milford Ake and children, Mrs. Hazel Porter and Donald Piersol were guests at the L. W. Piersol home last Sunday.

William Norris had the misfortune to fall while at his work about a week ago. He injured his heel quite badly so that it is necessary to use a crutch as an aid in walking.

On Tuesday of this week while trying to clear a road near here Bert Lytle, the local road overseer, was the victim of an accident which resulted in injuring one limb. The details of the accident were not reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hawkins of Sidney spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Horne. Mr. Hawkins attended the Farmers' Union convention in Omaha last week as a delegate from his local organization.

William Emmert and family moved last week into the Snake property which was occupied until recently by the Charles Furrer family. Mr. Emmert has been employed for several years by R. C. Wenzel. They plan to remain in Eagle until it will be possible to move to Plattsmouth where they will make their home.

Former Eagle Girl Married.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tinker motored to Omaha Sunday to be present when Josephine Tinker, a daughter, was wed to Mr. Haverstock at the home of the pastor who read the marriage service, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The bride is well known in this community. She is a graduate of the Eagle Consolidated school. Since graduation she has been employed in Omaha.

Congratulations are extended to the couple by many friends in Eagle.

Methodist Aid Meets.

Mrs. John Peterson was hostess to the Methodist Ladies' Aid at her home last Wednesday afternoon.

During the short business session, it was decided that each member would pay an assessment for January, and since conditions are unfavorable for the annual Washington supper, they will plan no activity of this type until later.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Welcome guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Della Horsh, Mrs. C. G. Bender, Mrs. Will Caddy, Mrs. Klitsch, Mrs. Mack Williams, Mrs. August Schwegman and Mrs. A. M. Longman.

Eagle School Closed.

The Eagle school is closed again this week. The main highway have not been blocked for any great length of time, but the side roads as in all communities in this section of Nebraska are so completely blocked, travel is impossible. Since a large percent of the pupils who attend school here come from the country, school authorities decided school could not be continued satisfactorily at the present.

Rective Car Load of Coal.

The car load of coal left for the Farmers' Elevator company Tuesday evening was greatly welcomed, and especially by those whose fuel supply was entirely or nearly exhausted. However the people of this community have been fortunate, for provisions have been available when needed. No one has been very uncomfortable, aside from a few instances where there was illness and travel very difficult.

Inflated or ordinary dollars—either kind will still buy most if expended in your home community, where a part is retained to help meet the tax burden and other community obligations.

State Relief $2.50 a Month per Cash

Counties Hope That Old Age and Blind Pensions Will Lighten Their Load.

Nebraska's state government will contribute an average of less than $2.50 per month per case for direct relief in the next 17 months, an official survey of state relief disclosed. Upon the state's 93 counties will fall the task of raising additional funds needed to finance relief since the federal government has withdrawn from the direct relief picture.

For direct relief between now and July 1, 1937, the state appropriated $1,078,448 or $40.28 per case based on a relief load of 26,772 cases as of Jan. 31, when 20,090 other Nebraskans were at work on WPA jobs. The state's contribution will average $2.35 per case per month.

Counties then will have to raise approximately $7,919,160 a year to pay relief recipients the same amount they received when the federal government had charge of relief. These figures do not include administrative expenses.

State officials hope other parts of Nebraska's social security program, including old age and blind pensions, will absorb some of this relief load and reduce costs to counties. Summary of figures:

AVOCA NEWS

Paul Lenhart and Wm. Rose were among those who walked from the country with sacks and oil cans and large bottles to get groceries, and coal oil until such a time as the roads could be gotten open.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann were enjoying a visit last Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Akbur of Dunbar and Harry Bartholds of Nebraska City, the ladies being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. McCann.

The people of Avoca did not ask any help but all with one mind got out and dug out the main highway, not once, but a number of times and have kept in touch with the outside world during the severe weather.

Miss Bertha Neumeister, the genial and accommodating operator at the Avoca telephone exchange was off duty for the greater portion of last week with an attack of the flu. She is however over the malady and back to her post at the exchange.

H. M. Lum, the lumber man, was enjoying a visit at Lincoln last Thursday where he was attending the Nebraska Retail Lumbermen's association, getting away long enough between the selling of coal and the unloading of a car of lumber at the yards.

John Marquardt had some errand to do which required the use of his car and driving it in the deep snow required extra heavy work on the car, the stress coming heaviest on the transmission which burned out. However it was repaired and is in as good condition as before.

John Ehlers and wife of Bertrand arrived in Avoca late last week and have been visiting here at the home of J. M. Kokjer and wife and with other friends and relatives. Mesdames Kokjer and Ehlers are sisters, which added much to the pleasure of the visit.

Train Leaves Track.

A train of the Missouri Pacific railway was derailed a short distance north of the O street road on Friday of last week and as the snow was bad and the engine and way car off, and with the weather so severe to work the engine and cars were not gotten back on the rails until late Sunday.

Enjoyed Pinochle Party.

Tuesday evening of this week at her home in Avoca, Miss Delores Barker entertained an even dozen of her friends at a very pleasant pinochle party with refreshments and a very pleasant evening, notwithstanding the very severe weather. The guests were loud in their appreciation of the very pleasant time Miss Delores provided them.

Avoca School Closed.

The Avoca school, most of whose pupils are from the country, being unable to get to town to school, it was considered better to allow an opportunity for the roads to be opened so that the school could go forward all together and not disrupt the studies, therefore the school remained closed for the week.

Young Lad Breaks Arm.

Lawrence Larson, jr., 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Larson, 21 superintendent of the Avoca schools while playing on the davenport at the home fell from the same and striking on the floor with his arm, fractured the same. The fracture was reduced by Dr. J. W. Brendel and the lad is getting along as well as could be looked for, and it is expected that he will soon be well on the road to complete recovery.

Enjoyed Visit at Home.

Miss Dorothy Gollner who is employed with the government at Omaha as stenographer was entitled to a vacation of some ten days and with the beginning of the term on Wednesday of last week came to Avoca and was enjoying the time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gollner, also visiting with her many friend in Avoca. The weather, however, has been such during the time that she could not enjoy the vacation to the fullest, as the roads were blocked and the intense cold kept her at home the greater portion of the time.

Will Hold District Tournament.

There is to be a district tournament of the schools contiguous to the city of Avoca of the Class C teams which is to be held at the Avoca gymnasium on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of the coming week, February 27, 28, 29. The schools in this district are Avoca, Dunbar, Greenwood, Murdock, Nehawka and Otoe.

Obituary of George Trook.

George Trook was born at Union, Nebraska, February 8, 1860. He lived in Union until 1906 or about 46 years, moving to Avoca, about 30

Elmwood News

Wm. Hayes has been suffering from a very severe attack of influenza but is feeling some better during the recent days.

Morris Penterman and mother, Mrs. Herman Penterman, were over to Lincoln Monday to attend to some business matters for a short time.

Dr. G. G. Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Charles West were over to Lincoln last Wednesday where they drove to look after some business matters for the afternoon.

Guy Miller of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Elmwood last Tuesday and was delivering goods to the merchants of Elmwood as well as visiting with friends here.

Dr. R. W. Tyson and family of Murray were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tyson on last Sunday, they coming over via highway 75 and the O street road.

Mrs. George Wilson and son, Edgar Luke, were visiting at Firth with the parents of Mrs. Wilson for the past three weeks, returned home last Monday after having enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Mrs. Wm. Fleischmann who does the cooking at the cafe, has been rather sick for the past week with the flu and was not able to do the work for a time, but is back on the job again preparing meals for the hungry.

The drooping spirit of the people of Elmwood who were needing coal was revived when the T. W. Engle Lumber company received a car of coal early this week and were able to fill some of the orders which have been in for some time.

George F. Wilson and Adolph Lenz were over to Plattsmouth last Wednesday where they were called to look after some business matters for the day, they driving over via the O street road and Union, but found the roads fairly passable, the snow being partly removed.

The ladies of the Daughters of Rebekah met last week on Tuesday notwithstanding the inclement weather and enjoyed a very fine time. The meeting of the Oddfellows however, coming on Thursday evening which was somewhat more severe, were not able to meet and allowed the meeting night to slip by until the next regular meeting.

Buster Durbin, of Washington State was called here on account of the death of his mother some weeks ago and made the trip from near the coast to Elmwood in slightly over twenty-four hours. He started last Tuesday morning and stopped at Hemingsford over night for a visit with friends, continuing on his way the following day.

Rev. W. B. Bliss, pastor of the Methodist church, accompanied by the good wife, departed for Lincoln last Monday where they expected to look after some business matters and to visit with friends for the day, found a truck stalled on the highway, taking up the greater portion of the roadway and as the roads and weather did not look the best, they turned around and came back home.

Ira Helms of Wabash where he is farming, was a visitor in Elmwood last Wednesday, walking over via the railroad tracks, as the roads were not open and Wabash is isolated for the present. Ira tells of Miss Myrtle Wood, the rural carrier, getting a pair of snow shoes to make deliveries to the rural sections and has maintained somewhat of a service, notwithstanding the severe weather and the blocked roads and drifts in the fields where she had to travel.

With the moderating of the temperature and the wind dying down so that the roads could be opened, a large number of the farmers came to town and thus made the drooping spirits of the business men revive. With the roads filled with snow compelling farmers to walk to town or ride a horse, things did not look the very best. However last Wednesday more farmers got into town and some sleds, a large number of cars and one horse and buggy contributed to increase the business in town.

Opened Road to Murdock. The road from Elmwood to their neighbor town, Murdock, has been closed for the past ten days, but on Wednesday of this week was opened by two crews of men with shovels. Thus was Murdock again placed in connection with Elmwood and with the weather looning better it is hoped that the road may remain open.

Norman B. Streeter Dies. Word was received of the passing of Norman B. Streeter, 81, at his late home at Buffalo Gap, South Dakota. Mr. Streeter was brother of Mesdames Bess Streeter Aldrich and J. P. Cobb, both of Elmwood. Mr. Streeter was born in Cedar Falls, Ia., 51 years ago and there resided until he was grown and was a school boy years ago. Farming and harvesting work engaged his attention until moving to Avoca. His occupation in Avoca was caring for the high school building and he had the confidence and esteem of those for whom he worked.

He leaves to mourn his departure from this life four sisters, Mrs. Rachel Everett, of Avoca; Mrs. Minerva Branon of Goodland, Kansas; Mrs. Della Hunt, Peoria, Illinois; Mrs. Edna Heckathorn, Winnebago, Nebraska and one brother, Robert Trook, of Omaha. Four sisters and one brother have departed this life previous to his departure. Three aunts are still living, Mrs. Maretta Ellsworth, Nebraska City; Mrs. Rachel Pell of Union, and Mrs. Ravina Opp, Omaha. A number of nieces and nephews are left to mourn his departure.

He made his home with Mrs. Ruby Drury, his niece, of Avoca, for about 15 years. In her home he was looked upon as a father. He never was married.

He was a member of The Saints church, many years ago being baptized by Gordon E. Dewart, a membership he held until his death.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge and he had chosen as far as possible members of the Odd Fellows lodge to be his pallbearers.

He was held in exceptionally high esteem by all with whom he came in contact and by all those who knew him.

Funeral services were held at Avoca Wednesday, February 12, by Frank H. Higgins, of Nebraska City. Burial was at East Union cemetery at Union, Nebr. Pall bearers were Fred Marquardt, Elmer Hallstrom, Louis Carsten, Sr., Fred L. Carsten, L. L. Larson and Charles Barto, representatives of the neighbors, school and I. O. O. F.

Music was furnished by a male quartet composed of Gerald Stovall, Ernest Gollner, Lawrence Wolf and Carol Nutzman, accompanied at the piano by Dorothy Sundeen.

Find Out From Your Doctor if the "Pain" Remedy You Take Is Safe. Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations. BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains... and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by never asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

friend of J. P. Cobb of Elmwood. They moved to South Dakota many years ago where Mr. Streeter had made his home during the greater portion of his life. When first going there he engaged in the stock business and later the sons of this man were associated with him in a cattle company. During the years Mr. J. P. Cobb has also been interested in the business. During the later years Mr. Streeter had been engaged in the banking business. The wife died about ten years ago and the aged pioneer is survived by the two sisters, four sons and four daughters.

Government to Take Boulder Dam March 1st

Giant Project Finished by Contractors Two Years Ahead of Schedule.

Boulder City, Nev.—The U. S. government in two weeks will take over the big chunk of concrete that tamed the big bad (Colorado) river of the wild west. Boulder dam and its powerhouse is finished by its contractors, the Six Companies, more than two years ahead of schedule.

The contractors bid $45,599,999 on the job, $5,000,000 less than their nearest competitor. They lost no time getting into action after the contract was signed April 29, 1931—there was a penalty clause of $3,000 a day if they failed to get the job done in seven years. The Six Companies get approximately $1,950,000 for the job, there being some changes since the contract was signed.

Hydraulic engineers proudly point to this job as the biggest since the government had Gen. Goethals dig the Panama canal. It tames the mad Colorado. This river cut some real capers. It gashed the biggest chasm in the earth, the Grand canyon. It yearly carried more silt than the total excavation of the Panama canal. So great was this silt movement that it drove back the Sea of Cortez 299 miles, creating the Imperial valley of California and Mexico. Then it built up the river bed with silt and menaced the 100,000 valley settlers with floods.

After years of surveys and congressional debates the Boulder dam project became a reality. The federal government appropriated 165 millions for the dam, power works and All-American canal.

The dam creates the largest lake man ever made. A reservoir of 50,000,000 acre feet capacity. It will provide the reclamation of 2,000,000 acres. Its cost is expected to be met by the electrical energy generated by the power houses, the initial capacity being 1,850,000 horsepower.

It clarified the water, the silt depositing in the reservoir. This regulated flow of water will serve future millions of population in southern California, where a 220 million aqueduct system is under construction.

Secretary of the Interior Ickes will accept the dam and power house for the government March 1.

THOMAS WATTS, 100, DIES AT LINCOLN

Lincoln, eb. 17.—Thomas Watts, believed to be 100 years old, died at his home here Monday afternoon. He formerly lived in Fremont.

Survivors said they had no exact record of Watts' age, but they believed he was born in Glasgow, Mo., March 10, 1836. Two daughters, a son, a brother and two sisters, including Mrs. Emma Matthews of Omaha, survive.

Frank Gillett Still Very Sick. Frank Gillett, who has been kept to his home on account of a very severe case of the flu which has been very severe the past four weeks, is still in bed and is being cared for by Mrs. Gillett. The produce station which he had been conducting is being looked after by Lem Parish, who is relieved to go to his meals by Cy Maris. It will be some time yet before Mr. Gillett is able to return to his work. His many friends are hoping that he may soon be able to be out again.

Methodist Aid Postponed.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church which was to have met on Tuesday of last week with the weather so that they could not meet, postponed their gathering until the coming month and will meet in March.

NEBRASKA DAY IS FETED IN TEXAS

McAllen, Tex., Feb. 13.—Nebraskans had their day in the Lower Rio Grande valley Sunday when "Nebraska Day" was celebrated at a dinner club. Dr. E. H. Naumann, Columbus, Neb., had charge of the program.

R. S. King, Lincoln, Neb., Lawrence Peterson, Mrs. Roy Telford and C. H. Swallow were other Nebraskans on the program. The McAllen Chamber of Commerce arranged four free programs weekly for tourists and each week a program is dedicated to some state. It is estimated that about 700 Nebraska tourists are spending the winter in the Rio Grande valley.

WILL BEGIN TREE PLANTING

Clayton W. Watkins, Nebraska director of the federal shelterbelt project, announced the planting of 200 miles of strip shelterbelt on farms in central Nebraska, which will require approximately 4,000,000 seedlings, will be started late in March or early in April.

Watkins said invalidation of the AAA has caused a change in the forest service land policy. The former plan was to use contracted acres for shelterbelts and the new plan will be to plant trees on land donated by owners under a perpetual easement. The title of the land does not change, Watkins said, and all products from the trees belong to the land owner.
