BANK WILL PAY FIREMEN

Omaha.—The First National Bank of Omaha took over the $48,000 judgment obtained by the city firemen against the city as a result of a pay cut ruled illegal by the state supreme court. Bank officials said firemen will get their back pay immediately. About 300 will collect approximately $140 each. They will be required to sign assignments of their shares of the judgment over to the bank, and to waive interest from now until the city is able to collect the interest. A special levy will be made by the city next fall to pay the judgment.

FLOOD SAVES WPA MONEY

Norfolk, Neb.—The person who first said there's something good in everything might cite the following as an example: The forces of nature, in the form of the recent flood waters, saved approximately $2,000 in WPA funds by finishing the job of making a channel for the Northfork river north of Norfolk. WPA workers started cutting the new channel several months ago, and when the high waters got thru the job was done, despite considerable damage to property.

WAGE SUIT DROPPED

Omaha.—A federal court application for an injunction to prevent garnishment of the wages of a federal housing administration employee was dismissed. The application was withdrawn when it was learned a municipal court action instituted by the Urdike Lumber and Coal company against the FHA employee was dismissed at request of the plaintiff.

EYES HURT IN BLAST

Broken Bow, Neb.—Allan Davis and Lawrence Brown, young farmers living near here, are recovering their eyesight in a Broken Bow hospital after an explosion. Both Davis' eyes and one of Brown's were injured when hot babbitt metal exploded as they were repairing a tractor. Dr. G. T. Erickson said both will regain their sight.

HUNGARY WANTS SHARE

Budapest.—Newspaper accounts and guarded statements by officials concerning Germany's reoccupation of the Rhineland indicated Hungary may also seek to break the restraint of treaties imposed by the World War. The newspaper "Eight O'Clock" said "that which Germany forcibly seized cannot be denied to Hungary."

ASKS RELIEF AID

St. Louis, Mo., March 9. (U.P.)—An appeal was forwarded to the St. Louis headquarters of the American Red Cross today, waters of the Floyd river threatened new losses in the country surrounding northern Iowa. Many are homeless and in need of relief.

TWO PICKETS ARE SLAIN

Seaside, Ore.—Two men were killed and another injured in a fight between worgers and pickets at the Crown Willamette Logging company Saturday. James Ray, about 35, of Seaside, and William Blackwood, about 40, both pickets, were shot to death. William Weedel, also a picket, was critically injured. State police and sheriff's officers sped to the scene. A union jurisdictional dispute has caused friction for months.
