SEAPLANE TAKING TO PORT

Miami, Fla.—The coast guard amphibian plane Areturus, down at sea since Sunday with five men aboard, reported Monday she was taking toward the harbor at Neuvitas, Cuba. She was expected to reach the Pan-American Airways base in the harbor about 2:30 p. m. From the big plane, unable to fly because an aileron snapped from the battering waves, came a terse radio message informing the base here of its position. The Areturus, taking a physician to a sick girl aboard the freighter Tillie Lykes, alighted at sea late Sunday off Point Maternillo, Cuba, but high seas prevented transfer of the doctor or a takeoff.

INJURIES FATAL TO MAN

Omaha.—Charles Rohwer, 55, farmer west of Omaha, died in a hospital of injuries suffered Thursday when his automobile and a truck collided on the Dodge st. road. Rohwer's daughter, Lorraine, also injured in the accident, was reported improved. The county attorney's office said a charge of causing death while exceeding the speed limit would be filed against Buster Fox of Oakland, driver of the truck. Fox was not injured. He was booked by police on a charge of reckless driving, and later released on bond.

BANK SALE IS CONFIRMED

Fremont, Neb.—Sale of the Union National bank building here to S. S. Sidner, C. J. Malmsten and E. C. Diers of Fremont for $90,000 Saturday was confirmed by District Judge Spear upon application of D. A. Becher, receiver for the bank. The court was told the sale will enable the bank to pay 100 percent on deposits to depositors. Dividends totaling 80 percent have been paid since the bank closed Feb. 1, 1933.

QUITS ANOTHER POST

Sidney, Neb.—Golden P. Kratz, candidate for the republican nomination for attorney general, has resigned as secretary of the republican Founders Day club. He recently resigned as national committeeman of the American Legion.

CANDIDATE VISITS CITY

Tuesday Harry O. Palmer, of Omaha, was in the city in company with his uncle, Lee Mayfield, of the Louisville Courier. Mr. Palmer is well known in this section as he is a native son of Louisville and still makes his home there a part of the time. He is now a candidate at the republican primary for the nomination for United States senator and should make a strong race for the office. He was a candidate for chief justice in 1930 and was one of the two high men at the primary election.

The many friends in Cass county will no doubt give Harry a fine vote at the primary election on April 14th.

A SHAKE UP IN JAP ARMY

Tokyo.—A merciless army house-cleaning sent nine distinguished generals to the "waiting list" Monday and transferred 29 generals and two colonels to new posts. All changes were made by order of Emperor Hirohito, the direct result of the revolt of young extremist army officers Feb. 26 in which three leading statesmen were assassinated. Emperor Hirohito's own chief aide and commanders of crack units were affected by the order.

CHILD HELD IN ROBBERY

Falls City, Neb.—Harry Hodges, 9, was held in county jail here Monday on charges of taking approximately $90 from an unlocked safe at the Price grocery here. Police said he admitted the theft and gave them $74, which he said was all he took. At the time of the robbery, the boy was on parole from juvenile court for taking a package from the mails last spring.

SETTLE DAMAGE SUIT

North Platte, Neb.—District Judge Nisley approved a lump sum settlement of $892.71 in favor of Henry J. Larreau against the Central Contractors, for injuries suffered while in the employ of the firm. Larreau injured his hand in a power saw Oct. 15, near Paxton on the Platte valley public power and irrigation district.

TO DISCUSS PASTURES

Central City, Neb.—Elvin Frolik, director of the state pasture contest, will meet with farmers here next Saturday to discuss temporary and permanent pasture coverings.

Elmwood News

Paul Kupke was the purchaser of a John Deere tractor, the machine going to near Murdock where Paul makes his home.

Louis Bornemeier was over to Panama last Monday where he met John Zoz who is interested in a moving picture show at that place.

Miss Catherine West who is employed in Lincoln at the Hardy drug store, was a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles West, for over the week end.

Harry Wilson and wife were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Maya of Eagle for the day last Sunday, where they all enjoyed a very pleasant visit and an excellent dinner.

Simon Rehmeier and wife of Alvo were looking after some business matters in Elmwood last Tuesday afternoon, driving over in their auto to look after some shopping for a short time.

James Bolan of Ashland, representing the Chevrolet company of Ashland, was in Elmwood on Tuesday looking after the sale of a truck and also as many cars as he could interest people in.

John W. Gamble, who recently purchased the McCrorey estate near Wabash, has been having some very material improvements made at the farm in the shape of a number of buildings and which also have been painted.

Messames Fred Everett and Herman Penterman were over to Lincoln last Monday where they went to look after the purchase of some draperies for the lodge hall here and as well were preparing them for hanging at the hall.

Rev. Ernest Baker, pastor of the Elmwood Christian church, accompanied by Mrs. Baker, were over to Weeping Water last Wednesday where Rev. Baker officiated at the funeral of the late Isaac Wiles which was held at the Weeping Water Christian church.

A. J. Boyd who is conducting a produce station at Nehawka, was a visitor at home for over the week end last week and returned to his work early Monday morning, he driving now as the road have become so he can get over them. For a time he was not able to drive and made the trip by train.

Stuart Lyl and two sons who are visiting in Elmwood from their home in Lincoln and Mrs. Lucy Lyle, manager of the telephone exchange, Mrs. Charles Buell, daughter of Mrs. Lyle, were visiting in Murray, Plattsmouth and Omaha Tuesday of this week as well as looking after some business matters at all these places.

Mrs. Herman R. Schmidt of Murdock and daughter, Miss Hilda, who is employed in Lincoln, who was spending the week end at the Schmidt home in Murdock, were also visitors for the evening last Saturday at the Will Winkler home in Elmwood, visiting with them, as Mrs. Winkler is daughter also of Mrs. Schmidt. A very pleasant time was had.

Mr. J. P. Cobb, president of the American Exchange bank of Elmwood and Guy Clements, the bank's legal advisor, were in Lincoln last Monday to a meeting of the bankers of the state and were greatly pleased with the discussion of the questions concerning bankers and banking which was a portion of the evening's program. They also attended the banquet.

Visiting With Folks Here.

Wm. Coatman, sr., who has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. M. L. Gollher at Grand Island for the winter, came to Lincoln last Monday and was met there by his son, W. W. Coatman, who brought him here and as well took him to Weeping Water, where he visited for a short time and looked after some work as well.

Enjoyed Fine Evening.

The Elmwood fire department, which contains a very fine set of men and who pride themselves in being fire fighters for the protection of the homes and business interests of the town, were assembled last Tuesday evening at the community hall where they were enjoying their annual banquet which was served by Herman Penterman, consisting of wafers sandwiches and coffee, with the evening repast completed with ice cream and cake. A very fine program was also had which was of great interest.

Many Tractors Being Sold.

Elmwood sold a car load and an extra one, making seven, John Deere tractors, they going to the farmers for the cultivation of crops. Murray sold some fourteen of power plants while Nehawka sold about the same number, while C. J. Schwere of Weeping Water sold thirty and Alvo comes in with a sale of sixty-seven since the first of the year. Just the other day an addition to the number for Elmwood was made when W. F. Bornemier, Edward Bornemier, James Barta, John Davis, and Frank Ohm made purchases. This makes more than a hundred who have invested in this one line of power machinery, and making something over $100,000 and they are still being sold.

The Daughters of Rebekah, meeting at their hall in Elmwood last Tuesday evening where they looked after some regular business and following which they balloted on the question of receiving some new members into the order which will be ready for the work at the next regular meeting. The girls are doing some nice work for the order at this time.

Visiting Mother Here.

Stuart Lyle, son of Mrs. Lucy Lyle, manager of the Elmwood telephone exchange who with his family make their home in Denver, he driving a bus from McCook to Denver, was a visitor in Elmwood for a number of days during the present week and was accompanied by his two small sons. They enjoyed the visit here very much.

Attended Convention in Iowa. Rev. Ernest Baker and wife were in attendance during the past week at the convention of pastors of the Christian church of the state of Iowa which was being held at Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa. The university is a church school which graduates not alone their students in every avenue of life's activities, but also in the ministry of the Christian church.

Taken to Hospital.

Rev. F. L. Weigert, former pastor of the Elmwood Evangelical church and who has not been in the best of health, was taken to Lincoln last Tuesday morning where he entered the Bryan Memorial hospital for a major operation. It is hoped his stay at the hospital will result in his obtaining better health.
