OMAHA SAFE PUNCHED

Omaha.—Omaha police Monday night made public the report of a $600 safe burglary of a downtown store some time Sunday or Saturday night. Victim of the robbery was the Berg Clothing company. Einer Berg, proprietor, discovered the theft and reported to police. Investigation revealed the burglars had gained entrance to the building which houses the store by forcing the main entrance door, then breaking thru the panel of a door in the hallway leading to the store. The safe was not blasted, but the combination was punched, the report stated.
