

UNION ITEMS.

A crew of Missouri Pacific painters were painting the switch signals in the Union yards the fore part of this week.

Mrs. W. A. Propst and sons Robert and Spencer were guests at the E. E. Leach home last Sunday afternoon and evening.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Union high school will be delivered this coming Sunday evening.

Henry H. Becker and family and their guests from Omaha were attending a show in Nebraska City Sunday evening.

Lawrence Meisinger and family were over to Louisville, where they were visiting the mother of Mrs. Meisinger last Sunday (Mother's day).

Jesse Pell and wife were visiting here for a number of days during the past week, returning to their home in Omaha Saturday night.

W. L. Stine has been plastering a room for Mrs. Wm. Barrett that was damaged by a leak in the roof caused by the heavy rains of last week.

Mrs. Flora Murray and Mrs. Margaret Alexander were called to Nebraska City last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time during the afternoon.

In a baseball game played between a team from the CCC camp at Weeping Water and the Union team, at the Hoback ball park last Sunday, the CCC boys were able to defeat the Union team.

Herman L. Swanson of Atchison, Kansas, where he holds a position as train dispatcher for the Missouri Pacific, stopped off in Union for a short visit with friends, while en route to Lincoln.

J. W. Tillman, of Denver, was a visitor in Union from Friday of last week until Tuesday, coming to look after some business matters here. He was a guest at the home of David Eaton and family while here.

Mrs. Barbara Dunlap has been enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Leila A. Babbitt of Glenwood, Arkansas, during the past two months. The mother is expecting to return to her home in the south this coming week, however.

P. F. Rihn is having a new roof placed over one exposure of his home and as the other sides of the roof were put on new but a short time since, he has a new roof over the entire house and one that will keep the water out.

James Niday shelled and delivered the corn which he had grown on the Mrs. William James land northeast of town, delivering the same to the Stites elevator. Henry H. Becker was delivering the grain, using his own and his father's truck for the purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds entertained for dinner last Sunday and had as their guests for the occasion the families of George A. Stites, Reuben E. Foster and Henry Ruhman. All enjoyed the pleasures of a day's visit together as well as the splendid dinner which was served.

Otto Ehlers and A. L. Becker were at Lincoln last Monday morning, where they secured some galvanized roofing with which to cover the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers, which with the passing years had gotten so it was no longer doing its full duty in keeping out the rain.

Mrs. Harry Hogue, of Casper, Wyoming, sister of Charles L. Greene, and Mrs. John Greene, his mother, of Grand Island, arrived in Union last Saturday and were guests at the C. L. Greene home for over the week end and a portion of this week, all enjoying a very pleasant visit together.

Mrs. Nels Madison, residing south of town, entertained the parents of both she and her husband on last Sunday in honor of Mother's day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Madison and Mr. and Mrs. Moss McCarroll. A splendid dinner was served, which added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Charles E. McCarthey and family went to Nehawka last Sunday and picked up Mr. Albertina Ost, mother of Mrs. McCarthey, going from there to Omaha, where they spent Mother's day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson and family. Mrs. Anderson is a sister of Mrs. McCarthey and daughter of Mrs. Ost.

Helen Fahrlander, of Ogallala, was a visitor in Nebraska City and Union for a few days over the week end. She first went to Nebraska City, where she visited with her friend, Miss Noia Banning, and later came to Union for a visit at the home of J. W. Banning and wife and with her brother, Arnold Fahrlander, departing for her home in the west on Tuesday morning. She also had some business matters to look after while in Nebraska City.

Becker Quarry Working
The A. L. Becker quarry in the woods near the river has been in operation during the past week and will be operated regularly in the future, as there is an abundance of good stone there, which is needed for river work.

Celebrated the Day Nicely
Mrs. A. L. Becker was honored by the remainder of the family on last Sunday when they came to spend that day with her and Mr. Becker. There were present for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ehlers, Roy Becker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Becker, Miss Mary Becker and two of her young lady friends, of Omaha.

Henry Becker and family were entertaining some friends from Omaha and were not able to be present, and John T. Becker and wife were at the home of the latter's mother.

Alumni Banquet May 23
The alumni of the Union schools, who are scattered to the four winds, are to get together for a very pleasant evening which is to be had when they dine at the Baptist church on May 23, when they will live over again the days when they were students in the Union schools and tell of their varied experiences in the world since.

Home from the Hospital
Miss Maxine Jarvas, who was suddenly stricken with a severe attack of appendicitis some two weeks ago, and was taken to St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City for an operation for same, has been making good progress and was able to be returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stites on last Saturday, where she is continuing to recuperate. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that she has been able to leave the hospital.

Banquet at Nebraska City
The Junior-Senior banquet, which is one of the most pleasant social functions of the school year was held last Friday evening, May 8th, with the Juniors arranging a very fine dinner for themselves, members of the Senior class and the faculty, at the Grand hotel in Nebraska City. The gathering was held in a private dining room of that popular hostelry, the trip being made in cars. A most pleasant time was had.

Attended Red Cross Convention
Miss Augusta Robb of Union and Mrs. Henry A. Tool of Murdock departed early last Sunday morning via auto for Chicago, to attend the national convention of the American Red Cross, which was held in the windy city the fore part of this week. The trip was made in the car of Mrs. Tool, she stopping here to pick up Miss Robb. Both ladies are officers in the Cass County Chapter, and, when they left, were looking forward to a most pleasant trip and the receiving of much valuable information at the convention. They also planned to take in some of the sights while there, returning home the latter part of the week.

Victor Jourgeson Better
Victor Jourgeson, the driver of one of the stone trucks, who was so seriously ill with pneumonia and who was taken to the hospital in Omaha, has been showing good improvement and was able to return home on last Sunday, so Elmer Withrow, his father-in-law, and Frank Bauers, went to the hospital and brought the young man home. While he is safely over his severe illness, he is still very weak and it will be some time before he is able to resume work.

Mrs. T. T. Smith Very Ill
Mrs. T. T. Smith, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is still in a very critical condition and is being cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Alexander. The age of the patient, coupled with the nature of her illness, makes her case a most serious one, with slight hope held for her recovery.

Home from the West
Mrs. William Barritt, who has been spending the entire winter in the southwest at the home of her son, Dr. J. L. Barritt, of Oatman, Nevada, and at Los Angeles during the coldest part of the winter, returned to her home in Union last Friday and was pleased to see her many friends here again. While Mrs. Barritt was away, she enjoyed the very mild climate which that section of the country affords and while at Oatman was high up in the mountains, as it is a gold mining town which Dr. Barritt serves.

On her return, Mrs. Barritt was accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. L. Barritt, who came to visit with her mother, who resides in Nebraska City, for a few weeks.

Attends Medical Meeting.
Dr. R. R. Anderson, local physician and surgeon, took a plane from Omaha Wednesday evening to Kansas City, Mo., to attend the American Medical association convention, Thursday and Friday. It is gratifying to have a local doctor interested enough to attend the national convention and realize the great significance of these sessions in individual medical advancement.

While there he will be a guest at the Pickwick hotel of Dr. N. F. Hicken who will give a very interesting paper at the session.

Inflated or ordinary dollars—either kind will still buy most if expended in your home community, where a part is retained to help meet the tax burden and other community obligations.

FUGITIVE CAPTURED
After disappearing from the transient camp north of this city, December 21, 1934, Lester Cole, is being held at Gallup, New Mexico. Cole on leaving here stole a truck belonging to the camp and which was later found abandoned near Fairbury, but the man made good his escape. He had started to Omaha with a hundred dollars worth of canteen receipts and indorsed work checks and was last seen as he drove out of the camp. He is being held by the New Mexico authorities for return back to Nebraska.

DOING VERY NICELY
The many friends of Miss Bernese Kaffenberger will be pleased to learn that she is doing very nicely at the Nicholas Senn hospital at Omaha. She is recovering from the effects of an operation for appendicitis and is doing just as well as possible and it is hoped can return home in a short time.
Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hild and children, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were here Sunday to spend the day with Michael Hild, father of Emil and also at the Moore home near Murray.

HOLDING EXAMINATIONS
From Wednesday's Daily
This morning and afternoon the office of Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent, was a very busy place with some forty-two seventh and eighth grade pupils of the county schools here for their examinations. The students are from this section of the county largely as there are other examinations conducted at several points over the county.
Miss Florence White of Omaha was here Sunday to visit with her sisters, Register of Deeds Miss Lillian White and Miss Georgia White.

TO OPERATE CAFE
Kenneth Sullivan, a former Plattsmouth boy, who has been located in Nebraska City for some years, is to again make his home here. Mr. Sullivan has been operating a restaurant and lunch room in Nebraska City with his brother, Herman, and they are now closing the deal for the purchase of the Chick's cafe on South 6th street. Mr. Sullivan is expecting to start the operation of the cafe on Saturday if possible. The many old friends will be pleased to welcome Mr. Sullivan back to the old home.
