Enroute, she stopped in Union for a brief visit with her friend, Mrs. Fannie Eikenberry, the two ladies enjoying a very nice visit together.

Cass County Night at Ak-Sar-Ben
Cass county and southeastern Nebraska night at the Ak-Sar-Ben den show will be Monday night, June 8. Ak-Sar-Ben is increasing the courtesies extended to the citizens of the neighboring realm.

Instead of inviting the people in to the den show alone on the Monday nights during the racing season, they extend a cordial invitation to make it an Ak-Sar-Ben day and attend the races in the afternoon, as well.

To those who wish to see the races and show both on the special day for Union, you may get the special ticket entitling you to go to both from your local ambassador, P. F. Rihn.

No children will be admitted to the show or races.

The state and federal tax of 25 cents will have to be paid by those attending the races, as this charge cannot be waived by the Ak-Sar-Ben officers. Admission to the den show is absolutely free, however.

Commencement Thursday

The commencement exercises of the Union schools was held Thursday at the parlors of the Baptist church. The speaker was John Jimmerson, a noted school man and former candidate for state superintendent, who once resided here. He was accompanied by his wife, and they were pleased at the opportunity of being able to visit with former friends here.

Married Last November

Announcement was made during the past few days of the wedding of Miss Rutheda Dysart and John Fusner, of Omaha, which occurred last November. The ladies of the Baptist church honored the bride with a shower on Monday of this week, at which time she was presented with a large number of beautiful and useful gifts.

Union Ball Team Wins

The Union ball team went over to Dunbar last Sunday, where they engaged in a game with the team of that town and were winners by the close score of 3 to 2. Those who saw the game, say it was a good one.

The Union kittenball team is scheduled to play a game with the BREX team at Plattsmouth Friday night and expect to play a South Omaha team in Union this coming Sunday.

Having Trouble with Eyes

W. A. Frans, a cousin of D. Ray Frans of Union, who is engaged in business at Perry, Iowa, where he has been located for some time, has been having trouble with his eyes, and was compelled to go to a hospital in Des Moines last week. He underwent an operation there for the removal of a pus sack from behind each eye. His condition is reported as very serious and it may not be possible to save his eyesight.

The two men and their families had been contemplating a visit with other relatives in Missouri early this summer, but their plans will have to be deferred for a long time at least.

Constructing Street Crossings

Joe Dare, the cement worker, who has in hand the construction of crossings for the streets of Union, is not finding the matter such easy sailing. He has finished one crossing four times, smoothing it up nicely, only to find a short time afterwards that the surface had been all roughed up, and has had to go back and do it over again. Joe says this is most discouraging, and he would like to lay hands on those who did the dirty work.

Hold Meeting in Country

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church are meeting this Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gobelman in the country, where they expect to enjoy a splendid time, as well as doing some of the work that demands their attention.

The Absent Minded Educator

There have been a good many gags told on the absentmindedness of the typical school professor or teacher, and just recently there has come to our attention a case where such absent mindedness nearly wrecked a wedding, of which members of the teaching force in the schools of an eastern Nebraska town were participants. Everything had been arranged for the wedding of these two educators (no names mentioned) following the close of the school year. They had even prepared a home in readiness to return to, going to Lincoln for the wedding, which was scheduled for last Saturday night.

On arrival in the capital city, it was discovered the bride-to-be had forgotten her wedding garments, especially the beautiful and costly wedding gown that was to adorn her as the ceremony was being performed. Not thinking of it until some two hours before the time set for the wedding, the belated discovery caused much consternation and worry. The telephone was invoked and a long distance call sent to have the garments picked up and brought into Lincoln. To further complicate matters, at the other end of the line, the keys could not be found to get into the domicile, which had been securely locked to guard against intruders. After much scurrying around, keys were secured from a hardware store, the house opened and the missing garments secured. Then came a fast automobile dash to the capital city to deliver the dress, with arrival there just in the niche of time, as the hour for the ceremony was rapidly drawing near.

Never did a bride-to-be make so rapid a lightning change in attire as this one, appearing just a minute before the wedding march was to begin. While it was a close call, all went well and the wedding came off on scheduled time.

Spoke at Memorial Services.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor and Mrs. Lena Hoback were over to the Wabash cemetery last Sunday where Rev. Taylor made the address at the services as he has for a number of years. There was a large number of people there with the Elmwood band and the Murdock band to supply the music, a firing squad from the Elmwood American Legion was also present and fired salutes over the graves of the soldier dead.

Married in the Open.

On Saturday last, at the Arbor Lodge park, now a state park, was united in marriage Miss Dorothea Suduth of near Avoca and Mr. Wilber Downs of near Weeping Water, in the presence of a wedding party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Suduth and family, family of the bride, and Mrs. Nettie Downs and daughter, Winona, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lindsay and Mrs. Arlin Burrill who witnessed the ceremony which united the young people. Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union read the marriage lines.

Under the spreading branches of the trees of the park and with the birds singing, the beautiful sunshine peeping through the branches of the trees, painting a picture of happiness and joy, made a most perfect setting for the happy event. It was very impressive and a beautiful scene to start out on a journey of happy married life under such circumstances.

Graduates from 8th Grade.

The eighth grade graduation exercises were held at Plattsmouth on Saturday, May 23rd. Among those to receive a diploma was Betty Ann Baker, who accomplished the eighth grades in seven years with an average of 90 1/2 in her final exams. She also holds the distinction of being Cass county's champion speller. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker.
