

MURDOCK ITEMS

William Westfall was looking after business matters in Murdock last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Frances Lawton departed on last Wednesday afternoon for Lincoln, where she has accepted a position.

Mrs. Lottie Rosenkrans, of Plattsmouth, was looking after business matters in Murdock for the county on last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey McDonald were visitors in Lincoln last Wednesday, driving over in their auto to look after business matters.

The Hitchcock family of Havelock paid a short visit at the L. Neitzel home, after returning from their vacation at Long Pine, S. D.

Dr. Edward Meredith and wife of Omaha, friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Weddell, were callers at the Weddell home here for a short time last Friday.

Frank Isaacs, of near Manley, was a visitor in Murdock while on his way to Lincoln to look after some business matters, stopping here to see Joe Johnson.

Charles Schaeffer was a visitor in Elmwood last Wednesday, being called there to look after business matters for the Trunkenzoll Oil company, of which he is an employee.

Mrs. James Mills had the misfortune to stumble over some playthings in the yard and hurt her foot. The injured member was treated by Dr. Lee and is much improved at this time.

A. J. Neitzel has purchased the 80 acre farm of Mrs. Pauline Crawford, who resides in California. This piece of land, coupled with the home place, will make him an excellent stock farm.

Joseph Johnson was called to Lincoln last Wednesday afternoon, going to make the purchase of a stock of confectionery for the new cafe and sweet shop which he has just opened in Murdock.

Homer H. Lawton has been making some signs for the new cafe and restaurant which Joseph Johnson has opened in Murdock. Mr. Lawton also did the work of papering and decorating the interior of the place.

Herman R. Schmidt, who, despite his seventy-four years of age, has a lot of pep, has just cut down some trees and converted them into firewood, working steadily at the job during the severest of the recent hot weather.

Mrs. Mary Utt was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Gordon and family, in Omaha, over the week end. On her return home, she came via Havelock and visited for a day at the home of her son, Diller Utt and family, who reside there.

Mrs. Stackistie has been rather poorly of late and has been confined to her bed for a number of days. Mrs. Henry Heinemann has been looking after the aged patient during her illness, nursing her and also caring for the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were at Cedar Creek on a fishing trip and found the fishing very good, being able to catch a fine string, some of which they gave to their friend, Fred Stock, Sr., who is a lover of fish dinners and was well pleased at receiving them.

Douglas Tool, who has been attending summer school at Lincoln, has completed his training there and is now at home awaiting the opening of the school year in September, when he will go to Atlanta, at which place he is to be superintendent this year.

Mrs. Clara Kroh and her daughter, Miss Pauline, who has a position as teacher in the schools here, expect to move to Murdock about the first of the coming month. The Kroh family were residents of Murdock a number of years ago when Mr. Kroh was in business here.

Meredith Weddell, who has an abscess on his nose, was over to see Dr. Lee and to have the growth lanced, but it was not far enough along, so he returned to Lincoln, where he is employed and where his services are greatly needed, expecting to come back again when the abscess is ready for treatment.

Henry Becker, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murdock Wednesday of last week, looking after the purchase of old corn, especially that grown in the pre-drouth year of 1932. The grain will be used for seed. The matter of securing suitable seed corn this coming spring promises to be a serious one, as there has been little quality corn raised during the past three years and those having old corn suitable for seed will be able to command a good price.

Visiting Here from West

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kuehn and son, Gerald, of Fullerton, where Mr.

Kuehn is farming this year, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Murdock for a couple or three days during the past week. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Kuehn while here. They say crops are in slightly better condition in that part of the country than here

Home from Hospital

Miss Helen Bornemeier, manager of the Murdock telephone exchange, after numerous and repeated attacks of appendicitis, went to the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln last week and after a critical examination and treatment it was decided it would not be advisable to operate at this time. Miss Helen has returned home and is feeling much better.

Schools to Open Sept. 7th

The Murdock schools are to open for the current year on September 7, and everything is now in readiness for the opening bell. A supply of coal for the winter has been stored in the bunkers ready for use when the first cold spell arrives. The caretaker, John W. Kruger, has everything in readiness and the faculty have all been selected. They are David E. Olson, superintendent, Elmer Miller, Mabel Van Berg, Eloise Pool, Blanche Anderson, Violet Johnson, Leona Krall and Pauline Kroh.

Finds Gold Rimmed Glasses

Junior Dean, while delivering a shipment of cream to the depot, found a pair of gold rimmed glasses. The owner can have same by proving property and paying for this ad. Call at Dean's Store.

Remodeling Telephone Office

The telephone office at Murdock is being remodeled and some important changes made therein by Henry Heinemann, the carpenter. In addition to this, various changes in the equipment are being made by employees of the telephone company.

Kittenball Results

Last Tuesday night, South Bend defeated Callahan, 8 to 2 in the opening game, while the Bible school aggregation won over the Lutherans, 4 to 1, in the second.

New 126 Foot Well

During the prolonged drouth many of the wells in Cass county have been severely tried to supply enough water for man and farm beasts or have gone entirely dry. That at the home of Albert Schroeder was one in the former class, making it necessary to have another well drilled. The new one was sunk to a depth of 126 feet and carries about 45 feet of good cold pure water that pumping tests have been unable to lower any perceptible amount. Mr. Schroeder is well pleased with the new well and the seemingly inexhaustible supply of water it contains.

Many Attend Star Meeting

Members of the Order of Eastern Star at Elmwood who reside in and near Murdock have a part in most of the activities of the organization, and at their meeting of last Tuesday evening, Mrs. Hannah McDonald, Mrs. Henry A. Tool and Mrs. I. C. McCrorey, all of this vicinity, comprised the committee on entertainment. Among those present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kupke, of Grand Junction, Iowa, who had driven here from their home for a visit, they being former residents of this vicinity and fellow-members of the Elmwood chapter.

Says Crops Better in Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kupke, of Grand Junction, Iowa, were visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity several days during the past week, enjoying their trip back to the old home community very much. They were accompanied here by three children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rueter, who reside but a few miles from the farm of the Kupkes, Gladys, Velma and Bennett. The Rueter children will remain for some time and will attend the Green-Rueter wedding Tuesday of this week. Mr. Kupke reports crop conditions in their part of the country as being much better than here, the oats making 45 bushels to the acre, while there is promise of a very fair yield of corn.

Callahan Church Notes

F. C. Weber, Pastor
A very beautiful and impressive service took place in our church when a class of nine young people were asked the questions of the catechism of the church. Extreme quiet and peace seemed to abound within the church as the simple and holy service was carried out by the pastor, and no doubt everyone present was reminded again of the time

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, puffiness under the eyes, feel nervous, miserable—all upset. Don't delay? Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

DOAN'S PILLS

when they were members of such a class. All of them confessed Christ as their Saviour and came into the church membership.

The man without religion has no hope or sustaining power in the days of adversities. Go to church somewhere.

Speaks at Convention

Rev. Otto Engelbreitson, pastor of the United Brethren church at Nehawka conceived the idea of holding a prayer convention at Nehawka, which was held last Wednesday with many ministers attending, among them being Rev. F. C. Weber of Murdock, as well as L. Neitzel, who was on the program for an address.

Opens New Business

Joe Johnson, who has been engaged in farming a few miles east of Murdock on one of the Stander places, with the drouth staring him in the face concluded he would find some other line of business instead of farming and so has opened a cafe and confectionery in the Oscar McDonald building in Murdock.

He will serve meals, short orders, ice cream and soft drinks, also carry a line of confections.

The new place of business was opened last Saturday and found an abundant demand for the hamburgers which they dispense, both then and on Tuesday night at the ball game.

In these times, engaging in business for oneself is not always a profitable venture any more than tilling the soil, but hope springs eternal in the human breast. There is need for an establishment of this kind in Murdock and we trust Mr. Johnson will find his new endeavor both pleasing and profitable.

"Bedroom Beauties"

The girls 4-H room club of Murdock met at the home of Marjorie Zink on August 6 in preparation for the afternoon which was spent at South Bend. Marjorie Zink, the leader, was absent, so Margaret Pool took charge.

For transportation, Eunice Kuehn and Elsie Knaup furnished cars. Ellen Zink, Mrs. Wm. Knaup, Anna Louise Knaup and Alice Kuehn were visitors. Four members were absent.

A short business meeting was held, after which all members went into the water. A 5 o'clock delightful luncheon was eaten, then the members explored the park.

All members are to meet at the home of Margaret Pool on August 17 in preparation for achievement which will be held at the home of Velma McBride on August 20. Mothers are urged to be present as well as any others who are interested.

BLAME LIGHTS FOR ACCIDENT

The blame for the auto smashup on Thursday night, north of Nehawka, is laid on bright glaring lights, the parties in the wrecked cars state.

The one car was driven by James Davis of Auburn and who had with him his daughter, Alice and William Connor, while Walter Wunderlich was the driver of the other car.

Alice Davis had most of her teeth knocked out, injuries to her nose and right leg and a possible fractured jaw.

Davis' face was lacerated and his right leg bruised, while William Connor of Auburn, who accompanied Davis, sustained a broken right arm and lacerations on the face.

DETAINED BY ILLNESS

Word has been received from Dr. and Mrs. H. G. McClusky that they are delayed in their return home in time for the services at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday. They reached Cleveland on the return trip but owing to the condition of Mrs. McClusky it was necessary to make a stop there to have her given medical attention for her infected foot.

RUTH, THE AMIABLE MOTHER

By L. Neitzel

This little gem (the book of Ruth) is wedged in between some momentous chapters of wars and tragedies. Even in those tumultuous times we find people through whom God could work out his plans. A famine is to be the cause of the emigration of a family from Bethlehem into the land of Moab. Father, mother and two sons. Their sojourn was intended to be but temporary—until the famine was over. But their plans came to naught because the father died. The sons, grown young men, married Moabitish women. This seems strange for those "dyed-in-the-wool" Jews to marry outside their own race; but it fits into God's plan to amalgamate the human race.

As time goes on, it would seem that the nemesis was pursuing them, because the two young men died. Now there are three widows left. Ten years have passed and Naomi has word from the home country that the famine is over and God has given her people bread. So she resolves to go back. It is with a sad heart that she visits the three graves that hold all that which was dearest to her; yet, the hardest part is before her—saying goodbye to her two daughters-in-law.

These young women had learned to love Naomi. Orpah is persuaded to remain in her homeland, but Ruth would not listen to reason. She was determined to go on with Naomi—and did. Her resolution is often used as a text at church weddings. It has the right ring to it. If every bride would enter into her new life with a like resolve, our divorce courts would have to shut up shop. (Read here Ruth 1:16-17).

She found no occasion to regret her choice. It pleased God to honor this young woman, who was now thoroughly converted to the Jewish faith, became the great grandmother of our Lord.

If one would look for the romantic let him read the book of Ruth, only 85 verses in four chapters. It is a love story without a peer. It is real thrilling to follow Ruth, who, by the advice of Naomi, finds herself a husband; and then see the happy ending of this story that began with a famine; then the tragic death of the three men, leaving three widows, all poor with no means of self-support, then the return to Canaan, the remarkable ways by which God took a hand in the affairs of this young woman, who at last is happily married to a wealthy man, becomes a mother, is congratulated by her neighbors, who had learned to love her. They had a great jubilation when the boy was named. Boas and Ruth called his name Obed, who was the grandfather of King David.

Much of the sweet character of David, as revealed in the Book of Psalms, he must have inherited from the amiable grandmother. Who can read the 19th Psalm, also the 23rd and 103rd and find not that simple childlike trust in God, the exaltation and the soaring of the spirit into the realms and the presence of the God he knows and has learned to trust?

Jehovah's promise that he would visit the sins of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation, but would show mercy unto the thousands of them that love him... was fulfilled in Ruth.

GIVE NEWLYWEDS CHARIVARI

Friday evening a party of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Elliott, north of the city to tender their charivari in honor of their marriage a few days ago.

There was a very large group present and a great deal of pleasure was derived in the evening of visiting and with games to assist in the passing of the hours.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served to add to the pleasures of the evening.

Those attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. Trively and daughter, Virginia, Miss Kathryn Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. James Ault and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Will Renner, Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Baumgart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Renner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ferris, Mrs. Albert Stokes, Mrs. Marie Richards and children, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Green and family of Ralston, Miss Lila Jean Elliott and Miss Phyllis Westerlund.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Emerson Wiles, 6 son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiles, was brought home from Omaha Friday afternoon where he was operated on at the Methodist hospital for the removal of his tonsils. The lad came through the operation nicely and it is hoped will soon be able to resume his usual activity.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of expressing our deepest heartfelt appreciation of all of the acts of kindness and words of sympathy in the recent loss of our son and brother. We especially wish to thank all those who took part in the funeral service.—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Engelkemeyer and Family.

VISIT AT OMAHA

Mrs. H. F. Hendricks and Mrs. V. C. Hendricks were shopping and calling on friends in Omaha Friday.

Cass County Has Six Boys at the CMT Camp

Program of Training Proving a Real Benefit and Enjoyed by the Young Men at Camp.

Fort Crook, Neb.—Cass county is represented by six candidates at Citizens Military Training Camp at Fort Crook this summer. William C. Armstrong, Charles E. Bennett, John J. Cloldt, R. P. Rehal and John R. Twiss are basis or first-year candidates and Harvey B. Eggeing is a white, or third-year enrollee. Another representative is Chaplain Ernest Baker, on active duty at the camp.

This year there are 534 candidates in camp, an increase of 103 over the enrollment in 1935 and 302 more than the summer of 1934.

After several days of organization and basic training in the school of the soldier, the candidates are now settled to a fixed routine for the duration of the camp which lasts until the end of the month.

From the time they roll out of their bunks at 5:30 a. m. the candidates have their day all planned for them. The schedule includes formation of Reveille, policing the camp area, morning mess, platoon inspection, physical training, drill, lunch, lectures, athletics and formation for retreat. After the evening meal at 6 p. m. the boys are at liberty to seek their own amusement as long as they do not leave the limits of the reservation. A recreation tent provides facilities for reading and writing and the post theater offers two shows each evening. Occasional dances are held for the candidates at the Service Club.

Wednesday and Saturday afternoons are holidays as are Sundays and afternoon passes may be secured. Overnight passes require the written request by the boy's parents or guardian to his company commander. On Sunday church services are held for both Protestants and Catholics. On August 2 every candidate in camp, except a few on overnight pass, attended church at either the post theater or the Catholic church at Bellevue.

Either regular army or reserve officers are in charge of the candidates at all times.

POLICE HAVE BUSY TIME

From Saturday's Daily: Last night and early today the night police force was busily engaged in rounding up parties that had paraded well but not wisely of the beverage that cheers and causes people to go places.

Officer David Pickrell discovered a man named Sherman Hathaway from the vicinity of Murray suffering from an overdose of liquor and he was taken in to rest up from the effects of the ordeal.

Officer Roy Stewart has suffered a severe injury to the right hand as the result of the experience of arresting Paul Griffin, a river worker who resides on a quarterboat near this city. The man had acquired a great deal to drink and had desired to be taken back to the boat, when the time came for the journey he was deep in slumber and it was impossible to arouse him. Officer Stewart was finally called to the scene this morning about 4:45 and while attempting to arouse Griffin the man hauled off and struck the officer, who responded and with the result that the small bones of the hand were fractured.

ARRIVAL OF LITTLE DAUGHTER

From Saturday's Daily: The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Meisinger, west of Myard, was made very happy last night by the arrival of a fine little daughter. The mother and little daughter are doing nicely and the event has brought the greatest happiness to the little brother and the proud father. The little lady is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Meisinger and former Mayor John P. Sattler of this city.

RETURNING FROM LINCOLN

Superintendent and Mrs. L. S. Devoe and family, who have been spending the summer at Lincoln, are returning to take up their home here. Mr. Devoe has been engaged in work at the summer school of the University of Nebraska in charge of a group of the students. He will at once start in on the last details of the opening of school.

ST. PAUL'S SOCIAL

The St. Paul's Sunday school will have an ice cream social and cafeteria supper the evening of Aug. 19. Everyone welcome. d&w

HOLD PICNIC PARTY

One of the pleasant social events of the summer season was held Friday evening at the Country club west of this city, where the members of the large group that had been in the beauty pageant gathered for a treat.

The event had been planned to honor the successful choice of the pageant and accordingly Miss Bette Bullin was the honoree.

The girls had come with dishes of dainties to add to the general supper that was served in picnic style at an appropriate hour and made an event that all will long very pleasantly remember.

After the picnic supper the members of the large group were entertained at the Cass and Ritz theatres, while after the performance the members of the party proceeded to Garfield park where they enjoyed a mid-night supper from the dainties that had been left over from the picnic.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Friday evening the members of the Birthday club of which Mrs. M. S. Kerr is a member, met at the Kerr home to enjoy a most pleasant time in the observance of the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Kerr.

The members of the group spent the time in games and at which a great deal of pleasure was derived and the occasion made complete by the serving of very dainty and delicious refreshments.

In honor of the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Kerr were presented with a gift of remembrance from the friends and associates.

In the games Harry White and Mrs. John Palacek were winners of first prize and James Rishel and Mrs. Harry White, the winners of the consolation.
