DEATH OF YOUNG WIFE

From Wednesday's Daily
The community was profoundly shocked this morning to learn of the death of Mrs. Tony Katheser, 19, which occurred at 10 o'clock at an Omaha hospital.

Mrs. Katheser was taken to Omaha a week ago Monday and operated on and seemingly had been doing very well until late Tuesday night when her condition became worse and death followed this morning.

The deceased lady was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Groves of Tobias, Nebraska, and was married in February to Mr. Katheser at Geneva, Nebraska, the young people coming direct from that city to Plattsmouth where they have since made their home.

During her residence here she has made many friends who will join with the family in the deep sorrow that her passing has brought.

The funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed awaiting the arrival of the members of the family.

HAVE FAMILY REUNION

Sunday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering in honor of the members of the family who have been visiting here from California. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rebal and family and Fred Rebal. The occasion brought all of the children here with the exception of Raymond Rebal of Great Falls, Montana, and George Rebal of Iowa City. The time was spent in visiting with the various members of the family group and the opportunity of greeting the visitors who leave today for their home in the west.

Those who enjoyed the event were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rebal and children, Harold and Shirley of Montebello, California; Fred Rebal of Santa Monica, California; James Rebal, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rebal, Frank Levings, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Couch and son, Jack, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rebal and children, Jane, Ronald and Mary Jo, and Mr. and Mrs. James Rebal of this city.

Alvo Schools Prepare for the Season Opening

Supt. L. M. Hauptman Will Head School System for Third Year—Outline Course of Study.

With the beginning of classes on Monday, September 7, Alvo Consolidated school enters its second year under the 6-6 high school organization system which proved valuable to the community last year and was adopted for another year by the board of education.

The five regular school buses will make their routes so that school may take up at 8:40.

Two changes have been made in the faculty of last year. Miss Edith Carlson of Oakland will have grades 3-4 and Joe J. Jarson of Homer will coach and teach mathematics, science, and manual training.

Other high school teachers include Miss Melba Shoemaker of Odell who has the work in home economics and Ray C. Meyers of Greenwood who teaches English, Latin, and typewriting.

Miss Marjorie Arn whose home is at Plattsmouth will return for her third year. She will have grades 5-6. Miss Olive Maxson of Lincoln will have grades 1-2 again.

Superintendent L. M. Hauptman will head the school for the third year. He handles all the social science work in high school.

A new course, Junior Business Training, will follow a course in bookkeeping in the upper mathematics field. Public speaking and business English will be included in the English program. Courses in manual training, home economics, and typewriting will also be offered besides the regular academic work. Mr. Larson is adding power machinery to the manual arts shop.

There will be opportunity given for the organization of classes in boys' home economics and girls' manual training if demand warrants.

Music, penmanship, and art are departmentalized in the lower six grades with one teacher in charge of each throughout the grades.

Extra-curricular activity will include: A boys' glee club, a girls' glee club, and a band in the music; a physical education class for girls and one for boys; a dramatic club; and a newspaper staff which issues a school paper once each month. All of these are maintained during the school day.

Basketball, baseball, track, and tennis are held out of regular school hours. A regular convocation will be held on each Tuesday morning.

Under the six-six organization the seventh and eighth grades are enrolled in the high school with no loss of their regular class work and two or three subjects are added to their curriculum. This type of organization is being adopted each year by an increasing number of the small high schools of the state and proves very satisfactory.

FISHERMEN IN TROUBLE

The fishing game ain't what it used to be was discovered by a party of Omaha people who were caught fishing at the Louisville lakes in several brands of violation of the rules and regulations set forth by the state game commission.

The parties were notified to appear before Judge C. L. Graves here and have the matter adjusted and accordingly they were on the spot last evening to have their cases heard. The complaints were filed by H. C. Mapes, deputy state game warden.

Julia Henderson and Mary Kasada, were arraigned on the complaint that charged that they were fishing without the proper license, entering a guilty plea to the charge and they were accordingly given fines of $1 and costs.

Mose Yousem, also of Omaha, was charged with having in his possession fish less than the legal length. He had made an attempt to escape from the officers and as the result was given a fine of $10 and costs for his offense, totaling some $20 which was settled.

C. A. Robirds, also of Omaha, was charged with fishing without a license and drew down a $1 fine and the costs of prosecution. Mr. Robirds entered a plea of not guilty to the charge, but the officers claimed that he had a pole fishing when arrested.

From Wednesday's Daily
Mrs. E. H. Wescott attended the South West Conference of the Iowa D. A. R. yesterday in Glenwood.

Virginia Bieri spent a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris of Union.

BEDROOM BEAUTIES

The Bedroom Beauties of Murdock held their achievement program on August 19 at the home of Velma McBride. Three mothers and eight visitors were present. Five members were absent and this cut the program rather short. The program consisted of a saxophone solo, a team demonstration and a heart-shaped ceremony.

This day completed the 10th meeting, with all members completing their work 100%.

Miss Baldwin was present with the Misses Violet and Lucille Hadley of Nehawka. Violet with Velma McBride will represent the Girls Room at the state fair. Mary Pool is the alternate. These three with Miss Baldwin judged pillow cases, bed spreads, curtains and pictures.

In the late afternoon a delicious luncheon of ice cream and cake was served by Mrs. McBride and Velma. MARION BARDEN, News Reporter.

Music to be Featured at the Fall Festival

Many Bands to Be Here to Add to Program of the Four Day Festival This Fall.

There probably won't be much corn to show at the King Korn Carnival this fall, but the committee has gone far enough now to say that there won't be a dearth of entertainment and music for this year's program. Two fine bands have already agreed to come—the Farmers Union band of 26 pieces and the Peru Normal band of 40 pieces. Both bands were here last year and gave some splendid music and we are very fortunate to secure them again this year.

There will be a grand coronation ceremony of the King and Queen on Wednesday night, followed by a Coronation Ball. There will be a children's parade, bigger and better than ever. There will be another big Farmers Day and on Saturday the 26th Rural School Day, in charge of Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent of schools, which promises to be the best ever.

On Saturday evening is planned a huge old-fashioned square dance, one block long. R. Foster Patterson has promised to be our platform director again, which guarantees everything will be conducted properly and smoothly.

There are several other features about the program which are yet in the making, but we can promise you now a program undimmed by drought or depression. Plan now to clean up your work and be ready to enjoy these four wonderful days, Sept 23 to 26, inclusive.

HAS GOOD PROSPECTS

Charles Long, residing east of this city on the Iowa side of the Missouri river, was here Sunday, motoring over in company with Mrs. Long and Mrs. Hattie Kirker, mother of Mrs. Long, who has been visiting with them for a short time.

Mr. Long reports that he will have some very good corn on the bottom lands despite the drought and which will run close to thirty-two to thirty-five bushels per acre and of good sized ears. The melon crop in that section has also been excellent.

The Long family also visited at Louisville with his father, John Long, who has been suffering from a severe infection of his hand, he is now doing very nicely, the many friends will be pleased to learn.

RETURN FROM VACATION

From Wednesday's Daily
Clerk of the District Court C. E. Ledgway and William Roy Holly, of the H. M. Soennichsen Co. store, returned last evening from their two week's vacation in the west. They motored through the Black Hills country and into the Yellowstone national park where they spent a short time, then turning back to the sun baked areas of Nebraska. They stopped at Imperial where Mr. Holly was located some years ago and had a fine time visiting with the old time friends in that vicinity. They also stopped at Omaha to enjoy the state convention of the American Legion, this annual event being made a feature of their outing and which was very much enjoyed.

Helene Perry, Maxine Cloldt, and Mrs. Edgar Wescott returned Tuesday afternoon from Stevens Point, Wis. They had taken Mrs. Carter Strand home from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tidball.

UNION ITEMS.

Henry Heebner, of Murray visited in Union a short time Monday.

W. B. Banning and wife, of Lincoln, visited over the week end at their home here.

George A. Stites was looking after business matters in Nebraska City Monday afternoon.

Clarence Yonker, Clyde Porter and Elmer Withrow made up a party that attended the rodeo at Sidney, Iowa, last Friday.

J. B. Roddy and John Morris were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Maugay last Sunday, enjoying a fine dinner there.

Frank L. Anderson and wife and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morris made up a party that attended the rodeo at Sidney, Iowa, last Friday.

Mrs. M. Lynde, mother of Mrs. L. R. Upton, came down from her home in Lincoln for an over Sunday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Upton.

Miss Mabel McGinnis, mother and brother, who have been away for a vacation, returned home last week. Miss McGinnis is a teacher in the schools here.

Mrs. Jennie Frans and party, who were visiting at the E. H. Riggs home at Brewster, returned home last week, having enjoyed a most pleasant visit there.

Former Superintendent J. S. Marsell and wife passed through Union one day last week while en route to the west, where Supt. Marsell is to teach the coming year.

Frank Vallery, of Omaha, was a business visitor in Union last Saturday, and while here was a guest at the home of W. H. Mark and wife, old friends of the Vallery family.

Vesta Clark, manager of the Murray telephone exchange, and O. W. Finney, of Auburn, were both guests of Mrs. Finney last Sunday, and also attended the church dinner at the Baptist church.

Mrs. Stewart Earles, who has been making her home at O'Neill, arrived in Union for a visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ida Roddy. She was accompanied by the children and they are enjoying a very pleasant visit here.

Mrs. Ralph Davis, son Paul and daughter Catherine were in Lincoln last Sunday, where they visited with the husband and father, Ralph Davis, who is a patient at the Veterans' hospital. They report him as getting along nicely.

Wayne Ackley and son, Verle, were over near Norfolk, where they secured the goods of Obie Pickering and transported them to a farm near Kansas City, where Mr. Pickering and family expect to make their home in the future.

Mrs. George Stites and Gwen arrived home Monday evening from a most delightful trip to the northwest. They visited the L. J. Hall and Darwood Lynde families in Snohomish, Wash. After such a pleasant vacation it is a little difficult to adjust themselves to Nebraska heat.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Roddy, of Hastings, were Sunday guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Roddy, enjoying a visit with his sister, Mrs. Earles, who is here from O'Neill for a visit. They returned home early Monday morning in order that Pat might get back to his work on the road as a traveling salesman.

Here from Colorado

Uncle George W. Leech and wife, who have made their homes at Arriba, Colorado, during the past five years, being engaged in farming until this spring, when they moved to town, arrived in Union Sunday evening for a visit of a couple of weeks and have enjoyed meeting and visiting with their many friends in this part of the country.

Forty-Nine Years in Union

D. Ray Frans was born in Missouri and came to Factoryville more than a half century ago, residing there for a few years, and when the railroad came to Union, with his parents, who were in business at Factoryville, moved here to reside exactly 49 years ago. Ray says many things can happen in 49 years and sure he is right. Much water can run under the bridge in that time, when the seasons are not too dry.

Home from the West

Mrs. George A. Stites and daughter, Gwen, who have been visiting in the west for the past thirty days, guests at the home of a sister of Mrs. Stites residing at Snohomish, Washington, and other points in the northwest, returned home this week. They report a most pleasant visit and were well pleased with the agreeable climate. Miss Gwen expects to enter school in the near future.

Union; Carl Wessell and family, of near Nehawka, Curtis Dickson and family of Fremont and Ralph Roddy and family of Omaha, gathered at one of the parks in Omaha last Sunday, having an abundance of good things to eat, and there enjoyed a family gathering and a very fine dinner. They returned home in the evening.

Celebrated Birthdays

Mrs. Moss McCarroll was passing her natal day last Saturday, and their daughter, Mrs. Nels Tadson, was to have a birthday the following Monday, so they combined the dates and enjoyed a celebration of the two events at the home of the daughter last Sunday, having a very fine dinner and a good time.

Rev. Kunkel and Wife Here

Rev. N. D. Kunkel and wife, who are now located at Plainview, where Rev. Kunkel is pastor of the Methodist church, visited friends in Union for a short time last week, being guests at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snodgrass. From here they went to Weeping Water, where they visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kunkel, and later went on to their home via Lincoln, arriving in time for services last Sunday. They report a severe drought in that part of the state, which has left corn stunted in stalk growth until in many places it is not high enough to even be worth cutting for ensilage. U. S. 20 highway is being oil coated both east and west of Plainview and there is much other road work being done up there to provide employment for drought-stricken farmers.

Enjoyed House Party

At the home of Herman F. Comer there were gathered during the past week a goodly number of relatives of Mrs. Comer, who came from many places to hold a family reunion. The affair extended over a number of days and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present.

Sewing Queens Meet

The last meeting of the 4-H club Sewing Queens, was held with Miss Lucille Gruber on Friday, August 21st. The entire afternoon was spent making patch exhibits to be shown at their Achievement day program to be held Friday of this week, August 28, at 2 o'clock, at the Baptist church. The public is cordially invited to attend this exhibit.

Made a Hurried Trip

John S. Chitester, who is employed by the Missouri Pacific, was a brief visitor at Hamilton, Illinois, on last Sunday, driving over and back in his car. He made the trip to get his daughter, Bonnie, age 11, who had been spending the summer vacation with relatives there, bringing her back with him in order that she might be ready for the opening of the school year next Monday, August 31st.

Dinner for Departing Pastor

The Baptist church congregation tendered a farewell reception and dinner in honor of their pastor, the Rev. George Downing, who is soon to depart for Philadelphia to continue his theological studies. While the church had the matter in hand at the start, it spread into a community affair and there were more than 150 present at the dinner which was held in the church parlors. An appropriate program was rendered, members of the Methodist congregation also joining in the festivities.

The two churches of Union get along wonderfully well together and have joined in union services during the summer and otherwise fraterternized with one another in true brotherly manner.

Played at Masonic Home

The Union orchestra, composed of a number of the fine musicians of this vicinity, went to Plattsmouth last Sunday and put on a very fine concert at the Masonic Home for the residents of that institution. They were accompanied by Rev. George Downing, who spoke briefly to the members of the home.

Guests at Frans Home

Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans and Jimmie enjoyed a visit during the day last Sunday from Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore and son, John, who with the folks had dinner at the Baptist church, where all enjoyed the evening. They were also well pleased at a visit from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dovey and their daughter, Miss Hazel Dovey, who is home now for her vacation, she having a teaching position in Cleveland during the school year.

Death of Former Citizen

George Albert Rose, former citizen of Union and business man of some 50 years ago, when the railroad first came this way, passed away at his home in Coleridge, Nebraska, last Sunday. He had resided in Coleridge for many years and would have been 89 years old this coming November. The funeral was held on Tuesday with interment in his home town, beside the remains of his wife, who died many years ago.

Mr. Rose was one of the very first citizens and business men of Union, coming here when the town was first organized and the now ghost town of Factoryville was being moved here, being associated in business with a Mr. Wymers. He came here from Nebraska City more than a half century ago, and is remembered by some of the old timers here.

HERE FROM NEHAWKA

Henry Knabe, one of the well known farmers of the Nehawka community, was in the city Monday afternoon and evening looking after some matters of business. Mr. Knabe was accompanied by his son, Edward, who was called here to attend to some matters of importance.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, August 30th

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Beginning of World Missions"

Acts 11:19-21; 13:1-12.

The church, in her short existence, is breaking out over all bounds and barriers; she could not be confined in "old bottles;" new wine belongs in "new bottles." (See Matt. 9:17). The young giant is stretching itself; the confines of Palestine are too small! Phoenicia, Cyprus, Antioch—northward; Cyrene—southward and Seleucia—westward. A short 17 years have passed, and the church is ready for world-evangelizing—foreign missions. Persecutions have performed their part. The devil overplayed his hand; what was expected to destroy the church became the means to spread the fire. That was a sad mistake when Stephen was killed, because that brought Saul of Tarsus to the fore. He was Stephen multiplied a hundred times. So does God turn what is often thought to be a calamity to his glory and the furtherance of his plans.

The Bible student must get up with Moses on Mount Nebo, then to the top of Pisgah, and take a view of the land that the church shall take, possess and bring to the Christ. "Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession." (Psalm 2:8).

"And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and Kings to the brightness of thy rising." (Isa. 60:3).

"And he shall set up an ensign—the cross of Christ—for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth." (Isa. 11:13).

With this introduction, we will now study details. First, we see the founding of the church at Antioch. Two cities are named in the New Testament, 'Antioch.' One is Antioch in Syria (the one of our lesson); the other is Antioch in Pisidia, in Asia Minor. The scattered disciples of Christ from Jerusalem traveled as far as Phoenicia—north of Palestine—a Roman province with cities of Tyre, Sidon, Beirut and Tripolis; west to the Island of Cyprus (35,000 square miles). Here were many Jews.

Antioch was reached by these traveling preachers; they confined their message only to Jews. But those Christians of Cyprus and Cyrene were more liberal and preached to the Greeks the Lord Jesus. It is interesting to note all through the book of the Acts that the disciples and apostles carried a message, not of philosophy, or of social betterment, or of political revolution, but one that centered in Christ Jesus, the Lord, and had to do with the wonderful redemption offered by God, through him. And great success crowned their efforts.

No one person is named as the founder of this church. But Jerusalem heard of the gracious work, and they sent a good man—Barnabas —a native of the Isle of Cyprus, to investigate and "when he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad." (Acts 11:23). This big hearted man saw that it would take a strong and wise leader to build a strong church; and he knew the man who could do it. So, away he goes to Tarsus to bring Saul to take charge of the work. Was he led by the Holy Spirit? For a whole year this team worked in Antioch with great success. And the name "Christian" was coined here by the enemies of the church, being adopted by her as very appropriate, even to this day.

Now the time had come to launch the enterprise. Its success would depend on the men selected, so, in order that no mistake be made, the Holy Spirit took charge of the matter. As there was the proper material to select from (for there were five candidates: Barnabas; Simeon, called Niger; a black man, Lucius, from Africa; Manaen and Saul). Barnabas and Saul were selected for the work of opening the new field.

Contrary to the custom of today, when we send missionaries forth with a farewell banquet, a veritable spread of good things to eat, they fasted and prayed, laid their hands on them—the other three—and dedicated them for this service.

Question: Why has the church departed from this beautiful custom? Should not men always be "called" by the Holy Spirit for this high and holy office? There would be fewer misfits in the profession.

Westward moved the star of Christ's Empire, to the seaport of Seleucia and Cyprus, their destination—the home country of Barnabas. How happy he must have been to bring his own people the precious news that "God so loved, that he . . ."

(John 3:16).

Beginning at Salamis, the eastern port, they go the length of the island until they reach the western end at Paphos—a great preaching tour.

At Paphos a great battle is fought between the powers of darkness and light, and "light" won the day. We urge you, teachers, to describe this important scene. Here Saul assumes the leadership and changes his name to Paul. Barnabas and Saul—now Paul and Barnabas.

The first convert of Cyprus and this tour is a high Roman officer. Was the punishment inflicted on Elymas too severe? He was blind for "a season," which gave him time to repent. Paul was blind three days before the light shone in his soul. That was a glorious beginning of the new venture.

"We have heard a joyful sound; Jesus Saves! Jesus Saves. Spread the tidings all around; Jesus Saves! Jesus Saves! Bear the news to every land; Climb the peaks and cross the waves! Onward! 'Tis the Lord's command Jesus Saves! Jesus Saves! Sing ye islands of the sea; echo back ye ocean caves; Jesus Saves! Jesus Saves!
