

Nehawka

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein visited friends in Lincoln last Sunday, driving over in their car.

Fred Geade and wife and their son Kenneth spent the day Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kruger.

Mrs. A. G. Cisney and daughter, Maurine, were in Nebraska City last Saturday, where they visited friends and looked after some shopping.

The Nehawka kittenball team went at Oteo last Sunday for a game with the Oteans, which was won by the latter by the very close score of 7 to 6.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore, of Murray, who is commander of the Nehawka Legion post, has been attending the state Legion convention in Omaha this week.

The Oteo county fair, at Syracuse, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, will be attended by a considerable number of Cass county people.

Henry Heebner, of Murray, visited his old friend, A. F. Sturm, last Monday. Mr. Heebner was formerly manager of the Farmers Union elevator here.

Sterling Harris, who resides north of Union, visited in Nehawka and while here made the purchase of a Farmall tractor which he will use in handling his farm work.

A. G. Cisney was in Omaha with his fat hogs, which brought a very good price. While there he bought some feeder cattle, which he brought home and has placed in his feeding lots.

John Murdoch, Jr., has received an offer to play the accordion over the air from radio station KFNF at Shenandoah, which he will accept. His friends will be listening for his excellent music.

Albert Anderson and family and John Steffens and children were at Lorton last Sunday, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of Mrs. Anderson and Mr. Steffens.

Verner Lundberg and two sons and Clifford Trotter and one son were at Sidney, Iowa, Friday of last week, where they attended the closing day of the rodeo, which they enjoyed. A record breaking crowd was present that day.

Garvis Goodman, who has been located at Marshalltown, Iowa, during the summer, having work in the stone quarries there, spent the week end in Nehawka with his folks. He reports much work in the vicinity of Marshalltown.

A. J. Ross and family and Miss Lannie McReynolds, postmistress, were at Sidney, Iowa, Friday, for the closing day of the rodeo. Although it was very hot, they enjoyed the show, which was attended by a record breaking crowd.

Sam Brooks of Plattsmouth has been chopping wood on the farm of C. R. Troop, doing the work on a share and share basis, from which he will get a plentiful supply of fuel for the winter, which, by the way is now just around the corner.

Clarence Kintner and wife, of Idaho were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Chapman, of Nehawka, and also at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kintner in Weeping Water during the past week. Mr. Kintner reports crops very good in the west.

Rev. W. D. Gage, a former Nehawka minister in years gone by, was a visitor here for a short time while passing through, finding but few of the old friends he had known in the days of his pastorate here. He was accompanied by a daughter and granddaughter.

C. R. Troop and wife and Mrs. Minnie Troop, who spent some time in the mountains, on their way home came via Kearney, where they visited Mrs. George Troop, who is receiving treatment for her health. They report she is showing good improvement and has an excellent place to stay.

George Troop and brother, Tommy, were over to Kenneth McCarthy's last Sunday for a visit. They were surprised at the excellent condition of the corn crop which Kenneth has raised on his land located on the Missouri river bottoms, and which they say will yield 40 bushels or more to the acre.

Stuart Rough, who has had his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Benson and her two daughters here all summer, took them to their home in Iowa City Monday and will visit there a few days before returning to his home here. The schools there open this coming Monday, August 31st, when the children will go back to their studies after a most pleasant summer vacation.

Celebrated His Birthday

On last Saturday, Charles D. Keltner, who has been a citizen of Nehawka for many years, was passing his 78th birthday anniversary, and while he has led a very active life, he is still hale and hearty and able to get about with agility, ready to do a good turn at any time for anyone. Here's to you, Uncle Charley, and may you live to see many more happy birthdays.

Many Attend Legion Convention

A goodly number of the American Legion members of Nehawka attended the state convention in Omaha this week. The convention opened Sunday and closed Wednesday afternoon. District Commander W. H. Kruger and wife were there for the full time, Marion Tucker was over Sunday night and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nitzman were there during the fore portion of the week.

RETURNS FROM COLORADO

Attorney D. O. Dwyer has returned home from an outing spent in the coolness of Colorado Springs and Manitou where the crisp and pleasant evenings were most refreshing. He has enjoyed a splendid vacation relaxation and returns well prepared to take up the work of his professional demands. Mr. Dwyer is an enthusiast at "shuffleboard" and which is extremely popular among the tourists in the western resorts, there being a large number of courts there and which are constantly in demand by followers of the sport. Mr. Dwyer reports that that section has had a very nice rainfall in the past few weeks and which with the coolness has made that section a delightful spot.

Murdoch Now Has Automatic Telephones

Mayor of Murdoch Cut Wire That Transferred the Exchange from Manual to Automatic.

The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company's exchange at Murdoch was cut to automatic service on Tuesday, August 25. Mr. Otto Miller, mayor of Murdoch, cut the wire that transferred the exchange from manual to automatic operation, and made the first call over the new system to General Commercial Superintendent H. F. McCulla, at Lincoln. Members of the Murdoch city council, leading citizens and telephone company officials from Lincoln were present.

Work of preparing for the cut-over has been in progress for several months, under the general supervision of District Manager J. H. McKinzie, assisted by automatic exchange experts from Lincoln. The eighty-one subscribers to telephone service in Murdoch will now enjoy the most modern and up-to-date equipment it is possible to secure. Their telephone system is of the type to which all the larger cities of the country are rapidly turning.

DEFEAT WAVERLY, 3-0

In a thrilling finish of the postponed Saturday match, the Plattsmouth tennis team defeated Waverly 3-0 Tuesday afternoon.

Seldon Davey came into the game to win the second set 5-7. But Ray Larson, with his steady game tired his opponent and took the final set 6-2. Seldon offered little resistance after the fourth game of the third set. Scores were 6-2, 5-7, 6-2.

In a decided reversal of form, James Will came back to win the second set 7-5. Luther Powell had match point three times during the ninth game. Will managed to keep hanging away and finally took the second set. More tense minutes followed in the third set. Powell again held set point twice in the twelfth game and again Will nudged out a victory, winning 8-6.

With Plattsmouth holdin a 2-0 advantage, Waverly decided they could find cooler recreation than a third match.

Plattsmouth's next match will be with College View. The game will probably be played Sunday, according to officials.

NEW FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

W. M. Baxter, midwestern branch manager of the American Red Cross from St. Louis, announces the appointment of Mr. John C. Samp as field representative for Nebraska chapters, replacing Mr. L. M. Williamson, who has been transferred to the war service staff, as field director, at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Many Nebraska chapters are already acquainted with Mr. Samp by reason of his work in the state as an associate of Mr. Williamson. Prior to this assignment, Mr. Samp was assigned to Iowa where he successfully served many chapters.

The Cass County Chapter welcomes Mr. Samp and will hope to have him in the county this fall.

ATTEND RODEO

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nielsen, daughter, Maxine and son, Russell, with Jerry Halter of Lincoln, were among the Cass county people to attend the rodeo at Sidney, Iowa, the last of the week, one of the largest events of its kind in the west.

From Wednesday's Daily John T. Porter was a visitor in the city today where he was called to look after some legal matters and also visiting with the many friends in this city.

Pre-Opening Institute Plans are Announced

Session for Cass County Teachers to Be Held Saturday, August 29 at the Court House.

Pre-opening institute for Cass county will be held August 29 at the court house. Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent of schools announces the program for the teachers.

Dr. R. W. Eaton of Omaha, author of the Eaton speller, will have charge of the reading and English. Mrs. Magdalene Picken, author of the new book on art for the rural school, "Stepping Stones in Practical Art," will give instruction in methods of applying her book in the schoolroom. Miss Jessie Baldwin of Weeping Water plans to talk on hot lunches and 4-H health work in the rural school. Both are valuable additions to the rural school in recent years. Mrs. Fred Gorder, also of Weeping Water, will explain the educational department of the Cass county fair.

The Fullerton plan of teaching music with new songs for the coming year is to be the theme of the musical program. Mrs. E. H. Westcott of Plattsmouth will take charge.

Due to an accident, Miss Cloe Baldrige, state director of rural education, will not be able to talk of the Course of Study. Miss Peterson will give points on this phase of the program.

Sessions begin at 9 a. m. Saturday.

GIRLS ROOM CLUB

The Mynard Girls Room club held its achievement day Tuesday, August 25 at the Mynard Community building. There were 21 present. The girls had planned a clever program which was enjoyed by all.

The curtains were judged. Dorothea Fulton, first; Maxine Nielsen, second; Willene Rusk, third.

The pillows were judged. Dorothea Fulton, first; Mary Helen Dill, second; Maxine Nielsen, third.

Mary Helen Dill's color chart received first; Maxine Nielsen's second and Dorothea Fulton third.

When the dresser scarfs were judged Dorothea Fulton received first and Maxine Nielsen second.

Dorothea Fulton received first on her furniture. She had made a delightful little dressing center.

At the close of the afternoon the girls served a delicious luncheon.

The girls have all enjoyed their club work this year and have made some very useful things. They are looking forward to another club and more good times next year.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

From Wednesday's Daily A short play under the direction of Mrs. R. B. Hayes, chairman of the program committee, was given at the meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom was hostess. Mrs. Frank Barkus reviewed an article from the missionary magazine. Devotionals were led by Mrs. V. C. Wright. During the afternoon the "mite" boxes were opened. Each member keeps one of these boxes in her home and drops into it pennies or other small contributions for missionary work throughout the year. They are opened annually.
