DETECTIVE THEME AT PARTY

From Tuesday's Daily:
Finger prints and photographs entered into the entertainment at the Epworth League party at the Methodist church last night. The detective theme was carried out in the evening of games. The party was given as a farewell to members of the League who will leave for college soon. Mary Kay Wiles, Kathryn Armstrong, and Harold Stewart had charge of the entertainment. Mamie Schweneker headed the committee on refreshments.

VISITS RELATIVES HERE

From Monday's Daily
Mrs. W. D. Darrow, of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, who has been visiting with her aunt and cousin, Mrs. Walter J. White and Miss Mable, is departing today for her home in the south. Mrs. Darrow is a daughter of the Rev. George C. Betts, first rector of the St. Luke's Episcopal church in this city and has made her home in the south for a number of years. She goes from here to New York City for a visit before going on to her home in North Carolina.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, September 6th By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Turning to the Gentiles"

Acts 14:8-13, 19, 20; Romans 10:8-13.

As there are epochs in the lives of men, communities and nations; so there are epochs in the Kingdom of God and in the church. Our lesson must be approached with that thought in mind, as referred to in our last lesson. The time had come that "the tiding of great joy should come to all people." (Luke 2:10).
The movement was on; the men had been chosen; the way opened; a beginning had been made; the occasion was at hand. God's prophesy is soon to be fulfilled that Paul must "bear my name before the Gentiles." (Acts 9:15). The inner urge drove Paul and Barnabas from Cyprus to the continent of Asia Minor and on this circuit they visited Perga, Antioch. Here the crisis developed (the teacher must rehearse Paul's first sermon, Acts 13:16-47). "We turn to the Gentiles" is the outcome. The die is cast, there is no turning back; the Jews rejecting God's overtures for mercy, the Gentiles "were glad." (See Acts 13:46, 47).
The redemption for the race wrought by Jesus Christ must fulfill its mission; if one does reject it—another will accept it.
Antioch is in Pisidia on the river Anthios. Latin was the language. Paul passed a second time through Antioch on his way to Perga and Attalia (Acts 14:21). Leaving Antioch, the apostles came to Iconium, a very prominent city; here they preached in the synagogue to the Jews and God-fearing Greeks; a great multitude believed—very effective preaching. That is the secret of preaching that prevails and that wins; the preaching that is authoritative, definite, positive and without apology. But trouble was brewing and the apostles thought it best to depart. So the Holy Spirit led these preachers into new unevangelized territory. Was the work in Antioch and Iconium in vain? No! God gave these people their chance. So does every man get his chance—if he accepts the Gospel, he will be a happy child of God—if he rejects Christ, he goes to his doom! God is justified when, as a last resort, he must tell man: "Depart from me, ye cursed." (Matt. 25:41).
And now we come to the miracle at Lystra. This was probably the city of Timothy, and it is almost certain that on his first missionary journey he became a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, for on his second visit, he is called a disciple. (Acts 16:1). Here Paul finds an impotent man, who had never walked. This man heard Paul preach, possibly speaking of Christ as the great Healer. Paul observing his interest in the sermon; he fastens his eyes on

CLEVER COOKING CLUB

We met at the home of Katherine Ulrich. Ruth Schafer and Wilma Livingston demonstrated making a cake. The business meeting followed. All were present except one member. We answered the roll call by naming our favorite cake. A short business meeting was held. We made plans for our picnic. A short achievement program was held. Delicious refreshments were served by our hostess. Visitors were Mrs. Earl Murdock, Mrs. Henry Dickman and Miss Frances Sack. Our mothers were also present at this meeting.

WILL WITNESS GAMES

Tuesday evening Fred G. Morgan departed for St. Louis where he will spend a few days visiting with relatives and friends and as well witness the New York Giants-Cardinals series. Fred is a very enthusiastic baseball fan and will enjoy very much this crucial series which will have an important bearing on the outcome of the race for the national league pennant.

Death of Mrs. Susan Bates, an Old Resident

Dies Sunday Afternoon at Advanced Age of Eighty-six Years—Here Many Years.

The death of Mrs. Susan Bates, 86, a resident of Plattsmouth for the past seventy years, occurred Sunday at the family home on west Pearl street, death coming as the result of the gradual inroads of her great age. Susan Ellen Miller was born at Wellington, Clinton county, Ohio, and when a girl of fifteen years came west with her family to Nebraska, they making the trip in covered wagons to the then little known west where the Indians still disputed the advance of the white civilization of the east. The year following her arrival here Miss Miller was married to Peter D. Bates, a young veteran of the Civil war, just recently discharged from the service. The family have since made their home in this community, both being loved and honored figures among a large circle of friends. Mr. Bates passed away some twenty years ago.

Mrs. Bates was active through the years in the Rebekahs as well as the Woman's Relief Corps and in which orders she held office for a great many years.

In her youth she affiliated with the Christian church and remained a member of that faith until her death.

There is surviving the one daughter, Mrs. Charles Hiatt, of Twin Bridges, Montana, three grandchildren and five great grandchildren. There are also five sisters and one brother to mourn her passing, Mrs. Etta Elliott and Mrs. Katie Curtis, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Hannah Colbert and Mrs. Margaret Stewart, Ashland; Mrs. Jennie French, Canyon City, Colorado; Charles A. Miller of Brunswick, Nebr.

The funeral services for Mrs. Bates will be held at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets.

VACATION DAYS IS THEME

The vacation days of the members of the Plattsmouth Rotary club again claimed the attention of the weekly luncheon of the organization Tuesday. The meeting was under the leadership of R. W. Knorr, who presented the various speakers of the program.

Dr. R. P. Westover detailed the various points of interest that he and the family had enjoyed in the Minnesota lake country and the places of interest that they had found in the northland, which despite the drought that had visited this, as well as other sections of the country, had afforded a most pleasant place for the summer outing.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, who with Mrs. McClusky, had spent a month in the New York mountain country, told of the general characteristics of the section where they had sojourned. This section of the country is popular with the residents of the New York cities and many of the summer comes are found in that part of the state.

The club, in appreciation of the service that they had received at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt, who are retiring from the management of the cafe where the luncheons have been served, presented Mrs. Moffitt with a very attractive bouquet of roses.

RETURN FROM OUTING

From Tuesday's Daily
Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Kahoutek returned last evening from a very pleasant outing in Denver and other points in Colorado. While at Denver they were guests of Joseph Kahoutek and family and Mrs. Toul Williams, a niece of Mr. Kahoutek. They also enjoyed a stay at Pueblo for a short time and while there met Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hula and son, Billy, who were there on their outing. Mr. Kahoutek reports that crops in the central and west part of Colorado are excellent and vegetation nice and green, gardens being especially fine. Mr. Kahoutek on reaching here from the outing received word to report at his work at Sedalia, Missouri, and he will leave for that place this evening to be at his duties Wednesday.

LEAVES FOR OREGON

Monday afternoon Louis Kopischka departed for Portland, Oregon, where he will visit with his brother, Carl Kopischka, Jr., and may decide to locate in that city for the future. He has been engaged in the past year in the river improvement work.

Local Netsters Lose Hard Fought Tennis Battle

In Grueling Four Hour Struggle Larson and Will Lose to College View—Doubles Decide.

Due to a misunderstanding as to who was in charge of Lawlor cup play, in Gregg McBride's absence, the local netsters were forced to play in Lincoln.

The College View team was victorious over Plattsmouth 2-1, but not before they were within one point of losing it three times.

The match was a thriller and ding-dong affair throughout. As Gregg McBride said: "Every kind of shot you have ever heard of was seen in the doubles match."

Jim Will lost a very well played match to Bob Harrison, University of Nebraska player, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3. Jim fought an uphill battle all of the way and at no time during the three sets was either player sure of victory until the end.

Ray Larson outplayed Bernie Warren in the other singles, 7-5, 6-4. This match was an interesting match to watch. Many long volleys featured the play.

The real thriller was the doubles play. This was the deciding match to determine the winner. In the first set College View won easily, 6-1. But the second set was a long drawn out affair, which Plattsmouth won 15-13. For a long time it was Plattsmouth winning Larson's and Warren's serve, and College View winning Harrison's and Will's. The break that cost College View the set, was Larson's losing his serve, then Plattsmouth won Harrison's serve and also Will's and Warren's.

The third set was very well played, College View winning it 7-5. In the tenth game, Plattsmouth had advantage and match-point three times, but couldn't quite put it across.

College View meets the Pierce team next Sunday featuring the Calvert, Al and John, former Plattsmouth residents.

TO RESUME SCHOOL WORK

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning Everett Ward departed for Franklin, Nebraska, where he will take up his work as teacher of mathematics in the high school at that place. Mr. Ward was for several years an instructor in this branch of study at the McCook high school and a year ago was forced to take a leave of absence owing to his health. He has since been here at the home of his sister, Mrs. Agnes Moore, and is now feeling much better and will take up his work in the teaching profession. Mr. Ward is a graduate of the Plattsmouth schools and has made a very brilliant record in his teaching work.

Mrs. C. S. Stone, who has been visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Mary B. Allison, left Monday for her home at Hastings.

Meedames Martha Lynn and Merle Becker were in Plattsmouth Monday, where they looked after business matters for a short time.

Melvin Todd has been very busy cutting and storing ensilage, having put in two large pit silos both of which will hold some 240 acres of fodder.

Henry Born and wife of Plattsmouth were guests last Sunday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Todd, where all enjoyed a very fine visit.

W. B. Banning and wife, of Lincoln, were in Union last Saturday night and remained until the following day, when they returned to their home in the capital city.

Mrs. D. Ray Frans was a guest of her old time friend, Mrs. G. S. Upton, who makes her home in the country on the farm where Earl Upton farms, on last Friday.

Miss Nola Banning and Miss Pearl Banning were visiting last Wednesday at Alvo and Lincoln, returning in the evening after having enjoyed a very pleasant day.

Howard Peterson was selling and delivering corn to the Stites elevator Monday of this week, the current quotation being $1.08 per bushel, and not much offered at that.

A fine eight pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Saunders last Saturday. The mother and babe are doing nicely and happiness reigns supreme.

Mrs. M. Lynde, who has been visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. L. R. Upton, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Ray for a few days during the past week.

Mrs. C. E. Withrow, of Palmyra, came over to Union and with her daughter and husband, departed for Red Oak, Iowa, where they attended a reunion of the Withrow family during the day.

Rue H. Frans and family, of Syracuse, were guests last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jennie Frans and Mrs. Rose Kendall, as well as with D. Ray Frans and family, enjoying a fine visit while here.

George Burdette and wife, who reside in the northern part of the state, arrived in Union last Saturday night and visited here over Sunday with their many friends, they having resided here in years past.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keedy, of Ashland, were visiting here the first of the week, and on Monday in company with Mrs. W. H. Porter went to Plattsmouth to look after some business matters during the forenoon.

Louis Mougay was in Omaha on Monday with a shipment of some six truck loads of very fine cattle which he had just finished conditioning in his feed lots northwest of the city, and for which he received a very fine price.

Miss Sarah Upton left Monday for Rockville, Nebraska, where she will teach during the coming school year. The schools open next week, but she was desirous of getting there in ample time to get settled and ready for opening day.

Mrs. Ruth Hunter, of Fort Morgan, Colorado, accompanied by her small son, arrived in Union last Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Meisinger and as well will visit with other relatives in and near Cedar Creek.

Mrs. E. P. Booher, wife of the pastor of the Methodist church, entertained the members of the Wyoming Aid society at the parsonage Wednesday of last week, thus postponing the regular session of the society until a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Leach, of Arriba, Colorado, who have been visiting here at the home of their son, E. E. Leach and family during the past two weeks, as well as with the many old friends, left Tuesday for their home in the west.

Miss Velma Ackley, who is engaged in taking nurse training at one of the hospitals in Omaha, spent the day Sunday here, enjoying a vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ackley. She returned in time to resume her work Monday morning.

Mrs. P. Ehlers, who resides south of Union in Otoe county, entertained a large number of friends of Miss Helen James, who is soon to marry. A delightful time was had and there was a program of interest to all, followed by the serving of some delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Fannie Eikenberry was taken with a severe spell of indigestion on Friday of last week, which caused her much pain and suffering and required the services of a physician to allay. The next day she was feeling much better and has been improving from the indisposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mapes, who reside on the state farm south of Union, arrived home last Saturday from a two weeks' vacation spent in northern Minnesota, in the lake country of the Minnesota backwoods, where they found the weather cool and refreshing and fishing good.

John Banning and wife, of Alvo, visited in Union last Sunday, being guests at the homes of Miss Pearl Banning and Joe Banning. They all went to Riverview park at Nebraska City, where they enjoyed a fine picnic dinner and remained in the shade for the afternoon, having a very nice time there.

Eugene Roddy, the mail carrier out of Murray, has been making some improvements to his home in Union, including excavation of a suitable basement for the purpose of installing a furnace for heating the home. The excavation is now completed and the balance of the work will be finished soon.

The members of the Methodist Ladies Aid society met at the church parlors Friday of last week, having a very worth-while meeting with a large crowd present. Mrs. L. G. Todd, who is president of the organization, was called to the country to help cook for the workers, and was not able to be present.

Mrs. Harold Nickel, of Ponca, Oklahoma, arrived in Union the fore part of this week, coming for a visit with relatives and friends and to take the children back home, as they had been spending the summer here with relatives and are now returning home so they can enter school at the opening next Tuesday, September 8.

Henry H. Becker has been sinking a number of wells for the farmers on account of the water shortage and has been able to get much good water as a result, although in some cases a suitable amount could not be secured. A well that will supply sufficient water this year should be adequate at all times in the future, for a dryer season than the present one probably will never occur.

To Hold Services Sunday

The Baptist church, which has just lost its pastor, Rev. Dowling, announces services will be held this coming Sunday at the usual hour. All who are not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to come and worship with this congregation.

Departed for the East

Rev. George Dowling, who has been minister of the Baptist church here for the past few months, with the termination of his ministry here, left Tuesday morning for Philadelphia, where he is to enter theological school. He was a guest at the home of A. L. Becker and family for supper last Monday evening and on the preceding day was entertained at the home of Mrs. Martha Lynn.

Woman's Club Officers Meet

The officers of the Union Woman's club met last Friday with Mrs. D. Ray Frans to discuss plans of interest for the coming season. Officers of the club are: Mrs. Lawrence Meisinger, president; Mrs. D. Ray Frans, vice president; Mrs. Nels Madson, secretary, and Mrs. R. E. Foster, treasurer.

Home from the West

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Balfour, who reside southwest of Union, arrived at home last week from a very pleasant two months spent in touring the west. They went out through western Nebraska, Denver and Salt Lake City, from there to Boise, Idaho, on to Washington (state), Vancouver and over into Canada. They then turned southward, journeying down the Pacific coast to Los Angeles, stopping in San Francisco on their way. The return trip was made by the southern route, providing them with some wonderful sights.
