

Weeping Water

Elmer Michelsen was a visitor in Omaha Tuesday of this week, purchasing goods for his store in Weeping Water.

Mrs. Ray Fitzpatrick and daughter, Fallice, have been visiting for the past week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Albert Stock.

Wm. Joyce and wife were in Omaha last Tuesday to look after some business matters in line with their store in Weeping Water.

Mrs. Amos Cappen and her son, Hubert were visiting with friends in Lincoln for the day Tuesday and were also doing some shopping.

Mr. Thornton and family, accompanied by Hubert Cappen who have been down in Kansas for several days visiting below Topeka, returned last Sunday night, reporting the country very dry down that way.

Frank Reed and D. Elwood of Plattsmouth were in Weeping Water last Tuesday, coming to make distribution of groceries for the poor, Mr. Elwood having the matter in hand while Mr. Reed was driver of the truck.

Mrs. C. Cholker of Central City was enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ash on last Sunday and continued her visit on into the week as she has many friends here which she was desiring to visit while here.

In order to facilitate the cooking and get the work out in good time Mrs. Dora Raney has purchased and installed at her home a new Rudge and Gunzel gas range which lessens the work of cooking during the extreme hot weather.

Miss Pauline Olsen was somewhat injured when the auto in which she was riding was struck by another car which not only cut and bruised Miss Olsen, but more or less bruised the entire party who were riding in the autos. The car were both damaged, but they can be repaired better than the persons injured.

Two Weeks in the West.

Mrs. Joan Carter, following the hard work of the extremely hot season, has decided to have a little respite from the intense heat and departed early this week for the west where she will spend some ten days at Estes Park, Colorado, and enjoy the cooling breezes which pour down from the mountain country and come home reinvigorated and ready for the fall work.

Dr. W. H. Tuck Very Sick.

The condition of Dr. W. H. Tuck, the veterinarian who has made his home in Weeping Water for many years, has been quite ill for a number of weeks and while everything possible has been done he still remains very poorly at his home in the city. It is hoped that the genial doctor will soon be in better health and able to be out and looking after his usual activities.

Getting Ready for Fair.

The Cass county fair is now only a short time away, and A. H. Jones, the barber, is getting his place of business in first class condition for the visitors who will be Weeping Water's guests during the fair. Henry Lemke Jr., is painting the front of the building and getting it in read-ness for the large number of Cass county citizens who annually visit the fair.

Having His Share of Boils.

Our friend, O. O. Kimber, manager of the Maytag shop in Weeping Water has been having his full share of Job's Comforters which have attacked him from rear, front and flank. However he is getting them pretty well eradicated now.

Moved to Weeping Water.

Eugene Ludwick, who has been located at Loretta for some time where he has been engaged in the blacksmith business and who recently made purchase of the blacksmith shop of John E. Johnson during the early days of this week moved to Weeping Water and will make his home here, conducting the blacksmith shop he secured from Mr. Johnson.

Visit in Weeping Water.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sudduth and daughter, Mrs. Cecil Schall and little babe which came some weeks ago, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Askew, they being parents of Mrs. Sudduth. A very fine visit was had as well as an excellent dinner served by Mrs. Askew.

Here From Wauneta.

George Colbert and wife of Wauneta, in the western portion of the state, arrived in Weeping Water a few days ago and are visiting at the home of his brother, Eugene Colbert and family, Albert Colbert and wife of Lincoln and a sister of Mr. Eugene Colbert of Lincoln were also guests Tuesday of this week, making in a way a family reunion.

George Colbert and wife who formerly resided here and have many friends to visit. He reports that while the corn crop is not the best that some will be harvested. However their wheat crop was a good one, and Wauneta has the distinction of receiving the largest amount of wheat during the season of any town in the state. The first ten days of the receiving of this grain the bank deposits increased $125,000, and we expect they can use the money.

Has Interesting Trip South.

Dr. L. N. Kunkel, who is a man much interested in geological lore, has just returned from a trip to the Ozarks where he spent several days looking over the formation of the earth there and collecting many specimens of rocks which abound there in profusion. He enjoyed his outing very much and returned to his practice rested and ready for whatever may come.

He Wanted Stockings.

A stranger came into the Weeping Water variety store last Monday and sauntering around was observed to appropriate a pair of stockings and make a dash for a getaway. However Mamie Michelsen and Bud were too quick for him and they followed in hot pursuit and when pressed too closely he cast the stockings away. They were picked up but still they pursued the shoplifter and rounded him up. Officers were called and he was taken to Plattsmouth where he will face the courts on the charge of shoplifting.

Returned from Hospital.

Mr. S. D. Litton who has been at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln for the past three weeks where he underwent an operation, was able to return home last Tuesday. He is getting along very nicely now and expects to enjoy his former good health.

HERE FROM EAGLE

From Tuesday's Daily: George Maurer, well known resident of northwest of Eagle, was in the city today to spend a short time looking after some matters of business. While here Mr. Maurer was a pleasant caller at the Journal and renewed his subscription to the semi-weekly edition of the paper.

DIES IN MISSOURI

Mrs. Mike Glass, a former resident of this city, died at the hospital at Booneville, Missouri, on August 27th at 11 a. m. The death was caused from the effects of a fall from a hay loft at her home on April 22, which resulted in her breaking her back and severed the spinal column.

The funeral services were held on Sunday, August 30th from the Christian church at Versailles, Missouri, where she has been living for the past twelve years.

Surviving are the husband, Mike Glass, her children by a previous marriage, Albert Hunger of Kansas City; Carl Hunger, Grove, Oklahoma; Mrs. A. W. Bradway, St. Louis, Missouri; Elmer Hunger, Versailles, Missouri; also George Glass, of California; Mrs. Elizabeth Irwin, Chicago; Miss Anna Glass and Will Glass of Chicago; Paul Glass, Versailles, Missouri. There are also several grandchildren, among them Mrs. Leo Heigle of this city, as well as one great grandchild.

Mystery Mothers Revealed During Girls' Banquet

Fifty Attend Entertainment Honoring "Standard Bearers" at Methodist Church.

From Wednesday's Daily: Fifty were seated at the banquet for the Standard Bearer Missionary group and their mothers at the Methodist church basement last evening. A high point in the entertainment was the revelation of the "mystery mothers' identity to the girls. Before entering the dining hall the guests tried to guess their mothers. Announcements were then made.

White candles in crystal holders and sprays of green ivy decorated the tables. Place cards and menus were in white. Mrs. Merritt Kerr, leaders of the girls' group, gave the opening remarks for the after-dinner program. Kathryn Barkus, president of the Standard Bearers during the past year, responded. Louise Rishel played a piano solo.

The feature of the evening was "The Uncrowned King" read by Mrs. E. H. Wescott. She was introduced by Mrs. Robert Hayes, general chairman of the evening. Mrs. Hayes gave the vocal selection, "Little Girl of Mine." The puppet show, given by the girls during the afternoon, was repeated for the mothers and mystery mothers.

Mrs. Grace Perry and Mrs. Mattie Barkus had charge of the dining room.

SHOW ATTRACTS CHILDREN

From Wednesday's Daily: About 35 children attended the puppet show given in the Methodist church basement yesterday afternoon. The story of "Jack and the Bean Stalk" was portrayed by the manikins. Excitement ran high when Jack was scampering up the beanstalk just as his mother entered the stage. Another thrill came to the young audience when Jack almost failed to get into the boiler before the giant stalked into the room. The whole play was received enthusiastically.

After the playlet a negro mammy puppet danced to "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Miss Mildred Hall sang the selections, "Pale Moon" and "From the Land of Sky Blue Waters."

The puppets were made and the show presented by members of the Standard Bearer girls missionary society of the Methodist church. Mrs. Alice Andrews, teacher for the school for the deaf in Omaha, directed the playlet. She was assisted by Mrs. Merritt Kerr, leader of the girls group. Money earned on the show will be used for missionary work.

Dolls were designed by the girls, all of high school age. Louise Rishel made the mother; Jimmie Stone, the cow; Kathryn Barkus, the butcher boy; Mrs. Andrews, the fairy; Viva Palmer, the giantess; Jane Persinger, the hen; Mary Kay Wiles, the giant; Charlotte Palmer, Jack; and the scenery was arranged by Thelma Jones and Nina Andrews.

LEAVE FOR OREGON

From Wednesday's Daily: This morning Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Moffitt and family departed from this city where they have made their home for the past two years, going to Oregon where they expect to locate. They visited last evening at Omaha with friends and were here for a short time today to bid the friends farewell. They are motoring through and expect to make their home at Portland in the future.

September Brings Rain to East Nebraska

This Section of State Visited With Rain to End Drought—Twister at Dunbar.

From Wednesday's Daily: This section was visited last night by one of the heaviest rains since the spring season and which showed a rainfall of .63 for this city, the rain being accompanied by a slight showing of hail but which did no damage.

The storm was heavier south of this city and at Dunbar the storm reached the proportions of a small twister, doing damage and injuring two persons. The storm there swept about the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reese, demolishing the house and causing injuries to the husband and wife and which made necessary their being taken to the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City. Reese suffered a back injury while Mrs. Reese was cut and bruised in the escape from the house.

Reports from the district near this city are that a very fine rain fell and which will do a great deal of good to the pastures and vegetation and place the soil in shape for working.

LOCALS

From Monday's Daily: Mrs. Lorene Cummins and children returned Sunday to Cedar Creek. They have been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cummins.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Reynolds of Creighton, Marjorie Ann Littold of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Nickles of Murray visited yesterday with Mrs. Fannie Crosser and Miss Etta and Lee Nickles in Plattsmouth.

From Tuesday's Daily: Mrs. Edna Shannon, who is employed in the register of deeds office, is spending the latter part of this week in Weeping Water.

Mrs. Grace Bainbridge and daughter, Genevieve, of Lincoln and Mrs. Max Hockery of Denver spent Sunday at the John Alwin home.

Robert Hall left yesterday to spend a few days in Lincoln. He is making preparations for entering the University of Nebraska this fall.

Mrs. Don Foote and Mrs. Charles Walquist of Hastings spent a few hours in Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon visiting Mrs. Edna Shannon.

Miss Florence Nelson of Lincoln is spending this week with her friend, Miss Wilma Pickard. Florence was formerly a Plattsmouth girl.

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Worley, returning to their home in New York City, stopped yesterday at the home of Mrs. V. V. Leonard and Miss Verna for a short time.

Mrs. May Morgan, who has spent the summer in Plattsmouth, returned to Omaha this week to visit with her daughter before returning to her school duties in Burlington, Ia.

Mrs. Genevieve Goodman Russell, granddaughter of Mrs. Susan Bates, and her son from Glacier Park, Mont., and Mrs. Minnie Hiatt, also of Montana, have come to Plattsmouth for the funeral services of Mrs. Bates today.

From Wednesday's Daily: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves and daughter, Maxine, left this morning for Kansas City. Mr. Graves will have an examination at the hospital there.

George A. Kaffenberger, who has been visiting at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with a daughter, has returned to his home here. He had a most delightful trip, going by car from this city in company with another daughter, Mrs. C. A. Spacht and family of New Rochelle, New York.

AFTERNOON SESSION OF CASS COUNTY INSTITUTE

Mrs. E. H. Wescott introduced new songs for the 1936-37 term of the rural schools at the Saturday afternoon session of the Cass county teacher's institute. Under the Fullerton method of teaching music, a uniform course is offered in music to all rural pupils of the county. The victrola is used in the instruction.

An outline of outstanding changes to be made in the Course of Study during the coming year was given by Miss Alpha C. Peterson, county superintendent of schools. Since the new course has not, as yet, been issued from the state department, teachers are following the old course, with only moderate changes, during the first semester.

MOVING TO DAVID CITY

Leland Briggs and family who have resided in Wahoo for the past three years, he driving the bus from Wahoo to Omaha for the Neil Motors, with the family are at present moving to David City, the bus line which he operates being extended to that point. Mr. Briggs will make two round trips daily and as the distance from David City is 84 miles this will require driving a distance of 334 miles a day. The line will serve David City, Brainard, Weston, Wahoo, Meade, Two Rivers, Yutan, Venice and Omaha.

OMAHA PARTIES WEDDED

The marriage of Miss Helen Green and Mr. Henry Koksall, both of Omaha, occurred at the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury at the weekend and was attended by Miss Edythe Lushinsky, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Robert Green, a sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride is well known here where she has visited often at the Lushinsky home and has many friends in the community who will join in their well wishes to the newlyweds.
