Cass County Girl Awarded Health Title

State Fair Judging Contests and Exhibits Reach Full Pace—Wheat Tops Grain.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 7.—Ruth Ann Sheldon of Cass county and George Gardner of Johnson county were adjudged the healthiest 4-H club members in Nebraska at the annual competition held here today in connection with the state fair.

Almost 50 of the healthiest rural boys and girls in the state competed. The day at the fair was marked by numerous contests and the judging of live stock and agricultural exhibits, both in open and 4-H classes. The second day of the sixty-eighth annual exposition attracted a crowd which Secretary Perry Reed of the fair board said equaled last year's attendance even before noon.

An official estimate set paid attendance until 6 p. m. at 19 thousand.

At the horse show tonight, the visitors watched sleek steppers pitted against each other in competition for the largest purses since this feature was inaugurated. Fair officials branded this year's exhibition as "the best yet." The horse show ends tomorrow, but the fair will continue through Friday.

Headlining the afternoon's grandstand program was the Omaha Union Stock Yards' six-horse hitch demonstration. In addition, the daily horse races were run off.

Although much of the preliminary judging of exhibits was completed today, announcement of the results on some of the entries will not be made until tomorrow, officials said. Further judging is scheduled for tomorrow, interspersed with children's day festivities.

Healthiest Groups Named.

The following blue ribbon groups in the health contest were announced by Dr. George E. Robertson: Girls—Nadine Britell, Kimball county; Lila Jones, Phelps; Evangeline Dinan, Lincoln; Laura Gabelman, Madison; Audrey Fate, Adams; and Peggy Puhrs, Dodge.

Boys—Allen Larsen, Dodge; William Wheeler, Nemaha; Verlyn Rockenback, Lancaster; Gordon Jenkins, Nance; Frank Kopecky, Douglas; and Marion Selover, Kimball.

Ellis Schlichtmeier of Cass county won the prize for the boy with the best back, and Miles Cadwallader of Furnas county was second. Gardner had the best feet, and Selover was second.

The best back among the girls won a prize for Margaret Gardner of Johnston, sister of the healthiest boy, Vera Garvis of Burt county had the best feet.

The Lewiston school opened Monday, September 7th, with 32 pupils enrolled. The teachers, Mrs. Shubert, and the pupils are very proud of the new porch and other new improvements that have been added.

The Carl Warrlik family, who moved to the state of Illinois last spring, returned recently and will live on a farm in this community the coming year. Their many friends welcome them back to the old home community, and wish them success and happiness.

Long Time Resident Laid to Rest

The Christian church was filled to capacity Monday afternoon of this week with the sorrowing relatives and friends of Charles Elmer Carroll, who had gathered to pay their last respects.

Mr. Carroll was born in Cass county and spent his entire life in and near Murray.

Charles Elmer Carroll was born in Cass county, Nebraska, near Murray, on March 23, 1860, and departed this life at his home in Murray on Saturday morning, September 5, 1936, at 3:30 a. m., at the age of 76 years.

On December 25, 1884, he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Raikes and to this union one child, Ernest Carroll, of Benson, Nebraska, was born.

Early in life he became a Christian and has held to those principles throughout his long and prosperous life in this community. He was a friend to all who knew him, and a brother to anyone in need. His passing has left a vacancy in this community which can never be filled.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, their son, Ernest, three grandchildren, Theodore, Ellen and Clarence Carroll; two brothers, John of Plainview and Wilbur, of Seattle, Washington, and a host of other relatives and friends.

A quartette composed of Mrs. Will Seybolt, Mrs. Florence Noell, Richard Brendel and Rev. C. Loyd Shubert, sang several beautiful and touching numbers. Mrs. Jake Brendel presided at the piano. Pall bearers were Fred Hild, Lon Crosser, James Gruber, Ben Noell, Otto Scotten and Alf Gansemer.

"Father" Used to wonder just why father Never had much time for play. Used to wonder why he'd rather Work every minute of the day.

Used to wonder why he never Looked along the road an' shirked; Can't recall a time whenever Father played while others worked.

Father didn't dress in fashion, Sort of hated clothing new; Style with him was not a passion, He had other things in view!

Boys are blind to much that's going On about 'em day by day, And I had no way of knowing What became of father's pay.

All I knew was when I needed Shoes I got 'em on the spot; Everything for which I pleaded Somehow father always got.

Wondered, season after season, Why he never took a rest, And that I might be the reason Then I never even guessed.

Saw his cheeks were getting paler, Didn't understand just why, Saw his body growing frailer, Then at last I saw him die.

Rest has come, is tasks were ended, Calm was written on his brow; Father's life was big and splendid, And I understand it now.

—Edgar A. Guest.

Out of town relatives and friends present at the funeral included Mrs. Clifford Showing, Nellie Randolph, Mrs. P. W. Will Carroll and Mrs. Wakenite, of Omaha; Mrs. Heisel and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor, of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. McGill, of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. Stout, of Benson; Ted Denker, of Elkhorn;

Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Allen, a nephew of Central City, and Mrs. Rena Tennant, a niece, of Miami, Florida.

Christian Young People to Meet

The young people of the Christian church in Murray are planning a rally which will be held at the church next Sunday evening, beginning at 6:30 p. m. Any young people who are interested are invited to attend. A covered dish supper will be served. Each one is asked to bring a covered dish or sandwiches.

An interesting program is being planned by the pastor.

Young People Entertain

The young people of the Presbyterian church entertained the young people of the South Omaha church at the Murray church on last Sunday evening. Fifty were present to enjoy the fun and study. After study of the lesson, the evening was turned into a social meeting, and what is a social meeting without plenty of fried chicken? There was fried chicken and there was fried chicken, in fact so much fried chicken that two very large and very desirable chickens were left. What became of the chickens? Ask the president.

To make the affair even more exciting, the lights went out and it was necessary to bring out an old fashioned coal oil lamp which was used for light—not lights, dear reader—for the evening.
