RECREATIONAL PICNIC Monday afternoon a very fine pic- nic was enjoyed by the members of the recreational group which has been active here in the past several weeks under the auspices of the WPA. The young people with their in- structors and supervisors were taken to the Hutchison grove at Rock Bluffs where the pleasant event was staged in the pleasant settings that this rural spot affords. Many brought their picnic dinners to enjoy. The band under the direction of Peter Gradoville, was present and gave a number of musical selections that were much appreciated and added a pleasant touch to the activities of the day. Other members of the group en- joyed a ball game and a general out- ing in the open to fittingly celebrate the weeks of their activity. Those in charge of the picnic are very grateful to the merchants that contributed lemons for the free lem- onade, the various auto agencies for the use of cars and trucks and who assisted in anyway in the success of the picnic.

Novotny Family Holds Reunion at Omaha Park

Gathering Honors Mr. and Mrs. James Wooster and Daughters of Wind- sor, Mo., Here on Visit. The beautiful Riverview Park in Omaha was the scene Sunday, Sept- ember 6th of the third annual re- union of the Joseph Novotny family, one that settled in early days in this community and have made a large place in the history of Cass county. The occasion brought all of the children except one daughter, Mrs. August Kopp of this city who was unable to attend with her fam- ily. The occasion was one honoring the visit of Mr. and Mrs. James Wooster and four daughters of Wind- sor, Mo., who have been visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Novotny, Sr., of this city and relatives in and around this city. Mrs. Wooster was formerly Miss Kathryn Novotny and she and her husband both have a large circle of friends in and around this vicinity. The beautiful spacious grounds of the park and where with the cooling breeze it made a most pleasing set- ting for this splendid yearly event. Everyone came with well laden bas- kets and the dinner served at the noon hour was the main event of the day and the tables, being very at- tractively arranged with the many tastefully prepared viands, made a fitting climax of this reunion. The tables which sat over the shade of the park were soon filled by the family group and the dinner which was served in cafeteria style was most heartily enjoyed by everyone present. The day was spent in visiting and the meeting of the members of the family and who found a great pleas- ure in the get-together. They also enjoyed the various amusements which the park had to offer. With the coming of the evening after a day of great enjoyment the happy group made their way home until next year when they all hoped to meet again for another jolly fam- ily reunion. The group this year only comprised some twenty-four members and hoped that there would be more represented next year. The affair was planned by the Novotny children and much credit is due them for the care they took to make this reunion a splendid success and one that was thoroughly enjoyed by all those who were present. The members of the party were the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Novotny, Sr., resi- dents of this city for over a half cen- tury and who had a large part in the development of this portion of Cass county. Those present to partake of the pleasant event were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Novotny, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kvaapl and children, Joseph, Maria and Francis, all of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Novotny, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Anton W. Vetsnik and daughters, Margaret, Lucille and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stanek and children, Dean and Betty, all of Omaha, Stanley Hall of Bellevue, Neb., and the guests of honor Mr. and Mrs. James Wooster and daugh- ters, Vivian, Kathryn Ann, Gertrude and Jean Ruth of Windsor, Mo. The Wooster family departed for their home in Windsor, Mo., early this morning.

PLAN TOURNAMENT

From Tuesday's Daily The Budweisers and the Donat Falstaff kittenball teams last evening staged a game at Athletic park that resulted in the Buds bringing home the bacon by the score of 14 to 11. With the close of the regular play- ing season of the softball league, the Chevies have an undisputed lead in both the first and second rounds. They are suggested as one of the teams to be entered in a tournament, along with the Donats and which would include Louisville, Malvern, Iowa, Murdock and perhaps Omaha teams. This move for a tournament is arousing a great deal of interest among the fans and players and it is hoped to have the games started in the next ten days.

Death of an Old Time Resident of County

Charles Lau, of Louisville, Member of Pioneer Family, Answers Last Summons Monday. Monday evening at his home in Louisville, Charles Lau, 76, member of one of the pioneer families of that section of Cass county, passed away. Mr. Lau retired from the farm where he has spent his youth and young manhood, several years ago and has made his home in Louis- ville since that time, enjoying the associations of the many old time friends in that community. He has been in poor health for some time and death came as the result of an illness of several months. The parents of Mr. Lau were very early settlers in the locality of the present town of Murdock and where many of the family still reside. Mr. Lau is survived by the widow, three daughters, Paulina and Aug- usta, living at home, Mrs. William Wiles of Cedar Creek, two sons, Charles and Louis, living at Ashland. The funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at the Im- manuel Lutheran church near Louis- ville and conducted by the Rev. T. Hartman.

FUNERAL OF FRANK WONDRA

The funeral services of the late Frank Wondra were held on Monday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets and largely attended by the old time friends and acquaintances in the community as well as from distant points. The Rev. V. C. Wright, pastor of the First Methodist church, had charge of the religious service and brought words of comfort and hope to the members of the bereaved fam- ily circle. During the service Frank A. Clويد gave two of the old and loved songs, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Face to Face." Miss Estelle Baird being the accompanist. Frank Wondra, son of John and Mary Wondra, was born in Bohemia, October 7, 1867, and died September 5, 1936, at the age of sixty-eight years and eleven months. He was brought to the United States by his parents when three years of age, the family locating at Weston, Nebras- ka, where he was reared to manhood. Later he came to Plattsmouth and was married here to Miss Mary Bueckacek in 1903. He worked for the Burling- ton railroad for a period of fifteen years and in recent years has been employed by Warren Tulene. Mr. Wondra is survived by the widow, five sons, James of Omaha, Louis, John, Charles, Kenneth and one daughter, Tillie, all of this city. There also survives two grandchil- dren and one brother, John, of Ells- worth, Kansas. Those from out of the city to at- tend the funeral were Tillie, Ann and Charles Ohnoutka, of Ceresco; Charles Dolezal, of Weston and John Hesser of Omaha. The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery west of the city and the pall bearers were four sons, James, Louis, John and Charles and two nephews, Paul and George Bartek.

PRESENTS NEAT APPEARANCE

The exterior of the Horton funeral home at Seventh and Vine streets, has been redecorated and presents a most attractive appearance. The main building has been finished in a tone of gray with the trimmings in white and which with the roof in a light green makes a very artistic blend- ing of the colors. It is now one of the most attractive structures in that part of the city.
