Bayer Tablets Dissolve Almost Instantly In 2 seconds by stop watch, a genuine BAYER Aspirin tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work. Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a glass of water. By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating. What happens in this glass happens in your stomach.

When you wake up with a headache, do this: Take two quick-dissolving BAYER ASPIRIN tablets with a little water. Try it this way. But ask for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN, not by the name "aspirin" alone.

Dedicate New Gym-Auditorium

The public was invited to the school house Friday evening in honor of the dedication of the new gymnasium and auditorium. A program in charge of Prof. H. E. Warren was rendered. A short address was given by a WPA speaker from Omaha, Mrs. Chas. Dyer gave a reading and Mrs. Phil Hall a piano solo. The violin quartette composed of Misses Evelyn Trunkenbolz, Lois Cope, Winnifred Lambert and Helen Maher was accompanied by Elizabeth Martin at the piano. A trio composed of Misses Wilma Birkey, Greta and Frieda Weitzel was also heard and several songs were sung by the audience.

The people of Greenwood are very proud of this new addition to the school house. It has been needed for a long time and a "Dream Came True" to many of those who were most interested.

By the aid of the government, the project began soon after school closed last spring and was entirely finished before school opened this fall. It is a brick building adjoining the old building on the west. The floor of the auditorium is 33x63 feet with bleachers along one side that will seat more than 200 spectators. The stage is 26x16 feet in size, with a proscenium arch 20 feet wide. It is equipped with footlights, headlights, wall sockets, curtains and scenery. Ample dressing rooms, with showers are also provided. A large number of steel folding chairs are included in the equipment, which are placed on racks and stored under the stage when not in use.

TVA LOSES ROUND IN COURT Nashville, Tenn.—The Tennessee valley authority lost its power program on constitutional grounds. A motion by the government agency to dismiss a suit brought by 19 electric power companies was overruled by U. S. Judge Gore. The court held that apparent statutory limitations against suing the TVA except in its legal domicile, the northern district of Alabama, did not apply in this case because of charges of unlawful acts made in the bill filed by the utilities.

IS SOME BETTER Mrs. W. M. Barclay, who has been very ill for the past few weeks as the result of an attack of neuritis, is now reported as much better and has progressed so well that Friday she was able to be around for a short time. This will be very pleasing news to the many friends of this estimable lady and it is hoped that she may soon be able to resume her usual activities.

Wabash News

P. H. Clarké has been busy getting a good supply of wood in readiness for the coming winter, which some say will be even more severe than last winter. Anyhow, it will be well to have plenty of fuel, come what may. M. R. Hunt of Lincoln was sawing some wood boe in the valley of the Weeping Water bottoms, which he is expecting to have shipped to Lincoln. John C. Browne, manager of the Farmers Elevator company has just completed painting the roof of the elevator office, using aluminum paint, which gives the place a very shiny appearance. He did such a good job, that he now thinks he missed his calling in not having been a painter.

William Patterson of near Murray was visiting and looking after business matters in Wabash last Wednesday. Among the earliest settlers of Wabash at the time the railroad was built was Stephen Hulfish, who had a store at Bushberry, a number of miles west and who moved the building and stock to the new townsite. His son, William Hulfish, accompanied him and worked in the store a number of years.

John Wood and brother, M. V. Wood, who have been hauling gravel from the pits near South Bend, had another enforced lay off last Wednesday on account of not being able to get gravel. They were promised the pumps would be in working order again the next day, however.

Bert Austin and Les Bosworth were looking after business matters and visiting friends in Weeping Water last Wednesday.

To Pick Corn in Iowa Hearing that there is plenty of corn to pick in some portions of the tall corn state of Iowa, and having completed their work here, Elmer and Clarence Rueter departed early last week for Grand Junction, where their uncle, Henry Rueter, lives, and will assist him in gathering his corn crop, after which they will pick up what work they are able to get in this line for others, before returning to Nebraska.

In the Heat of Argument John C. Browne, who is an ardent democrat, and L. R. Stanley, who is an equally earnest republican, became involved in a heated political discussion when Mr. Stanley said to Mr. Browne, by way of clinching his side of the argument: "Do you know there is not a single prominent daily newspaper in Nebraska supporting Roosevelt?" to which, after a moment's thought, Mr. Browne replied, "Don't you know the Plattsmouth Journal is for the administration?" "Well, I give up," countered Mr. Stanley.

Soon the election will be over and the heated arguments will subside while the people go about living their everyday lives, regardless of who is elected president or governor, congressman or road overseer. The ballot box is the great American way of settling these differences of opinion that crop out when matters of import are discussed, and the American public, trained in years of bowing to the majority will, is big enough to accept the result and go about making the best of it, whether it be to their individual liking or not. That is at it should be.

WILL OPEN HEADQUARTERS From Friday's Daily Carl Tefft, of Avoca, chairman of the Cass county republican committee, was in the city today in company with Frank Woods, of Weeping Water, secretary. The county committee is planning on opening a headquarters in the former Farmers State bank building, where literature will be made available to the voters and a meeting place for the republican workers be made possible.

RETURN TO CHICAGO Mr. and Mrs. O. L. York, of Chicago, returned home Wednesday after a very pleasant visit with the relatives in this section of Nebraska. They visited here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Vroman and at Omaha with the Gould B. Smith family. Mrs. Vroman and Mrs. Smith are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. York. While here they had the pleasure of meeting a number of the old time friends and neighbors.
